

C 41, Sec. 1.
April 10, 1896.
Books to be kept.

SEC. 274. All pawnbrokers, second-hand clothing and junk dealers shall keep books in connection with their business, wherein shall be entered an accurate description of all property pledged or sold to them, giving where the same occurs, as in the case of watches, the name of the maker and the number on the piece, and further accurately and fully describing such property, with the kind and material of which it is made, and in said books there shall also be entered the name of the person by whom same is deposited or sold, and the time when the same was done. These entries shall be made as soon after any transaction is had as possible, in no event allowing more than one hour to elapse after such transaction before the above-provided entry is made concerning the same. These books and the articles themselves so pledged or sold shall at all times be subject to inspection and examination by the police officers of the City of Jacksonville.

Ib., Sec. 2.
List of pawned or bought articles to be furnished
Chief of Police.

SEC. 275. All pawnbrokers, second-hand clothing dealers, auction houses and junk dealers shall furnish to the Chief of Police a full and complete list each day of every article taken in pawn or bought by said dealers, giving a full description of same, maker, marks, number, brand, monogram or letters of any kind on such articles so pawned or bought by said dealer, and they shall also keep accounts, showing from whom such articles are received; and they shall have their goods arranged in stock so as to enable the same to be inspected by the police department. When it becomes necessary to visit such dealers, the Chief of Police will give a written order to the proper officer to perform said duty, and any such dealer refusing or failing to furnish such list or refusing to admit such officer in their place of business shall pay a fine of not more than two hundred dollars, or be imprisoned thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the court, and a conviction of any such pawnbroker or other dealer of a violation of the provisions of this ordinance shall work an immediate revocation of the license of such offender.

Ib., Sec. 3.
Records to be kept by junk dealers.

SEC. 276. The provisions of this ordinance, with respect to records to be kept and reports to be made by pawnbrokers and junk dealers, shall apply with respect to junk dealers so as only to require them to keep records and make reports concerning the purchase by them of machinery or parts or appliances thereof, or any appliance of a railroad shop or gas company, or of the waterworks or of any compress company, or telegraph and battery materials, or of sample, waste or loose cotton, or grates or any part thereof, or gas or water meters, or fixtures, or similar articles.

Penalty.

SEC. 277. Any person doing a pawn-broking, second-hand clothing or junk business in the City of Jacksonville who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance, or fail or refuse
