

said board, keep an accurate record of all matters coming before them, and of their proceedings, in a book of records to be kept for that purpose, the same to be preserved by the board.

POLICING DEPOTS.

SEC. 344. On and after the passage of this ordinance railway, transportation, steamboat and ferry companies doing business within the corporate limits of the City of Jacksonville shall be required to instruct their agents and employees at their respective places of business for passenger traffic within the corporate limits of the city fully regarding their passenger traffic, such instructions to be primarily for the protection of passengers, their baggage and luggage.

Agents must be instructed to protect passengers. Ord. 42, Sec. 1. Sept. 1, 1888.

SEC. 345. It shall be the duty of the Mayor, upon application of the superintendent or other person in charge of any transportation line within the city limits to administer the necessary oath of office to all watchmen or policemen appointed for the purposes hereinafter set forth, or for the protection of property, and to constitute and invest such watchmen or policemen with the same powers of arrest and the preservation of peace and order as other policemen under the laws of this city; and such policemen shall in all cases of arrest appear at the proper tribunal at such time as may be required to declare the offense for which the party was arrested and establish such charge.

Mayor to swear in and invest watchmen with police powers. Ib., Sec. 2.

SEC. 346. It shall be unlawful for any hackman, carriage or bus driver, hotel porter, drayman or any other person or persons, to importune or solicit patronage to the annoyance of any passenger or passengers at any railway station, depot, wharf, dock or ferry within the corporate limits of the City of Jacksonville. It shall be the duty of any policeman, watchman, agent or other authorized person in charge of the property or premises of any railway station, depot, wharf, dock or ferry within the city to protect passengers from the importunate solicitation of persons as aforesaid, and upon notice to any such person to desist, if such person or persons shall refuse, he shall arrest or cause to be arrested the offender, and he shall be immediately turned over to the Chief of Police or other proper officer of the city for trial.

Annoying passengers by soliciting. Ib., Sec. 3.

Employees to protect passengers.

Arrest of offenders.

SEC. 347. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, or by using any profane, violent or boisterous language, or by any indecent behavior at any passenger station within this city shall, and he or they are hereby declared to be a disorderly person or persons, and upon conviction before the Municipal Court shall for the first offense be fined in a sum not exceeding $5, or by imprisonment not exceeding five days; for the second offense, by fine or imprisonment, as prescribed in section 349.

Penalty. Ib., Sec. 4.