City Charter straw-ballot questions mailed this week

By John Peery
Apopka Chief Staff

Nearly 2,300 envelopes with a straw-ballot question about Apopka's city administrator position should be in the hands of Apopka voters, as they were mailed out Wednesday, September 18, from the Orange County supervisor of elections office.

Bill Cowles, supervisor of elections, said the envelopes were mailed to 2,285 of Apopka's voters. The package includes the straw-ballot question and a letter from Mayor John H. Land.

The non-binding vote will ask those citizens if they want to have the city administrator's position listed in the Charter, making it a requirement that the mayor appoint someone to that job. Currently, only the city clerk and city attorney positions are required to be filled.

Richard Anderson now serves in the city administrator's position, now called chief administrative officer, but he serves at the pleasure of the mayor. His position is not required by the Charter, meaning that the next mayor could, at any time, eliminate the position.

The actual question that will be in the mail-out is, "Shall the city charter be amended to create the office of City Administrator to be appointed by the Mayor and be responsible for coordinating and integrating the administrative and executive functions as directed by the Mayor and consistent with the policy approved by the City Council?"

Cowles

The envelopes have been sent to the Apopka citizens who cast their votes in the city's general election and/or runoff election in 2012.

Cowles originally estimated the cost to be $5,800, but said this week the cost will be lower, although he didn't have a specific cost at this point. "The cost is going to come down," he said, adding that his original estimate was when it was thought that the straw ballot would be conducted just like a regular election with regular ballots. Instead, the voting will be done on an 8-1/2-by-11-in. piece of paper. Voters will return the ballot in the postage-paid envelope that will be included

City budget, tax rate pass; public focused on other issues

By John Peery
Apopka Chief Staff

With no input from the public, the City Council unanimously passed the 2013-2014 city budget and property tax rate Wednesday, September 18, at its regularly scheduled meeting.

The budget for the next fiscal year which begins October 1 has been set at $66,497,620, while the new property tax rate will be 3.4727 mills, which is expected to raise $6,954,605, about 19 percent of the city budget.

Based on that millage rate, property owners will pay $347.27 for every $100,000 in taxable property value.

Apopka remains the city with the lowest property tax rate of a full-service municipality in Orange County.

While that part of the City Council meeting was quiet, several members of the public were there to speak about two very familiar subjects – red-light cameras and the city's parking ordinance.

The controversial issues have been the subjects of many discussions, including a public discussion with city attorney Frank Kruppenbacher

Care package for soldiers idea grows

By Sherry Brunson
Apopka Chief Staff

When Lorraine Marcano at Gentry Insurance learned that Kevin Liebknecht was a soldier in the U.S. Army in a remote mountainous area in Afghanistan where the soldiers do not have a PX, she decided to put together a care package for him. Liebknecht is the son of Gentry Insurance owner Debbie Liebknecht.

"Lorraine mentioned it to her BNI Gold Partners Chapter (Business Networking International) networking group and asked if everyone could bring in one needed item for the soldiers," Debbie Liebknecht said. "What started out as a simple request for an extra box for the soldiers serving our country turned into a major outpouring of support from the BNI Gold Partners and employees of Gentry Insurance. Someone went to a dentist, who donated toothbrushes and toothpaste, and items like razors and deodorant filled the boxes. It just snowballed and people began bringing in baskets of items. The donations poured in, and boxes and boxes were filled. Donations then came in to cover the postage as this had turned into a huge shipment for the soldiers."

Second graders at Dream Lake Elementary and their teachers got involved, and colored pictures with words of encouragement and support for all of the soldiers in Kevin Liebknecht's company were included.

"The hard work the children put together with just two days' notice was remarkable," Debbie Liebknecht said. "The day care at Higher Learning Center prepared a poster with the handprints of the children ranging in age from 12 to 20 months and also included a poem so that it can be shared by all the soldiers."

Lorraine Marcano (l) and Debbie Liebknecht show the many boxes and cards before they were sent to Liebknecht's son and others in Afghanistan.

In all, there were 13 boxes filled, which were mailed Tuesday, September 17, from the Apopka Post Office.

Debbie Liebknecht said her son has been in Afghanistan for two months and has seven months of deployment left before he returns to the U.S.

"I think when we do it again, we will do snacks – well, we're coming up on the holidays," she said. "I am so grateful for how so many people care. High fives to all of them, and to all that participated in this heartwarming show of support for those who so proudly serve our country."

Court for veterans is about to begin

By Sherry Brunson
Apopka Chief Staff

Court officials are finishing the final touches of the new Ninth Judicial Circuit Veterans' Diversion Program, or "veterans' court," in Orange County, which will offer an alternative to those whose actions may have been affected by their service in battle.

"Last week, there was a Case Management Conference to go over the cases involving veterans that have charges pending and may qualify for Veterans' Court. This was the first step to determine what cases will be on the first actual docket which, I believe, will be scheduled for September 25," said Karen Levey, spokeswoman for the Ninth Judicial Court of Florida, which includes Orange and Osceola counties. "We anticipate holding court every third Wednesday afternoon in Courtroom 4-B."

"The effects of post-traumatic stress disorder, traumatic brain injuries (TBI) and other combat-related conditions on those in the military and their families can be devastating," said state Rep. Bryan Nelson of Apopka, who helped pass the program in the Florida Legislature. "When military personnel return from service, these

City receives grant to study eco-tourism

By Sherry Brunson
Apopka Chief Staff

East Lake County and Northwest Orange County elected officials discussed several items of regional interest at a quarterly meeting held September 6 at the Mount Dora City Hall.

City of Apopka Chief Administrative Officer Richard Anderson said the city has received a $25,000 grant from the Florida Department of Economic Development that will be used to conduct a study by MillerLegg to determine a strategic plan to go forward with eco-tourism in the North Shore Restoration Area of Lake Apopka. The grant is subject to a contract agreement between the city and the state agency.

The City Council approved the agreement Wednesday, September 18, at its meeting.

Anderson said stakeholder meetings would begin in late September and October. According to the agreement, stakeholders will include representatives from Orange and Lake County governments, St. Johns River Water Management District, Audubon of Florida, and Long & Scott Farms, Inc. Other yet-to-be-mentioned stakeholders will be discussed for inclusion as well. One private entity stakeholder meeting with the packet. The votes will be hand counted by Cowles' office.

Charter: Council will vote at October 16 meeting

"The big thing now (cost-wise) is going to be postage," Cowles said.

Once the votes are tallied by Cowles' office, the results will be transmitted to Jan Goebel, city clerk, and the City Council will then vote at its meeting on October 16 as to whether to put the question on a binding referendum for all of Apopka's voters. That vote would be held like a regular election on December 3, ahead of the city election next March.

The City Council is not required to follow the wishes of the straw-ballot voters and could do the opposite by either placing it on the December referendum or not.

The straw-ballot question, Land said, came out of a series of public meetings about the city Charter. At the final meeting, a majority of those in attendance voted to keep a strong-mayor form of government but those who voted in that manner were somewhat split on whether to have the city administrator's position be required in the Charter.

That, Land said, is why the straw-ballot question is going out to the 2,285 Apopka voters.

In response to a question from Commissioner Joe Kilsheimer during the September 4 meeting, Land and city attorney Frank Kruppenbacher both said that other questions raised at the series of meetings – including single-member districts, term limits, and expanding the City Council – will require more study.

To consider those issues, a committee of 11 Apopka citizens will be appointed following the decision on the straw-ballot question, Land said. He will appoint three people to that committee, while each commissioner will name two to the committee. The mayor said that committee will hold public meetings and could meet anywhere from six months to 18 months before finalizing the issues and, eventually, putting them on a referendum for Apopka voters.

Pete Petree, spokesman for the Central Florida Railroad, said a crew has already begun to cut brush in preparation for the long-awaited 57 miles of welded rails that will be laid in the same right-of-way where the current rails sit.

"We have a large contractor who will begin the work the first of December," Petree said. "There will be 50 sections that are 1,600-feet in length that have to be unloaded before crews can start work. The tracks will look the same but will be a lot safer. There will be segments of disruptions during the process and we will work to notify everyone."

Petree said once the work begins, updates can be found online at http://www.pinsly.com/companies/fcen/.

T.J. Fish, executive director of the Lake Sumter MPO, said the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) has committed to the construction of the Wekiva Trail, a hike/bike trail which will run parallel in most places to the Wekiva Parkway.

"Orange County and the city of Apopka will connect in through the Orange Trail," Fish said. "They will be responsible to construct the trail from the existing end of the trail on Welch Road through to the Wekiva Parkway. The eco-tourism potential for the trails is tremendous."

Jessica Keane, spokeswoman for FDOT, said the Wekiva Trail would cost a total of approximately $14 million, which will include $12 million for the bridge crossings.

"Design has just started for the trail, which will be approx. 6.7 miles in length and 12 ft. wide," Keane said. "Construction should begin in 2017."

Keane said the trail will connect on the west end in Lake County to a proposed trail from Mount Dora as well as a Lake County trail to the south which will link up with a future extension of the West Orange trail to be constructed by Orange County.

"Lake County is also proposing a trail head at the intersection of Wekiva Parkway and State Road 46," Keane said. "On the east end, Seminole County proposes to extend the Seminole-Wekiva trail to connect with our trail. The proposed Wekiva Trail will cross the Wekiva River on a high-level bridge that offers trail users a scenic view of the river."

City: Final approval given for Sam's Club; construction expected to start in March 2014

about the red-light cameras.

Mark E. Schmidter of Orlando complained to the City Council about being arrested Saturday, September 14, as he passed out fliers to drivers in cars at the intersection of U.S. Highway 441 and Park Avenue. While still opposing the red-light cameras, Schmidter said his arrest made the issue a "First Amendment challenge."

"I feel that in this country, we're losing our constitutional rights every day. We have the right to petition our own governments. The charge was resisting arrest without violence, but I wasn't being arrested for anything. I want all of you to think of what is happening here," he said. "I'll keep doing this until I can't walk anymore. You have to be able to protest in the streets."

According to the police report, Schmidter was passing out fliers to drivers in cars stopped at the traffic light at U.S. 441 and Park Avenue. He walked between the vehicles that were on the road, the report stated. Apopka Off. Robert Campbell approached Schmidter. "I was making contact with the male for violation of Florida Statute 316.2045(1)," Campbell wrote in the report. That statute, among other actions, prohibits people from obstructing the use of roadways by approaching motor vehicles on the road. Campbell also wrote that Apopka has ordinances against panhandling and protesting without a permit.

Campbell asked Schmidter for his identification card, but Schmidter told him he didn't have one with him. The officer then asked for Schmidter's name and date of birth. Schmidter refused to give his name. After more attempts to get Schmidter to tell him his name, Campbell arrested Schmidter, charging him with resisting arrest without violence, and transported him to the Orange County Jail.

Schmidter told the City Council that he spent 11 hours in jail before bonding out.

In addition to Schmidter, Robert Webster and others also spoke to the City Council, protesting the existence of the cameras. Webster said, "The red-light cameras are revenue-producing pure and simple."

The city's controversial parking ordinance, which bans parking on the streets, drew more protests, as well, with several residents of Welch Hills Circle saying they had to either block the sidewalks with their cars or park in the streets.

City staff is reviewing the ordinance and will give its report October 16, according to Richard Anderson, the city's chief administrative officer.

Following the comments from several people, Commissioner Bill Arrowsmith reiterated the October 16 report date, then said, "It's my understanding tickets are not being written for parking on street (until the report is back from city staff)."

In other action, the council:

* Unanimously approved the final development plan for Sam's Club to be built at the southwest corner of the intersection of U.S. Highway 441 and Hiawassee Road. Several waivers and conditions were part of the approval, including sidewalks, buffer, and light poles in the parking lot. Becky Wilson, an attorney representing Sam's Club, said, "This will be the nicest Sam's Club certainly in Central Florida." She also said construction is expected to begin in March 2014 with a grand opening a year later.

* Approved the second reading and adoption for several annexations while approving two others but holding them over for a third reading because Orange County has issues with those two annexations.

* Gave the OK for the final development plan for phases 2A and 2B of Magnolia Park Estates. A total of 32 homes are scheduled to be built on 11-1/2 acres.

Court: Program should relieve legal logjam

problems do not go away and can lead to other issues such as unemployment and criminal activity. Instead of clogging up the court system with these types of cases, the Florida Legislature has passed legislation to allow each of Florida's county courts to set up a veterans' court program. Specifically designed for veterans who have suffered from trauma and injuries, the veterans' court will help those who served, instead of having them be sent through the normal criminal justice system. It is about providing hope and a new way forward for those who have sacrificed for our nation."

Levey said the mission of the program is to increase access to mental health and substance abuse treatment for veterans with criminal offenses or county and city ordinance violations by diverting them directly into Veterans' Aministration (VA) treatment. The program promises to reduce jail time, costs, and criminal recidivism, as well as improve mental health recovery and successful re-entry into the community.

The program will be staffed by a full-time VA Veterans Justice Outreach (VJO) specialist who will ensure eligible veterans have access to VA care for existing substance abuse, mental health, homelessness and employment issues, as well as help for veterans charged with criminal offenses ordinance violations.

"The Orlando Veterans Administration Medical Clinic has agreed to provide a full time VJO specialist to determine veteran eligibility for VA services, ensure access to VA care and provide referrals to both VA and non-VA programs," Levey said. "The Veterans' Committee also determined that a volunteer mentor program, made up entirely of specially trained veteran volunteers, is a critical component of the Veterans' Diversion Program."

Individuals may be referred into the program by judges, the state attorney's office, their defense attorney, the city attorney's office, a community treatment provider, corrections health services, law enforcement officers or a Veterans Justice Outreach specialist.

After six months, the veterans that actively participate in treatment, and successfully attend all programming, complete all mandated court sessions and supervision meetings, and complete treatment plan goals and objectives, will graduate from the intensive phase of the Veterans' Diversion Program. They will then be transferred to the most clinically appropriate Orlando VAMC mental health treatment program to meet their needs for ongoing care. The veterans may participate in the program for up to 18 months.

"At this juncture, the veteran will be considered successfully graduated from the first two phases of the Veterans' Diversion Program (Stabilization and Treatment Phases), and will no longer receive monthly updates from the VA VJO specialist," Levey said. "The veteran will then move through the maintenance and aftercare phases of the Veterans' Diversion Program, and will be responsible for providing his/her own updates to the court on progress in ongoing treatment. However, the VA VJO specialist can confirm all the information through the Veterans medical records."

Veterans who choose not to participate in the program or are rejected or removed will revert back to the previously assigned court divisions.

The program was developed in collaboration with multiple community partners.

"The veterans' court is one small way for our state to give back to those who have been scarred from their time serving our country," Nelson said. "Veterans returning from service who have suffered injuries deserve not only our thanks and gratitude but also recognition as occupying a unique place in our legal system. The Orange County veterans' court will be able to help our veterans receive both the attention and treatment that they need."

Our position

Chief's main mission is to cover good, bad, and ugly of Apopka

One of our subscribers, wrote us a long letter to the editor this week. After asking her to cut the length by about half of what she originally sent us, we are running the letter on page 5A.

While we urge you to read her letter, the gist of it is that this newspaper is not fulfilling its duty to the Apopka community by not having a series of front-page articles outlining details of the Affordable Care Act, more commonly referred to as Obamacare.

We appreciate her being a long-time subscriber despite her disagreement with most of the views expressed on our Opinion page. In her letter, she explains that she subscribes to this newspaper, "Because I value The Apopka Chief's weekly coverage of local news and issues, from city council meeting results to high school sports, I continue to subscribe even though I wholeheartedly disagree with its political positions and despise the biased and reactionary columns on its op-ed pages."

That sentence explains why we have not had any articles on the Affordable Care Act nor will we have.

This newspaper has long served the Apopka community with news from the local happenings of clubs, churches, schools, and other organizations. We've also covered the not-so-pleasant issues and events that have happened in the Apopka community. In short, we've covered the good, the bad, and the ugly of Apopka, just as a local newspaper should do.

And, while we agree that every American will be affected by the Affordable Care Act, we also know that there are literally dozens, if not hundreds, of outlets with information about it to provide every person in Apopka and across this nation with the knowledge they need to understand and take advantage of the Affordable Care Act.

But, this newspaper is the only source available to Apopkans about what is going on in this town and community, and we will never abandon that responsibility, no matter the stories of national importance.

If the Affordable Care Act was the Simple Affordable Care Act, we would be much more able to do that series of articles that she wants. However, even the law's most ardent supporters must admit that the Affordable Care Act is a complex piece of legislation, even at its very base. When the rules from the federal government agencies are fully in place, the Act will be a monstrously large piece of legislation that no one individual will be able to understand in its entirety.

It has been so complex that one of its biggest supporters, U.S. Rep. Nancy Pelosi, during her time as Speaker of the House, had this famous quote: "We have to pass the bill so that you can, uh, find out what is in it."

It's the very complexity of the bill that Rep. Pelosi speaks about that will not allow us to produce stories about the Affordable Care Act. As a community weekly newspaper, we are not staffed to have the luxury of one person able to spend the hours and days it would take to produce just one story about the legislation. To do it correctly, a series of stories about the Affordable Care Act would take multiple people many hours and days to accomplish. If we did that, we would not have the time to do exactly what the letter writer says we are doing, which is reporting issues of concern or interest happening in Apopka.

Apopka's issues and events are our interest. We understand that the Affordable Care Act affects all Apopkans, but so do other national and world issues such as the war on terrorism, Syria,

Series will cover cost of Obamacare

District 38 Report

Bryan Nelson

There has been much confusion, misinformation, and partisan bias from all sides leading up to the implementation of the healthcare exchanges under the Affordable Care Act (ACA). This series on the implementation of ACA will not only be objective, but all the documentation will be available at your request in my office. In the coming weeks, I will be releasing a series of articles, this being the first, aimed at presenting the cost/benefit information regarding the ACA in an objective manner in order to help clarify and inform you of the far reaching impact of the program.

What is the cost of the Affordable Care Act? When discussing the costs associated with the Affordable Care Act, it's smart to begin with the estimated total cost which is currently hovering at $1.1 trillion over the next 10 years. This total cost encompasses all of the components of the new law, ranging from the individual mandate to preventative care. In order to cover the vast costs associated with the law, there will be a number of new taxes implemented with the remainder of the cost being paid for by the federal government. Some of the taxes that have received the most attention include: a tax on high incomes, increased Medicare Part A tax, a tax on medical devices, a tax on tanning salons, and the individual mandate tax, among others. One of the new taxes proposed is an excise tax on the sale of certain medical devices such as pacemakers and artificial knees. The new tax would directly affect the manufacturers and importers of those devices and was placed into effect after December 31, 2012, and the cost will be passed along to all medical insurance policy holders. The tax rate is set at 2.3 percent of the sale price of the taxable medical device and is paid directly by the manufacturer and/or importer. In addition, since July 2010, indoor tanning services have been subject to 10 percent that will raise an estimated $2.7 billion in revenue.

The individual mandate tax (or penalty) has received considerable amounts of atten-

Compassion and warning may be better choice

Editor:

The following letter was sent to the city of Apopka.

I am writing to inquire if by chance you might be operating a writing ticket to drivers TRAP? I am and have been a resident of Mount Dora for 57 years, moving from Eustis when my wonderful marriage occurred.

All that time, and beginning as a child, I have passed through Apopka frequently and go there often on purpose to shop especially now to the Wekiva River walk.

When State Road 429 opened and extended to SR 414, I began bypassing Apopka if I was going to Costco only. Even though, now, I get on SR 429 at Plymouth and then to SR 414, I still get off at the first possible exit to U.S. 441. All these years there have been two left turn lanes onto U.S. 441.

On Monday, September 9, I drove with a friend to Costco and came home the same way, getting off SR 414 to U.S. 441. I got in line beside a large truck in the left lane. The lane I was on had a big left turn arrow painted on the pavement. I stayed in that lane until the green arrow light came on. Shortly after I turned, a police car behind me had his lights blinking so I pulled over in wonderment.

I waited because there was another car pulled over right behind me. The policeman approached and asked for my driver's license and car registration. He then told me to wait; he would be back. I did not get a chance to talk with him before he went back to the second car and then to his car before coming back.

I told my friend he was writing a ticket. She asked why. She had also noticed the left-turn arrow on the lane I was in. When he told me my lane was one to go straight ahead, we both mentioned the left-turn arrow and I asked if there had been two left-turn arrows there. He said the department had so many complaints it had been changed. After we talked a few minutes, he told me he was very sorry he had to write a ticket but his hands were tied because his orders were to ticket everyone who did not abide by the change.

Had the lane not been marked as it was, I would not have missed your new rule. The ticket was written a little after 11 a.m. I brought my friend home, had a bite of lunch with my husband and went back to Apopka to pay the fine and try to get scheduled for a class so as not to get any points on my license. I am 88 years old and have never had any points and do not want any.

I do feel there are times when a little more compassion should be shown and a warning might be sufficient. Maybe I should turn the other cheek and say good luck with your trap and my sincere love for Apopka has been greatly lessened.

Journey into pit of darkness or heaven's light, begins with a single step

Corbeil's Corner

Richard Corbeil

SEPTEMBER 20 – In the September issue of Townhall magazine, Todd Starnes of Fox News Commentary quoted Frank Page, president of the Southern Baptist Convention's Executive Committee: "I'm not a conspiracy theorist, said Page. "But, I do believe the day is coming when churches will see outright persecution – as well as harassment and marginalization in this culture."

Starnes also states that, "A recent Army briefing listed evangelical Christians and Catholicism as examples of religious extremism."

Some 23 years ago, I wrote a column in the Chief detailing how, while the U.S. was attacking the Word of God, it was being restudied in former pits of darkness. The headline was, When does continued bias turn into outright deception?

APRIL 27, 1990 – Question: What has been recently adopted as a textbook in the Journalism School at Moscow State University that you shall never see in a U.S. journalism school? If you said the Bible, you obviously took one wild guess, because the news never appeared in any newspaper, or any TV or radio broadcast.

This is not Moscow, Indiana, Moscow Idaho, or Moscow, Michigan, but the real thing, as in glasnost, U.S.S.R., Soviet Union, Russia, Marx, Lenin, atheist, KGB, Stalin, communists and nyet.

Basking in the darkness of the Kremlin for seven decades, MSU's journalism faculty have now decided that reading the Old and New Testaments will help the students get a better grasp and knowledge of how the different cultures and societies have developed. In plain English (Russian, etc.), let's shed some real light on this education thing. We might learn something.

It goes beyond irony that our laws and Supreme Court geniuses, here in a society that constitutionally guarantees freedom of religion, have forbidden this Book to be read or even brought into our public school system. And, yet, in the very heart of history's most repressive society, these Holy Scriptures will become a curriculum requirement.

Do you think this news would have been of interest to many Americans? Apparently, those who control the media didn't think this news would be helpful to their secular-humanistic agenda, even though it ranks in importance with the top stories of the year. But, hey, how are we going to explain our complicity in sanitizing U.S. public education of God, prayer and morality when Russian journalistic counterparts suddenly realize their importance?

The question is no longer one of whether the media bias is real or imagined, but rather one of just how badly we and our children have been had since 1963, when this nightmare began in the Supreme Court.

So intent and accustomed are the media manipulators on hiding what is true and meaningful, that they begin hiding things from each other.

I happened to discover the Moscow State University item in the March issue of P*resstime*, which is the "Journal of the Newspaper Publishers Association." It was two inches by three inches, on page 72 (the last page) in the bottom right hand corner – the last item in the publication! If ever there was a moment for "Stop the presses" for a new lead story, this was it! But, not with today's media munchkins.

It is encouraging to know,

Chief negligent in not reporting facts of 'Obamacare'

Editor:

Because I value The Apopka Chief's weekly coverage of local news and issues, from city council meeting results to high school sports, I continue to subscribe even though I wholeheartedly disagree with its political positions and despise the biased and reactionary columns on its op-ed pages.

I'm writing because The Apopka Chief has been woefully negligent in covering an issue of life or death to many Apopkans. On October 1st, the healthcare law online exchange will open for sign-up. People currently in high-cost individual plans and those unable to afford any insurance can now apply for affordable coverage and stop just praying they don't get sick. By remaining silent, the Chief is, in effect, denying Apopkans vital facts explaining a legitimate federal program, thereby subverting the health of the very community it claims to serve.

Though you may not like it, the Affordable Care Act, popularly known as Obamacare, is the law of the of the land, upheld last year by a conservative-leaning Supreme Court. It is not going away. Its benefits apply to all insured, including employer-provided plans. For the first time ever, millions of uninsured Floridians can get insured and see a doctor for a reasonable cost when sick. Women won't be charged more for coverage than men simply because they incur childbearing costs. No insurer can ever again charge anyone more or refuse coverage for pre-existing conditions.

Here are the facts. Seniors will continue on Medicare. People earning below the federal poverty line will continue on Medicaid. People with employer-provided insurance will keep it. The exchange is for people currently self-insuring and the uninsured. The healthcare law requires all plans provide four levels of coverage: bronze, silver, gold and platinum, plus a "catastrophic" plan. Premiums will vary between levels based on percentage of cost for services paid by the insured versus the insurer. Least costly are the catastrophic plans. They'll cover preventive care and protect against worst-case health events that could cause financial ruin. Best of all, all plans, employer-based, individual or exchange-based, must cover the same 10 essential health benefits, no matter the cost level chosen.

What are these essential health benefits in everyone's plans? They are: 1. free preventive care like shots and critical screening tests including high blood pressure, diabetes, cholesterol and colon cancer; 2. emergency services; 3. hospitalization; 4. maternity and newborn care; 5. doctors visits; 6. prescription drugs; 7. mental health and substance-use disorder services; 8. rehabilitative services and devices; 9. laboratory services; and 10. pediatric services. Additionally, everyone's plans must now provide contraception methods and counseling for all women at no extra cost.

Readers deserve to know these facts. They must know dates: October 1, 2013-March 31, 2014: signup: January 1,

Land's excellent Charter revision idea has gone awry

Editor:

The following letter was sent to Mayor John H. Land.

Dear Mayor Land,

You had an excellent idea when you suggested that the citizens examine the City Charter and consider some revisions. Unfortunately, the idea has gone awry. As you know, the city attorney has maintained there is no difference between a city administrator and a city manager. But, my research on this indicates that there are indeed differences in responsibilities and qualifications. I have attached some documentation that was readily available online. You might want to share this with him.

As a result of his erroneous thinking, the ballot at one of the "citizen committee" meetings did not even mention the option of a city manager. In fact, by having the strong-mayor form of government as option 1 and the city administrator form as options 2 and 3 (the only difference being who would appoint the administrator), the results were skewed. And, it did not allow the citizens to vote for a city-manager form of government.

Now, I understand that the City Council has decided to send out a straw ballot to a select group of citizens that simply asks whether the charter ought to include an office of city administrator. Since, we now have a city administrator, nothing will change except the charter. Essentially the "citizen committee" had this entire process taken out of its hands, and handed to the City Council. So much for the citizens!

Mayor Land, your excellent idea just went nowhere. To truly put all options on the table, I suggest that a description of the three types of city government be sent to all voters and followed by a vote of all voters.

Mayor Land, you have been an outstanding mayor. Now, as you consider retirement, do you really want such a travesty to be one of your last contributions as mayor? If I were in your place, when I retired, I would write a book about my years in Apopka. Then, I would convince Orange County to build an expanded and updated library (to be named after me, of course) and make guest appearances where I could tell stories about Apopka and sign autographs. Ah, but I can dream, can't I?

Now, you, Mayor Land, could actually do that. And, if you do, I will certainly come to listen.

Chief is pulse of 'friendly city' of Apopka

Editor:

As I read each new edition of The Apopka Chief, several thoughts come to mind.

What would our community be like without the fine writing and covering of local events your newspaper provides to its readers each and every week?

A newcomer to Apopka need only open your paper to find an organization involved in making our fair city a better place to live through its endeavors and then, want to join his or her neighbors as a volunteer, too.

Or, like me, enjoy reading the sports section to see what outstanding athletes and coaches our area has.

(And, yes, I also admit to clipping and saving Miss Ramona's recipes, too.)

Hats off to you and your staff whose dedicated work reaches our mailboxes week in and week out.

You all are the pulse of what makes Apopka, one of the nation's "friendliest cities."

And, that's a fact.

The Way I See It

Patti Bankson

Khrushchev's Prophecy

On September 29, 1959, Nikita Khrushchev appeared before the U.N. and banged his shoe on the podium, declaring: "Your children's children will live under communism. You American's are so gullible. No, you won't accept Communism outright; but we'll keep feeding you small doses of Socialism until you will finally wake up and find that you already have Communism. We won't have to fight you; WE'LL SO WEAKEN YOUR ECONOMY, until you will fall like over-ripe fruit into our hands."

Wow, if we were gullible then, what are we now? Khrushchev nailed the future "us" on the head when he said we wouldn't accept Communism outright, but that (my words) we'd gobble up small doses of Socialism until we'd wake up and find that we do have Communism. Maybe our problem is that we have no idea exactly what it is we're being fed...what we're supposed to be watching out for. We don't know socialism from communism from capitalism. Shame on us.

President Obama has denied accusations that he's a socialist. And, intentionally or otherwise, that's one of very few truths to come out of his mouth, because I think his ideology is more closely aligned with communism. What am I talking about?

Socialism is mainly an economic system, while communism is both an economic and a political system. As an economic system, socialism believes in managing the economy through deliberate and collective social control. Communism, however, believes in managing both the economy and the society by ensuring that property is owned collectively, and that control over the distribution of property is centralized in order to achieve both classlessness and statelessness. Socialism and communism are both based on the principle that goods and services produced in an economy should be publicly owned and controlled, and planned by a centralized organization; the Federal government? But Socialism believes that distribution should occur according to the amount of individuals' production efforts, while communism believes that goods and services should be distributed among the populace according to individuals needs. Additionally, communists believe that both capitalism and private ownership of means of production must be done away with as soon as possible in order to ensure a classless society.

And then, there's capitalism: an economic system in which the means of production and distribution are privately, or corporately, owned and development is proportionate to the accumulation and reinvestment of profits gained in a free market. Ah... the dreaded capitalism that liberals love to hate. They don't mind getting rich through participation in it, but, for whatever reasons, they don't believe in participation by the masses... the poor, the downtrodden that they supposedly care about so much.

President Obama promised to fundamentally transform our country. Well, take a look around, folks... that's one promise he's keeping. He's destroying what's made our country great and, yes... exceptional. How long will we let this debacle continue?

☙ On a happier note: I can remember when I never thought about being 55 years old, much less being married for 55 years. Yet, 55 years ago, today, September 20th I married the man I knew was The One for me. Thank you, Denny, for being the greatest husband... the one I dreamed of. I love you. Always have... always will. ❧

Pastor Hampton came to rescue when child died

Editor:

When Tony and I lost our seven-year-old daughter, Pastor John Hampton, the senior pastor of Journey Christian Church, came to our rescue.

When he heard that our daughter, Chanell Latoni Wright, a first grader at Wolf Lake Elementary School passed away from complications with sickle cell, he wanted to help.

Pastor Hampton immediately agreed to have her funeral at Journey. It didn't matter that Tony and I had not officially joined the church – we were a family in need.

As expected, the church was filled with family and friends from Georgia to the Bahamas. People began to arrive from schools, community businesses and local charities Chanell had been a part of. It was a fitting home going celebration.

We, as Chanell's parents, knew it was only the beginning. We would not let our daughter be forgotten. In less than a year after Chanell's death, we were able to establish the Chanell Wright Foundation to honor her memory. The first annual Chanell Wright Charity Golf Classic was a huge success. Pastor Hampton was honored to open the tournament with prayer and has been doing so ever since.

He recently opened the third annual Chanell Wright Golf Classic this past month. He has partnered with our organization to help raise awareness of the critical need to support the children suffering from life

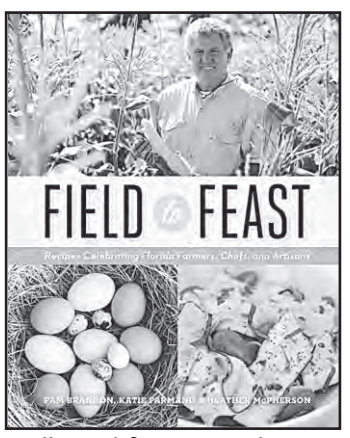
Local farmer featured on 'Field to Feast' cookbook cover

By Sherry Brunson
Apopka Chief Staff

To Pam Brandon, Katie Farmand, and Heather McPherson, the face of Hank Scott III, president of Long & Scott Farms, Inc. was a natural for the cover of their new cookbook, Field to Feast.

"Heather McPherson, food editor for the Sentinel, has promoted our farm for years; she mentions the farm or Hank very often in her columns," said Rebecca Scott Ryan, Agritainment manager. "She and her friends love Hank. He takes them out in the fields to eat raw corn, and they really appreciate what we do out here. So, when they decided to write this book, they came out to the farm to make sure Hank was one of their farmers. We had no idea he was going to be on the cover and there are about seven photos from the farm in there."



Zellwood farmer Hank Scott is on a new cookbook cover.

Brandon, Farmand, and McPherson said they traveled thousands of miles, tasting some of the freshest ingredients along the way.

They found world-famous chefs who eagerly share their enthusiasm for fresh, seasonal ingredients. And, they sought out the best recipes to highlight those flavors.

In Field to Feast they share such treasures as Chef Renee Savary's crispy roast duck, a grown-up grilled cheese from Jodi Swank, and Reda Larson's divine peanut butter pie.

"The result is a cookbook like no other – a delicious celebration of Florida food and cooking that'll lead you from the kitchen to the farmers' market and home again," Ryan said.

The three women had two segments, along with book signings, in the Food pavilion at this year's Flower and Garden Show at Epcot.

"They invited Hank to come and do a 20-minute talk about the farm," Ryan said. "We fixed up a PowerPoint for him to show, and he signed books with the girls. Later, the family ate at the Flying Fish in the Boardwalk resort, where they had their own version of Scott's Zellwood Sweet corn chowder on the menu. Through Heather, we have been introduced to some of the Disney chefs and many of the Disney restaurants use our produce, especially our sweet corn. The Disney chefs come out to the farm to see what we are growing, and to tour the fields.

They will also participate in this year's Epcot International Food and Wine Festival at the Walt Disney World Resort, and have asked Hank to join them again.

"All the photography is so awesome in this book," Ryan said. "We do sell it in our market for $22. Hank has autographed plenty along with the girls. The girls were also here for our 50th celebration, with a booth selling the cookbooks and signing them. Heather even did some sample cooking."

Talented young women sought for pageant

The Miss Apopka Scholarship Pageant is seeking talented young women from the Apopka community to enter the 35th annual Miss Apopka Pageant, a Miss America Pageant preliminary pageant.

This year's Miss Florida was selected third-runner up to Miss America and was awarded a $20,000 scholarship.

"We are looking for our own Miss America from Apopka and this could be the year because we have so many talented young women living in our community," says Rosali Morris, executive director of the Miss Apopka Pageant.

To compete, interested young women must meet the following requirements: 17 years of age, a high school senior through age 24.

The competition phases are as follows; the judges' interview, talent portion, poise on stage in evening gown and the swim suit physical fitness segment.

This year, as in the past, contestants will be asked to make a donation to the Children's Miracle Network, a charity favored for many years by the Miss America Pageant.

Forms may be downloaded by going to www.missapopka.org or may also be found on the Miss Florida website at www.missflorida.org.

Questions not answered on the websites may be emailed to Rosali Morris at rosiecolors@embarqmail.com.

The pageant will be held Saturday, November 2, at 7 p.m., at the Wekiva High School auditorium.

Apopka 'colored' cemetery funded by community

Past Labor Day celebrations in Apopka's Soulsville

Perrine Slim
Bits 'n' Tips

In and around late in the fourth decade of the 20th century in Apopka's ghetto area, a petite group of Negro heritage civic leaders in the likes of Martha A. Board, H.M. Mobley, Maggie Gidden Hayward, Arthur Willis, Allen P. Chisholm, M. Gladden, and Tom Barnes established an organization to oversee, maintain and sell cemetery plots at Apopka's Greenwood Cemetery area, then designated for "Colored Only" burials.

The above listed group went through numerous encounters with neighborhood churches, fraternal societies and social clubs, seeking their ideas of financial means and ways of overseeing the project.

Three suggestions were agreed upon as follows: selling burial plots, volunteering cleaning persons, and quarterly financial support from each business below the T.O. & A. railroad tracks.

At that point in time, there were approximately 13 businesses involved in contributing to the cemetery project in the likes of Bill Chandler (grill and cafe), Sam Small (tailor), Jim Austin (billiards), M. Gladden (groceries and gasoline), Ethel Green (dry cleaning and gasoline), William Gladden Sr. (shoe repair), Richard "Dick" Hayward (beer tavern and ice cream parlor), Sam Weaver (chicken shack), Bob Davis (rolling cafe), H.M. Mobley (groceries and gasoline), Allen P. Chisholm (rolling produce), Arthur Willis (tailor), Gus Logan (beer tavern), L.T. Hunt (Realtor), Georgia Smokehouse (groceries), and Tom Barnes (carpenter).

Several key factors in the support and maintaining of the designated portion of the cemetery declined tremendously and was precipitated by a low volume of mortality rate and a large percentage of businesses not honoring their financial obligations.

So, the regular cleaning and maintenance could not be supported in the means that it was originally designed.

This prompted the Negro leadership group to employ the idea of once per year (Labor Day) cleaning the designated portion of the cemetery, including a free picnic that encouraged the entire dominant heritage families and friends of the deceased through volunteering their time and labor. This became an annual neighborhood family affair to spruce up the resting grounds of their forefathers and relatives.

Eventually, after the mid 20th century, the heritage leadership group requested the city of Apopka assume accountability and responsibility of managing the (then) cemetery for "Colored Only," thus turning all records of transactions and monies over to the city clerk.

The above transaction ended the era of a "Labor Day Cleanup at Cemetery" (smile).

mass shootings, income taxes, national debt, and other items. Just as we don't report on those, we aren't going to ignore the news of Apopka so we can write about an issue that is covered in many other places.

If a local group hosts a meeting to get out information about the Act and sends us details about the meeting, we will be more than happy to print that. That is our niche and we will always have a place for that type of information.

And, we do think that www.healthcare.gov and 1-800-318-2596 are the best places to get information about the ACA because those are administered by the federal government.

As an aside, we do wonder why the federal government has sent out nothing to this newspaper regarding the Affordable Care Act, either through news releases or paid advertisements.

It is a very important issue, we agree, but we have yet to receive any information from Washington about it.

This newspaper has been around since 1923. We shouldn't be hard to find, even as a community weekly.

To the best of its ability, The Apopka Chief will continue to fulfill its role as the information source to this community about its people, organizations, and events.

We will never abandon that.

Obamacare: Questions need answering, Chief responsible to help

2014: coverage begins.

Questions need answering: what is the fee if someone can afford coverage but chooses not to get it for 2014 and beyond; is dental coverage included; can part-timers get covered; how to sign up without online access?

Perhaps, most importantly, how do they qualify for federal tax credits and subsidies to help pay for coverage?

Sure, Apopkans can go to healthcare.gov for answers. Sure, they can call 1-800-318-2596 24/7 for answers. That still does not release you, our sole community newspaper, from the obligation to present this vital and complex information to your readership.

On theapopkachief.com you willingly proclaim your commitment to "excellence, accountability, integrity, and service." You can fulfill that pledge to all Apopka residents by running a series of front-page articles over the next few weeks elaborating on these facts.

To do anything less is unworthy of your claim of service, is selfish (putting your ideology ahead of Apopkans desperate for health insurance) and economically shortsighted, in that, not facilitating signup on the exchange perpetuates the costly practice of using emergency rooms for routine care. Instead, insurance through the exchange promotes personal responsibility for healthcare, saving costs for us all.

The Apopka Chief must take the lead in getting the word out.

This will simultaneously demonstrate compassion for the financially hard-pressed of Apopka, lead Apopka on a morally and economically smart path and make Apopka a healthier place for all to live.

So, Apopka Chief, will you rise to this urgent need? Will you do the right thing? We'll be watching.

Many people have lost faith in churches. With all the negative headlines, it is nice to see that there are still pastors who not only talk the talk, but also walk the walk. Pastor John Hampton is one of those pastors.

He loves people, but what is evident by his actions, is that he loves Jesus.

Nelson: Understandable confusion about new healthcare law tion recently. This tax or penalty applies to those individuals who remain uninsured after the deadline. Starting in 2014, those individuals will have to pay a penalty that is deducted from their paychecks.

For an individual, the penalty starts at $95 a year, or up to 1 percent of their income (whichever is greater) and would rise to $695, or 2.5 percent of income by 2016. For families, the tax will be $2,085, or 2.5 percent of household income, whichever is greater.

However, it can be waived for a number of circumstances, including financial hardship or religious beliefs. In addition, a family can become exempt if the health premium exceeds 8 percent of their income. In addition, there will be a tax dubbed "The Medicine Cabinet Tax." Under the provisions of this tax, Americans will no longer be able to use health savings accounts, flexible spending accounts, or health reimbursement pre-tax dollars to purchase non-prescription, over-the-counter medicines with the exception of insulin. In addition, there will be a $63 annual fee on all plans in order to help insurance companies cover the costs associated with high-risk pools, which will be passed down to all individuals under a medical insurance policy including dependents. Another means of covering the costs of the ACA is taxing individuals with earnings above $200,000, and married couples making more than $250,000. This tax is an increase to the Medicare Part A payroll tax at a rate of 0.9 percent on adjusted income over the previously stated threshold. This is an increase to 2.35 percent from the current 1.45 percent. This group of individuals will also pay a 3.8 percent tax on unearned income including: interest, dividends, annuities, royalties, rents, gains on the sale of investments, and real estate over the threshold. Lastly, another tax that has received notoriety is the tax on health insurance providers. Specifically, it is an annual tax on the industry that is imposed relative to the health insurance premiums collected that year. It is estimated that the tax will exceed $100 billion over the next 10 years and will be passed along to medical policyholders.

Many of my constituents in District 31 have come to me with questions about the ACA, although it is federal legislation. Because of my expertise on the topic of insurance, I thought it would be worth highlighting the details of the program.

With constant reports of delays in implementation, there has been an understandable amount of confusion regarding the facts about the ACA. The cost of the new healthcare law, and how we pay for it, is important to understand if you want to have a clear vision of the changes and benefits to come.

Next week's article will focus on the specifics of the individual mandate and what its implementation means for you. If you have any questions or would like to voice your opinion about the Affordable Care Act in Florida, contact me at bryan.nelson@myfloridahouse.gov or call my office at 407-884-2023.

however, that no matter how much men try to hide the light, it will pop up in the most unexpected places at the least expected times.

A very few men (Marx, Engels, Lenin) began the descent into darkness with a revolution of violence, in order to extinguish man's spirit. Probably, right now, at M.S.U., two or three students are reading something like Proverbs 20:27 … "The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, searching all inward parts of the belly."

They look at each other meaningfully, understanding and wisdom exchanged in a glance.

Then the real revolution starts. The ascent from the pit begins.

(Jesus said), "Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy; for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in like manner did their fathers unto the prophets." Luke 6:22 and 23.

Apopka students to meet for public prayer Wednesday

By Sherry Brunson
Apopka Chief Staff

Students from Apopka High School (shown at the 2012 event in photo above) will meet for prayer at the Darter bird in front of the cafeteria on Wednesday, September 25. The AHS event is sponsored by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Numerous students at Apopka High School, Wekiva High School and Trinity Christian School will participate in the national "See you at the Pole" day on Wednesday, September 25; an event intended to help students stand together to live their faith in the midst of often daunting high school peer pressure. The event has been extended to prayer throughout the week this year.

"Apopka High School's Fellowship of Christian Athletes, will host the AHS event at the Darter Bird in front of the cafeteria in our courtyard at 6:45 a.m.," said Nicole Mutters, FCA sponsor. "This year, the national focus is on a global week of Student Prayer that will be September 22 through September 28, with the focus being on '#IFTHEN.' 'IF we seek, pray, turn, THEN God hears, forgives, heals'-2 Chronicles 7:14. We encourage all of our community to be involved in this week of prayer. Adults, and all other community members, can also be involved in this week, by keeping the students and schools in your prayers. "See you at the Pole" is a student-led event, and therefore will occur at all area schools, as well as around the country at approximately 7 a.m., depending on what is their school start time. This is a major movement to encourage students to be involved in their schools as well as communities."

"Students will participate in See You at the Pole at the WHS flagpole in front of the school at 6:45 a.m.," said Angela Clayton, WHS spokeswoman. "Also the Fellowship of Christian Athletes for sure."

"I am headed to Wekiva High School on Wednesday morning, from 6:45-7:10 a.m., for See You at the Pole," said Eddie Schmidt, youth pastor of Journey Christian Church. "I will be there to pray and give a short devotional thought. I believe a few other youth pastors will be there and might give a devotional thought as well. See You at the Pole is a great opportunity to gather the school and pray for God's blessing on the school and the community as a whole."

Mutters said the event was started by a small group of teenagers in Burleson, Texas, who came together for a DiscipleNow weekend in early 1990.

"They came seeking God and little did they know how powerfully He was about to move," Mutters said. "Compelled to pray, they drove to three different schools that night. Not knowing exactly what to do, they went to the school flagpoles and prayed for their friends, schools, and leaders. God used what He did among those teenagers, and others who were holding similar prayer meetings at their schools, to birth a vision in the hearts of youth leaders across Texas, that students throughout Texas would follow these examples and meet at their school flagpoles to pray simultaneously."

The challenge was named "See You at the Pole" at a brainstorming session during a meeting of key youth leaders.

See You at the Pole began to spread to other nations through missionaries from the U.S.

Now, each year, more than three million students in more than 20 countries participate in the event.

Relay: Relay participants sign up for $5 with code

Payne said the Apopka Relay is one of the original five Relay for Life events in all the state and, currently, it has raised approximately $1.2 million to fight cancer.

"Last year, the Apopka event ran so smoothly that our associate director was very impressed," Payne said. "There are already 11 teams signed up for this year. Things will be different this year. People can sign up individually on a team for $10. For the rest of this month we are having a special offer of a $5 sign-up fee with the code: relay (all lower case) at www.relayforlife.org/apopkafl."

Anyone interested in participating in a study about cancer can visit the cancer.org website to sign up. More participants are needed before the study can begin, so recruits are eagerly welcomed.

The Apopka Relay will kick off Tuesday, November 19, at 6 p.m. in the Wekiva High School cafeteria.

ly improved this year," Spiegel said. "Anyone who buys a calendar will also receive a wallet-sized discount card for local businesses, we have re-designed the back of the calendar and there will be another page of coupons as well."

The calendars are intended as an easy-sell fundraiser for local churches, youth and schools. Each calendar is sold for $10 and $6 goes back to the organization.

"It is our hope that organizations will earn so much selling the calendars that they won't need any other fundraisers through the year," Spiegel said. "This year, we will also place the organization's logo on the discount card, so they will have their own 'branding,' which is usually too expensive for smaller organizations."

The Rotary will also award a certain dollar amount to award those who sell the calendars. The money will be earmarked for the choice of individual prizes or a pizza or ice cream party, for their hard work.

"We keep the costs down on the calendars because everything we do is by volunteers," Spiegel said. "We have sold $25,000 in the past two years and our goal is to sell $27,000 this year for local youth and charities."

See the story at the top of the page about the Apopka-Wekiva football game. The Blue Darters won 80-26, setting several records along the way. Both teams will move on from the game this week with Apopka traveling to Boone for a Metro Conference game, while Wekiva hosts Oak Ridge in the first of six District 7A-4 games for both the Mustangs and Pioneers.

Q. What state record did the Apopka Blue Darters set last week?
A. Apopka set a state record with 807 total yards, smashing the old record of 761 yards. The Blue Darters also set several school records in the 80-26 victory over the Wekiva Mustangs. The 80 points is a school record, while Apopka's 668 yards rushing is also the most in school history.

Darters set several school records in win over Wekiva

By John Peery
Apopka Chief Staff

Apopka set several school records Friday, September 13, en route to an 80-26 victory over the Wekiva Mustangs.

The 80 points set an all-time record for points scored by the Blue Darters in a football game, while Apopka's strong rushing game clicked on all cylinders, running for a record 668 yards on 43 attempts. Combined with 139 passing yards, Apopka had a school-record 807 total yards that is also a state record for total yardage in one game. In addition, Apopka had a school-record 10 rushing touchdowns, and the teams combined for 106 total points, which is an Apopka record for a non-overtime game.

Apopka's single-wing offense has produced some big numbers before, but since quarterback Zack Darlington's absence due to a second concussion, the Darters have moved back to the decades-old offense and racked up huge numbers.

"I think that, obviously, the guys we have running the ball are doing a good job," Apopka coach Rick Darlington said. "The offensive line is getting better."

And, it hasn't mattered that, in addition to Zack Darlington being out, starting running back Daquon Isom and starting wide receiver Ray Ray Smith have missed the last two games.

"They all have the same success," coach Darlington said. "I think the main thing is, since the proliferation of the spread offense, you see it every week. It's a whole different animal to defend us (in the single wing)."

For Wekiva, it was a disappointing performance after starting the season 2-0 and giving up just 15 total points in those games.

"Our play was lethargic, lackadaisical, nonchalant, heartless, unfocused, and without concentration to use a few words," Wekiva coach Kenard Lang said. "There just

Blue Darters play in top tournament in Orlando

By Neal Fisher
Apopka Chief Staff

On the heels of taking its fourth consecutive match against the Olympia Titans, the Apopka Blue Darters girls volleyball team moved on to the Winter Park/Lake Highland tournament. Played at the Orlando Sports Center Friday, September 13, and Saturday, September 14, the field was of the highest caliber as all of its participants earned postseason berths last season and Apopka left with what it wanted, an honest evaluation of where it stood as a defending district champion.

Apopka's record stood at 9-3 after the tournament. This week, Apopka faced Evans, Wekiva and Ocoee, as all three matches were either District 8A-3 championship or Metro Conference West Division meetings and one more step to claiming the crowns.

"We learned a tremendous amount," coach Jamie Lillethorup said. "We need to be mentally prepared when we start a tournament. We were very prepared to face Olympia. They were the program standing in our way for a long time. So, step by step, we got closer to defeating them until we finally did. A part of it was the mental preparation. Now that we have done it, we didn't learn to do it at this tournament, against the other teams we have to beat to get to where we want to be. We now need to learn to be mentally prepared against all the teams which are important for us to beat, not just Olympia.

"However, we (the coaches) were encouraged and proud of the team for how

AHS will sell tickets to Homecoming game early

Apopka High School will pre-sell tickets to the Homecoming football game next week.

Athletic director Fred Priest said the $6 tickets will be sold Wednesday, September 25, through Friday, September 27, during school hours.

Priest said those planning to attend the game can avoid long lines at the ticket booths prior to the game. He said the attendance for last week's Apopka-Wekiva game at Roger Williams Field was about 4,000, but only about 300 tickets were sold during the week.

The Blue Darters (3-1) will host the 1-2 Freedom Patriots Friday, September 27, in the annual Homecoming contest.

Kickoff is slated for 7:30 p.m.

Wekiva seeking bounce-back in district game

By Neal Fisher
Apopka Chief Staff

Under first-year coach Kenard Lang, the Wekiva Mustangs football team won its first two games of the season and, even with the second victory being more difficult than it needed to be, it looked like the program was turning the corner. But then the outing last week vs. Apopka was anything but a game. In every measurable way from the tangible, such as the statistics, to the intangible, the feel on each of the sidelines, it wasn't.

Were the first two games flukes or was what the Blue Darters did the aberration?

The question comes as District 7A-4 competition begins for the Mustangs against Oak Ridge (1-2).

"Obviously, we have to put the game against the Blue Darters behind us and get prepared for the Pioneers," Lang said. "We (the coaches) will remind the team about the score and the other characteristics which led to what happened. We have to practice hard this week and focus on what matters now, the Pioneers and the district. Their offense presents unusual problems.

"As I said before, the district is what matters. The point of playing a sport is to win championships. We are playing to win the district championship and get into the playoffs. It isn't much to judge, but so far we are in a good position. The team was very focused and practiced hard yesterday (Monday)."

Where: Wekiva's Mustang Field

In something of a side plot, the game matches two former NFL players who have gone into coaching. Oak Ridge is coached by Ricky Watters. After being the featured running back at Notre Dame during his collegiate days in the late 80s, Watters' NFL career spanned 11 seasons as he played for Seattle, Philadelphia, and San Francisco. With career totals of 10,643 yards on the ground and 4,248 receiving for a total 14,891, Oak Ridge's coach certainly knows how to move the ball and to do it in a variety of ways.

Like Lang, 2013 marks the first season he is at the helm of the program he is leading.

This first meeting between the two programs came to be because both moved down in their classification from 8A to 7A.

With the exchange of teams between the two classes after last season, 7A had fewer. With the new numbers, it was impossible to maintain more than one 7A district in Central Florida.

But the plotline which matters is how the programs have arrived at where they are and how they play.

For a prolonged period of time, the Pioneers were known for few victories and being far from the playoffs. However, that has changed over the past five seasons or so, as the Pioneers have posted winning records and earned a berth in the Class 6A 2010 playoffs (there were only six classes at that time), which began with a 34-14 victory over the Blue Darters.

Oak Ridge has regularly contended for postseason berths and become a perennially ranked team during the past five seasons or so. However, it has earned a postseason berth only once as it has had to contend with Dr. Phillips and Boone being in the same district.

Apopka's ground game will face 0-3 Boone

By John Peery
Apopka Chief Staff

A week after setting school records for most points and yards rushing in a game, the Apopka Blue Darters look to keep the prolific ground game going against the Boone Braves.

And, they likely won't have too much of a problem doing that, as the 3-1 Blue Darters will face the 0-3 Braves today, Friday, September 20. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. at Boone's Norton Baker Field.

Despite the absence of four skill-position starters on offense, the Blue Darters have racked up huge rushing numbers during their three-game winning streak. Last week, Apopka downed Wekiva 80-26 while gaining 668 yards on the ground, setting school records in the process.

But, that doesn't come into the conversation when coach Rick Darlington talks to his players.

"We don't even talk about the numbers. We're just looking to improve the fundamentals, blocking and tackling," Darlington said. "We want to make sure we're making the proper calls. (From game to game) We try to change things up formationally, but not change it up too much on our blocking schemes. We're still running just a few plays.

"Each week, you go about your business," the coach said. "I don't give them the motivational ploy of the week. We just go play."

There's nothing likely to change when the Blue Darters travel to Orlando to face the Braves. With quarterback Zack Darlington out with his second concussion in two months, and running back Daquon Isom and wide receiver Ray Ray Smith missing the past two games with a sprained ankle and bone bruise, respectively, the Darters have continued to pile up huge offensive numbers. They have rushed for an average of 507

Chase for the 2013 Sprint Cup begins; rain-delayed GEICO 400 diverts attention from recent NASCAR headlines

Matt Kenseth's victory in Sunday's rain-plagued Chase opener at Chicagoland Speedway, a race that was supposed to start at 2 p.m. Eastern time and ended around midnight, allowed the NASCAR world to enter Week Two of the Chase talking about something other than the shenanigans at Richmond International Raceway the week before.

But the manipulation of the finishing order of the Sept. 7 regular-season finale at Richmond by Michael Waltrip Racing and an apparent attempt to do so by Penske Racing and Front Row Motorsports won't been soon forgotten. The events at Richmond led to stiff penalties from NASCAR, a change in the makeup of the field for the Chase for the Sprint Cup and new rules for competition. NASCAR officials responded to the sport's biggest scandal in years by adding Ryan Newman to the Chase field and dropping Martin Truex Jr., adding Jeff Gordon as a last-minute 13th entry, and creating new rules forbidding drivers and teams from laying over to affect the outcome of a race.

Matt Kenseth hoists the GEICO 400 trophy after winning the first race of the 2013 Chase.

NASCAR chairman Brian France said the unprecedented steps were taken to try to help the sport overcome the damage done to its integrity by teams trying to get drivers into the Chase.

"I think we wanted it to be very clear, and we wanted to reinforce, frankly, the cornerstone of NASCAR, which is giving your all," he said. "And that's the cornerstone of any sport."

According to the new rules introduced prior to the Chase opener at Chicagoland Speedway, NASCAR will require competitors to race at 100 percent of their ability with the goal of achieving their best possible finishing position in an event.

The rules state that competitors who try to artificially alter the finishing positions of the event or encourage others to do so will face penalties, including "disqualification and/or loss of finishing points and/or fines and/or loss of points and/or suspension and/or probation to any and all members of the teams, including any beneficiaries of the prohibited actions."

The rules do not apply to normal racing tactics, and do not apply to start-and-park teams, as NASCAR president Mike Helton said that those underfunded teams are giving 100 percent of their ability.

Kenseth gives the fans a victory burnout at Chicagoland Speedway.

Additionally, there are new rules in place for the spotter stand, where much of the manipulation at Richmond took place.

Going forward, there will be only one spotter allowed per team on the spotter stand. That spotter will only be able to have two analog radios. No digital radios will be allowed on the spotter stand any longer. And the activities on the spotter stand will be monitored by NASCAR using cameras.

Penske Racing and Front Row Motorsports appeared to have worked a deal on the spotter stand at Richmond to have David Gilliland give Joey Logano a spot on the track in the closing laps in exchange for compensation in the future, but NASCAR did not remove Logano from the Chase. Officials did put both teams on probation for the remainder of the year.

Paul Wolfe, crew chief of Brad Keselowski's No. 2 Ford at Penske Racing, said after a meeting with NASCAR officials and Sprint Cup teams and drivers that the location of the proverbial line that can't be crossed without incurring big penalties is clear to him.

"I think everyone should have a pretty clear understanding of what that is now," Wolfe said. "If you go out there and run 100 percent to your ability and run a normal race, then everything will be fine."

Jeff Gordon, who lost a Chase spot because of Michael Waltrip Racing's manipulation but was later added as a 13th entry, said it was time for NASCAR to react, and react strongly, so the issue won't come up again.

Actions by Waltrip's team in the closing laps of the regular-season finale at Richmond included a questionable spin by Clint Bowyer to bring out the caution flag just as Ryan Newman took the lead and was poised to win the race and take a wild-card Chase berth from Truex. Then Bowyer and a third teammate, Brian Vickers, fell back in the field and finished behind 22nd-place Joey Logano, putting him past Jeff Gordon into the top 10 in points and opening the wild-card spot for Truex that was later taken away.

"There is more concern to me that we get to Homestead and have this come up again, so it needs to be addressed," Gordon said. "Usually what happens in a situation that gets to this magnitude, there is going to be an overreaction, and you understand that and accept that. It might need to be modified over time, but I think right now an overreaction is probably the acceptable reaction."

But Gordon also pointed out that the driver who started it all with an intentional spin — Bowyer — escaped with no real penalty, as his 50-point docking came before the points were reset and had no effect on his Chase seeding.

"A 50-point fine pre-Chase was no penalty," Gordon said. "I felt like [Bowyer's spin] started all this, and that didn't really get addressed."

Series officials also instituted a new policy on restarts, which have been a controversial subject all season. Going forward, the second-place driver can take the lead before the start/finish line as long as officials determine that the leader stepped on the gas first.

At Dover in June, Jimmie Johnson was penalized for jumping a restart and lost what appeared to be a sure victory. Then, at Richmond, Carl Edwards reached the starting line ahead of race leader Paul Menard, but was allowed to keep the lead and went on to win.

But at Chicagoland, there was no controversy about restarts, even though the second-place driver wound up with the lead several times.

NAPA Auto Parts to review future sponsorship of MWR

The historic penalties assessed Michael Waltrip Racing after Richmond, including a $300,000 fine and removal of driver Martin Truex Jr. from the Chase, may not be the only setback for Waltrip's team.

Truex's sponsor, NAPA Auto Parts, issued a statement on its Facebook page that indicates considerable unhappiness about the incident and hints that the company could pull its sponsorship of the No. 56 Toyota.

Here is what NAPA had to say: "The actions taken by Michael Waltrip's Racing team this past weekend, leading to the penalties assessed by NASCAR, are very concerning. We are disappointed that a partner associated with our organization would make such a significant error in judgment. In addition, we have launched our own review to determine the future of our partnership with Michael Waltrip's Racing team. The NAPA Auto Parts organization is proud of its long-standing NASCAR relationship. We share a passion with our customers for high-quality racing and seek to determine the best course of action for our customers, NASCAR fans, and the NAPA organization."

Kyle Busch sweeps Camping World and Nationwide Series races at Chicagoland Speedway

Kyle Busch has a 50-50 year going in the Nationwide and Camping World Truck Series, thanks to a sweep of those two races at Chicagoland Speedway. On Friday, Busch won a hard-fought battle with fellow Sprint Cup driver Brad Keselowski to take the EnjoyIllinois.com 225 for his fourth win in eight starts this season and the 34th triumph of his Truck career. Series points leader Matt Crafton finished fourth and now has a 41-point lead over second-place James Buescher.

Busch's second victory of the weekend was in the Nationwide Series Dollar General 300.

On Saturday, Busch dominated the Dollar General 300, leading all but five of 200 laps and taking the lead for good on Lap 31. Joey Logano finished second, with series points leader Sam Hornish Jr. third. It was Busch's 10th Nationwide win in 20 starts this season and the record-extending 61st of his career. Hornish has a 17-point lead over second-place Austin Dillon and is 36 points ahead of third-place Regan Smith.

Thirteen-driver Chase field is finalized with the addition of Jeff Gordon

Points standings and race results from Sunday's GEICO 400 at Chicagoland Speedway.

1. MATT KENSETH
(finished first) 2,063 points
In his first season with Joe Gibbs Racing, the top-seeded driver in the Chase ran his season win total to a personal record six by bolting past teammate Kyle Busch on a restart with 23 laps to go. His 89 laps led gave him the maximum 48 points for the race.

2. KYLE BUSCH
(finished second) 2,055 points; behind -8
After leading three times for 67 laps and having the lead late in the race, he fell to second place after Kevin Harvick pushed Kenseth past him on the deciding restart. Still, he seemed pleased with the results. "It was a great night for Joe Gibbs Racing," he said.

3. JIMMIE JOHNSON
(finished fifth) 2,052 points; behind -11
The five-time champion overcame confusion on an early pit stop when an official was briefly mistaken about whether a lug nut was tight and a broken jack on a later stop to score a top-five finish and remain in reach of the points lead.

4. KEVIN HARVICK
(finished third) 2,048 points; behind -15
A strong run was aided by some chassis adjustments after the five-hour, 10-minute rain delay, but a few more tweaks were needed to fix a loose condition and contend for the win. "Had a lot of fun and came up a couple short," he said.

5. CARL EDWARDS
(finished 11th) 2,040 points; behind -23
After winning the regular-season finale at Richmond, he never seemed to get his No. 99 Ford up to speed at Chicagoland. "We needed things to fall a little better, and I needed to make better decisions," he said.

6. KURT BUSCH
(finished fourth) 2,040 points; behind -23
For the ninth time this season, Busch and his single-car No. 78 team scored a top-five finish. This time it came in spite of a speeding penalty on pit road that had him a lap down more than a third of the way through the race.

7. JEFF GORDON
(finished sixth) 2,039 points; behind -24
A stirring run from the back after a flat tire with less than 100 laps remaining showed that the last-minute addition to the Chase field is capable of contending for his fifth Sprint Cup title.

8. RYAN NEWMAN
(finished 10th) 2,035 points; behind -28
Added to the Chase field after a review of the manipulations at Richmond, he moved up four spots in the standings with a top-10 finish despite not having track position for much of the race.

9. CLINT BOWYER
(finished ninth) 2,035 points; behind -28
The driver at the center of the controversy at Richmond had a comparatively uneventful run at Chicagoland and little to say afterward. "It was a good night" was his only comment.

10. KASEY KAHNE
(finished 12th) 2,032 points; behind -31
Damage to his No. 5 Chevrolet on an early trip to pit road hindered his efforts. "There were like three or four guys clueless on pit road; they are all stopping and can't find their stalls — like we've never done this before," he said.

11. GREG BIFFLE
(finished 16th) 2,032 points; behind -31
He ran in the top five for much of the race, but issues on pit road and a fading engine in the latter stages of the race left him with a mediocre finish. "That isn't the way we wanted to start, but we had a pretty fast car at times," he said.

12. JOEY LOGANO
(finished 37th) 2,011 points; behind -52
In his first Chase appearance, the 23-year-old won the pole and led the first 32 laps. But the engine in his No. 22 Ford began to go sour mid-race and finally blew after completing 175 of 267 laps.

13. DALE EARNHARDT JR.
(finished 35th) 2,010 points; behind -53
NASCAR's most popular driver enters the second Chase race deep in the points hole after a blown engine sidelined his No. 88 Chevrolet with 43 laps remaining. "It's going to be really hard to win a championship this far behind," he said.

NUMERICALLY SPEAKING

17 Bonus points earned by Sam Hornish Jr. for leading laps, tops among Nationwide Series drivers.

3 Rookies in the top 10 in Camping World Truck Series points: Jeb Burton in fourth place, Ryan Blaney in fifth and Darrell Wallace Jr. in ninth.

20 Top-20 finishes for Danica Patrick this season with her 20th-place finish at Chicagoland Speedway.

7 Drivers suffering blown engines in the GEICO 400 at Chicagoland Speedway: Denny Hamlin, Joey Logano, Cole Whitt, David Reutimann, Brian Vickers, Dale Earnhardt Jr. and Timmy Hill.

Records name of game for Apopka's ground attack

It was a record-breaking night for the Apopka Blue Darters football team in their annual football game against the Wekiva Mustangs.

Apopka's prolific rushing game was clicking on all cylinders and Wekiva wasn't able to slow it down.

The records set were: rushing yards in a game-668; total yards in a game-807; points scored in a game-80; and total points scored in a non-overtime game-106.

The 807 total yards was also a state record, smashing the old record of 761.

While I know there has been some talk about the 80 points Apopka scored, I haven't heard as much as I thought I might have.

And, based on how the game went, I am not surprised.

With the halftime score of 66-20, it was obvious that Apopka was running the ball almost at will against the Mustangs. Apopka's starters didn't play in the second half and everyone on the Apopka sideline had played by the end of the third period.

In the first half, Apopka's running back tandem of Robert Thomas and J.J. Simmons had accounted for a combined 18 rushes, 405 yards and seven rushing touchdowns. Quarterback Chandler Cox added 11 carries, 84 yards and one TD.

Of Apopka's 43 rushing attempts, 23 went for more than 10 yards and 13 went for 20 or more yards.

John Peery

Peery's Extra Points

For Wekiva's fans who thought Apopka was running up the score, you can't expect the young men on either team not to play hard when they get their chance.

It's obvious that Apopka played very well while Wekiva didn't. Going forward, the best thing is for both teams to forget the game, but to work on getting better and being focused on the next game on the schedule, nothing else.

Oak Ridge at Wekiva

As I see it, the biggest question in this game is how well Wekiva's players forget the loss to Apopka. They've got to move on from that. It wasn't a district game, and even if it had been, there are plenty of other games remaining on the schedule.

After seeing both Wekiva and Oak Ridge, I am convinced this should be a very competitive contest. It's the first District 7A-4 game for both teams and the winner will be among those in the driver's seat for a playoff spot. The loser has some time to rebound, but it's always better to be 1-0 than 0-1.

The Pioneers have tons of athletes on both sides of the ball. Quarterback Jerrell Antoine can fling it around and he is very quick on his feet. However, if you put a rush on him, he has a tendency to be very loose with the ball. He can be quick to turn it over. His top target is wide receiver Nyqwan Murray, who added to his highlight reel when the Pioneers played at Apopka.

Defensively, the Pioneers can be had up the middle: outside, not so much. They use their speed to keep teams from getting outside, but they aren't that tough up the middle. I would expect that Wekiva's Deondre Fair would be able to find some running room up the gut.

Keeping the chains moving and taking care of the ball are imperative for any football team, but I think it's especially important for the Mustangs this week. Oak Ridge can score in a hurry and the more time their offense spends on the sidelines, the fewer chances they have to score points.

Last week against Apopka, Wekiva's best chance to move the ball was through the air. This week, it will be on the ground.

In any case, I think it will be a close, competitive game.

Wekiva by 2.

Apopka at Boone

The Braves, under first-year coach Andy Johnson, are certainly struggling, and seeing Apopka come to Norton Baker Field isn't, I'm sure, their idea of a good time, especially after watching Apopka score 80 last week.

The Braves gave up 52 to West Orange and 65 to Timber Creek in the first two games, while holding University to 14 in their third game. However, the University game was just one half of play before the game was called due to bad weather.

Boone does have an offense that can move the ball. Against West Orange, they moved the ball, but bogged down in the red zone or turned the ball over. In the loss to Timber Creek, the Braves scored 43 points, so they kept themselves in the game.

Spread teams with mobile quarterbacks who can throw the ball have given the Blue Darters problems, as they have many other teams. Boone quarterback Calvin Smith is pretty elusive. His arm isn't the greatest but if he's given time, he can deliver the ball. His best plays are ones that break down and he scrambles out of trouble.

The other top playmaker for Boone's offense is Jaquarios Bargnare. He returns kicks and plays in the slot for the Braves. He is pretty shifty and can make defenders miss.

Those two guys especially are going to have to have big games if Boone is going to stay close to the Blue Darters. Based on what I have seen from Boone, I don't think the Braves can hold the Blue Darters below 50 points or 400 yards rushing. It will take a bad night from Apopka and a great game from the Boone defense to keep the Apopka offense from continuing to put up its otherworldly numbers.

There is no reason to think that Apopka won't continue to pile up big numbers on the ground, but I also expect them to work on the passing game because they will need it as the season continues. The better teams will be able to defend Apopka's ground game, making the passing game a necessity.

Boone isn't one of those better teams and the Blue Darters will have their way with the Braves, piling up big numbers on the stat sheet and on the scoreboard, as well.

Watered-Down Life

There are many ways in which technology has improved our lives. E-mail allows us to keep in touch with friends and family more readily than traditional mail. Cell phones allow us to be reached almost anywhere on the planet and are a boon to both commerce and communication. With smart phones and I-Pads we have a whole world of information at our fingertips with just a few keystrokes. But, the downside to all of this technology is that it tends to interfere with our face-to-face interactions, watering down our lives. Consider how often we are trying to have a heart-to-heart conversation and are interrupted by the cell phone. Even worse is the person who refuses to put down their phone during a conversation, insisting that they can attend to two things at once. Many people nowadays have trouble focusing on one thing at a time, no doubt in part because they have grown up constantly multi-tasking and never really having to focus on just one thing. The real downside to this is that multi-taskers miss out on the experience of truly savoring life. There are times when we need to multi-task; the mother cooking dinner and looking after her children may not have the luxury of doing just one thing. But, there are other times when we really need to just do one thing, and do it well, such as driving a car or having an important conversation.

Apopka High School golf team on course for solid season

By Neal Fisher
Apopka Chief Staff

After suffering the disappointment of failing to meet the fundamental goal in each of the last few seasons, this year's Apopka Blue Darters boys golf team has come out of the gate strong with a 6-3 record and isn't scrambling to get ahead of the proverbial eight ball. The Blue Darters have also played in two 18-hole multiple-field tournaments.

The goal for the team is the same as it has been since Don Cary took over as coach: to place among the top three at both the Metro Conference West Division and district championship tournaments. But all is not as tidy and precise with the record as the team enters its most consequential and far-reaching stretch of the regular season toward finally accomplishing those goals.

Alex Hall has been the most consistent golfer on the Apopka team.

No team can lower its scores if it is inconsistent. That has not been a problem as Apopka has been consistent for the most part. It has posted an average team score of 166 at this point of the season. The lowest score so far is 163 and Apopka has shot multiple rounds of 166 or lower.

Apopka has defeated Edgewater three times, as well as Bishop Moore, Wekiva and Foundation Academy. Its defeats have come at the hands of Olympia and West Orange (twice).

The result of the first meet against West Orange was indecisive as far as it counting as a loss. It was called after only five holes due to inclement weather with the score at 82-89. The loss to Olympia was convincing, by 21 strokes (144-165).

"Our two or three golfers we expected to be our low scorers still haven't found their game yet," Cary said. "They are shooting good rounds, but not as good as they are capable of, and have or need to be, for the program to move forward. Our victories have happened because our young players have really stepped up and shot some great rounds of golf. If we can do what we have without our best golfers playing their best, then we can lower our scores."

However, while Apopka has been about as consistent as a team can be, recording rounds of below 170 strokes in eight of its nine meets, the losses present some cause for concern. Furthermore, the team's performance in the loss against Olympia is reason for some concern, but its outing at the Lake Brantley Invitational is the kind which is inescapable. The team not only shot its highest round of the season so far, but it was such by far. Apopka shot 183 to finish sixth out of eight teams.

The concern about the last round is partially due to the fact Apopka faced its toughest stretch of the schedule this week and the opportunity it presented. Apopka took on perennial state powers Dr. Phillips and Boone Wednesday, September 18, and then East Ridge, Thursday September 19, both at home and past press time. Dr. Phillips, Olympia, and West Orange are members of the Metro Conference West Division while East Ridge is added for District 3A-7 action. For several years now, those four teams have earned the first through fourth at the district tournament.

"It came out of nowhere (the score of 183)," Cary said. "We just didn't see it coming. In itself, it is one match and, as such, it is not a pattern. But the concern is that it doesn't become a pattern. While there was still a lot of finding ourselves as far as moving forward in the big picture of the program's reputation and in particular, developing into competition for the perennial championship teams, we had put ourselves in a position to finally do it by starting the way we did. Now, we are not only playing to move forward as we were when the season began, but all of that is moot if we let ourselves fall out of that position.

"Also, and a principal component of our big picture is in the past, the only 18-hole tournaments we played were during the postseason (Metro and district championships). So to have the experience of playing 18-hole tournaments, we scheduled three during the 2013 regular season. Hopefully, our play at the Lake Brantley Invitational was just simply because of our inexperience with 18-hole tournaments. But it does right now pose the possibility that our ability to play 18 holes isn't as strong as we thought it was and needs to be to develop into a team capable of competing with the perennial championship teams."

Those expectations for the first half of the season were not met during 2012 as the team did not record its first round of a score in the mid 160s until the fourth week. This season, that score was reached during the second week and meet of the season.

Perhaps most importantly for the big picture of moving forward, the team kept that outing for the Lake Brantley Invitational as the lone bad outing during the first half of the season.

Apopka posted a score of 164 in the next match, against West Orange and Foundation Academy on Wednesday, September 11, which ended the first half of the season as well as before taking on the gauntlet of matches this past week.

"We began the season the way we needed to, playing real well and shooting in the mid 160s," Cary said. "That is a huge difference between this season and the past. But that good start isn't what is going to make it possible for us to move forward. However, any opportunity of moving forward within the big picture of being able to compete with the perennial champions wasn't possible without the good start. When we put together the schedule, it was important for that big picture of where the program is heading to include Dr. Phillips and Boone. Then we added East Ridge. It was important to put together the good start.

"But whether or not we improved on it is what is going to make us competitive with the perennial champions. Coaches expect teams to get better during the season and as we expected, our play or scores weren't as good as the perennial champions, to compete with them. But at the midway point, that good play at the beginning of the season should be improving into scores which make us competitive against them. The beginning of the second half of the regular season and beginning with them is far-reaching toward moving the program forward for that reason and it depends on translating improvement into scores."

That would be the case if Apopka was not entering the most important stretch of its regular season so closely after its worst performance so far.

"But it is even more so because we played poorly at the Lake Brantley Invitational," Cary said. "We were playing our game for the most part before the Lake Brantley Invitational. But now we have to refind it and then return to where we were improving on it. It doesn't mean the season can't or won't unfold the way we expected it to, with our play being good at the beginning of the season and then our scores improving into being competitive with the perennial champions.

"It means our poor play at the Lake Brantley Invitational coming out of nowhere has created a hindrance for us to overcome and put us in a more difficult position than we need to be. On several holes, we gave away strokes. We have shot three rounds in the mid- to low-160s, but each of the players could still drop a couple of strokes off their games. The schedule gives us an opportunity to do that, starting with this gauntlet. We will definitely be focusing more attention to the back nine and the difference when the entire course is being walked."

But once again, perhaps most importantly for the big picture of moving forward, the team kept that outing for the Lake Brantley Invitational as the lone bad outing during the first half of the season.

A standard regular season meet consists of nine holes and the four lowest scores from six players are added together for the final team tally.

Apopka's most consistent golfer has been sophomore Alex Hall, who has compiled an average of 42. Sophomore Hunter Nielson also has been something of a force for Apopka and allowed the team to do what it has with its seniors not able to pare its scores by those couple of strokes.

The second half of the schedule is also made up of meets against Ocoee (twice), Foundation Academy and Bishop Moore/Freedom (same meet) as well as the Bishop Moore Invitational (18 holes).

The other members of District 3A-7 are Dr. Phillips, Olympia, West Orange, Wekiva, East Ridge and Ocoee.

On October 2, Forest Lake Country club hosts the Metro Conference West Division championship tournament.

Apopka's home course, Zellwood Station Golf Club, is the site of the District 3A-7 championship tournament on October 14.

Apopka High swim teams continue winning waves

The Apopka Blue Darters girls and boys swimming teams both came away with convincing victories over the Edgewater Eagles in a meet held Wednesday, September 18, at Edgewater's College Park pool.

The Apopka girls defeated the Eagles 104-64, while the Apopka boys squad swam past Edgewater 113-55.

By winning their meet, the Apopka girls raised their dual-meet record to 4-1, guaranteeing them a winning record, which is a team goal. The Blue Darters have two dual meets remaining.

First places were won by juniors Elizabeth Ahrens, Brianna Felicianno, Alexis Lahendro and Clare Parsons. Team captains Ahrens and Meagan Amato expressed their pride in the girls winning record and heartfelt thanks for how hard the girls have worked to improve their times. Coach Jerry Russell said, "We are proud to have achieved two winning records for our teams again this year. We should continue with this upward trend next year with our girls program."

The Apopka boys team also had a solid outing. Double first places were won by seniors Dylan Preble, Hunter Lanovoi, and Brandon Vankuren. These boys were joined by juniors Dan Murphy and Jace Hovey in winning two relays.

Team captain Scott Davidson said, "We've got a lot of new swimmers this year, and we welcome them with open arms. All of them give the team 100 percent every single day, and we're proud to have each and every one of them." Preble, also a team captain, concurred with this statement.

Coach Russell said, "We'll really miss these seniors next year and will have to work hard to try to replace these key losses on our boys side when these fine athletes graduate."

Wekiva swim teams have good base on which to rebuild program

By Neal Fisher
Apopka Chief Staff

As the 2013 season begins, both the Wekiva Mustangs girls and boys swimming teams faced the realities that since high school is a four-year period, the same is true of the logistical make-up of a sports team. With the end of the 2012 season, the teams were in the position of having to move on from their most successful era after the most experienced, largest and most skilled class of seniors graduated.

While the program has lacked the directness and the kind of speed which attracts obvious attention, during the first half of this season, success, for the most part, has been achieved.

"The girls are still a work in progress and as I said at the beginning of the season, it will probably be that way for its entirety," coach Jeff Sharpe said. "But more and more, we are filling the holes we had. Everyone has made progress as has the team as a whole, especially with the good start to build on. The progress is continuing this week. We have a couple of more meets for the swimmers to gain much-needed experience and continue to improve before our two most difficult meets."

The butterfly stroke and the individual medley are usually the most difficult events to fill because they are the most difficult in which to compete. With about three-quarters of last season's team graduating, those were the biggest holes the Mustangs had to fill when 2013 began.

But instead, Wekiva has defeated Edgewater, Cypress Creek and Ocoee. Next on the schedule is the Lake Brantley Invitational. The team will not be competing as a unit. Several individuals will use the event to hone their preparations for the postseason. Then the two most difficult challenges on the schedule take place in the form of Freedom and hometown rival Apopka. The 2013 season ends with Wekiva facing Oak Ridge and Colonial.

The rebuilding of the girls team was seen as and has been partial because the Mustangs' two best swimmers from last season return and both have the potential to improve quite a bit.

Competing during the high school off-season, anything less than advancing to the regional meet will be seen as a disappointment for Madison Dewey and Sarah Brown.

Last season, Dewey was posting times that were good enough to qualify for the regional championship meet and that was with Wekiva in a much deeper district than its current home of District 4A-3. Unfortunately, Dewey could not compete at the district championship meet due to a family commitment that had been scheduled several months before the season began.

Brown fell one position short of advancing to the regional championship meet in multiple events.

The swimmers earning first through fourth position at the district advance to the regional championship meets. The same is true for advancing from the regional to the state championship meet.

Both swimmers are equally proficient and competitive in all four strokes and all the distances.

Among those Mustangs competing at the Lake Brantley Invitational are Brown and Dewey. Participating has a far more significant meaning for them than just winning or losing at the meet. A decision as to which races the two swimmers will compete in during the postseason probably will not be made until after the Metro Conference championship meet, but the Brantley meet will be a significant factor. With all the top swimmers from the area participating, it will be an opportunity to scout as well as evaluate the competition and compare accordingly.

The other swimmer the team has counted on so far is Destani Heyer, who is not only the team's lone senior, but its assistant captain.

"The team, in general, has come a long way since the beginning of the year," Sharpe said. "I am not sure if we will be stronger at the end of this season than we were last season, but we are in a position to get there. Hopefully we will, but either way, the experience and what we are doing this season sets us up very nicely for next season. There is only one senior on the roster this season, which was why we had so many questions at the beginning. But it is an advantage for the next season as all but one swimmer returns after the experience of competing during 2013.

"The swimmers have worked hard to put themselves in the position they are. But for us to get to where we want to be this and next season they will have to continue to do so. We can keep the streak of winning seasons continuing and accomplish the other goals, but it won't be easy. It will be achieved with that hard work."

With its victory against Ocoee, the Wekiva boys team is still alive to post a winning record. The victory ups Wekiva's record to 1-2 with the same schedule as the girls team.

In swimming, the boys and girls compete at the same time. The girls swim each event of the meet first and then the boys follow suit.

"Despite losing the first two meets, the goal is to put together a winning record," Sharpe said of the boys team. "We didn't start with that as a specific or definitive goal, but at this point of the season, it has become such. Looking at the rest of the schedule, we have the ability to win four of the last five meets on the schedule. Of course, that is a demanding goal, one which doesn't allow for any bad meets, but with the record at 1-2 and our returning swimmers times dropping across the board, it is in sight. The times have gotten lower between the first and second meets. Then, they got lower between the second and third meets.

"A couple of new swimmers have also joined the team recently, and we have been able to fill a few more holes," Sharpe said. "We are still a work in progress, but a progress that is improving and displaying potential to match the girls team."

Those times have consistently dropped with freshman Matthew Dewey as the team's face. Matthew is the younger brother of Madison.

But the Deweys aren't just a family of swimmers, they are accomplished swimmers as Matthew isn't just the face of the program. Like his sister, he joined the team already good enough to advance to the regional championship meet and it would take a dramatic drop in his times for him to fail to advance.

For now, however, as he awaits the postseason, he is making his name as the school record holder. After only two meets of his freshman season, he already set the school record for the 100-meter freestyle (held since 2007), 200-meter individual medley (held since 2008) and the 100-meter backstroke (held since 2008). His individual record is 3-1 as well.

Senior Michael Mansfield has been a source of strength for Wekiva, as well. He has won his specialty during all three of the meets. The 100-meter breaststroke is his specialty.

Markeel Williams has rounded into something of a force, too. This is his first year competing as a swimmer and he has shown considerable improvement, competing with the freestyle as his primary stroke.

The Metro Conference championship meet is scheduled for October 16. The other West Division members are Apopka, Dr. Phillips, West Orange, Olympia, Ocoee, and Evans.

The Mustangs are now a member of District 4A-3 and November 2 is the date its championship meet will be held.

Both of the meets are scheduled to be held at Winter Park High. The Wildcats are considered the beast of the newly restructured district for both genders.

However, Winter Park is the only program in District 4A-3 considered a perennial state power.

In the old District 4A-2, there were at least four programs considered perennial state powers. With that difference, the effect for Wekiva is the district field is wide open after the favorite.

Longtime district-mates Apopka, Ocoee and West Orange also moved with Wekiva.

The other members of the district are Colonial, Timber Creek, and University.

Full moon means fishin' should be good in area lakes

Jim Keck
Goin' Fishin'

Hello Folks,

I hope everyone had a great weekend and you got to do some fishin' last week. If you didn't, we've got a great weekend comin' up. We had the full moon Thursday, September 19. That means three days before and three days after the full moon, the fishin' is usually pretty good. So that puts day two and day three on Saturday and Sunday. If the weather is good, you should be able to catch some fish.

Lots of folks are still catchin' bluegills and shellcrackers in most of the lakes in our area. Lake Jesup, Lake Harney, and Lake Monroe have all been reportin' some nice stringers of panfish. You can work the shoreline cover or drift the open water with crickets, red worms, and grass shrimp. I got just a few reports that folks are tryin' to get an early jump on the specks, but the specks didn't get the message yet. We need some cooler weather and the water to get cooler before they start bitin' real good. You can still catch some specks durin' the summer, but they are goin' to be deep, and you will have to find 'em which can be a little tricky some times. Some folks like to troll for 'em and then try and catch 'em on jigs tipped with a minner.

The Harris Chain has been producin' some nice catches of bluegills and shellcrackers, too. Most folks are fishin' in Dead River, Haines Creek, 9th Street canal and the residential canals.

The bass fishin' on the Harris Chain is still doin' good even in this hot weather. Folks are catchin' some nice bass up to 7 and 8 lbs. by flippin' the heavy cover in Lake Eustis, Big Lake Harris, and Lake Dora.

The bass fishin' in our area like the Butler Chain and the Conway Chain has been real good. The bass are schoolin' in the Butler Chain, and the Conway Chain. Look for the birds to be divin' on the baitfish. These schoolers are small bass but remember they could have some big bass mixed in with 'em. You can catch 'em on Rat-L-Traps, noisy top-water baits, and swim-baits.

I got a chance to go fishin' with my grandson Brett this past weekend. It was his birthday, so Rick took us out for a few hours in Lake Butler. We caught 10 to 12 bass up to 5 lbs. Most of the bass were caught on plastic worms. Brett caught his first bass on his new rod and reel and he couldn't have been more excited. Of course, Rick caught the biggest bass of the day, but a good time was had by everyone.

So, if you want to catch some fish, this weekend would be a good time to go. Get your rods and reels ready and let's go fishin'. See ya next week.

Tip of the week: fish slowly for bass.

Save a few and good luck!

Brett Campbell, grandson of fishing columnist Jim Keck, shows off a three-pound bass he caught in the Butler Chain with a watermelonseed-colored plastic worm.

Volley: Apopka will host West Orange for top seed in district tournament and the way it rebounded every time it faced a defeat, in particular how we played against (Tallahassee) Chiles after losing to (Gainesville) Yonge in such a close and emotional match was impressive. Chiles had the best outside hitter tandem in the whole field. Overall, it was a good experience which will pay dividends in the future and the postseason."

Although Apopka failed to advance to the gold bracket, the end results were still notable and demonstrate its place among the sport. Apopka placed sixth overall. Forty-four teams competed in the tournament. Apopka also finished second highest among all of the Class 8A teams and third among those from Central Florida.

The scores can be put in several categories which demonstrate Apopka's place among the sport, but it still has those deficiencies which even as the smallest, are the difference between first and second at the highest level of competition.

Four of the five matches in which Apopka played went the maximum of three sets. Apopka split those four matches, 2-2. Two of the matches were decided by one point. The final score of the final set was 15-13. Four of the teams Apopka faced advanced to the final four of the FHSAA postseason tournament in their respective classifications last season. Two of the teams are nationally ranked.

And one of those three-set 15-13 losses was at the hands of the tournament's eventual champion.

Matches are best of three during regular season tournaments.

The field is divided into groups of four teams. Each team plays the other three in its group. Each team advances to one of the four-team, championship-round brackets according to the position it finishes in during pool play. For example, all the first place teams advance to the gold bracket. Second place is for silver.

Apopka began the tournament against Vero Beach, the only one of five opponents not to advance to the final four last season. The match went to Vero Beach in three sets.

Another three set match followed, but this time, Apopka claimed victory over Orangewood Christian.

However, Apopka couldn't make that one extra play which would have turned the momentum and with it, the tide of the match to their favor twice in a row. In a case of two teams meeting much too early in the tournament and unfortunately being in the same group, P.K. Yonge downed Apopka in the first of its two-set 15-13 matches. Most considered the match the best as far as the quality of competition and it was the smallest difference between losing and winning. As the best match of the tournament, it would have also been appropriate for the teams to meet in the finals.

For that to happen, the teams would have had to have been in different groups. Since P.K. Yonge went on to win the tournament championship and only one team can advance to gold tournament from each group, a case could be made it was also the de facto championship match.

Nonetheless, the loss dropped Apopka to second place in the pool and into the silver bracket. Chiles was on the other side of the semifinals and the match developed into the second consecutive three-set 15-13 outcome. This time, Apopka garnered the one extra point which was the difference in the final score and advanced to the championship of the silver bracket against Clearwater Central Christian.

As a finalist in the silver bracket, Apopka's tournament ended with it still having the opportunity to come home as a champion and the opportunity to compile an above-.500 record.

But it was not to be. Both sets were close, but Clearwater Central Christian made the plays which gave it the few extra points to win.

"We began the season and throughout the first half of it, we have focused on what we were doing on our side offensively and the side-out, serve-receive game," Lillethorup said. "But now we have to change that focus to those parts of the game defensively. Our numbers weren't where we wanted them to be or need them to be. Against the best competition in the state, the numbers stay up with defense. There isn't much of a gap and the difference between being able to score is in the transition from defense to offense. If we can't set ourselves up on defense to make the transition, we won't score enough.

"Our blocking wasn't good and we didn't put the ball down where wanted to. We weren't able to think ahead of what to do and how to do it. It is the volleyball equivalent of when a quarterback is said to have had the game slow down for him. When it slows down, he goes through that checklist of options and then makes the decision which puts his team in the best possible situation. It is the same process in volleyball. But we did leave the tournament feeling good because we can correct it. It is a volleyball issue that is correctable with practice and something all teams have to go through when they are in our position."

In something of a surprise, West Orange defeated Olympia, making the Apopka-West Orange meet at Apopka on Tuesday, September 24, the de facto meet for the number one seed in the district championship tournament. Apopka will also probably meet Dr. Phillips for the Metro Conference West Division championship.

"We learned we need to get more technically sound with our blocks. Still, we are in a position to accomplish all of our goals," Lillethorup said. "We just have to remember defense wins championship and make it our focus no matter what."

Apopka team wins tournament

The fourth grade True Ballers basketball team kicked off its season last weekend by winning the 15th annual Back to School Jam in Fort Lauderdale. The team went 3-1 in the event, defeating the Wellington Wolves for the championship. Shown are, (l-r), players Riley Kugel (MVP), Jayme Oliver, Jalen Lawson, Brice Sensabaugh, Trayvon Osborne, Bryce Harrison-Jex, Anthony Brown, and Terrence Gibbs. In back are head coach Paul Jex (l) and assistant coach Harold Lawson. Sensabaugh and Harrison-Jex were named to the all-tournament team.

Football: Darters had 668 yards rushing wasn't any personality in our play. However, all the words which describe poor play could be used. We (the coaches) just don't know why the team played that way. It was disappointing all the way around. We would have had to play well to win. But who we are just didn't show up. The way we played is not who we are.

"As disappointing as it was, we have to put it behind us by winning our next game. The score and the other characteristics which we lacked is what we will be reminding the team about preparing for Oak Ridge. Fortunately, we are now entering the part of the schedule which focuses on what matters, the district games."

As the score would indicate, it was dominated by the Blue Darters, although the Mustangs trailed just 15-7 after about five minutes of play.

Apopka scored touchdowns on its first seven possessions. Only a fumble inside Wekiva's 5-yard line stopped the eighth drive from ending in the end zone. However, Apopka's defense got in the scoring act following Wekiva's recovery of the fumble. Wekiva running back Deondre Fair picked up a teammate's fumble in the end zone and he was forced out of the back of the end zone for an Apopka safety and two points.

The Blue Darters pulled the starters after forging a 66-20 halftime lead. A running clock was used during the final two quarters.

Apopka was led by J.J. Simmons, who rushed for 215 yards and five touchdowns on just nine attempts. He was backed up by Robert Thomas, who gained 190 yards and had two scores, also on nine carries. The other starting runner, Chandler Cox, rushed for 84 yards and a touchdown on 11 attempts.

In the second half, Desean Massey, a freshman, ran for 92 yards and had two scores on seven carries. Fellow freshman Demetri Burch added 60 yards on five rushes.

Of Apopka's 43 rushing attempts, 23 went for more than 10 yards, while 13 were for more than 20 yards.

"We just overpowered them," Darlington said. "We can look out there and see what the other team is trying to do to defend us, and then we know, this should be open. Or, if they run this play, this should be open."

Although facing a 3rd-and-8 from its own 28 on the opening series of the game, it quickly turned into no problem when Simmons broke loose around the left end for a 41-yard gain that seemed to break open Apopka's rushing game. He scored three plays later on a 13-yard run.

Tyler L'Heureux, who hit 8-of-9 extra point tries, put Apopka up 7-0 with the game just 2:01 old.

After forcing Wekiva into a three-and-out on its first possession of the game, Apopka took just one play to tally another touchdown when Thomas hurdled a Wekiva defender en route to a 60-yard scoring run. He ran in the two-point conversion to give the Blue Darters a 15-0 lead with 8:25 remaining in the first quarter.

The Mustangs got on the scoreboard on their next possession, as Bart Bell and his receivers cranked up the passing game. Bell hit Jarod Bargaineer on a quick out pattern. He broke a couple of tackles and scampered 67 yards for a touchdown. James Varble added the extra point to cut Apopka's lead to 15-7 with 7:03 still left in the first period.

Apopka, however, broke the game open by scoring the next three touchdowns with Simmons scoring twice on runs of 53 and 9 yards, while Cox added an eight-yard run to give the Darters a 35-7 lead 19 seconds into the second period.

Wekiva answered with Bell's second scoring toss of the contest, a 26-yarder to Bargaineer. Varble's extra point narrowed the lead to 35-14 with 9:34 remaining in the second quarter.

The Blue Darters tallied two more times before the Mustangs scored again, as Thomas ran 40 yards and Simmons went 34 yards for scores.

Bell found Fair on a nine-yard pass play for a score with 6:31 left in the second. At that point, Apopka led 50-20.

The Blue Darters were on their way to another score, but came up short on a fumble with the ball at the Wekiva 2-yard line. The Mustangs recovered at their own 5, but the Darters scored the safety at the 3:48 mark of the second to up the lead to 52-20.

After Wekiva's kick following the safety, Apopka took just one play to score when Cox hit Simmons in stride for a 75-yard touchdown pass.

On its own 39 after a three-and-out by Wekiva, Apopka again scored quickly, driving 61 yards in three plays with Simmons running it in from 28 yards out. L'Heureux's extra point gave Apopka a 66-20 halftime lead.

Wekiva struck first in the third quarter, as Fair found a seam in the Apopka defense for a 50-yard touchdown run.

Massey, a freshman, scored Apopka's final two touchdowns, running for 26 yards and 39 yards.

Zellwood Station will host golf event for wounded veterans

By Neal Fisher
Apopka Chief Staff

After four years of hard work by the Zellwood Station Veteran's Club, its annual Veterans and Physically Challenged Golf Outing has blossomed into an influential instrument aimed toward aiding veterans with physical disabilities.

With the calendar now halfway through September, the anticipation of making a difference for those who served our country and sacrificed so much has again come to fruition.

This year's event, the fourth, is being held again at Zellwood Station Golf Club and is set for Saturday, September 28.

The focus of the annual event is to show the respect and appreciation for the efforts and sacrifices of the soldiers as they deal with the difficulties of military combat.

The day will consist of 18 holes of golf, a continental breakfast, a lunch buffet, range balls, soft drinks and water while playing, the use of a golf cart, various prizes and awards, as well as camaraderie among the veterans and the hope of inspiration as tributes to all the veterans present take place.

Play is scheduled to start at 8:30 a.m. after the breakfast and the outing will be a scramble format with a shotgun start.

The entry fee is $40. However, there is no cost for the veterans with disabilities.

Organizers have included a closest-to-the-pin and longest-drive contest as a part of the day. Other contests may be added as the day of the event approaches. The team which compiles the lowest score will also receive an award.

The opening ceremony will be performed by an honor guard from Tampa. All of its members are disabled.

Donations and/or sponsorships are being sought by the organizers. Sponsorships will consist of signs at the tee of a designated hole or another prominent place. Tables to market whatever product or service the company offers will be available inside the clubhouse.

Many of the veterans were injured by improvised explosive devices while serving and as a result suffered from burns, amputations, blindness, as well as traumatic brain injuries.

During the first three years of its existence, proceeds raised from the annual event have been donated to AVAST, Vietnam Veterans Association of Mt. Dora and individuals in need.

Based in Tampa, AVAST provides assistance to amputees and challenged military personnel attempting to reintegrate into society after returning from battle. The Vietnam Veterans Association is active in rehabilitating homeless veterans.

Gifts have also been purchased for those recovering at the Veteran's Hospital in Tampa.

For more information about participating or to get involved with the event, call the golf club at 407-886-3303, Frank Lowry at 407-889-7648 or Norm Brown at 407-886-8210.

Experience the world's flavors through international cuisine

Kitchen Kapers
By Ramona Whaley

This week's Kapers is all about foreign foods cooked in the USA by local families who may have discovered them while traveling abroad or maybe found recipes for them in cookbooks like this week's featured four Apopka-area community cookbooks.

Those cookbooks are Calvary Church of the Nazarene's A Harvest of Recipes, Apopka Citizen Police Aluminum Association's Sharing Our Finest Cookbook, First Presbyterian Church of Apopka's Treasures and Pleasures, and Kathleen Jackson's and Tracey Davison's Women On The Move Cookbook.

International cuisine is much appreciated by those of us for whom learning about new-and-different-to-us foods is the next best thing to actually traveling around the world.

From Swedish meatballs to Mexican enchiladas, we love discovering and trying international cuisine from all the exciting lands of all those foreign foods' origins.

Make a meal of a couple countries' cuisine from the international recipes sampler below soon and plan to enjoy sampling all these other places' foods as well in more near-future meals.

ANGELA HOUSE'S AND DONNA PUTERBAUGH'S ENCHILADA ROLL-UPS
Recipe from Calvary Church of the Nazarene's A Harvest of Recipes

1 package Fat Free Mission Flour Tortillas (10 tortillas)
1 (10-ounce) can enchilada sauce
1 pound hamburger, browned
3/4 can green chilies, chopped
1 onion, browned
Shredded Cheddar and Monterey Jack cheese (amount to your taste)

Brown the meat. Mix all ingredients except the tortillas, cheese and sauce. Fill (with mixture) and roll tortillas. Place in baking dish. Pour a large can of enchilada sauce over top and sprinkle with additional Cheddar and Jack cheese. Bake at 375 degrees for 20 minutes.

SHARON HULLINGER'S ASIAN CHICKEN
Recipe from Calvary Church of the Nazarene's A Harvest of Recipes

1/2 cup soy sauce
1/3 cup vegetable oil
1/4 cup water
2 tablespoons dried minced onion
2 tablespoons sesame seeds
1 tablespoon sugar
4 cloves garlic, minced
1 teaspoon ground ginger
3/4 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon cayenne pepper
3 to 4 pounds boneless chicken thighs

Combine first 10 ingredients in a large Ziplock bag. Add chicken to bag and refrigerate overnight. (If you wish, freeze the chicken this way and then let it defrost and marinade during the day.) Drain and discard marinade, then grill the chicken until juices run clear.

CAROLE GONZALEZ' ITALIAN FLAG CASSEROLE
Recipe from Sharing Our Finest Cookbook

1 pound white pasta (spaghetti, linguine, etc.)
1 pound spinach pasta
3 tablespoons olive oil
1 large clove garlic
1 can Italian plum tomatoes
1 teaspoon oregano
1 teaspoon basil
1 large bay leaf
1/2 teaspoon freshly ground pepper
1 tablespoon brown sugar
1 teaspoon parsley flakes
Parmesan-Romano blend cheese

Cook the pasta separately according to package directions and set aside. To prepare sauce, put oil in heavy pan and heat the oil with garlic. When garlic is brown, remove and discard it. Add all other ingredients except the cheese and pasta. Simmer over very low flame for two or three hours, until considerably thickened.

Oil a casserole dish and put in it a layer of green pasta. Spoon sauce over the pasta, then add a layer of white pasta and sauce. Continue alternating the green and white pastas and covering with sauce each layer with sauce until ingredients are used up, ending with sauce. Sprinkle cheese over top of casserole thickly. Place in hot oven (four hundred degrees) for 10-15 minutes, just until cheese melts. Serve immediately.

Darters: Boone's quarterback is mobile out of spread yards per game and 10.7 yards per rush. In addition to those three, tight end James Crider is finally off crutches but remains out after suffering a knee injury in the season opener at Duncan (S.C.) Byrnes.

Apopka's huge offensive numbers don't bode well for the Braves. In Boone's first two games, it gave up 52 to West Orange and 65 to Timber Creek in losses. In last week's defeat at University, the Braves allowed only 14 points, but that was just for one half of play as the game was called at that point due to lightning.

Boone's issues on defense doesn't mean Apopka won't prepare hard this week, Darlington said. Apopka is expecting Boone's best game, he said.

"I'm sure they're trying to get better just like we are although they have not been as good on defense as they have on offense."

The Braves move the ball well offensively behind shifty senior quarterback Calvin Smith running the spread offense.

"Boone is scary on offense," Darlington said. "They're another spread team and they do a good job spreading the ball around. They've got a good quarterback who runs well, and they seem to know what they're doing.

"I've always said that a spread offense with a quarterback who can run is the toughest thing to defend."

Hindering Apopka's defense will be the continued absence of linebacker Johnny Robinson. He was limited earlier in the season with a strained hamstring. He then injured the other hamstring last week in practice and missed the victory over Wekiva. He isn't expected to play against Boone. "We are so thin at linebacker," Darlington said.

Other than Smith at quarterback, Boone's other top playmaker is Jaquarios Bargnare. The sophomore is generally used as a slot receiver, but is also Boone's top return man on kickoffs.

Apopka, meanwhile, has plenty of playmakers and has proved it even with the skill position players out.

Anchored by junior Martez Ivey and senior Sam Janetzke, the offensive line has continued its improvement week by week. Center Miguel Sainez, along with Austin Ryan, Wes Cullison, and Adam Hough have gotten better as a unit, which has helped lead to Apopka's big rushing numbers.

Even though he's not on the line, blocking back Christian Velazquez has also been part of the improvement.

TLC Pet Salon offers tips on your pet's health and nutrition

TLC Pet Salon has been in the Apopka area for nine years, providing superior grooming services to both cats and dogs. Not only do they provide grooming services, they sell quality products to ensure all around good health for your four-legged family members. The groomers and bathers at TLC Pet Salon have been there for many years; they all have a passion for animals and strive to make your pet's experience a great one every time they visit.

Soon they will have their website up and running where you can keep up to date with everything that is happening. The web address is www.tlcpetsalonapopka.com. Until the site is up and running, you can visit their Facebook page and like them!

Providing proper nutrition for your animal is a big part of your pet's health. TLC Pet Salon sells Royal Canin breed-specific foods as well as Blue Buffalo. There are many other quality foods that can be ordered if you would like to try your pet on some quality food.

When you are choosing a food for your pet, make sure to read the ingredient label just like you would for your human family. Make sure the First ingredient is always the meat. You should not see corn, by-product meal, or corn gluten meal. All of these are fillers and not needed for your dog's diet.

Any added color should be avoided (Red 40, Yellow 5, etc), as these offer no nutrition to the dog. These dyes can cause the dark staining under the eyes and the stains on the paws where your pet licks. Many animal parents give their dogs the lower rated foods because the animals like it better, but that doesn't mean it is better for them!

There are websites available that will rate and compare your dog's food that are not sponsored by a specific dog food brand. Compare your needs as well as your pets and come up with the best for your family.

Dental health is very important for your pet. Daily brushing is preferred, but if that isn't possible, give your dog good bones that are designed for dental health. Also, feeding dry food instead of wet helps prevent the build up of tartar. Dental disease is painful for animals just as it is for humans, so take a minute and think about your pet's dental health.

TLC Pet Salon offers teeth brushing as well as mild scaling. Much of the built-up tartar can easily be removed without having to be sedated and at a fraction of the cost. It is a great start to beginning your pet's dental plan. You can also purchase a toothbrush and toothpaste if you want to continue at home.

If your dog has those brown tear stains under their eyes and on their paws, TLC Pet Salon sells Angels' Eye. It is a product that is consumed by the animal and will definitely remove those unsightly stains and excessive tearing. Many of the wipes and other products just don't take them away. Be sure there are not other eye problems with your pet that need to be check by a veterinarian.

TLC Pet Salon is located at 2453 E. Semoran Boulevard in Apopka, one-quarter mile east of Wekiva Springs Road, in the Aarons Plaza next to Enterprise Car Rental. Call today at 407-814-Paws (7297) to schedule your pet's spa experience, or stop by and visit the shop at any time. You will be glad you did.

When you are choosing a food for your pet, make sure to read the ingredient label just like you would for your human family. Make sure the First ingredient is always the meat.

Dr. Katrina Schroeder believes prevention is the solution to healthy smiles

Dr. Katrina Schroeder knows that most dental diseases are preventable. Prevention and early treatment can help preserve your teeth, gums, and overall health… and can cut down on further dental expenses!

Benefits of maintaining that wholesome smile are plain to see, boosting confidence and improving your overall sense of wellbeing. But a healthy mouth is good for you in others ways, too.

Regular dental visits are for keeping your teeth and gums in good shape. Besides brushing and flossing, a biannual checkup might be the best thing you can do for your oral health. But, what you might not know is that there's a strong relationship between your oral health and your overall health.

Bacteria from untreated gum disease can actually spread infection to other parts of your body. Also, some non-dental conditions have symptoms that appear in the mouth. Dental examinations can reveal signs of vitamin deficiencies, osteoporosis, or more serious conditions such as diabetes or oral cancer.

Dr. Katrina Schroeder's dental practice offers you a comprehensive approach to your entire dental care needs. Whether it's a routine check-up or an advanced procedure, her staff is trained in the newest dental techniques, and ensures your visit is a comfortable one.

Dr. Schroeder has experience in the most up-to-date dental technology and treatments and gladly accepts most insurance plans. Plus, she offers a payment plan that allows patients without dental insurance to afford the best possible dental care.

Once you meet Dr. Katrina Schroeder, you can see why she's so popular with her patients. Her remarkable proficiency is perfectly complemented by her warm personality. Dr. Schroeder is a graduate of the University of Florida, and is fully certified in such innovative new treatments as Invisalign® and cosmetic porcelain veneers.

Dr. Katrina Schroeder is Invisalign certified. Invisalign (braceless braces) is the latest offering for orthodontics. This is the ideal solution for patients who have their permanent teeth. The product is virtually invisible and removable for meals, brushing, and flossing. Dr. Schroeder also offers Zoom! Whitening.

Mustangs: The Pioneers have many athletes on both sides of the ball

While it doesn't appear to be the primary reason for a coaching change, Watters was hired during the off-season as the Pioneers' head coach and with it comes the responsibility of finally becoming that perennial playoff participant. Oak Ridge began the season in the position to meet that responsibility, as it is the only team in the new district to have a winning record from 2012. Despite two losses already, that is still the case and, with this game being the district opener for both teams, the Pioneers are playing to maintain that position.

However, with the FHSAA placing several programs with little or no history (except Wekiva vs. Ocoee) against each other in the same district, there is a goodly amount of uncertainty as to the make-up of it.

"The district is there for the taking," Lang said during preseason practice, "Any time a new district is formed that is true, but it is one step further. Only one of the teams had a winning record last season and several of the teams changed coaches. East Ridge isn't the same team. Ocoee is another team we have to establish we can beat, after losing that game last season."

And now the time has finally come.

At the end of all the attributes on the list of the physical attributes needed to win and earn berths in the playoffs, there is the check indicating the Pioneers possess it. At the top of that list are speed, athleticism and size, the trifecta which makes it possible to run the offense the Pioneers do.

While a more scaled down version to match the high school level of play and the term isn't directly applied to it, the exceedingly multi-facet distinctiveness of the Oak Ridge offense resembles the run-and-shoot of the Houston Oilers during the late 1980s to early 1990s. With Warren Moon under center, the run-and-shoot Houston ran utilized four basic tenets and so does Oak Ridge. It is a pass-first offense, has a four-wide receiver commitment, the receivers read the defense on the fly and quarterback movement is essential.

While those four basic tenants separate this offense from the more often used ones throughout history and currently, it further separates itself from other specific spread as well as run-and-shoot designs.

Not all spread offenses are pass-first and not all teams which have or are using the run-and-shoot concept are pass-first. However, this offense begins and often ends there, with the pass.

The offense not only uses the long screen and bubble pass as a long hand-off, but it employs an element of the individual players making adjustments at the same time throughout each play to break defenses down. The pass allows for the adjustments on the fly to be made. The reason for such a priority on the adjustments in this manner is because it allows the players to use their athleticism, speed and size in motion. Conversely, it also is the reason athleticism and speed are required to run the offense.

It is a design which symmetrically allows for the natural athlete part of the ball-carrier to come to the forefront in unpredictable match-ups through minimal coaching, much like an organized version of playground games.

While run-and-shoot teams are more multiple formation than traditional run-first offenses, it is still less than most spread teams. They typically use a two-by-two or a trips spread look. (A single backside receiver and three to the other side.) And they rarely line up in a five-wide formation.

Over the years, how the quarterback creates movement has changed from rolling out to dropbacks. But what has not changed is the skilled players decisions are predicated on what the quarterback does or in other words, he is still the triggerman.

In Jerrel Antoine, Oak Ridge has the quarterback to run this offense as he possesses all the skills and attributes needed to make the offense formidable.

Against West Orange last week, he completed 19-of-25 passes for 221 yards and three touchdowns.

Yet, in its simplest terms, the run-and-shoot is a high-reward, high-risk offense.

Ironically, the defense relies on traditional and conservative play, using a 4-3. With its speed and athleticism, it attempts to use the 4-3 to force the play to run to the outside. It uses the blitz and pressure in the backfield sparingly. Instead, the defense responds to where the flow of the play is going. The ability to negate a team's power and strength as well as force the action by running the ball up the middle is sacrificed to prevent being beaten by speed and athleticism in open areas outside the tackles.

Former Wekiva linebacker Jonathan Jones is the anchor for Oak Ridge's defense.

After three games, the Oak Ridge offense has been by far more high-reward than high-risk as it has put up 98 points, an average of nearly 33 per game. But the defense has been just as porous, giving up 116 points and an average of 39 per game. While Oak Ridge has taken on two top-10 teams with about as high-powered offenses as there is in West Orange and Apopka, those numbers are still high.

The Blue Darters ripped the defense for 422 yard on 72 carries. As described, more than 90 percent of that total came between the tackles. The Warriors assaulted the defense for more than 500 yards, 230 of it was gained on the ground by Jamarcus Frederick.

So far, a victory over Gateway is Oak Ridge's only win.

After the disaster which last season was for the Mustangs, perhaps the best possible scenario for Wekiva was to move into a new division consisting of teams with which it has little or no history (except Ocoee). The emotional ramifications can have a domino effect on the rest of the season. However, Apopka is no longer in the same district and only two opponents remain on the schedule from 2012. And as such, even though the loss to Apopka was as bad as a team can suffer, the tangible implications (other than it being one loss on the record) in themselves to Wekiva are none.

"If we play smart physical football, we should be fine in the long run," Lang said. "That is Mustang football. We are still trying to figure out the entirety of our identity, but we have shown some of it. It will probably be in its end form about the sixth week. For now, if we continue we will be able to challenge the Pioneers. We actually ran the ball fairly well against the Blue Darters. And we will continue to try to be balanced as a part of the identity. The defense was the hiccup."

Wekiva uses the pistol offense out of a spread zone formation, a modernized form of one of those conservative run-oriented offenses. Before last week's game against Apopka, with quarterback Bart Bell, running backs Deondre Fair and Jarvis Scott getting about 90 percent of the calls, Wekiva's balance was normal as it gained 354 yards on the ground to 211 through the air during its first two games. The number of plays was 68-32, respectively. Although against Edgewater it was 27-21, respectively.

The defense lines up in the traditional and conservative 3-4. A lot of blitzing and an assortment of it is used.

"The first three games were the warm-up, even the loss to the Blue Darters," Lang said.

And once again the story of this game is simple from Wekiva's view: Were the first two games or what happened against Apopka the aberration?

Teachers greet students with enthusiasm, ready to get started

Clay Springs BFFs and guest

APOPKA ELEMENTARY

Administration

The students and staff at Apopka ES are off to a great start! The students are working hard to shake off the summer sun and are digging in to their curriculum. The teachers returned eager to build on their success from last year and make their way to an "A" school. PTA held their back-to-school dance and it was a wonderful night to celebrate friends, family, and the Apopka community. We are excited as fall approaches and our car line is getting shorter! We appreciate everyone's patience as we load the children into the cars as quickly as possible. One last exciting piece of news… Apopka Elementary School is now on Twitter! You can follow us @ApopkaES_OCPS for updates on news and events taking place at Apopka ES.

ESE Department

The Exceptional Student Education department is off to a great start this school year. In our Enrichment class, the students are doing some 'get-to-know' each other activities, along with other thinking and problem solving skills to help within the classroom. Our students in Autistic classes are learning about how families are alike and different, and in our InD classes, students are learning the concepts of print, (front of book, back of book, title, etc…). Our higher functioning class is working on subtraction and writing dictated words from the board.

Pre-Kindergarten

In Pre-K, we are having fun learning our letters and numbers! This week we played with shaving cream to practice writing the letter "Aa." We are also learning good health habits like sneezing and coughing into our elbow so we don't spread germs. We love to learn and play!

– The happy and healthy VPK class at Apopka Elementary School

Kindergarten

The Kindergarten teachers have been working on introducing our new students to routines and procedures. The kindergarten students have been busy learning letters and letter sounds, numbers 0-5, the attributes of the five senses, and building a community. We would like to extend a warm welcome to our newest teammates, Mrs. Jacque Oliveria and Mrs. Barbara Inmon. We look forward to a fun and exciting year.

First grade

First graders at Apopka Elementary are diligently working on developing their reading skills, especially in fluency and comprehension. They have also started their math and science curriculum, which they thoroughly enjoy. We have had our first Science Day where students were engaged in hands-on inquiry-based labs and experimentation with various science tools. We are looking forward to an incredible school year where students are provided amazing opportunities and are exposed to a curriculum that encourages them to think creatively and critically.

Second grade

Second graders at Apopka Elementary participated in a Measuring Marathon. They used many different science tools in a variety of ways to learn about the tools and how the tools can be used to answer questions when using inquiry skills. They used scales, balances, measuring cups and spoons, rulers, yard sticks, even paper clips to measure various items at 18 different stations.

Third grade

The third grade Dolphin pod is off to a swimming start after a long, hot summer! In Reading and Language Arts, students are learning how to pick a "good fit" book, build stamina for independent reading, and craft paragraphs filled with descriptive sensory language and powerful vocabulary. In Math, they are sharpening their multi-digit addition and subtraction skills by learning how to check answers for reasonableness. Over in Social Studies, they have learned the names and locations of the continents and oceans, how to use maps, and just where they fit into the big picture. Last, students are reacquainting themselves with the scientific method by investigating how scientists design experiments and how they use different tools.

Fourth grade

We are roaring up an exciting year in fourth grade. During the midst of rules and "getting to know you's," the Apopka Elementary fourth Grade Dolphins are experiencing many new things, as well as revamping some old ones. Classmates are collaboratively working on a Magic Tree House Project, stemming from a free set of four books that they received as third graders. During the week, we are also strengthening writing in preparation for fourth Grade FCAT Writes, and experimenting in our Science Lab. There is much to do and learn this year, but we are prepared for the challenge!

Your fourth Grade Apopka Dolphins (Larson, McCloskey, Reynolds, Howard, McElroy)

Fifth grade

The "fin"tastic fifth grade dove right in to our exciting year! Starting off in Reading and Language Arts, we have elaborated on becoming an exemplary reader, by using text features to gain insight in nonfiction and analyzed plot structure through the literary genres. We are increasing our vocabulary through our fun and exciting Flocabulary program. In Math, we strengthened our multiplication and place value concepts and are successfully building upon our division knowledge. Upon mastery of division, we are eager to begin our study of order of operations through PEMDAS. Splashing into Science we have already learned what it is like to be a scientist, and are LOVING science lab. Our current focus is exploring Matter and all of its properties. We are looking forward to our first science day of the year. We are excited to continue on our journey through American History by taking a closer look at the lives of our founding explorers.

CLAY SPRINGS ELEMENTARY

Upcoming events

* Friday, September 20 – Progress Reports
* Thursday, September 26 – Author, Marianne Berkes, visits Clay Springs
* Thursday, October 24 and Friday, October 25 – Student Holidays

PE4KIDS

The Physical Education Department is getting our students back into shape with activities that have them moving! The third, fourth and fifth graders are joining clubs such as push-up club, sit-up club, running club and jump rope club to help them improve their fitness test scores. The Kindergartners, first and second graders have been practicing their locomotor skills and learning about their personal space.

We have also begun our bowling unit which focuses on rolling skills, using dominant hand (rolling hand) and stepping foot for our lower elementary students and the four-step approach for our upper elementary students. The unit always concludes with an invite to participate in our annual 10-week Bowling Black Bear League.

The students will soon be introduced to a new Pedestrian/Bike curriculum to prepare them for the upcoming International Walk Your Child to School event to be held on Wednesday, October 9.

Kindergarten

Kindergarten at Clay Springs Elementary is an exciting place to be. We started the year off with a Pete the Cat tour of the school. Pete the Cat kept getting away from us, searching for him helped us learn the layout of our school. When we ended up back in our classrooms, we saw that Pete the Cat left us a final message and a fun certificate!

We worked on learning our rules and routines. One of our big rules at Clay Springs Elementary is to always walk in the hallway quietly. Our kindergartners are doing a great job with following rules. Ask your child to name some other important rules from our school and classrooms.

Next, we did our color weeks, with the final color day being rainbow! We read the book Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See? Then each day we colored a different page corresponding with each different animal introduced in the story. On the last day, our Brown Bear books were finished and ready to be shared.

The last Tuesday of the month is the day to turn in your child's Star Reading form. The last Wednesday of the month is the day our Star Reading lady visits kindergarten. We have set a goal to have every kindergarten student join the Star Reading Club by reading 20 books at home. We earn stars and "bling" each month we return our list of books. Have you read books with your child?

Kindergartners were very excited to share what they have been working on during the first few weeks of school at the open house on Thursday, September 19.

First grade

Our Clay Springs' first graders are busily getting into the swing of things with the start of the new school year! We've been learning rules and procedures for school and our new classrooms, and comparing these routines to those at home and in the community. It's great to see how responsible and caring our children are!

In reading, we are using our new Journeys reading books and books by various favorite authors, such as Marianne Berkes, to learn about a story's main idea, make inferences, its characters and identifying nouns and verbs.

We are excited about our new Go, Math! Math series as we work on strategies for solving addition and subtraction problems. It's also interesting to hear our students' ideas on how we can use these strategies in the "real world".

In Science, we have been using our five senses as scientific tools; we've had fun doing experiments with "touch" and "sight". Our junior scientists have also used scientific tools such as magnifying lenses, measuring tapes and thermometers.

We also enjoyed a visit with Jimmy Sawgrass. He is such a wonderful storyteller and paints a realistic picture of how life was for Native Americans. Our Black Bears appreciated learning about such a unique way of life, and they loved the spear-throwing display!

Second grade

The second grade students at Clay Springs Elementary are off to a great start. In our "All About Me" social studies unit, they are getting to know each other and how they are an important part of a community. They are also learning about Florida. They especially enjoyed the Taste of Florida Unit in which they learned about Florida symbols and were able to sample foods grown in Florida. In Science, they are learning about what scientists do and the tools they use. They've had fun using observation skills and tools to describe objects. In Language Arts, the second graders are reviewing and sharpening their skills when writing complete sentences. They've also learned to identify the subject and predicate in a sentence and have written a friendly letter to a family member. Reading lessons have focused on comparing and contrasting characters in the story, and determining the author's purpose. The students are excited about choosing "right fit" books and getting started on Reading Counts. We're looking forward to an awesome second grade year!

Third grade

Third graders at Clay Springs Elementary are having fun learning to be scientists. They are discovering how scientists test a hypothesis by changing a variable. They are using models to test their variables. Each group of students created a model airplane and test flew it. They measured distance. Then, they asked themselves "How can I make the plane go farther?" They wrote a hypothesis about what kind of changes would work. For example, they might add a paper clip to the front of the plane. Finally, they tested their changes by flying the plane again and measuring the distance it flew. The students had lots of fun while learning how to test a hypothesis by changing a variable.

In reading, students are learning to identify elements of story structure such as character, setting and plot. They are discussing the traits, feelings and motivations of story characters. In math, they are learning to round and estimate numbers and also reviewing addition and subtraction strategies. In language arts, students are learning to write proper sentences and use conjunctions. They are practicing combining simple sentences into compound sentences. We are laying the foundation for a rigorous academic year in the first few weeks of the school year.

Fourth grade

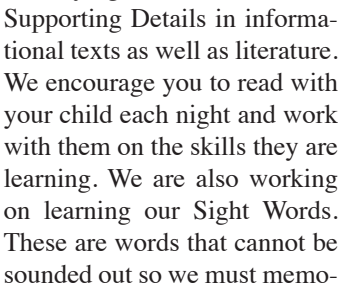
We have been off to a very busy start in fourth grade! We enjoyed meeting all the students who attended Meet the Teacher and the Open House on September 19. Students did an awesome job on posters that introduced themselves to the class.

In Reading, we have been working on story structure and author's purpose. Ask your child to explain the author's purpose of this newspaper article. In Math, we are working on reviewing and extending our knowledge of place value. The focus in Social Studies has been Florida's land and early people. We were fortunate to have a special guest, Jimmy Sawgrass, who is a Native Floridian and descendant of the Muskogee Creek Indian tribe. He captivated the students with his presentation about Florida's Native Americans. We look forward to doing hands-on activities where we learn about artifacts from early civilizations during a field trip to the Orlando Museum of Art. We are excited for a wonderful 2012-2013 school year!

Pre-K/VE

What a great start of the year this has been! Each day is filled with songs, movement, social play and stories that help promote early literacy and academic readiness. Every day we are getting to know each other better as we build our classroom family.

With a new school year, we have been learning all about our classroom, school rules and routines. Pre-K students are learning fun and simple activities that enable them to apply new concepts and tasks in meaningful ways. We read Curious George Goes to School together with an orientation activity, which has gotten us to know our school campus and the many people who work at our school. We have started our shape and color unit together with Bill Martin's book, Brown Bear, Brown Bear. Each day's activity celebrated a new color; we also made our own shape and color books to strengthen a better understanding of these skills. Our themed unit this month is "Me and My Family." We've enjoyed sharing our family posters and creating our own self-portraits as we celebrate our similarities and differences.



Kindergarten

Welcome to Kindergarten. We are off to a great year and great students. We have begun our year assessing our kids and by learning the rules and procedures. For math, we have been counting, learning numbers, shapes and colors. In reading, we are exploring the letters and sounds. We love to write and are practicing forming our upper and lower case letters. Be on the lookout for sight words, they will be coming home soon. Make sure to continue practicing these things at home with your child.

First grade

BRAIN POWER is what first grade is all about! We are really putting our brains to work learning Reading Skills, Sight Words and Math Concepts. In reading, our focus has been identifying the Main Idea and Supporting Details in informational texts as well as literature. We encourage you to read with your child each night and work with them on the skills they are learning. We are also working on learning our Sight Words. These are words that cannot be sounded out so we must memorize them so we can say them as quick as a snap. Practice makes perfect so practice these words at home, too! In Math, we are learning about Addition Strategies. It's amazing the groups of things our first graders are able to find and add together. Our skills are being reinforced using a great computer program and friend named JiJi! A look ahead will find us tackling topics like character traits and subtraction concepts. We have this: OUR BRAINS ARE READY!

Second grade

The new school year has begun! Our second grade students are ready to learn! We have begun with place value in

Governor Scott encourages RSE kids to read

Math. The students have also enjoyed learning about beginning, middle and end in reading, with a new math and reading series that spirals for all to learn! Second graders have been learning about how scientists use methods to find answers to their questions. In Social Studies, we have been talking about your community; which includes your city, address, etc.

Third grade

Third Grade going for the goal! In reading, we are learning how to find the main idea in fiction and nonfiction stories along with finding the details that support it. Be sure to talk to your child throughout the stories he/she is reading to tell you the main idea and to find the details that support it. We want to emphasize how important it is for your child to read every night and to read to you out loud so that you can hear what they are reading and how well. Reading is FUNdamental when done as a family. When they see you reading, it helps them want to read, too.

The students are now changing classes for Reading Intervention and Enrichment where they are learning the different strategies in reading. Some of the strategies are cause and effect, compare and contrast and others.

In math, we have been learning about geometry, using the plane shapes and their vocabulary and how to use each of them. The students have learned how to demonstrate their knowledge of the shapes by making them with toothpicks and miniature marshmallows. If you haven't seen them, they are a great way to expand your child's knowledge in math.

In Language Arts, which is now called ELA, the students are learning how to write complete sentences using complete subjects and predicts, which is our main focus in writing. Students need to be able to write sentences containing the "who" (subject), and the "what" (predict/verb). They are able to identify the subjects from the predicate. We continue to work on sentence structure making sure sentences begin with capitals and end with the correct punctuation.

Fourth grade

Fourth Grade Dragons are working hard already! We're learning about place value and multiplication, how to write elaborative narrative essays, and identifying the author's purpose. All students are working diligently obtaining their AR goal by Friday, October 18. Important information regarding our St. Augustine field trip and FCAT testing was presented at the Open House on September 19 . We're looking forward to an amazing year and want to thank parents in advance for their continued support.

Fifth grade

Fifth grade is diving into Science this year. We are busy preparing for Family STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) night on October 17th. Fifth grade students are creating fabulous science fair projects to display for all to see. The night will also include STEM activities for families and children of all ages.

We are stepping up Math and Reading as we implement the new series based on the Common Core Standards. Students are being asked to think at higher levels and are working harder than ever. They are also having fun while they are learning. The latest science experiment involved growing toy alligators. Students were asked to keep a control group of toy alligators in water while placing other alligators in water and an ingredient of their choice to see if it made the alligators grow faster. The students named each alligator.

Fifth grade is an exciting time at Dream Lake Elementary. Some students get to be a patrol and others participate in a news crew. There are many opportunities for them to explore their talents!

LAKEVILLE ELEMENTARY

Lakeville Elementary… every student a success story!

The Lakeville Engineers have eagerly welcomed a new school year!

On September 17 and 19, we had our annual Open House and Curriculum Nights. Parents and students were able to hear all about the expectations for each grade level. They were then able to visit the classrooms and admire all of the amazing student work. Our fantastic PTA set up a booth in the lobby for memberships and t-shirt sales.

Lakeville is looking for HEROES (Help Every Reader be Outstanding)! Be a HERO by volunteering time each week to read with a child. To accept this mission or learn more about being a HERO, contact Lisa Morrison at lisa.morrison@ocps.net or call Lakeville Elementary at 407-814-6110.

Coming up in October

* Book Fair and Food Truck Night: Our always-popular Book Fair will be here on Wednesday, October 9 and run through Friday, October 18.

LOVELL ELEMENTARY

The Lovell Wildcats began the school year in an appreciative mood. We are very thankful for all of the wonderful companies that donated supplies, clothes, and food to our amazing students. We are definitely grateful to have such fantastic community support. Thank you to the following organizations for their help in making our students successful: Papa John's Pizza, Apopka Wal-Mart, Calvary Church of the Nazarene, Vineyard SDA Church, Dollar General, Subway, Wawa, Inc., Altamonte Springs Wal-Mart, Mullinax Ford, the Kid's Club of Orlando, the First United Methodist Church of Apopka and the Christian Service Center Love Pantry.

Rock Springs Elementary

The Rock Springs Elementary Open House was Thursday, September 19, from 5-7 p.m. It was great to see all our students and families!

Kindergarten

Our Kindergarten Rockets are off to a spectacular start! We have been learning the classroom rules and procedures. We had fun reading The Kissing Hand and Chicka, Chicka, Boom, Boom. We completed several activities using these great books! We are reviewing the letters of the alphabet and their sounds, counting and recognizing numbers, writing, and learning about our communities and ourselves. We are busy Rockets! We are looking forward to an awesome school year!

First grade

First Grade is off to a great start of the year. We want to thank all of our dedicated parents for sending in supplies to help our classrooms run smoothly. It has been a busy and exciting beginning of the year getting to know all of our students and watching our students make new friends and reconnect with old ones.

Our students have been busy practicing their penmanship and writing in their journals. We have been reviewing our letter sounds and working on the beginning, middle, and ending sounds in words. We have also been reading many interesting books. In math, we have been working on adding numbers and understanding number stories. In science, we are learning about the observable properties of matter. Our students will be conducting some simple experiments to test these properties.

Again, we want to thank our parents for their support in school and at home. There is no end to the success that your child can have, when they have your support through reading and learning new skills.

Second grade

Second Grade students have shared amazing stories of summer activities and dreams that were a welcome beginning to our developing authors. Second grade students are encouraged to expand their vocabulary and sentence structures. A fun way to introduce new words to everyday experiences is to incorporate replacement word challenges while discussing your child's day. Asking open-ended questions such as, "What activity challenged you the most today?" will allow for a response that will require detail words to be used repeatedly. Each time a word is repeated, replace it with a synonym in response.

Second grade students are developing their knowledge of the Scientific Method. We began our studies by developing an understanding of the Scientific Method and the steps that are used to conduct experiments.

Number awareness, addition/subtraction facts, time, and money are ongoing concepts being mastered in math. Incorporating these math topics into your child's daily routine at home is an easy but very important step in boosting confidence in math while he/she is at school. Ask your child to tell you what time it is when he/she gets up each morning. Encourage them to get the time by using a face clock instead of a digital clock whenever possible. Talk about what time school begins and the amount of time it will take to get ready. If your child has difficulty getting prepared in the morning, set a timer for ten minutes. Discuss what he/she must do before the timer goes off. Making this a fun challenge will help them develop a better sense of time and will boost your child's confidence while taking on more responsibilities. Also, allowing your children to assist you at the stores or at home with counting real money will be a fun way to assist them in developing a better sense of money.

Third grade

Third grade at Rock Springs is off to a great start! We're learning lots of new things and making plans to continue having a great year. As you know, third grade is the first FCAT tested grade level. Every child is covering the material needed to help them do their best on the test!

In reading class, we're enjoying a mixture of fiction and informational text. Every night, students are expected to be reading on-level chapter books for at least 30 minutes. This will help each student reach their AR (Accelerated Reader) goals. AR is a school-wide program that enables children to show off what they know about the book they've selected by taking an online test and earning points. Our goal is for every child to earn as many points as possible during the school year!

Math classes are covering place value, estimation and rounding, addition, subtraction, and how to easily compute numbers in our heads. You can help your child by having them help you measure ingredients while cooking, having them estimate the cost of items while shopping, and daily review of their basic addition and subtraction facts. This will be a great head start of multiplication, which we'll be learning later this year.

For science, we're learning all about how scientists ask questions and solve questions. Through classwork and online lessons, we've learned the steps of the scientific method. Social studies is where we're learning about our community, world geography, and the judicial branch of government.

Please, don't forget to check your child's agenda every single day. Teachers use it to communicate important information and students use it to record their daily homework assignments. It's not too late to send in much needed school supplies! Due to our increased use of computers, every child needs his or her own pair of headphones. Contact your child's teacher if you would like to send in additional supplies.

Fourth grade

The year is off to a busy start. Fourth graders are learning organizational skills about setting up notebooks and tips for being successful. Reading and Math placements tests were given the first week of school to allow teachers better knowledge of skill levels. Everyone is excited to be back under the leadership of our new Principal, Mr. Brian Burns and our new Assistant Principal, Mrs. Brenda Ruddell.

Our PTA has started a great fundraiser through Great American selling cookies and a whole catalogue of gift ideas and magazines. Please help support your school by purchasing something from our Rock Springs students.

The first unit of study is place value in our new math series. Please work on assisting your child in identifying values of numbers through the millions place and comparing and ordering numbers. We are reviewing standard form, expanded form, and word form. In Social Studies, we will be studying the history of Florida and doing a flag and map project.

As usual, our fourth graders will be making a trip to St. Augustine later in the year. There are always students who have difficulty funding this trip. If you would like to help a student attend this field trip about Florida's history, please contact RSE to request information.

Fifth grade

We are fabulous in fifth Grade! We are not only excited to welcome the students back, but we are also excited to welcome five new teachers to the fifth grade team. We have begun the new school year, and learning is well underway.

Do you know how a story is structured, or how to tell the theme of a story? Do you understand place value, or can you multiply multi-digit numbers? Can you explain the Scientific Method? Our 5th Graders can! These are some of the skills we have already begun to master.

Reading, spelling, and vocabulary homework is due at the end of each week. Science is due each Tuesday, and math homework is due every day. Parents, thank you for your continued support to your students and their teachers. We look forward to a fabulous year!

Sincerely,
The fifth grade team

Music

Happy beginning to the school year! We have lots of fun things in store in music class for the year. Second grade will be going to the Orlando Ballet and the Third, Fourth and Fifth grades will be going to see the Orlando Philharmonic Orchestra. Our Music Performance Ensemble will be starting up soon too, and is open to fourth and fifth grade students.

For more information on all we are learning in music class, as well as updates on performances and events, please visit my website: teacherpress.ocps.net/erinhemond. Looking forward to a great year!

Talented artists at Lovell Elementary

Students at Lovell Elementary built awesome structures with raw spaghetti noodles, a little tape and topped it with a nice big marshmallow. Numerous students participated in a week-long art camp this past summer.

StarChild students report on river, panther

A lone kayaker enjoys the nearby Wekiva River in Wekiwa Springs State Park. Sean Cheema, a student at StarChild Academy shares the history of the park in this month's Chief Jr.

Does the Florida black panther (above) really exist? Find out when you read a report written by StarChild Academy student Matthew Dong.

The History of the Wekiva Springs State Park
By Sean Cheema, StarChild Academy of Wekiva

The glorious Wekiva Springs State Park stands on 7,000 acres of land in our hometown of Apopka, Florida, and has been there since the year 1941. It is also home to the area's native wildlife, such as: American alligators, river otters, black bears, and many more thriving species. Along with the plants and animals, the state park has other astonishing features, such as its immense amount of intriguing history.

As a result of the brutal Civil War, tourists began coming here to trade and took advantage of Florida's temperate winters, lengthy summers, and natural beauty, but out of all the growth came Wekiva Springs. Then in 1941, the Apopka Sportsmen's Club purchased this large property from the Wilson Cypress Company, which was composed of a small camp that is now the park. Next, in 1969, the state of Florida conveyed interest in the property for use as a state park. Finally in 1970, visitors from all over the world came to enjoy the attractions and breathtaking views of the state park. People still come for the same purposes.

This park has lived on for 72 years, preserving many native species and makes sure they will thrive in their natural habitat. This park has also been providing families and friends with entertainment and educational tours on Florida's native wildlife.

History of the Florida Black panther
By Matthew Dong, StarChild Academy of Wekiva

There has been a lot of controversy about whether the Florida Black Panther exists or not. There have been sightings of black cats in Florida but no solid evidence to back it up. For hundreds of years, it has remained a mystery, until now.

Since the 1960's, it has been politically incorrect to call a black cat a black panther. This may have originated from the Latin name Panthera for big cats and shortened to Panther. The Florida Black Panther is actually an endangered subspecies of North American cougars that live in forests and swamps in southern Florida. There is no official record to prove that the Florida Black Panther exists; no pictures, skins, mounts, or documents to prove the existence of black panthers. It is commonly known as the cougar, mountain lion, puma, and catamount in northern and western states in the U.S.

Panthers, pumas, cougars, mountain lions, and catamounts are all names for the same species, Puma concolor. Florida panthers are a subspecies of pumas. Large black cats that are seen are usually either the black leopards or jaguars. Some black tigers, which are very rare, and wild bobcats have melanistic or black color phases which are unusual, making them resemble black cats. There has never been a black or melanistic panther, cougar, or mountain lion documented in the wild or captivity.

There is no species known as "black panther." Florida panthers are tawny, golden tan, and brown with cream or white colored undersides. Some amounts of black and dark brown can be found near the face, back of the ears, paws, legs, and the tip of their tail. Baby panthers have black spots when they are born to help with camouflage. Adult male panthers average between 130-160 pounds, with an average length of six to eight feet. Adult female panthers weigh between 70-100 pounds with an average length of five to seven feet.

There are at least 100 to 160 adult panthers in the wild in southern Florida. Most of the Florida panther population was eliminated during the late 1800s by humans and habitat destruction. Because the panther was isolated in south Florida, no natural gene exchange occurred with other puma subspecies. Inbreeding caused a decline in the health and reproduction. By 1995, only 20-30 panthers remained in the wild. Eight female cougars from Texas were relocated to south Florida to restore genetic variability to the population. The genetic restoration of the Florida panther was successful and the number of Florida's state animal gradually tripled in 10 years.

Trinity Christian School

It has been a great year so far at Trinity Christian School. The first few weeks of school have already flown by and we are half way through September already.

This past Wednesday, 9/11, in honor of Patriots Day, we had a special celebration chapel in honor of the events and those who sacrificed and gave their lives on that day! It was a time when each class got up and gave a presentation on the American Flag, the military, freedom or just some of the history of these great United States.

It was an amazing and truly inspiring experience to see our students up on stage talking about the greatest country in the world, the United States of America.

FCAT scores increased

We are excited to be starting another great school year at Wheatley Elementary. After hard work and determination, our school increased by over 10 percentage points in each reading, math, and science on the 2013 FCAT, allowing our school to improve by one letter grade. We are proud of last year's successes and plan to continue promoting academic growth by exposing them to rigorous, standards-based instruction from kindergarten to fifth grade.

Reading Roundup

Wheatley's students will soon start Accelerated Reader (AR), our reading incentive program. The students and teachers are really excited about reading books and being recognized for their accomplishments. Our goal is that the number of AR quizzes and AR exams passed increases each week; and that every student reads one or two books per week and scores an 85 percent or higher on the computerized assessment. Our students are encouraged to read every night for 20–30 minutes.

Math Mania

School is back in session and we have been busy practicing fact fluency in all grade levels. We are doing this with technology and through a variety of literature. Our math centers include a fact fluency station, where students time themselves and monitor their own progress, by recording their scores on their own score sheet. In a few weeks, we will begin taking weekly fluency timed tests to chart student's growth. The school is off to a "mathnificent" start as we review key skills to ensure student success throughout the school year.

Super science

Wheatley Panthers are off to a great start this school year as they dive into scientific investigations and the practice of science. As students dig deeper into science throughout the school year, armed with their lab coats, safety goggles, and pencils, this year promises to be a rewarding one as we focus on engaging standards-based instruction. We have high hopes that all of our students will attain mastery and be proficient in science.

An exciting addition to the curriculum is our 21st Century Community Learning Center. This is an after-school program fully funded through the Florida Department of Education where students can participate in a broad array of enrichment activities such as basketball and volleyball, music and dance, arts and craft, math and science, along with engineering and technology that complements their regular academic programs. The program is open to Wheatley Panthers in grades second-fifth and is designed to provide additional support to students. Snacks and transportation will be provided. This year we are pulling out all the stops. "Every child, every chance, every day!"

Wheatley Writing

As we approach the end of the first nine weeks, our students are poised for promise in prose, poetry, and all things in between. Fourth grade is the year that students are tested in writing, so our fourth grade classes have already begun to sharpen their writing tools with practice in expository and narrative writing. Good writing isn't just for fourth graders though, since it's important for effective communication throughout our lives. That's why all grade levels are working to incorporate writing tasks into daily instruction. You can even get in on the fun at home. Give your child opportunities to create stories based on family activities or future goals. Students can also practice the expository process by providing written directions or keeping journals.

Media Matters

My name is Mrs. Burbank, and I am new the media specialist at Wheatley Elementary! I have really enjoyed meeting all of the students at library orientation where we began book checkout. Our students have been doing a fantastic job selecting age-appropriate books.

We will begin AR (Accelerated Reader) soon and they will be responsible for reading and testing on books in their reading range (determined after taking STAR Reading test). Points are determined based on the word count of the book. I recommend third, fourth, and fifth grades read a chapter book and a shorter book. They are able to come to the media center whenever they need a new book. It is open all day long with a flexible schedule and only closed for emergencies. We will have a fantastic AR program this year full of fun and prizes and most importantly — encouraging and fostering a love of reading!

Parent & Community Communication

Our first school fundraiser of the year with Otis Spunkmeyer Cookies kicked off on September 17. Please see a Wheatley Elementary student or stop by the front office if you are interested in supporting our school. Funds will be used to assist with the cost of our academic nights throughout the year.

Wheatley Elementary will be participating in OCPS's annual Teach-In festivities on Wednesday, November 20. If you or someone you know is interested in coming to speak with our students about your career on this date, please contact Desiree Traylor-Gates at desiree.traylor-gates@ocps.net or 407-884-2250.

Wolf Lake Elementary

Kindergarten

Wolf Lake welcomes our new Kindergarten Wolf Pups! We kicked off the year with Meet the Teacher on August 15, and began bright and early Monday morning, August 19. Our students have quickly mastered our busy routines, and they are off and running already! The students have made many new friends, and have adapted to a rigorous curriculum, which is brand new this year. Our school has adopted new Math and Reading Curriculum this year, and they will be engaged in many new learning activities to help them succeed. In Science, we are learning about our five Senses. Students are learning about predicting, graphing, and sensory awareness. Coming soon, the students will do activities in Social Studies about Constitution Day, 9/11, and of course, Johnny Appleseed! We welcome you in the community, to support Wolf Lake. You can do this through Box Tops for Education, becoming a school volunteer, and reading with young students! We are looking forward to a great school year!

First grade

First grade has hit the ground running! We are reading and writing and doing math each day and already seeing growth in our students! Reading is focusing on phonics skills and the main idea of stories. Math is beginning this year with simple addition and problem solving and writing is focused on writing sentences and stories. Stay tuned for all we are learning!

Second grade

It is a great time to be a second grader at Wolf Lake Elementary! We have been so busy getting to know new friends and reacquainting ourselves with our old friends! Many of our students came out to the PTA Kick-off and saw the magician. He was AMAZING! Second Grade has been learning about citizenship and the Constitution. We have been working on learning patterns and place value of numbers in math. Please remember to read each night! Second Grade will be great!

Third grade

The 2013-2014 school year is off to a great start in third grade! We spent the first couple of weeks getting to know each other and taking our beginning of-the-year assessments. Third graders took their first Benchmark Tests when they came back from Labor Day break. Those scores will be available to parents at our first report card conference in October. We are anxiously anticipating our first field trips of the year. We will be going to the Orlando Art Museum and to see the symphony at the Bob Carr in the coming weeks. Please return permission slips as soon as possible. Finally, we want to thank our students and parents for the wonderful turnout at our Open House last week! This is going to be an exciting year in third grade!

Fourth grade

Fourth grade is off to a great year! All the fourth grade teachers enjoyed meeting their new students and parents at "Meet the Teacher" and we had a great turn out for Open House on Thursday, September 19. The students were eager and excited to get started on their educational journey in their new fourth grade class. In writing, the students have been working on sentence building by adding adjectives, adverbs, and using the five W's. In addition, they have begun learning how to write essays. The students have been hard at work in reading with comprehension, main idea, sequencing, and learning how to use text evidence in a close reading. Reviewing and learning new strategies in place value, estimation and multiplication has been the focus in math. During science the students have investigated how scientists collect and use data, compare results and also have explored what kinds of models scientists make. Also during the first quarter, the students will study all about the amazing Sunshine State, with a focus on Florida symbols, geography, and early Florida Indians. The students will go on a trip to the Symphony on Tuesday, September 24. While there, we expect to experience an orchestra concert of dazzling musicians and dancers. What an amazing way to start the school year!

Fifth grade

Welcome Back to the WLE Fifth Grade Den! It has been a wonderful start for our Senior Wolf Pups. This school year has already been filled with lots of positive learning and changes. One big change to this year's schedule is our fifth graders are switching classes, or departmentalizing, for each core subject; in an effort to better prepare for middle school, aid in the area of responsibility, and strengthen academic learning. There are two teams: the Arctic Wolves and the Timber Wolves. Let's meet the Den Leaders: Arctic Math: Mrs. Douglass, Arctic Reading: Mrs. Block, Arctic Science: Mrs. Russell, Arctic Social Studies/Language Arts: Ms. Hall, Timber Math: Ms. Somwaru, Timber Reading: Mrs. Hunter, Timber Science: Ms. Lucas, Timber Social Studies/Language Arts: Mrs. Alhemovich and our ESE Wolf Duo: Ms. Cruz and Mr. Walker.

General news

The Fifth Grade students took their first round of benchmark tests (experimenting with online testing). We were really proud of their efforts and plan to speak to the parents about their results at the first Report Card Conference. The teachers are using a fantastic behavior tracking resource called Class Dojo. The students can earn or lose points throughout the day as they travel from class to class on areas like: being on/off task, completion of work/no homework/incomplete, etc. If you have not yet signed up for this useful weekly report, please log on to www.classdojo.com and take advantage of this communicative teacher/parent tool. Are you looking for other ways to stay informed on general class announcements? If so, also sign up for general text messages through Remind 101 from each teacher on your child's rotation.

Finally, we really appreciate all the families that helped kicked off the school year with roaring Wolf Pup Pride, whether you attended Meet the Teacher, joined PTA, sent in classroom supplies, donated to the pantry restock, completed your beginning of the year paperwork or continue to daily support the teachers, school, and, most importantly, your child. It does not go unnoticed. If you ever have any questions or concerns, please contact your child's teacher directly via e-mail or phone. We look forward to an awesome school year!

The Special Area teachers teamed up to conduct a Code of Student Conduct program for all grades on August 27. The teachers shared with the students the school wide expectations. The students have started the year off demonstrating exemplary behavior. We are proud of our Wolf Pups and know this will be a phenomenal year. The Special Area Teachers are planning many exciting lessons that will enhance the common core curriculum.

Sports news

Boys Golf: The Boys' Golf team (2-2) defeated Oak Ridge at Sweetwater by a score of 188-240. Leading the way was Spencer Hilton who shot a 43.

Girls Golf: The Girls Golf team (1-3) broke even in their last two outings on the course. On Tuesday afternoon, September 10, the ladies defeated Ocoee 241-257. Tara Boornazian shot a personal best 46 to lead the Mustangs. Yesterday the ladies came up short vs. Boone, 158-178. Leading the Mustangs was Tara Boornazian shooting a 50.

Swimming: The Boys' Swim team lost a close meet to Cypress Creek. The loss came down to no other reason than Wekiva did not have enough swimmers to fill all the races and Cypress Creek did. Our 400 free relay (Markell Williams, Hayden Runnels, Jim Harper, and Kelvin Maldonado) took home first place. We also went 1-2-3 in the 200 freestyle with Michael Mansfield, Markell Williams, and Kelvin Maldonado making the team look good. Matthew Dewey set another school record with an individual win; this time in the 100 back. Chris Hawkins had good swims in the 50 free and 100 breast.

The Girls' Swim team came up with a big victory over Cypress Creek upping their record to 2-0. Wekiva won every race and even went 1-2-3 in a few of them. Winning individual races were Lauren Smith (200 free and 500 free), Sarah Brown (200IM and 100 Back(new school record), Madison Dewey (100 Fly and 100 Breast), Berkley Sickler (100 Free) and Jennifer Rodriguez (50 Free). Isabell Rassell, Brianne Harper, and Melissa Matthew also chipped in with relay wins. Overall we had a great team effort. Giselle Martinez has had two good meets swimming sprints and backstroke. Brianne Harper is doing well in whatever event we put her in. Megan Allen did great swimming the sprints. Some of our newest swimmers (Natalie Rodriguez, Maggie Duncan, and Gloris Flores) are starting to come into their own and made big improvements between last meet and today.

Cross Country: Despite the stormy conditions on Friday night, September 13, the WHS Cross Country Team persevered to run in and finish the Edgewater Invitational. John Layton finished at 20:04. Kameron Woodbury was close behind at 20:32. Travis Queen finished in 21:01. Anthony Gardner finished in 22:23. John Asuncion finished in 24:01, and Ricky Folkes rounded out the group with a time of 27:25. Sophomore Emily Smith had the top time for our girls at 24:38. Amy Troell finished in 27:02. Kelly Smith was 50 seconds behind with a time of 27:52. Kaleena Gaeth finished her second race in 40:37. Our Boys finished 16th out of 23 teams and the Girls finished 14th out of 18 teams. We are looking forward to their continued progress as a team.

Volleyball: The Girls Volleyball team fell to West Orange 3-1 (25-20, 25-17, 27-29, 25-14). Shaniah Irvin had 12 kills for the Mustangs.

Former Quest COO now CEO

John Gill has been appointed CEO of Quest, Inc., a nonprofit organization serving individuals with developmental disabilities. Katie Porta, former president and chief executive officer, has become CEO Emeritus of Quest, Inc., due to health concerns.

"Although I would very much like to continue leading our outstanding team, because of recent changes in my health, I have made the decision to retire," Porta said. "I'm more than confident that I leave Quest in excellent hands with its board, and new president and CEO, John Gill. Knowing that a wise and strong business has a retirement succession plan, in 2012 I helped select John Gill as COO to work closely with me over the past year and a half. I am so pleased with the strength he brings Quest in his new capacity."

Porta has served Quest for 32 years as a leader and advocate for the developmentally disabled, and has worked diligently to build Quest into a premier provider of services for developmentally disabled adults and children in the Orlando and Tampa areas.

"Those fortunate enough to have known and worked with Ms. Porta throughout our community over the past 32 years know her as a dear friend and inspiring leader," said David Canora, Board chairman. "In retirement, she leaves Quest with a legacy that only she could have forged; Katie Porta will forever be a part of the Quest organization. No words can adequately convey the organization's gratitude for her dedication to Quest and its mission to build communities where people with disabilities achieve their goals."

John Gill
...new CEO of Quest, Inc.

The Board of Directors asked Gill to immediately transition from his role as interim CEO and COO, and assume all duties and responsibilities as the president and chief executive officer of Quest, Inc.

"Gill has functioned in this role during the past several months working with the operations and leadership teams to maintain Quest's high standards of service," said Tikisha Hughes, spokeswoman. "Before joining Quest, he served as a member of the Quest Board of Directors for many years and has a strong reputation in the business community. A former corporate finance team member for both the Walt Disney Company and Darden Restaurants, along with holding other executive positions, Gill is a graduate of the University of Central Florida with a BSBA in Finance and of the Crummer Graduate School at Rollins College with a Master's Degree in Business Administration. He is currently enrolled in the Public Affairs Ph.D. program at the University of Central Florida.

"I share Katie Porta's genuine passion for Quest's mission, along with her deep respect and admiration for all individuals served, the Quest team, the larger community of partners, and people who support Quest," Gill said. "I look forward to serving and continuing the legacy of Katie's dedication with diligence for bringing the best in service and quality for Quest's stakeholders."

Health fair offers free mammograms

The inaugural Debbie Turner's Cancer Care & Resource Center Health Fair will be held Thursday, October 17, from 1-5 p.m., at the First United Methodist Church of Apopka, 201 S. Park Avenue, Apopka.

"The Cancer Care and Resource Center has teamed up with the Florida Hospital Healthy 100 Women's Mobile coach bus to provide free mammogram screenings for all women within the local Central Florida area," said Debbie Turner, founder. "Most insurance will be accepted on-site and the Debbie Turner Cancer Care and Resource Center will cover the $35 cost of self-pay individuals that do not have insurance coverage. All the money raised from vendors and sponsorship is going back to this community."

Turner said there is still room for vendors and sponsorship, but spots are filling up fast.

Only screening mammograms (routine, annual exams for women with no current breast problems) are offered by the mobile mammography unit.

Those who have had previous mammograms at a facility other than a Florida Hospital or Florida Radiology Imaging location should bring the previous images to the screening.

The screening mammograms are performed on women age 35 and older. If younger, a physician referral is required for a diagnostic mammogram, which cannot be performed on the mobile unit. Florida Radiology Imaging operates the mobile unit.

Interested women need to register ahead of time for the mammogram. The appointments will be given on a first-come first-served basis.

To register, call the Florida Hospital at 407-303-1615.

Center currently supports 72 with cancer

September is National Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month, National Prostate Cancer Awareness Month and National Childhood Cancer Awareness Month.

The Debbie Turner Cancer Care and Resource Center recognizes these maladies 12 months of the year, 24/7.

"In the three years that the center has been in our current building, we have provided services and given and maintained hope for clients and families of cancer," said Debbie Turner, founder. "Cancer shows no discrimination on what month we honor it or the age or gender which it affects. No matter what the cancer diagnosis, the center provides all services to all who come, no matter which kind of cancer it is. We do not discriminate. We currently support 19 men who have prostate cancer; 26 women with ovarian cancer and 27 children with childhood cancer in our local community."

Childhood cancer, which includes leukemia and other diseases of the blood and bone marrow, may affect red blood cells, white blood cells, and platelets.

"Childhood acute myeloid leukemia (AML) is a type of cancer in which the bone marrow makes a large number of abnormal blood cells," Turner said. "Other myeloid diseases can affect the blood and bone marrow, such as chronic myelogenous leukemia, juvenile myelomonocytic leukemia, transient myeloproliferative disorder and myelodysplastic syndromes."

Ovarian cancer forms in tissues of the ovary (one of a pair of female reproductive glands in which the ova, or eggs, are formed).

Most ovarian cancers are either ovarian epithelial carcinomas (cancer that begins in the cells on the surface of the ovary) or malignant germ cell tumors (cancer that begins in egg cells).

It is estimated that 22,240 new cases and 14,030 deaths from ovarian cancer will occur in the United States this year.

Turner said prostate cancer, a cancer that forms in tissues of the prostate (a gland in the male reproductive system found below the bladder and in front of the rectum), usually occurs in older men.

In 2013, it is estimated that there were 238,590 new cases and 29,720 deaths from prostate cancer in the United States.

"A healthy prostate is about the size of a walnut," Turner said. "If the prostate grows too large, it squeezes the urethra. This may slow or stop the normal flow of urine."

"We are here for the whole community and we require the whole community to keep the center open, so that we can continue this mission," Turner said

OCPS launches online 'Parent Academy'

Orange County Public Schools launched a district-wide Parent Academy this week to promote parental involvement and enhance student achievement. In the first-ever OCPS Parent Academy, parents can register and attend several helpful breakout sessions to learn how to become full partners in their child's education. The event theme is "Family Literacy."

Some of the classes include: positive parenting, raising readers, understanding Common Core, mad kitchen science – fun while learning, OCPS resources for you and your family and building the "home to school" connection.

The inaugural OCPS Parent Academy "Family Literacy" event will be Saturday, September 28, from 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m., at Robinswood Middle School, 6305 Balboa Dr. Orlando. Lunch will be provided.

"The keynote speaker is Dr. Adolph "Doc" Brown, a nationally-recognized education authority and master teacher," said Shari Bobinski, spokeswoman. "He is a first-generation high school graduate of a single mother reared in the poverty of a housing project who has great inspiration to share."

A "Kids Zone" will be available with fun activities for preschool and elementary students. Clifford, the Big Red Dog will make an appearance, and a school band will provide musical entertainment. It will be a day of fun, mixed with important facts for families.

Registration is required. Parents may obtain a registration form from the OCPS Parent Academy website (www.parentacademy.ocps.net) or check with the main office at their child's school to retrieve a registration form.

The maximum number of participants is 450 parents, so early registration is recommended.

The deadline is Monday, September 23.

"Research has proven that family involvement and interest in a child's education produces positive effects throughout the years, including increased achievement in math, reading, and science, better attendance and homework completion, participation in advanced learning classes, early postsecondary education and career planning, as well as social and behavioral gains," Bobinski said.

"Making Home Affordable is a free government program that assists in the process for getting mortgage help which can be complicated and confusing," said Tammy Erikstrup, branch manager. Orange Co. Health Dept. offers free flu shots

The Florida Department of Health in Orange County urges everyone to get a seasonal flu shot soon. Flu cases have started to increase in Central Florida, which is typical this time of year, and the flu vaccine can prevent the illness.

"Flu shots are important, and they can reduce absences at work, school, and social events; reduce healthcare costs; and most importantly, save lives," said Dr. Kevin M. Sherin, director.

"Flu can cause severe illness, even in otherwise healthy individuals. Even mild cases can lead to several days of missed school or work due to the extreme fatigue the disease causes, said Dr. Swannie Jett, Health Officer for the Department of Health in Seminole County.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommends flu vaccine for all people six months of age and older. A flu shot is especially important for people at higher risk of developing serious flu-related complications and their close contacts. Because influenza viruses change every year, getting an annual flu shot is very important.

Each year, scientists try to match the viruses in the vaccine to those most likely to cause the flu that particular year. This year's vaccine once again provides protection against the H1N1 (pandemic) influenza and up to three other flu virus strains.

While most people who get influenza will recover in a few days to less than two weeks, some people will develop complications (such as pneumonia) as a result of the flu, which can be fatal. People 65 years of age and older and those with certain other medical conditions are also at higher risk for severe illness caused by pneumococcal disease. According to the CDC, nearly one million adults aged 65 years and older become ill due to pneumonia each year and roughly one-third will be hospitalized. The risk of pneumococcal infections and complications can be reduced or eliminated with the pneumococcal vaccine.

Flu shots for children and adults are offered at the DOH-Orange's Central Health Center located at 832 West Central Boulevard, Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m.-2 p.m. on a first-come, first-serve walk-in basis. No appointment is necessary. The immunization program is closed the 2nd Friday of each month. Flu shots are free for children up to 18 years of age.

Free Science Saturday classes offered at preserve

The Science Saturday lecture series begins at Oakland Nature Preserve (ONP) on Saturday, September 28, at ONP, 747 Machete Trail, in Oakland, with a hands-on lecture entitled, 'What's in the Water? Little critters, Big Indicators' presented by guest speaker Marcia Anderson. Anderson will teach about the importance of micro and macro invertebrates. Anderson is with Orange County Environmental Protect Division where she is the Senior Environmental Specialist on the Ecological Assessment Team.

The lecture, which is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m., will be held at the DeWitt Pavilion on the Shore of Lake Apopka at the end of the boardwalk.

"Plan to come out early and take a walk on the boardwalk and learn what the presence or absence of these small invertebrates mean to the freshwater around us," said Mona Phipps, ONP director.

Upcoming lectures

16th Annual Oakland Heritage Festival

Saturday, October 26, 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Come out and celebrate our natural and cultural heritage. Some of the scheduled exhibits are: Ken Wood, Seminole Indian, Francis Cole, Florida Blacksmith, Kim Titterington, Swamp Girl Critters, plus environmental groups and organizations, and that's just the beginning! In Speer Park, Oakland

The Importance of Fire in Florida's Natural Eco-Systems

Saturday, November 16, 10 a.m.

Instructor Wil Kitchings, of the Florida Forest Service, will teach about ecosystems that have evolved in the presence of frequent fires, as has much of Florida, and why interaction between fire and the landscape is imperative. It is critical to nutrient cycling in the soil. It perpetuates a biologically diverse and healthy forest, renewing and restoring habitat for many species of wildlife. There is no substitute for this essential process. Fire by prescription, applied by professionals who use scientifically sound practices, can assume the same role as natural fires, successfully and safely returning fire to the landscape.

A Christmas Tree for Critters

December 21, 10 a.m.

Hands-on fun for all! This will mark the third year that ONP has celebrated the Christmas holiday by making tree ornaments for the critters of ONP to eat, and decorated a tree or two outside.

It has been a lot of fun and a great lesson on how the early pioneers made their decorations by using supplies found in the natural environment. Remember there were no stores in those days! Getting creative with nature is a great way to share the holiday.

Attracting Backyard Birds with Native Plants

January 25, 10 a.m.

Gallus Quigley, a park ranger with Lake County Parks and Recreation will teach the class. Quigley is an excellent birder and a great teacher. If you enjoy seeing birds in your yard or out in nature you won't want to miss this presentation. This lecture offers great information on Florida native plants and native and migrating birds. We hope to get him to take us on a walk after the presentation.

The Science Saturday lecture series is free to the public.
