

me, and sell it for you, and when I come back I will pay you what I get for it. It may be that I will get much gold for it; for the men in that