

SEC. 1196. Where the track of said railroad crosses Bay street, the said company shall station a flagman, whose duty it shall be to give warning of the approach to said crossing of any train, cars or locomotive, by waving a flag, if in the day time, and a lighted lantern at night. It shall be the duty of such flagman to give such warning at least three minutes before any train, cars or locomotive reach said crossing.

Flagman at Bay street. Ib., Sec. 4.

Warnings.

SEC. 1197. Where the railroad of said company crosses Hogans creek, within the city limits, the said company shall construct at its own expense, a good and substantial movable bridge over said creek, leaving an unobstructed opening between abutments thirty feet wide, and leaving a headway above ordinary high water of five feet; said company shall maintain and keep said bridge in good repair at its own cost and expense, and shall open and give unobstructed passage through said movable bridge to all dredges, pile-drivers and vessels of suitable dimensions to pass through said movable bridge whenever said company is applied to for such passage by the owner or manager of such pile-driver, dredge or vessel, free of all cost to such owner or manager.

Drawbridge over Hogans creek. Ib., Sec. 5.

To be opened.

SEC. 1198. Each locomotive used upon the railroad of said company within the city limits shall be provided with an efficient spark arrester by said company.

Spark arresters. Ib., Sec. 6.

SEC. 1199. The said company are not to permit the loading or unloading of cattle within the city limits.

Loading and unloading cattle. Ib., Sec. 7.

SEC. 1200. Any officer, agent or employe of the said company who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall pay a fine not exceeding fifty dollars for each and every violation, upon conviction thereof before the Mayor's Court.

Penalty. Ib., Sec. 8.

FLORIDA CENTRAL AND PENINSULAR RAILROAD COMPANY.

SEC. 1201. The Florida Central and Peninsular Railroad Company, a corporation under the Laws of Florida, be and is hereby granted permission to construct a siding across Alligator street, commonly known as the Plank road, in the eastern Isaac Hendricks grant, on the belt line of the Jacksonville and Fernandina division of said company's road, from some point a little north of said Alligator street, across said street and along the right of way of said railroad company to a proposed mill to be known as the Enterprise Planing Mill.

To cross Alligator street. B 165, Sec. 1. July 15, 1893.

SEC. 1202. At the crossing of the said turnout on side-track or siding of said railroad company as aforesaid the said railroad company shall construct and maintain, under the supervision of, and with approval and to the satisfaction of the Board of Public Works, suitable approaches and crossings of thick planks in such Approaches. Ib., Sec. 2.