By STUART EMMRICH
Alligator Staff Writer

The embattled UF Honor System has a believer in UF Registrar Louis Voyles.

Although Voyles' office does have some procedures to catch students who forge drop-add cards, Voyles says he depends on the "basic integrity" of students not to falsify the cards.

"Basically most students are honest and do what they are supposed to. There are some irregularities each quarter, but they are minor," Voyles said.

TO CATCH STUDENTS who may not share the same convictions in the workability of the honor system and who forge add cards, the registrar's office checks the final class rolls with the add lists each college department compiles.

Students who are caught by the registrar, "and there are only a few," are turned over to the Student Conduct Committee for review, Voyles said.

Although Voyles said that the check of the final class rolls with the departments, done at the end of drop-add period, is the surest way of catching a forger, one UF department has found a way to cut down the forgeries while drop-add is still going on.

The biology department issues add slips to students who get the department's permission, which the students must present to their teacher to get added to the class roll.

IF A STUDENT does not have the add slip, he is sent back to the department to determine if he illegally added the class.

Betty Cochran, a biology department secretary, said students are automatically dropped from a class if forgery was involved, but added they are not usually handed over to student conduct.

She said "five or six" forgeries are discovered each quarter. Cochran said "as far as I know" no other departments are using the add slips procedures to cut down on the forgeries, but suggested that it should be considered as a university-wide policy.

Cochran added that keeping up with students who illegally try to add a class "is a real hassle. Something has to be done."

Tenure review ordered

By STUART EMMRICH
Alligator Staff Writer

In light of an uncertain economic future, a comprehensive review of tenure policies throughout the state university system has been ordered by the Board of Regents.

Regent Chairman Marshall Criser instructed the regent staff to study shortening the notification time for non-tenured faculty and to possibly "freeze" tenure throughout the system.

CRISER SUGGESTED shortening the termination notice time from 16 to possibly nine months.

"The 16 months is long before we know what the budget is even going to look like, so how can we decide how many faculty to keep on," Criser said.

Although Criser said a complete examination of tenure policies is being requested, including reasons for granting tenure and percentages of tenure faculty, he added he has "no intention of doing away with tenure."

"IT'S AN IMPORTANT part of academics and we have to recognize that importance," Criser explained.

Approximately 55 per cent of faculty at the state universities are tenured, according to system Chancellor Robert Mautz.

Gene Hemp, interim assistant vice president for academic affairs, said "a little under 60 per cent" of UF Educational and General faculty are tenured.

MAUTZ SAID HE expected the regents to take a "long-term look" at tenure, to determine if there is too large a percentage of tenured faculty in the state system.

Mautz said any major changes in tenure policies would not be made until "people are

Harris tours UF campus

Marshall Harris, newest member of the Board of Regents and ex-state legislator, will be visiting the UF campus today through Saturday to examine the different aspects of UF programs.

Among the items on Harris' packed schedule are open discussions with interested students tonight and faculty members Thursday night.

THE STUDENT MEETING will be held in the west half of the J. Wayne Reitz Union cafeteria at 8 p.m. The faculty meeting will be in the Union ballroom at 7:30 Thursday night.

Harris will also meet with UF vice presidents, Student Government officers, and college deans and will tour the J. Hillis Miller Health Center.

During his four-day visit Harris will stay at the home of UF President Robert Q. Marston.

Going, going, gone

What was once the "Furniture City" building became a victim of progress Monday when workmen finished tearing it down to make way for the new Gainesville Plaza. Built in 1908, "Furniture City" was on the corner of SE First Street and University Avenue. The new open-air plaza will be in between the Alachua County Courthouse and a soon-to-be-built judicial center.

Jackson: peace accords secret

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Henry Jackson, D-Wash., charged Tuesday that "secret agreements" exist between the United States and South Vietnam which have been hidden from Congress and — until recently — from President Ford.

Jackson said the agreements "envision fateful American decisions," but did not disclose what they entail. Nor did he accept a challenge to make his knowledge available to the Senate.

"I know of no secret agreements," said Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield. "Every time we met with Mr. Kissinger after one of his visits and journeys overseas, that question was asked and the answer always was no."

He said if there was substantial evidence of secret agreements, "I would expect the appropriate committees to look into the breaches of faith and trust."

In a Senate speech, Jackson said "I have it on the best of information, the best authority, that secret agreements were reached" in connection with the Paris peace accords on Vietnam.

As for Ford, Jackson said "I think he has only recently found out about these accords."

Jackson, an announced candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, said that while Ford has hinted Congress reneged on its commitments to South Vietnam, "the fact is that Congress is being accused of violating commitments and obligations it never heard of."

Jackson also said "obsessive secrecy" marked the Salt 1 negotiations, to the point where not even then Defense Secretary Melvin Laird and then Secretary of State William Rogers were informed about two accords.

Opposing forces meet in Bangkok

PHNOM PENH (UPI) — Cambodian Prime Minister Long Boret returned to this besieged capital Tuesday from Bangkok, where officials said he met with Communist Khmer Rouge rebel representatives in the possible beginning of a negotiated settlement of the five-year-old Cambodian war.

Officials in Thailand and Cambodia said Long Boret met with the Khmer Rouge for four hours in Bangkok Monday. No results of the Bangkok meeting were disclosed immediately.

As Long Boret stepped off the special plane that brought him from Bangkok, the Communist-led insurgents were barely 3.3 miles from Pochentong Airport and getting closer, yard by yard, by the day. Phnom Penh itself was surrounded by the rebels who now control 90 per cent of the country.

Shortly before Long Boret arrived, rebels again hit the airport with both artillery and rockets in more than 30 attacks. One Cambodian Air Force C123 was damaged and two pilots injured. Thai Foreign Minister Chatchai Choonhavan said in Bangkok he believed another meeting between Cambodian government representatives and the Khmer Rouge might be scheduled.

It takes a thief

HOLYOKE, MASS. (UPI) — A prisoner skilled in safecracking may be taken from the Hampden County House of Correction to help police open the tax collector's safe stolen during the weekend.

Police said Tuesday that locksmiths, who previously opened safes, no longer do the work so somebody "with some sort of experience in this field has to be found."

The safe was found Monday night in a wooded area of Granby, Conn., 30 miles south of Holyoke. The dial was knocked off.

The 500-pound safe contains $28,208 in cash and checks.

Sex, drugs, gambling alleged in U.S. govt.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Government investigators have uncovered evidence of after-hour craps games and marijuana traffic at the Agriculture Department and also are probing allegations female workers ran a prostitution ring, a spokesman said Tuesday.

The sex rumors have not been proved, however, the spokesman added.

L.L. Free, assistant director of the department's Office of Investigation, said the gambling and drug information was turned up in November and was referred to the District of Columbia police.

Free said one employe was arrested and two others resigned "during the early stages of our investigation."

Charles E. Collins, a spokesman for the District of Columbia Police, said the police department had found no grounds for filing gambling charges and no prostitution. The case was closed after a single narcotics arrest, he said.

"This was not a large scale thing," Collins said. "It was a small incident and there is no ongoing (police) investigation at the Department of Agriculture now."

Fearful coal miners protest bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Hundreds of hard-hatted coal miners, fearful a strict new strip mining bill will cost their jobs, demonstrated at the White House and lobbied Congressmen Tuesday while huge coal trucks circled the Capitol.

The caravan from Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee came to protest a bill requiring strip-mined land be restored, ugly debris removed, and polluted waters cleared up.

Several hundred miners paraded in front of the White

Saigon curfew slows baby lift

SAIGON (UPI) — A curfew ordered because of the bombing of President Nguyen Van Thieu's palace by a mutinous South Vietnamese Air Force pilot slowed Operation Babylift and the air exodus of Americans Tuesday.

The pilot of the F5 Freedom Fighter, identified as North Vietnam-born Lt. Nguyen Thanh Trung, 26, probably flew the plane to a Communist-occupied base inside South Vietnam and defected, military sources said.

Thieu escaped unharmed and said he viewed the attack as an isolated incident and not a coup attempt. But three persons were killed and four wounded by the single bomb that exploded.

Thieu immediately ordered a 24-hour curfew in the capital. The curfew was lifted six hours later, but it curtailed the human traffic on the daily airlift of orphans and civilian refugees from Saigon. At least one U.S. Air Force C141 Starlifter flight between Saigon and Clark Air Base in the Philippines was canceled and passenger traffic on two others totaled only 31 persons.

Joplin biography termed 'obscene'

HILLSBOROUGH, N.H. (UPI) — A book in a high school library portraying the tortured life of the late rock singer Janis Joplin has sparked a parent campaign against obscenity in this tiny New England mill community.

A couple circulated a petition in the town of 2,778 and gained more than 100 signatures objecting to "taxpayers money being used to buy obscene books and with obscene language in them."

The controversy erupted when one of the four children of Bernard Nickerson and his wife arrived home with "Janis" by David Dalton. Nickerson objected to the "considerable amount of bad language" in the biography.

House waving signs reading "Mr. President: we want to work. Let us." and "Congress must love unemployment."

White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen told reporters he could not provide any firm indication whether Ford would veto the bill until it comes out of a congressional conference committee.

But he said Ford "has some concerns" about provisions, particularly that the reform legislation would cause consumer coal prices to rise sharply. Ford vetoed a similar bill last session.

Utilities board will get atomic transfusion soon

By DOUG HATCH
Alligator Staff Writer
and DAVID KLEIN
Alligator Managing Editor

The Regional Utilities Board (RUB) will get a jolt of atomic power soon and consumers will get some relief from soaring power costs, RUB General Manager Robert Roundtree said Tuesday.

Roundtree said the RUB will buy 9.5 megawatts (9.5 million watts) of atomic power from the Crystal River atomic generating plant owned by Florida Power Corp.

ROUNDTREE SAID the power supplied by the Crystal River station will save RUB customers about $550,000 a year in bulk power costs.

The total package of almost 10 megawatts will supply "around 10 per cent of our total output," Roundtree said.

The RUB will not begin receiving the atomic power until the Crystal River plant, scheduled for completion in September, 1976, opens for operation.

ROUNDTREE SAID the RUB originally requested 82.6 megawatts, "with no expectation at all of getting 82.6." Instead, he said he told the commissioners to expect to receive about 10 megawatts.

However, Roundtree said the RUB might still receive more power if other buyers do not use their allocation to capacity.

Green wins top award

Alex E. S. Green, a UF graduate research professor has been awarded the 1975 Medal of the Florida Academy of Sciences.

The award for an "outstanding scientist of Florida", was made at the academy's 39th annual meeting in Lakeland March 28.

GREEN CAME to the University of Florida in 1963. He is a graduate research professor of physics, electrical engineering and aerospace engineering. He is also director of the Interdisciplinary Center for Aeronomy and Atmospheric Sciences.

Green has published more than 200 books and articles covering varied aspects of theoretical nuclear physics.

The municipal utility agency might eventually receive up to 12 megawatts of power, he said.

The 9.5 megawatts will be bought through the issuance of bonds, Roundtree said.

Though the power itself costs only $550,000 per megawatt, the bond cost would be equivalent to $650,000 per megawatt, Roundtree said.

Tower B floods

By DOUG HATCH
Alligator Staff Writer

Nine floors of Beatty Towers were flooded Monday night when a hot water line broke between the ninth and tenth floors.

Although final damage reports were unavailable Tuesday, Director of Housing James T. Hennessey estimated carpeting damage at $2,000 to $3,000.

THE LINE BROKE about 8:30 p.m. in the northwest side of the men's tower. Then the water trickled from floor to floor until the water reached the ground floor, where damage was most extensive.

"There seems to be some damage to the carpet in the music room on the ground floor and it might have to be replaced," Hennessey said.

Hennessey said the carpeting in the private rooms probably won't have to be replaced because they are being dried.

HENNESSEY SAID he was unaware of damages to any personal property of anyone living in the towers.

"If there is any personal property damage we will first investigate what actions the residents made to save it (the property)," Hennessey said. "Of course we will entertain claims for lost property but this will come from the state."

The flooding started about 9 p.m., said Paul Mazy, 3ASB, a resident of room 903, one of the first rooms affected.

THE WATER CAME through the light fixtures and later through the air conditioning vents, Mazy said.

"It started real slowly at first and then all of a sudden it really started up," John Hall, a resident of room 904, said.

A plumber was called to the scene immediately, but it was several hours before the water flow stopped.

He said the bonds cost more because there must be money for construction and a reserve fund for interest payments.

According to Roundtree, between $7 million and $8 million in bonds would be issued, even though the power only costs about $6.2 million. The extra money would be used in case additional atomic power became available from other agencies.

Gainesville misses deadline, UF still uses Florida Power

By SHEILA SIMLER
Alligator Staff Writer

Florida Power Corporation will automatically furnish power to UF for another year, it was announced at the Monday night city commission meeting.

The City of Gainesville wanted to bid for the $3 million contract, but the Board of Regents was not notified by the April 5 deadline.

"We won't be able to bid for 1976," said Richardson. "We have waited 10 years — apparently we will wait 11 years now."

COMMISSIONER Joseph Little said regent Jack McGriff told him UF will be given a chance for the city to bid in future years.

Gainesville's Regional Utilities Board (RUB) will have until Jan. 5, 1977, to notify the regents that RUB wants to furnish UF with power. Utilities General Manager Robert Roundtree said.

A revenue shortfall of $8,000 is anticipated for the city budget this fiscal year. City Manager B. Harold Farmer said this is because there was no surplus of money from last year.

THE 1974-75 expenditures are within the budget and will not present any problems for this year, Farmer said.

The commission decided to continue a hiring freeze of city employes to reduce costs for next year. Farmer said this action will pose no problems because "I don't anticipate much (employe) turnover."

Backup persons exist in case of any unforeseen employe shortage, Farmer added.

Initial consideration of bond programs for capital improvement brought a suggestion from Commissioner Joseph Little to purchase bonds now. He said bond rates are expected to rise because of an increase in the federal deficit this year.

A RUB AMENDMENT that could save homeowners $50,000 this month will be given final action at Wednesday's RUB meeting.

The amendment will mean a reduction of about $2 per customer for April. The rate for March was 18 mills per kilowatt hour, and April's rate will be 16.05 mills per kilowatt hour for users of 1,000 kilowatt hours per month.

In other action, the commission discussed complaints of an illegal number of students living together, which violates the minimum housing code.

THE COMMISSION is seeking an effective way to enforce the law.

Commissioner Russell Ramsey asked City Manager B. Harold Farmer and City Atty. Osee Fagan to investigate methods used in other cities with similar problems.

Farmer noted that such an investigation was made before and it was "fruitless."

"Tallahassee claimed they have no such problem," said Farmer. He explained that no other cities acknowledge the situation, but he will continue to search for a solution.

Three drown in springs

Gainesville divers recovered the bodies of three Georgia scuba divers who drowned Monday in Jenny Springs in northeast Gilchrist county.

The bodies of Dean Hale Case, 43, of Appling, Ga. and Darryl Harkins, 28, of Augusta, Ga. were recovered by divers Monday night, according to Gilchrist County Deputy Sheriff Darrell Williams.

THE BODY OF the third drowning victim, Barton David Wittenberg, 20, of Augusta, Ga., was recovered Tuesday morning, Williams said.

A fourth diver, Peyton Gill, 19, of Washington, Ga., escaped unhurt, he said.

The three dead men were wearing single air tanks while Gill wore a pair of tanks. None of the men were using safety lines, Williams said.

THE FOUR MEN were diving approximately 250 to 300 feet inside the 70-foot-deep cave when they "presumably" got lost in the cave and ran out of air, he said.

Jenny Springs has a "complicated cave system" that might explain the large number of drowning deaths that have occurred there in the past, Williams said.

"Between Jenny Springs and Devil's Hole (another cave close by) there were nine diving deaths last year," he said.

Barron and Tucker open Florida Legislature with warning to Askew on use of veto power

By BRUCE MORRIS
Alligator Staff Writer

Senate President Dempsey Barron and Speaker of the House Donald Tucker gavelled their houses to order Tuesday morning to open the 1975 Florida legislative session.

Both leaders sounded notes of legislative independence and warned Gov. Reubin Askew to use his veto power wisely.

Barron said in his opening speech of the 60-day session, "I don't believe there is one among you who does not take pride in being one of 40 state senators — independent of other branches of government."

IN OPENING REMARKS to his house colleagues, Tucker warned Askew to take care to avoid using his veto power too freely in his unprecedented second term.

Both men also advised legislators against pushing for any new taxes, and they promised quick action on bills that will reorganize the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and the Environmental Protection Agency.

In his fifth state of the state address, Askew called for revision in voting registration practices. He advocated redrawing voting rolls every four years instead of every two and providing registration by mail.

IN THE WAKE of impeachment proceedings against two supreme court justices, Askew asked the legislature to adopt the "Missouri Plan" of selecting judges.

Under this plan, a panel selects several nominees for a vacant judgeship position. The governor appoints one of these, and after a designated term, he is put on the ballot for a public vote on whether to retain or dismiss him.

Askew also called for full financial disclosure and rigid conflict-of-interest laws. "We must prove we are truly public servants and not the servants of either the vested interests or our own self-interests," he said.

He described his landslide re-election as "a mandate for full financial disclosure. I will do everything I can to fulfill that mandate," he said.

ASKEW PRESENTED plans for dealing with economic recession and increasing crime — including gun control laws and minimum prison sentences without paroles for crimes committed with dangerous weapons.

The governor was not given a rousing welcome by the joint session, according to Rep. Sidney Martin, D-Hawthorne. "He didn't set me on fire," Martin said.

Rep. Bill Andrews, Sen. Bob Saunders and Sen. Kenneth "Buddy" MacKay, the other local legislators, could not be reached for comment at the capital late Tuesday.

MARTIN SAID he supports the governor's "Missouri Plan" for the judiciary. He said he has advocated a switch to that type of system since 1968.

"We have to find ways to upgrade the judicial system. One of the ways is the Missouri Plan," he said.

However, Martin was skeptical about its chances of passing the legislature this year.

During its 60-day session, the legislature also will consider passage of the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA).

ASKEW REITERATED his support for its passage in his address, provoking a "thumbs-down" demonstration in the gallery by three rows of anti-ERA forces.

When contacted Tuesday, Martin said a group of the anti-ERA people had just left his office. He said they were making their rounds of the capital.

Although Martin said he will vote for the ERA and expects it will narrowly pass the house, he doesn't think it will make it through the senate.

The legislators will consider a bill to put a student on the Board of Regents and a bill to raise tuition in state universities.

Martin opposes any tuition hike, but he said "it will be tough, tough sledding" to prevent it.

A comprehensive anti-discrimination ordinance received initial consideration by the Gainesville City Commission at their Monday night meeting.

The proposed ordinance highlights discriminatory practices in public accommodations, housing, employment and credit extensions.

Its purpose is to combine, broaden and include every kind of activity regarding color, race, national origin and sex into a general ordinance, explained City Attorney Osee Fagan.

given a chance to go over the proposals and suggest changes."

Mautz said the "up or out" tenure requirement would also have to be studied.

UNDER PRESENT TENURE rules, if a faculty member is not tenured in his sixth year of employment, then he must be terminated a year later.

Mautz said this was a "standard academic policy set by the American Association of University Professors, but I really don't know the reasoning behind it."

Monday is not the first time that the question of tenure review has come up before the regents.

NEAR THE BEGINNING of Mautz' term as chancellor, in 1969, he proposed a review of the tenure process.

Among the changes that came from that review, was a lengthening of the probation period for professors before they came up for tenure, from three to five years.

"I'm leaving where I came in — with a tenure review," Mautz said Tuesday. "I guess it's like marriage, it will always be with us."

MAUTZ WILL BE succeeded by E.T. York as chancellor on July 1.

An almost annual review of tenure will apparently not come before the state legislature this year however.

State Sen. Richard Deeb, known for filing a yearly bill to abolish tenure, has not prepared a similar bill this year, and will probably not do so, according to a member of his staff.

Staff member Freddie Swift said Tuesday Deeb has drafted most of the bills he planned on submitting this session and none dealt with tenure.

Criser told the regent's staff he expects the report in time for next month's meeting.

Pseudonym off SG ballot

Alfredo Fettucini is dead but Richard Snyder lives on.

The newly formed election commission ruled Monday night to uphold the decision of director of elections Scott Simmons that Richard Snyder, independent student body presidential candidate, must use his real name on the April 16 election ballot.

Snyder wanted to use the fictitious name Alfredo Fettucini on the ballot.

The election Commission is an independent agency of Student Government overseeing the conduct, canvassing and certification of SG elections.

Members of the election commission are: Greg Enholm, 7BA, chairman; Randy Bradey, 4JM; Wally Anderson, 4BA; Beth Wilson, 1LW; and Kathy Whitney, 3BA.

Snyder said he filed an appeal with the Student Appeals Court, but dropped the appeal when he could not find a Florida Statute "stating a candidate can run under a fictitious name."

Jim Roark, student appeals court member said, "The court does not over turn a decision unless there is proof of a gross error."

Roark said because the ballots had to be printed Tuesday morning, Snyder was only given one and one-half hours to find the statute.

EDITORIAL

Mr. IBM

Mr. IBM is dropping in to look us over today. The sharp-tongued, quick witted, Harvard trained lawyer is arriving this morning for a three-day visit, apparently to sort of get the feel of UF.

After eight years of trying to get the Florida House of Representatives to run more efficiently, Marshall Harris, newly appointed to the Board of Regents, is now taking on higher education.

In the next few days he will meet with President Marston and other administrators and faculty as well as career service employees, just to make sure they are doing their jobs. He will also personally inspect the medical center, IFAS, and other colleges.

Oh yes, and he wants to meet the students too.

This is the first time the Miami lawyer has visited UF since he quit the legislature, because he couldn't get along with House Speaker Don Tucker, and joined the regents in January.

But we remember the Harris from times past. As a matter of fact it was just about this time last year when, in another editorial, we expressed our desire to see Harris impaled on a silver diploma.

It was in the final days of the 1974 legislative session when student lobbyists were anxiously watching the new regent-proposed tuition plan to see if it would clear the legislature before the session ended.

Suddenly from out of the house appropriations committee, of which Harris was chairman, came a second fee proposal that made the regents' proposal pale in comparison.

Harris wanted to assess undergrads up to $15 a credit hour and graduate students from $25 to $34 an hour.

Whether the plan was designed as a smoke screen for the regents' proposal or Harris really believed students weren't paying enough, the move had its effect. It took everyone's mind off the real issue long enough for the session to end and the regents to sneak the new plan into effect, unapproved.

And that wasn't the first time Harris had an impact on higher education. Only months before he grabbed headlines all over the state with his accusations of gross university padding of graduate enrollment rolls to gain state money. His accusations touched off months of hurried university audits and repeated denials by administrators and regents alike.

Later Harris grabbed headlines once more when his subcommittee took a "get tough" stand toward higher education and recommended a 15 per cent cut in funding.

It wasn't until months later, when the credibility of the state university system had already been severely damaged that state auditor general Ernest Ellison revealed that less than four per cent of the state's graduate students were overenrolled and that the overenrollment was not due to 'padding' as Harris alleged, but to widespread misunderstanding of the cumbersome rules and regulations.

In view of his past track record we weren't surprised to see Harris go along with every other regent except Gainesville's Jack McGriff last month to vote for yet another tuition hike. This new tuition plan comes very close to matching Harris' earlier proposal.

While we haven't been too overjoyed at Harris' appointment to the regents, we are glad he has expressed a desire to meet with students while here in Gainesville.

We hope more than a few students are wondering why they have to pay increasingly more for their education every fall. Maybe Harris will be able to explain it to them tonight.

It is said Harris loves a fight, and he is fond of saying "I'm not running a popularity contest".

Don't worry — you won't win one here.

Changing the language

The room was stuffed full of curious onlookers, expert linguists, aggressive feminists and many of the world's most notorious male chauvinists. The feminists had just come off a clean linguistic victory and wiped out all the chauvinistic connotations of the English language. Now gripping their dictionaries with calloused hands, the feminists were preparing to attack French.

A microphone groaned, the room quieted and the chairperson of the debate spoke. "As many of you here already know, in the recent past anyone wishing to speak English was forced to utter such slanted phrases as Mister, Miss, manhandle, manhole, and even the nefarious pronoun 'his.' In fact we have a recorded case of a poor woman who used 'his' so much that her relatives thought she'd taken leave of her senses and was imitating snake calls.

TONY ARNADE

"BUT THANKS are due for the effort of a few hard-working persons, who after burning their bras, went on to neuterize the English language. Tonight many of these same persons will attempt to neuterize French — a much more difficult task since every word is either masculine or feminine. We are going to begin with the word rock. Now what gender shall we make rock?"

"Well, I think, and you may not agree," said a red hair feminist, "to be a rock represents the strength of womanhood and therefore should be feminine."

"I disagree" murmured a black-clad male chauvinist. "I think, and this is my own personal opinion, but I feel that a rock symbolizes the strength of manhood and therefore should be masculine."

"WE OUGHT TO forget the whole thing and leave the language alone," a blonde sorority girl said, "because my Benji says woman libbers just want to burn our bras."

"Well, what's wrong with that?" snapped the feminist.

"If I burn my bra I won't have three dimensional Greek letters on my shirt anymore."

"OH, YOU CAN TAKE the bra off first."
"You mean I can burn it after I take it off. Oh, well maybe —"

"I think we've deviated from the major topic of discussion," said the voice on the microphone. "Now does anyone have any suggestions for the word rock?"

"YES," SAID THE black-clad male chauvinist. "I think we ought to throw it out the window and go on to more controversial words. I'd like to know who's gonna get stuck with the word 'gutter'."

"Oh, don't be silly," snapped the feminist. "Everyone knows it's men who dig gutters, it's men who pass out dead drunk in gutters, and you never see a woman urinating in a gutter."

"Gentlepersons, we have a problem even deeper than gutters," said the voice over the microphone. "This is a serious matter that confronts us in all languages. What are we going to do with mailman."

"EASY," SAID THE black-clad male chauvinist. "We just look at our options. We can change it to man mail, female mail, male male, female female or what seems most probable we can just have our postage delivered by a woman man."

"Well, I'll refuse to utter any such word which connotes that it's the men who carry the male when it's us women who get pregnant."

"And I don't care how equal we are supposed to be," said the sorority girl. "I'm gonna refuse to call any of my daughters Harry or George."

"Well that settles it" says the voice over the microphone. "Any moralistic tampering with any language won't change anyone's attitudes. So man, I think we ought to forget the whole thing."

Florida Student Party platform given

We have read the platforms of other Student Government political parties and wonder why we've seen the same trumped up campaign issues for the past five years.

Why should we believe now that such promised action is not as hollow as in recent years?

ON THE OTHER HAND, the Florida Student Party's platform is based on realistic challenges for positive change for Florida's students.

Furthermore, FSP's candidates are unique in that they have records of past accomplishments as well as titles of service. (Compare this with their opponents who, on the most part, have done little more than fill vacancies, make promises, and produce little.)

Hence, when one considers the source of campaign promises, FSP's candidates are surely more credible than their opponents.

FOR INSTANCE, Alyce McAdam, our candidate for president, has served:

- As student senator and SG cabinet member
  - With UF Affirmative Action Council and Student Nighttime Auxiliary Patrol
  - As president and state secretary of the National Organization for Women
  - A member of Savant and a registered lobbyist, and Alyce has been recognized for her service accomplishments. She:
    - Is the founder of the Gainesville Rape Crisis Center
    - Has been a guest lecturer throughout Florida
    - Is co-author of the SG "Rape" pamphlet
    - Was a varsity member of the women's gymnastic team.
- Similarly, Bubba Huerta, FSP's vice-presidential candidate has been busy serving and accomplishing.

- Bubba has served as:
- SG director of athletics
  - Director of "Gator Clinics for a Cause"
  - Member of Florida Blue Key
  - A member and former officer of Kappa Alpha fraternity in the area of accomplishments, Bubba:
    - Originated "Gator Clinics for a Cause"
    - Was a varsity baseball player for three years
    - Has volunteered his services to work with juvenile delinquents

Together Alyce and Bubba intend to:

- Restructure SG via a binding student vote on alternatives

- Lobby for student rights before the State Legislature and Board of Regents
- Present workable alternatives to students
- Keep regular office hours and hold open meetings with students

- Aggressively recruit SG cabinet members
- Institute student ombudsman

Greg Sherman is probably the most qualified person to ever run for treasurer at UF.

Not only is he the incumbent treasurer who did not use his office for a political stepping stone, but Greg has served in many other positions and has achieved many accomplishments for Florida students.

- Compare Greg's record as:
- Coordinator, Activity and Service Fee Committee
  - Board of directors, Student Credit Union
  - University Budget Committee member and member of the Union Board of Managers
  - Director Gator Loan Fund and student senator

Again, Greg is uniquely qualified, as his accomplishments prove:

- Founder of the Florida Turnpike Toll discount program
- Established the Business Administration College Council
- Recognized as an extremely student oriented and accessible member of SG by Honor Court report.

If re-elected, Sherman pledges these realistic proposals:

- Publish the state audit
- Follow up the examination of infirmary service
- Continue student services such as expanding child day care facilities

Work to insure continued student control over the activity and service fee

- Expand money saving programs for students
- Continue to be accessible and responsive to students.

Ben Ayres is also uniquely qualified to serve as chancellor on the Florida Student Party ticket.

His service is both within and beyond the realm of the Honor Court. Compare Ben's record:

- Honor Court attorney general's staff
- Honor Court Bar Association
- Secretary, Board of College Councils
- Vietnam veteran
- Florida Blue Key Speakers Bureau

He is also a recognized leader and worker in the school, as:

- John Marshall Bar Association treasurer-elect
- Feature editor, The Verdict
- Co-editor, Law Center News
- Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity.

As Chancellor of the Honor Court, Ben pledges the following for students:

- Work for non-partisan judiciary elections
- Open judiciary proceedings at the trial level
- Protect the identity of students under investigation
- Work to increase awareness of the Honor Code and the function of the Honor Court

Finally, Florida Student Party's candidate for chief justice of the Traffic Court, Bob Lindgren, is the only qualified candidate for the office.

Bob's record is based on years of work — not recent appointments.

- Compare Bob's record:
- Associate justice of the Traffic Court and deputy chief justice
  - Student senator
  - SG cabinet director

- Member of Parking and Transportation Committee
  - Environmental Action Group-director of transportation
- Compare his accomplishments:

- Established and chairs the Traffic Court of Appeals
- Established the Cin City-Tanglewood bus route
- Initiated the partial closing of the inner campus to traffic
- Increased parking on Sorority Row

As Chief Justice, Bob knows how and where to go to:

- Improve existing transportation
- Expand parking facilities and emphasize student safety
- Moderate overselling of parking decals
- Work to close the inner campus to automobiles.

Florida Student Party asks that you compare the records of the candidates for the various offices.

Note closely their records of accomplishment and consider who will actually come through with their campaign promises.

FSP doesn't offer a "pie-in-the-sky" platform but rather one which is realistic. For, an unrealistic platform is action we don't need.

Alyce, Bubba, Greg, Ben, Bob and the rest of Florida Student Party need your vote and your support on April 16.

Show Harris you care

EDITOR: This is directed towards the entire student body of UF (at least to those of you that can read and are straight enough to comprehend).

On Wednesday, April 9, Marshall Harris (a member of the Board of Regents) will be on campus to talk to interested students and faculty. This will be his first official visit to UF since joining the regents and all students will have the opportunity of talking to him face-to-face at 8p.m. in the J. Wayne Reitz Union Cafeteria, while faculty and staff may meet him at 7:30p.m. in the second floor ballroom. I want to urge all students to show up at these meetings to demonstrate a show of concern and strength in opposing the upcoming tuition hikes and major fund cuts.

IT'D BE PRETTY sad if only a handful of students showed up. We can easily get 5,000 students out on the lawn for a Herbie Mann concert, and another 3,000 to watch 30 or so people run around naked, but how many of you are willing to take a half an hour out of your study-party time to make a stand for your own education?

The members of the regents, the Florida Legislature, and Gov. Askew are a bit out of touch with the reality that faces our institution, and need a little help in seeing the light. Their efforts at cutting the fat off are analagous to a brain surgeon using Paul Bunyan's ax, or a barber using a lawn mower instead of clippers. Organizations like Students Against Cutbacks are great, but think of the effect that 5,000 students (less than one-fifth of the total enrollment) crammed into the cafeteria protesting fund cuts and the like would have upon those with the power to change such atrocities.

How many of you out there wouldn't just love the chance to ask: Why our fees will be going up; why classes will be more crowded; why our library can't even buy books; why teachers are being cut; why our labs are so full; why students are taking courses in dorm basements; why the University's accreditation is in jeopardy; why we must swelter during the hot weather trying to study; why we have a Student Infirmary built for 6,000 students attempting to serve a mere 28,000; and why there is a good chance that students will be forced to attend school in the summer to "save money"?

IF THE STUDENTS of this campus do not show up and make their move when given this ideal opportunity, then the problems and miserable conditions that will undoubtedly come in the fall are well deserved. If we, as students, (supposedly the enlightened generation) cannot stand up for our own education, instead of dismissing it as inevitable like mindless sheep, then how can we possibly expect others to? Perhaps, in this case, the cuts will be justified.

Remember: This is our education that is being slashed, and no one else's. Be there, Wednesday April 9 at 8p.m. in the cafeteria, and protest in an orderly, civilized manner, asking questions and letting a show of numbers speak loudest. Let's show the state that we, THE STUDENTS, will not stand for it any more.

'Naturally, if we'd had American aid, we would be much braver than this...!'

Alyce Mc Adam and Bubba Huerta will:

- establish "Town Hall" meetings in dorms and apartments. We'll listen to you after the election, too!
- demand financial responsibility in SG. You'll know where your money goes.
- hold a legally binding referendum on SG alternatives. You won't be ignored again!

SG needs a team of honest students dedicated to realistic goals. Like Alyce, Bubba and the Florida Student Party. We can do what we promise. And this year, that's the real difference.

TRANSCENDENTAL MEDITATION is ...

AS TAUGHT BY MAHARISHI MAHESH YOGI

As the body becomes more rested it needs less oxygen. During Transcendental Meditation oxygen intake is greatly reduced, indicating a level of rest deeper than sleep. After TM reaction time is quicker, indicating a sharper, clearer mind, improved coordination of mind and body, and increased efficiency in perception and performance.

The deep rest gained from a few minutes of Transcendental Meditation twice daily provides the foundation for a more energetic, successful life.

SUGARLAND EXPRESS

Based on an actual event in Texas in 1969, this is the live-action story of a young mother who helps her husband escape from prison so they may rescue their baby from involuntary adoption. The cross-country pursuit of the fugitive couple and their hijacked Texas State police car make for a tigh a minute. Starring Goldie Hawn and Ben Johnson.

PATHER PANCHALI

This is the first part of Satyajit Ray's chronicle of a Bengali family and the boy Apu. The story deals mainly with Apu's father and his struggle to support his family in their ancestral village. The performances from the largely non-professional cast are outstanding. Especially notable is the acting of Chunibala Devi as the aging aunt. In Bengali with English sub-titles.

Announcer star of U.S. - Russia meet

Mark Totten left the mat in a semi-state of shock.

For probably the first time in his life, the giant 270 pound UF heavyweight was totally overmatched and absolutely man-handled.

WHEN HIS shoulders were pinned to the mat by his Russian opponent, a long night at the Jacksonville Coliseum came to an abrupt close.

Long for coach Gary Schneider's team, not for the U.S.S.R. delegation.

The Russian national team was favored to win the meet. Schneider said his team would have been lucky to win five matches. As it turned out, 167 pound Mel Renfro saved the U.S. team from total embarrassment by edging a 1974 world champion 5-4 for the U.S.'s lone victory.

Intramurals

A representative from each fraternity must be present for the draw for tennis, today 222 Fla. Gym, 4 p.m.

Tomorrow is the deadline for signing up for sorority racquetball. Contact the IM office 229 Fla. Gym, 392-0581.

A mixed doubles tennis tournament is planned for Faculty-Staff. Teams consist of one man and one woman. Sign up by this Friday in the IM office.

THE RUSSIANS looked like they had just stepped out of the latest issue of Muscle Magazine. Like the ancient Greek gods, they were incredibly powerful. Add a stoic, unsmiling face that could turn a person to stone and you have a virtually unbeatable combination.

It wasn't a matter of the U.S. team being that bad. The Russians were just too good.

I MEAN, it wasn't your run of the mill wrestling match. Promoter Don Curtis finally ripped the mike from the announcer's hand and tried to cover up the enormous blunders by announcing to the audience, "you think that's bad you should have heard them trying to pronounce 'Curtis' over there."

RICK ADELMAN

OPINION

The only time the Russians came close to cracking a smile was during the opening ceremonies when both squads were being introduced to the crowd.

THE ANNOUNCER, and the term should be used loosely, attacked the Russian names like a school of piranha going after a side of beef.

A back-woods pig farmer couldn't have done a better job of slaughtering.

Granted, Russian names aren't the easiest to pronounce but you would have thought the "announcer" could have practiced during the day.

Nice try Don. As if that wasn't enough the organist had to be wakened from a light slumber so he could accompany the wrestlers back to their respective dressing rooms.

Curtis should also shoulder most of the blame for the turnaway crowd of about 1,000 that jammed the Coliseum which seats 12,000.

Thank goodness that announcer showed up. He provided a bit of excitement in an otherwise dull evening.
