

SEC. 703. All water closets and their connections shall be maintained in a sanitary condition and in perfect repair. They shall be so constructed as to prevent the escape of gases or air from the sewer pipes or connections. Ib., Sec. 8.

Persons owning or using privies shall keep them in a cleanly and sanitary condition. The health officer shall determine and decide upon the privy accommodations necessary for each premises, and his orders in this regard shall be carried out by the owner or agent or occupants of any premises. Under each opening in the privy seat or seats shall be placed a water-tight pail, box or half barrel to receive and retain excrement. The back, front and sides of such privy shall be so enclosed as to prevent fowls from gaining access to the interior. All privies and water closets shall be provided with doors, and shall be kept in repair. Water closets and privies.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction before the Municipal Court, be punished by a fine of not less than one dollar or more than fifteen dollars, or be imprisoned for not less than one or more than fifteen days. Penalty.

SEC. 704. It shall not be lawful for any person to use any building or premises within the corporate limits of the City of Jacksonville for a melting house, manure factory, or soap boiling, or for boiling or crushing bones, or any manufactory, building or place used for any trade, business, process or manufacture, causing effluvia so as to be a nuisance or injurious to the health of the inhabitants of the neighborhood, under penalty, on conviction before the Municipal Court, of a fine of fifty dollars, or imprisonment for fifty days. Ib., Sec. 9. Soap factories and other nuisances.

SEC. 705. It shall be unlawful for any captain or other person being in command of any steamboat or other vessel, or any conductor or other person having charge of any car or train of cars, or any owner; or any driver of any public or private vehicle, to bring any person or persons afflicted with any contagious or infectious disease, or any infected goods, or any article of any description calculated to spread any infectious or contagious disease, within the City of Jacksonville, under penalty, on conviction before the Municipal Court, of a fine of one hundred dollars, or imprisonment for ninety days. Bringing contagious or infectious diseases into city. Ib., Sec. 10. Penalty.

SEC. 706. Any householder in whose dwelling, or on whose premises there shall occur a case of cholera, yellow fever, typhus fever, small-pox, scarlet fever, diphtheria or measles, shall immediately notify the health officer of same, and until instructions are received from the health officer, he or she shall not permit the patient or patients, or any clothing or other property that may have been exposed to infection, to be removed from such house or premises. Householder to report case of contagious or infectious disease. Ib., Sec. 11.