

Ib., Sec. 15.
Policeman.
See Secs. 698
and 695.

SEC. 669. There shall be stationed at the central market during all market hours a policeman, who shall, under the direction of the market clerk, maintain peace and good order in and around the market and enforce all legal orders of the market clerk, and there shall be employed by the Board of Public Works a watchman who shall be stationed at the central market from the closing to the opening of the market.

Ib., Sec. 16.
Bulletin board.
See Sec. 695.

SEC. 670. There shall be prepared and kept in a conspicuous place in the central market a bulletin board for the posting of all ordinances, rules and regulations, respecting the central market, and there shall be kept thereon a diagram of the market showing all stalls and spaces occupied and unoccupied, and indicating the names of the lessees of all stalls and spaces which have been leased for one month or more, with the amount of rental paid by each such lessee, and the date of expiration of his lease.

Ib., Sec. 17.
Revenue
from market.
See Sec. 695.

SEC. 671. The gross receipts from the market stalls and spaces, and all moneys collected by the market clerk, shall be kept by the Treasurer in a fund separate and apart from all other funds, and all expenses connected with the operation of the market, including the salary of the policeman and the watchman stationed at the market house under the provisions of section 669, shall be paid out of that fund. There shall be paid out of said fund to the Trustees for the Waterworks and Improvement Bonds reasonable compensation for the water used, and to the Electric Light Department of the city reasonable compensation for the electricity used in lighting the market stalls and spaces, and all accounts of the moneys received from and paid out for or on account of the central market shall be so kept as to indicate clearly the exact gross receipts and expenditures.

Ib., Sec. 18.
Closing of market.
See Sec. 695.

SEC. 672. The central market shall be closed promptly upon the striking of the city clock in the tower of the central market building, of the hour therefor, and all fresh meats and dressed poultry shall be promptly removed from the stalls, and the market clerk shall have all stalls, cutting blocks, hooks and floors thoroughly washed, and put into a clean and sanitary condition.

Ib., Sec. 19.
Obstructions.
Dogs.
See Sec. 695.

SEC. 673. No person shall loiter in or around the central market building so as to hinder or obstruct the passage to or through the market or to unnecessarily be in the way of any person having business in or around the central market. No person shall sit or lie down upon any stall or meat block, or in any passage way in the central market. No person shall take or carry with him any dog or other live animal into the central market. Any dog found in the central market shall be carried to the