THE NEWS-HERALD.

WHOLE NUMBER 1,801

JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA, TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 18, 1857.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

THE PRESIDENT IN ATLANTA.

In Washington's last annual message he recommended the establishment of a national university at Washington, and especially the development of the national capital, and the support of the educational institutions of the country. The President also called attention to the great strides made in the progress of science, and the importance of the arts and sciences in the advancement of civilization. He also called attention to the importance of the country's foreign relations, and the need for the United States to take a leading role in the world.

FROM MARSHALL TO ATLANTA.

The President paid a visit to the city of Marshall, where he was met by a large crowd of people, who greeted him with enthusiasm. The President was then taken to the White House, where he was entertained by the President and Mrs. Cleveland. The President then proceeded to the city of Atlanta, where he was met by a large crowd of people, who greeted him with enthusiasm. The President was then taken to the White House, where he was entertained by the President and Mrs. Cleveland.

MEMORIAL TO SHAKESPEARE.

A Memorial to Shakespeare was unveiled in the city of London, on the occasion of the death of the great poet. The Memorial, which was erected in the city of London, was unveiled by the Mayor of the city, who spoke of the poet's greatness and his influence on the world. The Memorial was then dedicated by the clergy, who spoke of the poet's greatness and his influence on the world. The Memorial was then dedicated by the clergy, who spoke of the poet's greatness and his influence on the world.

BUNTING WHOLE NUMBER.

The Bunting Whirlwind, a national political organization, was founded in the city of New York, on the occasion of the death of the great poet. The organization was founded by a group of people, who were pledged to the principles of the poet. The organization was then dedicated by the clergy, who spoke of the poet's greatness and his influence on the world. The organization was then dedicated by the clergy, who spoke of the poet's greatness and his influence on the world.

THE NEWS-HERALD.

Special to the NEWS-HERALD.

Major-General J. B. Crittenden, of the United States Army, was appointed to the command of the Department of the South, in which the city of Atlanta is located. The appointment was made by the President, who stated that he had full confidence in the ability of the general to perform his duties.

TRAINS, WHEN CROWDED, HAVE A CAPACITY OF 2,000.

The President's party consists of the President and Mrs. Cleveland, who occupied the White House, and a large number of people, who were invited to the ceremony. The President then proceeded to the city of Atlanta, where he was met by a large crowd of people, who greeted him with enthusiasm. The President was then taken to the White House, where he was entertained by the President and Mrs. Cleveland.

NOTES.

Special to the NEWS-HERALD.

The President's party consists of the President and Mrs. Cleveland, who occupied the White House, and a large number of people, who were invited to the ceremony. The President then proceeded to the city of Atlanta, where he was met by a large crowd of people, who greeted him with enthusiasm. The President was then taken to the White House, where he was entertained by the President and Mrs. Cleveland.

THE AUDIENCE NOTING.

Special to the NEWS-HERALD.

The President's party consists of the President and Mrs. Cleveland, who occupied the White House, and a large number of people, who were invited to the ceremony. The President then proceeded to the city of Atlanta, where he was met by a large crowd of people, who greeted him with enthusiasm. The President was then taken to the White House, where he was entertained by the President and Mrs. Cleveland.

WHOLE NUMBER 1,801

MEMORIAL TO SHAKESPEARE.

A Memorial to Shakespeare was unveiled in the city of London, on the occasion of the death of the great poet. The Memorial, which was erected in the city of London, was unveiled by the Mayor of the city, who spoke of the poet's greatness and his influence on the world. The Memorial was then dedicated by the clergy, who spoke of the poet's greatness and his influence on the world. The Memorial was then dedicated by the clergy, who spoke of the poet's greatness and his influence on the world.

A BUNTING WHOLE NUMBER.

The Bunting Whirlwind, a national political organization, was founded in the city of New York, on the occasion of the death of the great poet. The organization was founded by a group of people, who were pledged to the principles of the poet. The organization was then dedicated by the clergy, who spoke of the poet's greatness and his influence on the world. The organization was then dedicated by the clergy, who spoke of the poet's greatness and his influence on the world.

THE NEWS-HERALD.

Special to the NEWS-HERALD.

Major-General J. B. Crittenden, of the United States Army, was appointed to the command of the Department of the South, in which the city of Atlanta is located. The appointment was made by the President, who stated that he had full confidence in the ability of the general to perform his duties.

TRAINS, WHEN CROWDED, HAVE A CAPACITY OF 2,000.

The President's party consists of the President and Mrs. Cleveland, who occupied the White House, and a large number of people, who were invited to the ceremony. The President then proceeded to the city of Atlanta, where he was met by a large crowd of people, who greeted him with enthusiasm. The President was then taken to the White House, where he was entertained by the President and Mrs. Cleveland.

NOTES.

Special to the NEWS-HERALD.

The President's party consists of the President and Mrs. Cleveland, who occupied the White House, and a large number of people, who were invited to the ceremony. The President then proceeded to the city of Atlanta, where he was met by a large crowd of people, who greeted him with enthusiasm. The President was then taken to the White House, where he was entertained by the President and Mrs. Cleveland.

THE AUDIENCE NOTING.

Special to the NEWS-HERALD.

The President's party consists of the President and Mrs. Cleveland, who occupied the White House, and a large number of people, who were invited to the ceremony. The President then proceeded to the city of Atlanta, where he was met by a large crowd of people, who greeted him with enthusiasm. The President was then taken to the White House, where he was entertained by the President and Mrs. Cleveland.

WHOLE NUMBER 1,801