

approved and adopted by the City Council, on each dollar assessed there is hereby levied for ordinary corporation purposes a tax of seven mills, three-sevenths (or three mills) of which is levied to be used for the purposes other than for the use of the Board of Public Works; and four-sevenths (or four mills) of which is levied for the use of the Board of Public Works; and, in addition thereto, on each dollar so assessed, is levied a special tax of seven-tenths of one mill for the payment of judgments against the City of Jacksonville.

SEC. 3. In addition to the levies in the preceding section of this ordinance, upon all the property within the City of Jacksonville, and within one thousand feet of a water main or hydrant, as assessed upon the 1893 city assessment roll of the taxable property in the City of Jacksonville, approved and adopted by the City Council, on each dollar assessed there is hereby levied for waterworks and fire protection a tax of three mills; and, in addition thereto, on the same property and valuation, there is hereby levied a special tax of one mill as a special fire department indebtedness tax to pay off the indebtedness of the city on account of the fire department, and payable out of the special tax for waterworks and fire protection.

SEC. 4. In addition to the levies in the preceding sections of this ordinance upon all the property within the limits of the City of Jacksonville, as they existed prior to the 31st day of May, A. D. 1887, as assessed upon the 1893 city assessment roll of the taxable property in the City of Jacksonville, approved and adopted by the City Council, on each dollar assessed there is hereby levied, to pay interest on outstanding city bonds, a special tax of two and one-tenth mills.

SEC. 5. The Comptroller, in estimating and carrying out the taxes assessed upon the assessment roll shall set down, in separate columns and under separate headings, the amounts of taxes for the several purposes for which such taxes are levied by the City Council, as follows:

First. To the right of the columns of valuations, under the single heading, "Ordinary Corporation Purposes," shall appear in two columns the amounts of taxes assessed for ordinary corporation purposes; the first column under the sub-heading, "Three Mills, Other Than Board of Public Works," containing the amounts of taxes to be levied for ordinary corporation purposes to be used for the purposes other than for the use of the Board of Public Works, and the second column under the sub-heading, "Four Mills, Board of Public Works," containing the amount of taxes levied for ordinary corporation purposes for the use of the Board of Public Works; next, to the right of said column, under
