

or by gamblers, are found in any house, room, booth, shelter or other place, it shall be prima facie evidence that the said house, room or place where the same be found is kept for the purpose of gambling.

Houses of ill fame.
Ib., Sec. 6.

SEC. 353. Every house of ill-fame, and any house, dwelling, room, premises or other place within the limits of the City of Jacksonville, used for the purpose of prostitution, or known or notoriously reputed to be the resort of prostitutes or persons of lewd character, is, and the same is hereby declared to be a disorderly house, dangerous to the peace and morals of the city, and all persons keeping, residing in, frequenting, or at any time found in the same, are hereby declared to be disorderly persons within the meaning of this ordinance. Any person convicted of keeping such disorderly house, or of frequenting or being found in the same, shall be punished as provided in section 348. The owner, agent, lessee or proprietor of any house of ill-fame, or house, premises or places used as the resort of persons of lewd character as aforesaid, shall be considered as the keeper of a disorderly house within the meaning of this ordinance and liable to punishment as provided in section 348.

Penalty for being found in.

Owner of house liable to punishment.

Penalty.

To be closed Sundays.
Ib., Sec. 7,
as amended by
Ord. 23, Sec. 2,
June 15, 1888,
and Ord. 24,
Sec. 1,
June 15, 1888.

SEC. 354. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons owning, controlling, conducting or acting as agents, proprietors or persons in possession of any barroom, storeroom, saloon, premises or other place of any kind where beer, ale, cider, wine, vinous, malt, fermented or spirituous liquors of any kind are sold or kept for sale within the limits of the City of Jacksonville by the drink or otherwise, to keep the same open, or any door or aperture thereof which could or might be used as a means of ingress or egress to such premises, or in such manner as the public could be admitted, or sell, offer for sale, give or dispose of any such spirituous, vinous or malt liquors aforesaid, on the Sabbath day, and all places as aforesaid, or other places or premises of any kind where spirituous, vinous, malt or fermented liquors of any kind are sold or kept for sale by the drink or otherwise, shall be closed from 12 o'clock at night until 5 o'clock in the morning.

Saloons to be closed from 12 until 5.

Penalty.

Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this section be, and the same are hereby declared to be disorderly persons, dangerous to the peace and morals of the city, and he, she or they shall, on conviction before the Municipal Court, be punished as provided in section 348.

Loafers.
Ib., Sec. 8.

Gamblers.

SEC. 355. Any person or persons who may be found in this city loitering from day to day upon the streets of the city or around the city market, park, wharves, docks, buildings or premises of any kind, having no honest visible means of support, or any person or persons so loitering about or remaining in the city,