Deputy arrested in Charlotte County

by Patty Brant
Caloosa Belle

Hendry County Deputy Simeon Harrynarine, 43, was arrested in Charlotte County Sunday, March 30, accused of felony battery. Deputy Harrynarine and several others have been on administrative leave with pay after an officer-related shooting March 5, which ended with the subject being shot and killed. Harrynarine was one of four officers involved. According to the Hendry County Sheriff's Office, after his arrest in Charlotte County, he was placed on Administrative Leave without Pay, pending the outcome of his court case and an internal investigation conducted by the local Sheriff's Office.

According to the Charlotte County Sheriff's booking sheet Harrynarine is being held without bond on a charge of felony battery. The report states the incident began shortly after midnight as the deputy, his girlfriend and her nine-year-old son were traveling southbound on I75. A caller said he was at the side of the highway with a woman whose face was bleeding. She told the man that she had been beaten.

Before his arrival at the scene, responding officer A. Nardi learned that the man in question is a Hendry County deputy. On scene, he made contact with Harrynarine, who was leaning against his vehicle by the side of the road. His report indicates that there was blood on the sleeve of his sweater.

The Charlotte officer said in his report that Harrynarine told him his girlfriend, Jamie R. Bartley, 31, started "going crazy" for no reason and wanted him to pull over so she could get out. According to Harrynarine, he refused because it would not be safe. However, he said she opened the car door while they were traveling and he reached across her to close it, accidentally striking her in the face with his elbow. He said that he did not hit her with his hands.

The report indicates that Ms. Bartley was crying when interviewed by Deputy Nardi, was bleeding from her face and had blood all over her clothing. She had a laceration in the middle of her face from the "middle of in-between her eyes to above her eyebrows." She told the officer that Harrynarine was on admin-

Court case on proposed FPL plant coming up

by Patty Brant
Caloosa Belle

A plan by Florida Power & Light to build a "Clean Energy Center" in the southeast corner of Hendry County, adjacent to the Seminole Indian Reservation has pitted the Native American Tribe against the natural gas and solar powered electricity producing giant and Hendry County's economic goals.

A lawsuit seeking to force Hendry County to reverse its May 2011 rezoning of that 2,300-acre proposed site from General Agriculture to Planned Unit Development is scheduled for 9 a.m. April 21 at the Hendry County Circuit Court.

One small piece of that show-down occurred at the February 25 Hendry County Commission meeting in LaBelle when a contingent from the Reservation came to argue against a county vote to amend to the Economic Development Element of the Future Land Use Map (FLUM) and to add the definition of an Economic Engine Project and Target Industries to its Comprehensive Plan.

Tribe members spoke passionately against building the plant, saying it would disrupt their ancient life style and have a serious detrimental effect on the water table and wildlife on the Reservation. They fear the planned FPL 20+ million gallon per day water plant will put their water source in danger, tap into the aquifer and further stress endangered species.

The group feared that Hendry County is being treated like Palm Beach County - with "everything open for economic development." Spokesmen for the Tribe noted that for the past 100 years changes in South Florida have been all about money and that often results in damage to the environment. They felt that their land is a "unique place" where they have a relationship with God and urged that American society stop destroying the environment and turn the tide around.

Tribal members said in the last few years they have already seen dramatic and dismaying changes in area wildlife, including a reduced number of birds and the contamination of water.

One speaker, Stephanie Hall of the Toad Clan, said her people have lived for 1,000 years on this land and feared the project would ultimately end in "environmental genocide" of indigenous people.

Hendry County Associate Planner Sarah Catala is just as convinced that the amendment to the county's decision will not affect the Tribe. She said that Hendry County is only interested in providing a "target industry" to help build its economic future - target industries like FPL's gas powered electric plant proposed for the property.

Ms. Catala tried to allay the dissenters' fears, saying the change will only streamline the current process. The county is trying to add an economic engine element tool to its abilities. If a project is not in compliance with the ordinance, she said, it will not be allowed. "This is a really good thing," she told a small group of dissenters after the meeting.

Hendry County Commission Chairman Karson Turner also tried to soothe the Seminoles' fears. He

County orders back up motor for Ft. Denaud Bridge

by Patty Brant

Caloosa Belle

The county commission voted to purchase a second motor for the Fort Denaud Bridge as a back up for the problem-prone swing bridge. The new $29,000 motor needs to be and requires the county to pay 50 percent down. The board approved 5-0.

Strategic Plan

County Administrator Charles Chapman delivered a draft of his 2014-16 Hendry County Government Strategic Plan to the board to review, asking for feedback. The document identifies four strategic priorities: economy (covering items like sales tax framework and strategies for sustainable business development and expansion); environment (maintaining systems of roads, etc., supporting the Economic Development Council, etc); quality of life (providing essential services, recreation, public safety, etc.); and governance (establishing a core of transparency, accessibility, a culture of performance, retaining and attracting a skilled workforce, etc.).

Jail, court issues

Commissioner Janet Taylor asked that the board, along with the Public Safety Coordinating Committee, make a visit to the jail and also meet with the sheriff and State Attorney to discuss low prosecution figures. Commissioner Turner agreed, saying the county needs to "hold some people accountable."

In other business:

- The board voted to demolish the recycling center. Due to the county's inter local agreement with Lee County, the facility is no longer needed. After being demolished, the site will be used to store recycling containers and the household hazardous waste center.

- The board plans to honor the county's public works employees at a future date, recognizing National Public Works Week May 18-24.

- Approved county administrator to attend the Leadership Florida Class if he is chosen. However, he will be expected to pay his own travel and per diem. The county will pay the cost of the program some $5,000. Commissioner Taylor was the lone dissenter, saying she felt the taxpayers should not pay for it.

- The next regular county commission meeting will be Tuesday, April 8, at 5 p.m. in Clewiston City Hall.

istrative leave from the Hendry County Sheriff's Office following the March 5 incident.

According to the arrest report, Ms. Bartley said Harrynarine had been acting "strange," laughing for no reason in a "creepy" way. She said she had never seen him act that way and was concerned that he "was about to flip out." She said she tried to get Harrynarine to stop the car so she and her son could get out, but Harrynarine would just laugh. She grabbed the steering wheel in an attempt to get him to pull over, but he hit her in the face. She was unsure if it was with his fist or his elbow. She tried a few more times to grab the steering wheel but he hit her in the face and laughed again. She began to wave her hands out the window to get other drivers' attention. She said Harrynarine hit her in the face so hard she saw a blur and noticed she was bleeding.

Eventually, she got the attention of another driver, who pulled in front of them and slammed on his breaks, forcing Harrynarine to slow down and pull off the road. At that point she yelled for her son to get out of the vehicle and they ran to the other vehicle for assistance.

The report further states that the other driver, Zachary R. Kamp, 29, said the Harrynarine vehicle swerved into his lane and almost hit his vehicle. Kamp pulled in front of Harrynarine and they both came to a stop. He said he heard a woman scream "help" and "get off of me." Kamp was approaching their vehicle when the pair came to him. He said there was blood on Ms. Bartley's face and he called the sheriff's office. The mother and son waited by the Kamp vehicle, while Harrynarine stayed inside his. Kamp said he did not witness anyone being physical to anyone and that his wife didn't see anything because he told her to stay in the vehicle when he got out.

The boy told Deputy Nardi that Harrynarine was being "scary;" was yelling and driving fast and wouldn't pull over when his mother asked him to. According to the boy's statement, when his mother grabbed the steering wheel Harrynarine punched her in the face a total of five to seven times and he saw blood coming from his mother's face.

Harrynarine was placed in double-locked handcuffs and placed in a patrol vehicle. He was transported to the Charlotte County Jail by Deputy Gonzales CCSO.

Because the couple has been dating for over three years and reside together, the charge is Felony Battery (domestic).

EMS tended to Ms. Bartley's injuries and she was transported to Lee Memorial Hospital where she got stitches. According to Deputy Nardi's report, she did not want to provide a sworn recorded statement and continued to tell the deputy that it was not Harrynarine's normal behavior. She felt it was a result of the March 5 shooting incident in LaBelle that left 23-year-old Eddy Barrios dead as well as Harrynarine and three other Hendry County deputies on administrative leave.

said the county's intention is to set up a system of standards to cover all economic development. He noted that developers will still have to abide by state and federal environmental rules and apply for all the normal permits.

Any future projects will still have to come back to the county for approval, he told the group.

County Administrator Charles Chapman said there is still a lot to discuss, the county wants to keep natural areas wild and to prevent rural sprawling.

As the commissioner representing the Reservation, Commissioner Turner said he would reach out to the Tribe to try to come to a better understanding of what the county would like to see happen in that area. Tribal representative Frank Billie Jr. seemed to doubt it would make any difference, but invited the commissioner to their community meetings anyway.

At the end of the discussion, Commissioner Don Davis moved to adopt the amendment with Commissioner Darrell Harris' second, The board passed the amendment to the 2011 rezone, 5-0.

Barron Library is offering AR (Accelerated Readers) Reading Nights every Thursday evening, beginning April 3, at 7:00 pm. Bring the kids to enjoy group readings of a variety of both fiction and non-fiction AR books each week. Each book will be discussed as well.

Come out for the readings and participate in McDonald's Readers are Leaders as well. All children will receive a book mark on which to record ten books, each as they have completed reading them. When the card is full the library will sign off, the card can then be taken to your local McDonald's where they will exchange it for a free Hamburger.

beginning at 4:30 pm. You won't want to miss this show by local artists.

Don't forget Amnesty, April 12 - 25, 2014. Please return any overdue library books during that period of time and all overdue fees will be waived.

Many books that are overdue are on waiting lists for other patrons. Imagine the frustration of visiting the library to look for a book and finding that week after week the book is still checked out. That is what happens when books are not returned. Please take this opportunity to return all of your overdue library books.

With shrinking budgets it is impossible to replace all books that are never returned. When you check out a library book, you are making a commitment to return the book on or before the due date, and in good repair. Please keep your commitment so the library might serve your friends and neighbors throughout this community in the way that is expected.

Animal cruelty charged

On March 25, 2014, Hendry County Deputies followed up on a complaint of Animal Cruelty in the County Line Trailer Park.

Deputies originally received the complaint on March 23, 2014, when it was reported that 29-year-old Gene Harris may be responsible for the death of a dog belonging to a former girlfriend.

Deputies arrived on scene and found the dog hanging in a tree.

Witnesses reported that Harris was angry at his former girlfriend and took her dog onto the roadway, slammed it onto the road, then hung it from a tree.

Witnesses stated they called out to Harris, asking him what he was doing. Harris then reportedly ran from the area.

On March 27, 2014, Sgt. J. Olvera went to the home of Gene Harris. Sgt. Olvera did speak with Harris at that time and he was placed under arrest.

Upon making contact with Harris, a marijuana plant was noticed next to him.

When questioned about the marijuana plant Harris reportedly admitted to finding it in the trailer park, digging it up and taking it home.

He then went on to tell the Deputy he put the plant in a pot and fertilized it. Harris was then transported to the Hendry County Jail.

Harris was charged with Cruelty to an Animal and Producing Marijuana. Harris is currently being held in the Hendry County Jail on $10,000 bond.

Amnesty at Barron Library

Barron Library is offering Amnesty, April 12-25. Return any overdue library books during that period and all overdue fees will be waived. Many overdue bookse are on waiting lists for other patrons. Imagine the frustration of visiting the library to look for a book and finding that week after week the book is still checked out. That is what happens when books are not returned. Please take this opportunity to return all of your overdue library books.

With shrinking budgets it is impossible to replace all books that are never returned. When you check out a library book, you are making a commitment to return the book on or before the due date, and in good repair. Please keep your commitment so the library might serve your friends and neighbors throughout this community as expected.

Wildcat Rookie of the Week

Congratulations to former LaBelle High School standout Austin Garcia. Austin was honored as Rookie of the Week at Bethune-Cookman

Austin Garcia

College in Daytona for the week of March 10. The true freshman is hitting .304 with three doubles, one home run and 11 RBI for the Wildcats at this time. Austin set numerous records while attending LaBelle High School during his career as a Cowboy.

National Volunteer Week is April 6th to April 12th, and Hendry Regional Medical Center would like to recognize its Auxillary. The HRMC Auxillary is an extraordinary group of volunteers that will be acknowledged and thanked by the hospital staff during National Volunteer Week for their countless hours of dedication.

Hendry Regional Medical Center's Auxillary can be easily recognized by their pink service jackets and their smiling faces. In addition to their tireless hours of personal contributions, they also donate thousands of dollars to help purchase vital equipment that is essential to providing excellent patient care. More importantly, these women and men give the most valuable gifts of all; they give their time; they give their talents; they give of themselves, and they give something back to the community. We encourage you to stop by the hospital gift shop during the week of April 6th to April 12th and thank our hospital Auxillary.

If you're interested in joining this caring team of volunteers, call 863-902-3064 for additional information. You may also apply on-line by visiting our website: www.hrmc.us.
