THE NAVAL PARADE WAS A BIG SUCCESS

PEARY ON THE "ROOSEVELT" WAS DISTINCTIVE FEATURE.

Over One Thousand Vessels Participate in Spectacular Event of Fulton-Hudson Celebration.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—With Commander Robert E. Peary, and every member of the crew that accompanied him on his quest of the North Pole aboard, the steamer "Roosevelt," just back from the region of eternal ice, was the salient feature of the naval parade today up the lower Hudson to meet the Half Moon and Clermont at Newburg. This naval parade was the principal incident of the celebration today, so far as Manhattan was concerned.

In Brooklyn the historical pageant of last Tuesday was repeated, and there was everywhere the usual expectation of the aeroplane flights, but a great majority of sightseers flocked to the banks of the Hudson. There they saw a great fleet of excursion steamers, steam tugs, yachts, motor boats and other craft, which rendezvoused between Fort Lee and Spuyten Duyvil.

The "Roosevelt's" progress from quarantine to her dock at the foot of West Forty-second street, was marked by a continuous blast of whistles, and when she came off Riverside drive, where the crowd was gathered and started on her way up the river the salute was taken up by thousands of cheering voices.

A Spectacular Event.

The naval pageant in connection with the Hudson-Fulton celebration was the greatest in the history of the United States, and perhaps the greatest the world has ever seen. Over 1,000 vessels, including cruisers, battleships, steamboats, private yachts, tugs, steam lighters and motor boats, participated in the event.

The vessels were divided into eight squadrons, each commanded by a flag officer. The squadrons were then divided into divisions of not fewer than four vessels, all in line except the United States naval ships, being under command of Captain Jacob W. Miller, chairman of the Hudson-Fulton's commission for the naval parade.

There were eighty warships in line, fifty-three being detailed from the Atlantic squadron of the United States navy.

Foreign nations represented were Germany, England, Italy, France, Mexico, Argentine, Chili and Peru. River towns along the Hudson devoted the day to exercises along the river side, fetes and champetres wherever the nature of the water front made such a program possible. At Newburg the Half Moon and Clermont were turned over to an up-river squadron, which will take the replicas on to Albany for next week's celebration

A Frank Estimate.

To many persons who are not actors the stage seems a delightful and fascinating place. In a book called "The Actress" Louise Closser Hale, herself an actress, tells some of her experiences with girls who envy her her profession. One day one of them from behind a counter in a shop said, "I should have went on the stage."

"She evidently wanted to talk, and I strove to be interested," says Miss Hale.

"But see how tired I am," I said to her. "I have to work very hard as it is, and I had to work much harder to gain what little recognition I have had."

"Oh, yes," she responded, complacently gazing at herself in a mirror. "But, you see, I have talent."

Struck a Bargain.

An old woman recently entered an optician's shop and asked to look at some spectacles. Choosing a pair, she asked the price.

"Five shillings," was the answer.

"And how much are they without the case?"

"I could not sell them for less than 4s. 10d.," said the tradesman, who was determined to get all he could.

"Do you only take off twopence for the case?" queried the woman.

"That is all. The case is worth no more than twopence," was the reply.

"That is good news!" ejaculated the old lady, with a sigh of relief. "It's the case for mine which I have lost."

So saying, she laid down the twopence and marched off with the coveted case before the astonished shopkeeper had time to interfere.—London Mail.

Taking After Father.

"It has its father's nose!"

"And its mother's eyes!"

"And Aunt Alice's mouth!"

"And Uncle Ebenezer's ears!"

Such, multiplied by about a hundred, were the criticisms leveled by kind friends against the Fitzboodle baby.

Then the unconcerned baby began to calmly chew his big toe.

"Ah!" murmured Mr. Fitzboodle. "Baby is certainly endowed with some of my wife's chief characteristics!"

"Not to mention you, Fritz Fitzboodle!" snapped his wife. "Baby never opens his mouth without putting his foot in it!"

Maternal Instinct.

We talk about "maternal instinct." There is no such thing. To be sure, there are things that have to do with young which females possess and males lack. The wasp lays its egg on the body of the caterpillar for the larva it will never see. The hen sits twenty-one days on any roundish, whitish object of the proper size. I have seen at a children's party every little girl leave the supper table on the advent of a baby and every little boy go stolidly on with his supper. But each kind of mother has its own bundle of instinctive reactions. There is no "maternal instinct" in the abstract.—McClure's Magazine.

WOMAN'S MUTILATED BODY DISCOVERED

CORONER'S JURY RECOMMENDED ARREST OF HUSBAND.

Was Seen With His Wife Tuesday Afternoon In Woods Near Where Body Was Found.

SPARTANBURG, S. C., Oct. 1.—The discovery early yesterday of the mutilated body of Mrs. Martha Foster, covered beneath a mound of brush and pine needles in strip of woodland north of Beaumont Mill village, near this city, has revealed a revolting murder, and left the police authorities at sea. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict last night to the effect that the woman came to her death by being beaten in the head with some blunt instrument, and recommended that Doc Foster, her husband, be held until the circumstances surrounding the case are further developed. He is in jail.

Foster was seen with his wife Tuesday afternoon in the woods, where her body was found. He denies any knowledge of the crime, and stated last night that he last saw his wife Tuesday evening in a hack with an unknown white man and negro driver. She told him then she was going to a neighboring village to see some friends.

Mrs. Foster had been in the State asylum for the insane for six months, and returned only two weeks ago. She has six children, some of whom are in an orphanage in Greenville.

The police believe the murder was not committed in the woods, but that the body had been carried there. Physicians say the woman had not been dead more than forty eight hours. The skull was crushed in several places, one arm was broken and the fingers badly cut.

Foster at one time was a successful farmer. He is 60 years of age. When arrested yesterday he was seated in his room reading the Bible, and expressed little surprise when told that his wife had been murdered. He was taken to where the body lay in the woods, and after viewing it in an indifferent fashion, said:

"Yes, that's her."

A Banquet

Spread before you would do you no good if you couldn't eat. What good can food do a child when as soon as it enters it's stomach it is eaten by worms. That's the reason your baby is ailing, cross, pasty-faced and thin. Give it White's Cream Vermifuge. It will expel the worms and act as a tonic for the child. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Dangers of Handwriting.

A young man is bringing an action against a graphologist in Paris for substantial damages. A pretty heiress, to whom he was engaged to be married, showed a specimen of his handwriting to the graphologist and asked for information. This is the reply she got: "If you should meet the man who wrote these lines upon your way through life avoid him. He is an egotist and a fool, has a bad temper and a despicable nature. The existence of the woman who has the misfortune to marry him will be a Calvary." The marriage has been broken off; hence the action.
