Dog catchers.
Ib., Sec. 4.

SEC. 203. The Mayor shall appoint, subject to the approval of the City Council, as many persons as may be deemed expedient, to catch dogs, who shall hold said position at the pleasure of the Mayor and City Council as assistants of the City Marshal and police.

Impounding and killing.
Ib., Sec. 5.

SEC. 204. It shall be the duty of the City Marshal, his assistants, all policemen and all other persons authorized or appointed to catch dogs, to catch, take up and impound in such pound as the said City Marshal may direct, any dog found within said city not having a collar around its neck and one of said metal tags attached thereto, and should any such dog not be redeemed within five days after the same shall have been impounded, it is hereby made the duty of the person in charge of the pound wherein such dog shall be impounded to forthwith kill, or cause the same to be killed. The person or persons appointed to catch dogs, as aforesaid, shall receive a fee of fifty cents for every dog taken up and impounded by him or them, such fees to be paid from the general fund of said city, and no other compensation shall be paid for such services.

Ib., Sec. 6.

Redemption.

SEC. 205. The place wherein dogs are impounded shall be under the supervision and control of the City Marshal, and in order to redeem any dog which may have been impounded under the provisions of this ordinance the person desiring to redeem the same shall pay to the City Marshal the sum of one dollar and a further fee of ten cents per day for each and every day it shall have been impounded, and upon which payment being made such dog shall be released; and it shall be the duty of the Marshal receiving any money for the redemption of any dog, as aforesaid, to keep a register of all animals so redeemed and the amount paid, and to account for and pay to the said City Treasurer, at the end of each week, all moneys received from such source by him.

Muzzle may be required.
Ib., Sec. 7.

SEC. 206. Whenever the Mayor shall deem it necessary to insure public safety, upon an alarm of hydrophobia, he may issue his proclamation, by notice in some public newspaper printed in said city, prohibiting all dogs from running at large within the limits of said city, unless the same shall be securely muzzled, and such prohibition shall continue until public notice of the discontinuance thereof, given in the same manner, as aforesaid, by the Mayor of said city. Any dog running at large in violation of this section shall be deemed a public nuisance, and it shall be the duty of the officers hereinbefore mentioned to cause all such
