

street. The numbers south from Bay street shall be designated as "South," as numbers "One South," "Two South," etc.; but the numbering north from Bay street shall not be designated as "North," or otherwise than by the numbers. The numbering upon those streets so crossing Bay shall be made so as to place all the odd numbers upon the east side and all the even numbers upon the west side of such streets. One hundred numbers shall be allowed for each block, fifty odd numbers on the east side and fifty even numbers on the west side, fifteen feet of street front being allowed for each number, beginning at the southerly side of each block with the odd or even number, one or two, as the case may be, preceded by the number of the proper hundred, as one hundred and one or two, or two hundred and one or two, etc., as the case may be, and numbering northward to the next street, when an additional hundred numbers will be begun, the numbers of hundreds given indicating the number of streets from Bay street.

On streets
running east
and west.

Property abutting on all streets crossing Main street shall be numbered east and west from Main street, beginning with the numbers one and two respectively, and numbering away from Main street. The numbers east of Main shall be designated as "East" and the numbers west of Main shall be designated as "West," as "No. One East" and "No. One West." The odd numbers shall all be placed upon the northerly side of each street, and the even numbers shall all be placed upon the southerly side of each street. One hundred numbers shall be allowed for each block, fifty odd numbers on the northerly side and fifty even numbers on the southerly side, fifteen feet of street front being allowed for each number, beginning at the side of the block nearest to Main street with the odd or even number, one or two, as the case may be, preceded by the number of the proper hundred, as one hundred and one or two, two hundred and one or two, etc., as the case may be, and numbering eastward and westward from Main street to the next streets, when an additional hundred numbers will be begun, the number of hundreds given indicating the number of streets from Main street.

East of Florida
avenue.

Property abutting on streets running parallel with Main street and east of Florida avenue shall be numbered from Adams street, the same as from Bay street, beginning with the numbers two hundred and one, and two hundred and two from Adams street north.

Parallel.

Property abutting upon streets running parallel, or nearly so, with Main or Bay street, but which do not cross Bay or Adams or Main, shall be numbered as nearly as practicable so as to correspond with the numbers on streets which do cross said streets.