

be stale, overripe or otherwise unfit for consumption; and no person shall sell or offer for sale at said central market any fruits, vegetables or other country produce otherwise than from the stalls provided therefor without first obtaining from the market clerk such assignment of space and permit, and no person shall at said central market sell or offer for sale to consumers any fruits, vegetables or other produce not raised or produced by himself from any cart, wagon or basket, or otherwise than from a stall provided therefor.

Ib., Sec. 5, as amended by E 40, Sec. 2, Sept. 28, 1900. See Secs. 691 and 695.

SEC. 659. No person shall, anywhere within the city limits, at any time, hawk, peddle or offer for sale from house to house or upon any street of the city, any meats, poultry, fish, fruits or vegetables, except that producers selling only fruits, vegetables, live poultry and country produce grown or produced by themselves may so hawk, peddle or offer the same for sale after first obtaining written or printed permit as provided in section 656.

Ib., Sec. 6. Rights of producers. See Sec. 695.

SEC. 660. Producers selling or offering for sale only fruits, vegetables, live poultry and country produce grown or produced by themselves shall have the right, free of charge, during the market hours, to locate their wagons, carts or baskets in the street, just outside the sidewalk line at or within fifty feet of any licensed green grocery, and to there sell their said fruits, vegetables and country produce from their wagons, carts or baskets.

Ib., Sec. 7. Market hours. See Sec. 695.

SEC. 661. The central market shall be kept open during, and only during, all market hours. Market hours are hereby fixed and declared to be from four o'clock a. m. until five o'clock p. m. each market day except Saturday, and between four o'clock a. m. and eleven o'clock p. m. each Saturday.

Ib., Sec. 8. See Sec. 695.

SEC. 662. No person shall, anywhere within the city limits, sell or offer for sale at retail any fresh meats, dressed poultry or fresh fish at any time other than during the market hours fixed in and by section 661, but meats, poultry and fish may be delivered from refrigerators between six and eight o'clock Sunday morning.

Ib., Sec. 9. Provisions for cleaning, etc.

SEC. 663. The Board of Public Works shall make all necessary provision for the repairing, cleaning, lighting and heating of the central market, and shall have constructed and shall keep in repair in the central market stalls whereon to sell and expose for sale at retail to the best advantage, fresh meats, dressed poultry, fresh fish, fruits and vegetables. The stalls shall be arranged and constructed in compliance with the plans and diagrams therefor on file in the office of the City Recorder, and shall be so constructed and located as to give the best facilities for their use for the respective purposes. The stalls shall be constructed and maintained sufficient in number to supply each day to each per-
