

“within the market limits;” except that any person may establish a market or markets for the sale of fresh fish only within the said market limits along the river front on or within fifty feet of the bank or shore line of said river; and fresh fish may be sold or offered for sale therein upon obtaining a license therefor in the same manner and upon the same conditions as provided in this ordinance for a green grocer’s license; and said market or markets shall be subject to all the provisions of this ordinance affecting or regulating green groceries; and except, further, that producers selling or offering for sale only fruits, vegetables, live poultry and country produce grown or produced by themselves, may at any time hawk, peddle or offer for sale the same from house to house, upon any street of the city, by first obtaining from the market clerk a written or printed permit so to do, which said permit shall be exhibited to any person demanding to see the same. The market clerk shall daily, upon application to him at the central market, and payment to him of a fee of twenty-five cents, give to producers desiring to sell only fruits, vegetables, live poultry and country produce grown or produced by themselves, written or printed permits to sell the same anywhere in the city limits; but before delivering such permit the market clerk shall inspect all fruits, vegetables, live poultry and country produce to be covered by the said permit, and he shall not grant any such permit if he finds any of the fruits, vegetables, live poultry or country produce to be stale, overripe, diseased or otherwise unfit for consumption until that part thereof which is found to be unfit for consumption shall have been delivered up to him to be destroyed.

SEC. 657. No fresh meats, dressed poultry or fresh fish shall be sold or offered for sale at retail at the central market, except from the stalls in said market provided therefor. Ib., Sec. 3.
See Sec. 695.

SEC. 658. The market clerk shall upon payment to him of a fee of ten cents for each cart, wagon or basket, assign to each producer having fruits, vegetables or country produce of any kind grown or produced by himself, and requesting it, a space sufficient for his cart, wagon or basket, as the case may be, at the street curbing next outside the sidewalk around the central market, where the producer may locate his cart, wagon or basket, and sell his fruits, vegetables and country produce grown or produced by himself, and shall issue to such producer a written or printed permit to sell within the space so assigned the fruits, vegetables and produce grown or produced by him, but before assigning such space or issuing such permit to a producer, the market clerk shall inspect the fruits, vegetables and produce to be offered for sale, and shall have delivered to him to be destroyed, any part thereof which may Ib., Sec. 4.
See Secs. 691, 693 and 695.
Space to be furnished
producers.