

“Against,” as the case may be) “Bonds to open and improve streets and parks, including paving, $175,000.”

If the voter desires to vote for or against the approval of the issuance of bonds to an amount not exceeding $100,000 for the purpose of purchasing locations and erecting city buildings, his ballot shall contain the words “For” (or “Against,” as the case may be) “Bonds for the city buildings, $100,000.”

If the voter desires to vote for or against the approval of the issuance of bonds to an amount not exceeding $75,000 for the purpose of purchasing and erecting an electric light plant, his ballot shall contain the words “For” (or “Against,” as the case may be) “Bonds for electric light plant, $75,000.”

If the voter desires to vote for or against the approval of the issuance of bonds to an amount not exceeding $25,000 for the purpose of bulkheading street fronts, his ballot shall contain the words “For” (or “Against,” as the case may be) “Bonds for bulkheading street fronts, $25,000.”

If the voter desires to vote for or against the approval of the issuance of bonds to an amount not exceeding $25,000 for the purpose of enlarging the plant and improving the efficiency of the fire department, his ballot shall contain the words “For” (or “Against,” as the case may be) “Bonds for fire department $25,000.”

“For” and “against,”
how construed.

The word “for” shall in all cases be deemed and counted as indicating the approval of the proposed issue of bonds for the purpose mentioned, and the word “against” shall in each case be deemed and counted as indicating the disapproval of the proposed issue of bonds for the purpose mentioned. Each ballot “for” and “against” “bonds for each of the purposes proposed, $1,000,000,” shall be counted as one ballot “for” or “against” the issue of bonds for each of the purposes proposed, to the number of which shall be added, to ascertain the entire vote upon the question of the issuance of bonds for each of the purposes proposed, the votes otherwise cast “for” and “against” respectively the issue of bonds for each of the purposes proposed respectively, and the issue of bonds shall be deemed to have been approved and bonds shall be issued to amounts not exceeding the amounts respectively herein stated for each of and only those purposes, for which a majority of the votes cast have indicated in the manner herein stated, the approval by a majority of the votes cast by the qualified electors of the city qualified to vote at the city general election held next preceding such election.

Sale of bonds.
Ib., Sec. 6.

SEC. 400. Said bonds shall not be sold by the trustees except as the sale thereof may from time to time be authorized by ordinance, and if the use of the full amount of bonds authorized to