

WARDS.

BOUNDARIES.

In accordance with a provision of Section 3 of Article IV of the Act of May 31st, 1887, as amended by Act of June 2d, 1887, the commissioners therein named on the 23d day of June, 1887, divided the territory of the City of Jacksonville into nine wards, with boundaries as follows:

The streets, other highways and boundaries used in the following descriptions being the same as shown by LeBaron's map of the City of Jacksonville, made in 1885.

Ward 1—Beginning at a point on the south side of the channel ^{First.} of the St. Johns river, where the section line between sections 1 and 12, township 2 south of range 26 east, prolonged eastwardly will intersect the channel of said river, and running from said point on the St. Johns river west, passing on the lines between said sections 6 and 7 in township 2 south of range 27 east, and between sections 1 and 12 in township 2 south, range 26 east, to the northeast corner of said section 12; thence south on the line between sections 11 and 12 to the intersection of the same with Hogans creek; thence down the said creek to the center of First street in Springfield; thence eastwardly along the center of said First street to the Fernandina and Jacksonville Railroad; thence north along the said Fernandina and Jacksonville Railroad to the southwest corner of section 7, township 2 south, range 27 east; thence east along the south line of said section 7, and of the Barton donation to the channel of the St. Johns river; thence down the said river to the place of beginning.

Ward No. 2—Beginning at a point on the St. Johns river where ^{Second.} the south line of the Barton donation intersects the same, and running thence west on the south line of said Barton donation and the south line of section 7, township 2 south, range 27 east, to the center of the Fernandina and Jacksonville Railway; thence southwardly along the center line of said railway at the center of Maggie street in East Jacksonville; thence eastwardly along the center of said Maggie street to the center of Brough street in East Jacksonville; thence southwardly along the center of said Brough street, and the production of the same to the south side of the channel of the St. Johns river; thence down the channel of said river to the point of beginning.

Ward No. 3—Beginning at a point on the south side of channel ^{Third.} of the St. Johns river, at the center of the intersection of Market street, and thence northwardly along the center of said Market street and of Helen street in Springfield, to the center of First
