PENALTY

The penalty for the breach of this Honor System, as outlined in Section I, shall be as follows:

1. The penalty for the breach of Article 1, Section I, shall be expulsion from the student body of the University of Florida, with privilege of resignation rather than expulsion from the University of Florida.
2. The penalty for the breach of Article 2, Section I, shall be suspension, or at the option of the Honor Committee, expulsion from the student body, with the same privilege as regards resignation rather than expulsion from the University of Florida.

SECTION III

1. The enforcement of these rules shall be in the hands of an Executive Committee of the Student Body, composed of five voting members,—The President of the Combined Senior Class, who shall be its chairman, and one member elected from each class to serve for one scholastic year. The representative from the Junior Class shall be the Committee's Secretary, who shall keep full and permanent records of all proceedings of the Committee.
2. All proceedings of this Committee shall be absolutely secret.

3. To be effective, the vote of this Committee upon all matters must be unanimous.

4. It shall be the duty of any student witnessing a breach of the Honor System first to secure another witness to the breach, whenever practicable, but, in all events, he is promptly to report said breach to the Executive Committee of the Student Body. No student shall be convicted of a breach of the Honor System except upon a clear confession on his part before the Executive Committee or the Discipline Committee, or upon the testimony of two or more witnesses respecting the same charge.

5. Upon the receiving of such report the Committee shall first pass upon said charge. Should the charge appear valid the person accused shall be brought before the Committee, faced by his accusers, be informed of the charge against him and be given a hearing.

SECTION IV.

AMENDMENT

1. To effect an amendment to these rules there must be a petition to the Student Body as a whole by the majority of each of two classes, outlining the desired amendment, followed by a vote of two-thirds of the Student Body in favor of such amendment.

2. Such amendment shall become effectual immediately upon such adoption and approval. Provided, however, that there shall have been served on the President of the University by the Executive Committee of the Student Body, a notice, five days prior to the date of such vote of the Student Body, setting forth the desired amendment and purpose thereof.
