

the office thereafter, shall give a good and sufficient bond in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned on the faithful performance of the duties of the office, and the accounting for all moneys of the City of Jacksonville received by him as City Attorney and as attorney or solicitor for the city, or by any person authorized by him to receive such moneys. The giving of such bond by him and approval of such bond by the City Council shall constitute a contract between him and the City of Jacksonville for the performance of his duties as City Attorney and as attorney or solicitor for the City of Jacksonville, as provided in and by this ordinance. All provisions of this ordinance shall apply to the legal representatives of the city alike, whether acting as City Attorney or as attorney or solicitor in the collection of moneys due the city, whether herein referred to as City Attorney or otherwise the title "City Attorney" in this ordinance including all attorneys or solicitors representing the city in the collection of moneys due it, but the bond given by the City Attorney shall cover the action of all attorneys or solicitors acting with and at the request of the City Attorney, or attorney or solicitor of the city who has given such bond.

SEC. 579. The City Attorney and attorneys and solicitors representing the city in the collection of moneys due the city, shall as speedily as possible enforce the collection of all claims due the city coming into their hands for collection, and shall submit to the City Council at its first regular meeting in January, April, July and October, of each year, a full and complete report of the status of all suits in which they represent the city, and an itemized statement of all collections made by them since their last report, and a statement of all claims in their hands for collection upon which suits have not been instituted.

SEC. 580. The City Attorney is hereby authorized to associate with himself at his own expense, and without expense to the city, in the enforcement and collection of moneys due the city, the collection whereof has been entrusted to him, such other attorneys or solicitors as he may designate, but he shall be responsible on his bond for the acts of such other attorneys or solicitors so associated with him.

The City Attorney shall at the expiration of his term of office continue in the performance of all duties in connection with the collection of taxes, assessments and other claims for moneys due the city, the collection whereof shall have been entrusted to him, acting in those matters as attorney or solicitor for the city, as the case may be, until such taxes, assessments or other claims shall have been collected, or the claims of the city shall have been finally adjudicated adversely to the city, and he shall receive as
