age, color, occupation and the location of his residence, the list for each election district being kept separate. Immediately upon closing the registration, such books shall be turned over to the Election Commissioners. Said Election Commissioners shall have free access to the registration lists of the County of Duval, with authority to make, or to have made, copies of the same, so far as they include the election districts within said city; and from the same, together with the registration of the city registration officers, shall prepare a list, in alphabetical order, by election districts, of the qualified electors authorized to vote at such city election, omitting therefrom the names of all persons who have died, or removed from said city, or are otherwise disqualified to vote, and shall publish said list one day in one of the newspapers of said city at least six days before the day of the city election, and with such publication give notice of a certain place within said city, four days before such election, where they will meet to restore any name or names to such registration lists which may have been improperly stricken therefrom; and at such time and place shall meet for that purpose, and shall restore to such list any name or names shown to have been improperly stricken or omitted from such registration list. In case the name of an elector appears in an election district in which he does not reside, the said Election Commissioners shall, upon application, transfer the same to the proper election district. The registration so revised and completed shall constitute the list of registered voters entitled to vote at such city election.

Inspectors and clerks of election.
Sec. 7,
Ch. 4498.

Sec. 81. For the purpose of carrying on and conducting each city election, it shall be the duty of the election commissioners, at least six days prior to the holding of any city election, to appoint three intelligent, discreet and fair-minded persons to be the inspectors of election and a clerk of election for each election district of said city, all of whom shall be qualified electors of the election district for which they are appointed. In making such appointments representation shall be given to the supporters of each full and bona fide ticket in nomination, so far as the same may be done within the limit of the number of said inspectors and clerk, and if the chairman of the committee representing any full ticket so put in nomination by either of the two political organizations polling the greater number of votes in the last preceding State election, shall, more than six days before such election, nominate in writing to the commissioners for inspectors an elector of each ward or election district, supporters of the ticket he represents, the commissioners shall appoint such electors as inspectors, and each of the two full tickets mentioned shall be entitled to have one watcher within the polling place to
