St. Lucie county is in need of a good, substantial jail.

Leesburg voted in favor of bonding at the election December 29th.

Pensacola is to have a new city hall, the site having been purchased.

Daytona is moving along at a rapid rate and the town is in the midst of a business boom.

Kissimmee is keeping up the fruit shipments, large quantities being shipped every day.

Captain and Mrs. W. J. Tucker of Fort Pierce celebrated their 44th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, Dec. 26.

The State Baptist Convention will assemble at Bartow January 11th. Between 200 and 300 delegates are expected.

A negro was fined $5 and costs for fishing with a trotline near Eustis. It was decided that a trotline was a setline device.

The State Bank of Live Oak has established a savings department, but all the money has been blown in on Christmas gifts.

The city marshal of Orlando gets 40 cents a day for board of prisoners who only get two meals a day and 50 cents when they work and draw three squares.

The cabbage crop at Coleman, Sumter county, is said to be the best ever grown there, and with no mishaps there will be from 80,000 to 100,000 barrels shipped.

So far the police authorities have not been successful in running down the murderer of Mrs. David Suggs, the woman who was beaten to death near Cocoanut Grove in Dade county.

Sheriff Bennett of Bradford county made a raid on a bunch of colored gamblers near the Powell Smith Company still, Tuesday, and one colored fellow named Bernard was shot, but will recover.

S. B. Duggart, a Massachusetts tourist, fell down the hatchway of a schooner lying in port at Fernandina and after sixteen stitches had been taken in his scalp by the doctor he tumbled to the fact that he had run his head into something.

P. H. M. Campbell of Pensacola was fined $250 and costs or to serve three months for selling liquor without a license. In addition to the foregoing, another thirty days was imposed and will have to be served, whether the defendant pays the costs or not.

J. B. Nixon, manager of the Krauss & Co. store at Pensacola, is missing. A short time ago it was announced that the safe had been robbed and the store set on fire. It has later developed that Nixon is short in his accounts and a reward of $50 is offered for his apprehension.

Rev. Joseph Norwood, who is in charge of the Cuban Mission of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Ybor City, is making plans for the establishment of a club room, gymnasium and entertainment hall for the Cuban and Spanish young men of Tampa. A very good plan and worthy of emulation.

The new Miami Pillow and Mattress Company, manufacturing mattresses out of a certain kind of a soft sponge, is overrun with orders and working day and night. It is claimed for this sponge product that it is much more sanitary than any other mattress. Hospitals are being supplied and the East Coast Railway has orders in for several hundred.

Misses Robie and Ollie Robertson of Mount Enon, while driving from that place to Youmans, were both shot and painfully wounded by an unknown party, supposed to be a hunter. Miss Robie was shot in the left cheek just below the eye and Miss Ollie in the breast. The body of the vehicle was riddled with shot. The shot was fired from the side of the road, but the young ladies could find no one in the vicinity.

Important Notice.

Gainesville, Fla., December 1, 1905. We wish to give timely notice to our patrons, both gas and electric, that we have found it absolutely necessary to adopt a new system. Beginning on the first day of January, 1906, we will dispense with a collector and adopt the system of mailing the bills to every customer and all bills will be due and payable at our office on or before the 10th day of the month or 10 per cent will be added, and if not paid on or before the 20th inst. the gas and electric service will be discontinued and one dollar charge will be collected for reconnecting service. We are not responsible if bills are not received through the postoffice, as they will be regularly mailed. This rule applies to every gas and electric light consumer. Therefore be governed accordingly, as this system will be rigidly enforced and the following rates for electric current will be in effect January 1st, 1906:

50,000 watts and under, 15c per M watts.

50,000 to 200,000, 12c per M watts.

200,000 to 300,000, 10c per M watts.

300,000 and over, 8c per M watts.

Special rates made for power purposes.

Illuminating gas, $2.25 per M.

Fuel gas, $2 per M.

A discount of 10 per cent if bill is paid on or before 10th of each month.

Respectfully,

GAINESVILLE GAS & ELECTRIC POWER COMPANY.

The Key That Unlocks the Door to Long Living.

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund well fed, but thin, spare men who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to cleanse and invigorate his stomach and regulate his liver and bowels. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to old age. For sale by all druggists.

Cason Held for Killing.

Hartwell, Ga., Dec. 30.—Judson Cason, son of Coroner E. T. Cason, of Hart county, who shot and killed Robert Adams Saturday night at a Christmas tree in Witham chapel, was held by the coroner's jury for voluntary manslaughter and required to give a $300 bond.

An Emergency Medicine.

For sprains, bruises, burns, scalds and similar injuries there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It apothes the wound and not only gives instant relief from pain, but causes the parts to heal in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment. Sold by all druggists.

Will Be Rector.

Chicago, Dec. 30.—he Rev. William C. DeWitt, rector of St. Andrews Episcopal church for the last 17 years, who resigned recently to become dean of the Western Theological seminary, will be succeeded by the Rev. Frederick Dumontier, of Memphis, Tenn., the Rev. Dr. Deval has sent word of his acceptance of the call sent to him by the vestry a week ago. He will take charge of St. Andrews on Feb. 1.

Woman Hangs Herself.

Hot Springs, Ark., Dec. 30.—H. J. Lewis, wife of the cashier of the Illinois Club, committed suicide by hanging. She tied a clothes line to the stairway and jumped off. Ill health is supposed to have prompted the deed. Word was received by Mr Lewis that his wife had been left a comfortable fortune by a relative, and while he was away from home his wife took her life.

Two Negroes Hanged.

Gadsden, Ala., Dec. 30.—Jack Hunter and Vance Garner, negroes, were hanged in the county jail here today for the murder of Mrs. Jane Smith, a white woman, who was assaulted and killed in this city last spring. Wi Johnson, also a negro, convicted of the same crime, was reprieved by the governor until Feb. 9, pending the examination of later evidence in his case.

All Deposits Will Be Guranateed.

Memphis, Dec. 30.—It is reported that negotiations are pending between the directors of the defunct Merchants Trust company and two local banks by which the latter are to take over the affairs of the former. If an agreement is reached, it is said that all deposits in the Merchants Trust company will be fully guaranteed.
