

this ordinance, as required by law, the square now known as St. James Park shall be known and designated as Hemming Park, in honor of the donor of said monument.

SEC. 266. From and after the passage of this ordinance it shall be unlawful for any person to use barbed wire for any fence fronting on any of the streets of this city where public sidewalks are laid, and all such fences now in the city shall be removed after ten days' notice to the owner to remove the same; and it shall be the duty of the Marshal to remove all such fences as are hereby declared unlawful, and it shall be the duty of the Chief of Police to have each patrolman to report to him and the Marshal all such fences.

C 64, Sec. 1,
Mar. 20, 1897.
Barbed wire fences prohibited.

SEC. 267. All persons violating this ordinance shall be punished by fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for not less than ten days nor more than fifty days.

Ib., Sec. 2,
Penalty.

SEC. 268. Bicycles, when ridden on the public streets of Jacksonville, shall have the same rights and be subject to the same regulations that govern the use of other private vehicles under the ordinances of the city, except as hereinafter provided.

C 42, Sec. 1,
May 9, 1895.
Use of bicycles regulated.

SEC. 269. Every bicycle, when ridden on public streets, shall be provided with a suitable bell, and the rider shall sound such bell on approaching corners and when passing other vehicles from behind and to warn pedestrians in front of them.

Ib., Sec. 2,
Bell.

SEC. 270. No person shall ride a bicycle on the public streets of this city in a careless or reckless manner, nor in the manner known technically as "scorching;" that is to say at a high rate of speed, with his head leaned forward and his eyes upon the ground, in such a position as not to be able to observe what is in front of him.

Ib., Sec. 3,
Rate of speed.

SEC. 271. Every person riding a bicycle in the public streets or roads of this city shall keep to the right-hand side thereof in the direction in which he is traveling, and when he desires to turn the corner of any street he shall proceed in the direction in which he is traveling to the right-hand side of the street, and then turn so as to proceed in his new course upon the right-hand side of that street.

Ib., Sec. 4,
To keep to the right.

SEC. 272. No person or persons shall place or cause to be placed on any pavement or road of this city broken glass, nails, tacks, wire or other material that may damage passing persons or vehicles.

Ib., Sec. 5,
Glass, etc.

SEC. 273. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be punished, upon conviction thereof, by a fine of not more than ten dollars or be imprisoned not exceeding thirty days.

Ib., Sec. 6,
Penalty.