The Swedish Sinisteress

Miss Tora New York by Shute

The story of a young woman who, through no fault of her own, becomes involved in a series of mysterious and dangerous events. The plot follows her as she tries to uncover the truth and protect herself and others from harm.

Board of Foreign Missions

The meeting at Springfield, Mass., was a significant event for the Board of Foreign Missions, as it brought together leaders from various denominations to discuss the needs and strategies for missions abroad. The meeting explored themes of cooperation, resource allocation, and the role of local churches in supporting foreign missions.

Ex-Governor Washburn

A review of the career and contributions of Ex-Governor Washburn, who served in Texas. The article highlights his role in the establishment of the university in Austin and his efforts to promote education and economic development in the state.

The Saturday Evening Post

An excerpt from the Saturday Evening Post, featuring a witty contributor known for their wit, humor, and sarcasm. The piece is a reflection on the nature of entertainment and the role of the artist in modern society.

Colored Minstrels

An article discussing the history and influence of Colored Minstrels, who made their mark on American culture in the 19th century. The piece explores their impact on music, theatre, and social commentary, as well as their contributions to the development of the minstrel show.

The Exiled Singer

The story of a musician who, after a successful career, faces challenges in maintaining a living as an artist. The tale follows their journey as they struggle to adapt to a new environment, confront new audiences, and find their place in the world of music.

Miss America

An account of the rise and fall of a young woman who becomes the focal point of attention. The narrative explores the pressures of fame, personal relationships, and the impact of the media on her life.

The True Story

The account of a man who, after years of silence, reveals the truth about his past. The piece delves into the complexities of identity, truth-telling, and the consequences of keeping secrets.

The Witch of Salem

A historical piece examining the trials and executions of the Salem witch trials. The article explores the social and psychological factors that contributed to the hysteria and the impact of the trials on the community.

What Is the Destiny of the People of Israel?

An essay reflecting on the historical narrative of the people of Israel, their journey, and their future. The piece discusses various interpretations of prophecy and the role of religion in shaping their identity and destiny.

The Swindler

The story of a con artist who uses cunning and deception to bilk the public. The narrative explores the tactics used by the swindler, the reactions of the victims, and the ultimate consequences of their actions.

The Director of the New York Tribune

An interview with the director of the New York Tribune, discussing their vision for the newspaper and the challenges they face in maintaining its reputation.

Joseph West Ridgeway

The story of a prominent figure in the field of public health, who played a significant role in the development of the field and the implementation of public health policies. The narrative explores their contributions, the controversies they encountered, and their legacy in the field.

The Great American Songwriter

A tribute to a legendary composer known for their contributions to American music. The piece celebrates their influence on the music industry and the enduring popularity of their works.

The Boston Gazette

An article from the Boston Gazette discussing the local news and events of the time. The piece covers a range of topics, from politics to social commentary, providing a snapshot of life in Boston during that period.