

Coops to be ventilated.

well ventilated coops of sufficient size to prevent crowding, and such coops shall have false bottoms, or drawers, which shall be frequently removed, cleaned and replaced, and within one hour after the central market is closed, all coops containing live poultry shall be removed from the central market. No live poultry shall be kept anywhere in the city in coops less than eighteen inches high, in the clear, nor in coops crowded more than one to each square foot of floor surface, except that where poultry is received in the city otherwise, the party bringing the same into the city shall be allowed not exceeding four hours between six o'clock a. m. and six o'clock p. m. within which to deliver them, and the consignees thereof shall be allowed not exceeding one hour after delivery to them within which to comply with the provisions of this ordinance.

Ib., Sec. 31.
Sale defined.
See Sec. 695.

SEC. 685. The exhibition of any article in the market as though it were intended for sale, whether it be sold or offered for sale, shall be deemed an offering for sale under the provisions of this ordinance.

Ib., Sec. 32.
What the terms market fruits and market vegetables include.
See Sec. 695.

SEC. 686. The terms, market fruits and market vegetables, as used in this ordinance, shall be construed to cover and include all such fruits and vegetables as are extra perishable, including: Artichokes, asparagus, beans in pod or shelled, beets with tops, borecole or kale, broccoli, Brussels sprouts, carrots with tops, cauliflower, celery, collards, green corn, corn salad or veticost, water or upland cress, cucumbers, egg-plants, endive, kohl robi, leeks, lettuce, mustard leaves, nasturtium or Indian cress, okra or gumbo pods, onions with tops, parsley, parsnips with tops, new peas, pepper pods, radishes, rhubarb or pie plant, salsify, spinach, fresh squash, turnips with tops, etc.

Ib., Sec. 33.
See Sec. 695.

SEC. 687. The term fresh fish, as used in this ordinance, shall be construed to cover and include shrimp, crabs, turtle, terrapin, clams and oysters.

Ib., Sec. 34.
Penalty.
See Sec. 695.

SEC. 688. A violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a term not longer than three months for each offense.

D 14, Sec. 1.
Jan. 29, 1898.
Bona fide growers of vegetables to sell without paying any license or fee.

SEC. 689. An ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Regulate the Vending of Meats, Poultry, Fish, Fruits and Vegetables, and to Establish and Regulate Markets," published August 21, 1897, is hereby amended so as to provide that any bona fide grower of vegetables and fruits shall have the right to sell fruits and vegetables grown or raised by them, at any time, at any place, and in their own way, without the payment of any fee or tax whatever; Provided, however, That no such grower shall sell or offer for sale otherwise than as in said ordinance now provided until he shall