

- Ib., Sec. 5.      SEC. 1223. It is a necessary condition of the continuance of the rights hereby granted for the construction, maintenance and operation of the terminal railways south of Bay street, that the owners or occupants of all properties along the lines of said railways shall be served without discrimination, and the occupant of any warehouse or yard or other property along the lines shall have the right, under the reasonable supervision and direction of the owners of said terminal railways, to connect his property by reasonable and suitable switches and branches with said terminal railways, for the most convenient and economical use of said terminal railways, and the owners of said railways shall permit to make connections therewith any and all railways offering and requesting such connections therewith, and all cars and freight offered for transportation by or to connecting lines, shall be, without discrimination, promptly accepted and transported and delivered from or to any connecting line, or to or from any warehouse or yard or other property on its said lines having sidetrack or branch leading thereto, at a cost not exceeding three dollars per loaded or partially loaded car for each car transported, and no charge shall be made for transporting empty cars to or from warehouse or yards; and the failure or refusal of said owners of said railway to comply with the terms and conditions of this section of this ordinance shall work a forfeiture of all franchises and rights of way for the construction, maintenance and operation of said terminal railways. All said lines of railway shall be so constructed and maintained as to interfere as little as practicable with the use of the streets by others, and in compliance with the best and most modern style of construction.
- Service.      Discrimination prohibited.
- Switches.
- Ib., Sec. 6.      SEC. 1224. All trains, locomotives, motor cars or cars which shall be operated on any street under the provisions of this ordinance shall be operated in accordance with all reasonable ordinances and police regulations adopted or promulgated by the authority of said city from time to time.
- Police regulations.
- Ib., Sec. 7.      SEC. 1225. Whenever any street over, across or along which any railroad or railway or terminal railway is operated under the authority of this ordinance, shall be paved by or under the authority of the City of Jacksonville, the owners of such railroad, railway or terminal railways shall, at their own expense and as a condition and burden imposed by this ordinance, pave and keep in thorough repair the street surface between its rails and to a distance of two feet on each side thereof with like material and under like specifications as the city uses or prescribes; in default whereof the city may pave or repair said space and require payment of the full cost thereof from said owners.
- Paving.