Duties of inspectors and clerks of election. Sec. 39, Ch. 4498.

SEC. 113. When any person shall have voted, his name shall be checked on the margin of the page opposite thereto upon the registration list by one of the inspectors, and the clerk of the election shall keep a poll list, which shall contain one column headed "names of voters," and the name of each elector voting shall be entered by the clerk in such column as he votes. And the inspectors of election shall have the authority and power to prevent all repeating, and to prevent any person from voting a second time at the same election when they have good reason to believe such person has already voted. They shall have full power to refuse to allow any person to vote who is not a qualified elector, or who has become disqualified for any cause to vote in such election district. They may also prevent any elector from consuming more time than five minutes in voting. But no inspector shall examine, read or handle the ballot being voted or about to be voted by any elector, or interfere in any way with the voting of any elector otherwise than as herein provided. The inspectors shall possess full authority to maintain good order at the polls, and to enforce obedience to their lawful commands during an election, and during the canvass and estimate of the votes. There shall be at each polling place in each election dis-
