

Ib., Sec. 3.
Posting
notices.

SEC. 733. In cases where the owner and agent of the owner are not known to the health officer, and no person is known to him to have the charge or control of the said property, the health officer shall cause a copy of said notice to be posted in a conspicuous place on the premises, and if no one shall comply with the requirements of the notice within the time specified, the health officer may order said premises to be placed in a sanitary condition by the removal or destruction of the buildings thereon or otherwise, as he may deem necessary.

Ib., Sec. 4.
Penalty.

SEC. 734. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding ninety days.

NUISANCES.

E 37, Sec. 1,
Aug. 8, 1900
Nuisances.

SEC. 735. All places in which stagnant water, filth or drainage collects and stands so as to be or become dangerous to the health of persons in the City of Jacksonville are hereby declared to be nuisances injurious to the public health, and such nuisances shall be promptly abated.

Ib., Sec. 2.
Abatement.

SEC. 736. Any such nuisance existing in any street or public place shall be promptly and completely abated by the health department.

Ib., Sec. 3.
Notice.

SEC. 737. Any such nuisance existing on private property shall be promptly, upon notice from the health officer, abated by the owner or occupant of the premises within three days after such notice shall have been served in writing upon the owner or occupant, or by posting such notice on the premises, if not promptly abated upon such notice, the occupants of any such premises shall, on or before the expiration of such notice, vacate such premises, and upon conviction of continuing to occupy any such premises more than three days after the service of such notice, any occupant thereof so notified shall be punished by fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding thirty days.

Ib., Sec. 4.
Owner to put premises in sanitary condition.

SEC. 738. The owner or owners of any such premises shall promptly, upon any such notice being given, put any such premises in thoroughly sanitary condition, and upon conviction of failing so to do, any such owner shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding thirty days.

Penalty.

Ib., Sec. 5.
City may have work done;
lien.

SEC. 739. Upon the failure of the owner of any such premises to put the same in thoroughly sanitary condition within the time required by the notice so served, the city health department shall