SEC. 664. Any person having fresh meats, dressed poultry, fresh fish, fruits or vegetables which he desires to offer for sale at retail at the central market, shall, except in case of producers selling their own produce as hereinbefore provided, make application to the market clerk at the central market, either the day before or at the beginning of market hours of the day he desires to sell the same, for a stall or stalls upon which to expose and offer the same for sale, and upon receiving such application, together with a fee of fifty cents, the market clerk shall issue to the applicant a permit to use, during market hours of the day, a stall for such purpose, and shall assign to the applicant a stall to be so used. Upon application therefor the market clerk shall issue a permit for one week, and shall assign each day, for one week, at or before the beginning of market hours, to the applicant a stall for use during market hours upon payment to him of the sum of two dollars and fifty cents, and each day for one month upon the payment to him of the sum of ten dollars, and any person so making application and tendering to the market clerk the fee for a stall to whom the market clerk is unable, at or before the beginning of market hours on the day for which such application is made, to issue a permit and assign a stall, shall be given by the market clerk a certificate to that effect, and thereupon for that day such applicant shall have the right to sell and offer for sale during market hours, anywhere within the city limits, his fresh meats, dressed poultry, fresh fish or market fruits and vegetables without charge and without liability to the penalties of this ordinance. Whenever it shall become expedient and practicable to lease a stall or stalls, together with any reasonable amount of space to an applicant or applicants therefor for a period of time greater than one month, and the application therefor shall be made to the Board of Public Works, the Board of Public Works shall designate the stall or stalls, space or spaces they desire to lease for a period of time greater than one month and shall fix the term for which a lease will be offered and the conditions of the lease, and shall post a notice thereof for at least
