Homeless coalition raises funds

Mother's Day event at Barron Park organized by volunteers

GLADES HENDRY -- The Hendry Glades Homeless Coalition (HGHC) is a volunteer organization. According to Erica Villafuerte, president, is hoping to help the organization raise funds for the homeless. Ms. Villafuerte is also the Glades County Housing Administrator. She explained that the coalition is a non profit agency that attempts to fill the gaps of assisting those that are homeless.

They fill the gaps in services that other social service agencies do not provide or are unable to provide. HGHC assists only those that are literally homeless and have exhausted all other sources of assistance.

"We have provided hotel/motel vouchers for a few nights stay, food, blankets, toiletries, transportation assistance to a shelter or like place," said Ms. Villafuerte.

The coalition held a fund raiser at Barron Park in LaBelle, May 8. The Mother's Day Breakfast was a charming event for children and their families. An inexpensive, yet delicious breakfast was served, and vendors were set up with inexpensive items that children and teens could by for their moms. Approximately ten vendors were set up under the giant live oak trees at the park.

Barron Park is located in historic, downtown LaBelle with a view of the Caloosahatchee River. Volunteers and vendors had fund raisers and raffles to support the coalition.

HGHC has a long way to go in its search for services, funding and

HRMC celebrates National Hospital Week

Hendry Regional Medical Center in Clewiston celebrated National Hospital Week last week, May 9 to May 15. Employees had a fun week of games, activities, and playing dress up.

National Hospital Week dates back to 1921 when a magazine editor, who hoped a community-wide celebration would alleviate public fears about the facilities, suggested it. The idea caught on, and today National Hospital Week is the nation's largest annual health care event.

Among the activities were:

Monday – Employees enjoyed an omelet breakfast, served up by senior administration and a 15-minute massage session.

Tuesday was Hawaiian Day and employees wore their favorite shirt to work, and had lunch at the Convenient Care Center in LaBelle.

Wednesday was game day, with staffers taking part in a game of Pictionary.

On Thursday, everyone went back in time to the 1970s, wearing flares, bell bottoms, floppy collars, headbands and other psychedelic colors and took part in a "No Talent" talent show.

On Friday, they wore their favorite teams' jersey and had lunch at the Foundation Field.

CenturyLink offers telephone assistance to individuals living on Tribal Lands

CenturyLink is energizing its efforts to inform residents of two assistance programs that provide discounts on initial telephone installation and basic monthly telephone service to qualifying low-income consumers. Link-Up helps these consumers pay the initial costs of getting telephone service. Lifeline provides certain discounts on monthly service for qualified subscribers.

Lifeline and Link-Up are available to qualifying consumers in every U.S. state (territory and commonwealth). Qualifications for participation vary by state. States with their own programs have their own criteria. In states that rely solely on the federal program, the subscriber must participate in one of the following programs: Medicaid, food stamps, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Federal Public Housing Assistance or the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP), Head Start, the National School Lunch Program's Free Lunch Program, Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) or if the Household annual gross income is at or below 135% of the federal poverty level.

The amount of the discounts also varies by state. Link-Up helps qualified low-income consumers to connect to the telephone network. This federal program offsets 1/2 of the initial hook-up fee, up to $30, for qualified households.

Residents of American Indian and Alaskan Native tribal lands may qualify for an additional $25 of enhanced Lifeline support monthly and up to $70 of expanded Link-Up support beyond current levels. An individual living on tribal lands may also qualify for Lifeline and Link-Up discounts if he or she participates in one of the above programs or one of the following federal programs: Bureau of Indian Affairs General Assistance or Tribally-Administered Temporary Assistance to Needy Families.

Individuals living in a CenturyLink service area should call 800-201-4099 or visit www.centurylink.com/lifeline to inquire about eligibility.

Tobacco Free Florida recognizes 'No Tobacco Day'

World No Tobacco Day is celebrated around the world every year on May 31 to inform the public on the dangers of using tobacco, the marketing practices of tobacco companies, and steps that the World Health Organization is taking to combat the tobacco epidemic.

For decades, tobacco companies have glamorized their products to attract women through placement in motion pictures, music tours and catchy advertisements in women's magazines. Even the product packaging has been altered to appeal to women by creating slimmer and designer-inspired cases.

The Students Working Against Tobacco (SWAT) Chapters from local schools will conduct World No Tobacco Day events throughout the Memorial Day weekend. As a local theme for this year, the SWAT youth and the County Tobacco-Free Partnership will use "Enjoying a Tobacco-Free Holiday". The SWAT youth and Partnership members will be encouraging residents to participate in Memorial Day events that are Tobacco-Free. Throughout the Memorial Day weekend you will find SWAT youth and Tobacco-Free Partnership members conducting street marketing events, gathering vital information about tobacco-free policy from citizens and encouraging tobacco users to utilize the local Tobacco Cessation services.

Tobacco Free Florida is a statewide effort to educate the public about the dangers of all tobacco use and to help those who use tobacco to "Be Free" and break the cycle of addiction. The campaign has reached millions of Floridians through its advertising, online social media, grassroots initiatives, educational outreach and public relations efforts.

Rabies Exposure - Not just from bites

By Pat Dobbins

Some wild animals can be very cute and if an animal is sick or injured, your first instinct might be to try to help it. Please avoid contact with any wild or stray animals to protect you and your family from the risk of rabies exposure.

In our area, raccoons, bats, and foxes are the animals most frequently diagnosed with rabies. Other animals that are at high risk for rabies can include skunks, fox, otters, bobcats, and let's not forget the stray or unvaccinated cats, dogs, and ferrets. Each year Hendry and Glades Counties receives several reports of rabid animals. "Rabies is a potentially fatal disease. It is important not to handle wild animals, be aware of unusual acting animals, and keep pets vaccinated against rabies," said Brian Prowant, Environmental Health Director of the Hendry & Glades Counties Health Departments.

It's important to remember that you can get exposed to rabies in several ways, not just from an animal bite. Rabies is transmitted through exposure to the saliva and nervous tissue from a rabid animal through a bite, scratch, or contact with mucous membranes such as the eyes, nose, or mouth. Hendry and Glades County Health Departments work with Animal Control in the Cities of LaBelle, Clewiston and Moore Haven in responding to incidents of animal bites. They also test animals for rabies through the Department of Health state laboratory, and quarantines animals as necessary. Hendry and Glades County Health Departments also provides rabies vaccinations to victims of animal bites, which is the only known effective treatment for rabies prevention in humans.

The following are steps you can take to protect yourself and your loved ones against rabies:

- Keep rabies vaccinations up to date for all pets.
- Spay or neuter your pets to help reduce the number of unwanted pets that may not be properly cared for or regularly vaccinated.
- Do not handle, feed, or unintentionally attract wild animals with open garbage cans or litter.
- Teach children never to handle unfamiliar animals, wild or domestic, even if they appear friendly and never adopt wild animals or bring them into your home.

Unusual acting animals should be reported to Animal Control for handling. Anyone who is bitten or scratched by wild animals or strays should report the incident to their health care provider, as well as Animal Control and the local health department.

Please contact the Hendry or Glades County Health Departments:

LaBelle 863-674-4047 ext.152, Clewiston 863-983-1408, Moore Haven 863-946-6022

Please keep your pets under direct supervision so they do not come in contact with wild animals.

Register for storm shelter

Family members with special needs are encouraged to register early

In the event of a hurricane or other catastrophe, the Hendry County Emergency Management departments will attempt to provide special sheltering and transportation for those who have chronic medical conditions requiring special needs.

Special needs shelters are truly identified as facilities of last refuge for those persons in the community with health and medical conditions.

The Hendry County Special Needs Shelter (West Glades Schools) is defined as a structure that has auxiliary power and is capable of providing a safer refuge for individuals, and their caregivers, who require health oversight.

Considering that the county's medical resources are limited, it is strongly suggested that you pursue primary evacuation plans with family, friends, neighbors, church organizations, etc.

Speak with your physician and family about your transportation and sheltering needs.

Have your physician execute the necessary pre-admission procedures well in advance of a known, pending disaster such as a hurricane.

Again, talk to your family, friends, and neighbors about providing you with evacuation transportation.

If you live in a mobile home park or an area with an established homeowners association, inquire about your association's disaster plan.

Also, if you have special needs that do not require medical sheltering, speak with your minister, or affiliate religious association, or civic organization to see what types of evacuation sponsorship programs are available.

Please keep in mind that pets are not allowed in the shelter, so make arrangements for their well being in advance.

Should you need to attend the West Glades Schools PSN Shelter, you are required to register prior to shelter entry, and you are required to bring a caregiver with you into the shelter.

Registration forms for Hendry County residents can be obtained from the Hendry County Health Department and the Hendry County Emergency Management Office.

Once your registration is received and reviewed, you will receive notification as to whether you qualify for the Special Needs Shelter.

Should it be determined that your needs do not warrant a Special Needs Shelter, you will be notified of other shelters available in your area in which you can seek refuge.

For more information, or if you would like to have a registration form mailed to you, please contact the Hendry County Emergency Management office at 863-674-5400.

No fire, no power, no rescue?

By Pastor John Hicks
First United Methodist Church

On April 14, 1912, signals of distress pierced the dark night of the North Atlantic in all directions from the ill-fated ship, Titanic.

The S.S. Californian, the nearest ship to the scene of the accident, could have reached the Titanic before it sank. But the Californian never reached the place where the Titanic sank.

At the investigation of the sinking of the Titanic, Senator William Smith of Michigan asked the commanding office why the Californian didn't sail immediately to the scene of the accident when the wireless reached her.

The officer shifted uncomfortably, then explained that they had feared icebergs, so they were lying motionless in the water. Even more importantly, he explained, they had extinguished their fires and had no steam up.

Such was the explanation given as to why the Californian, which could have reached the Titanic before it sank, never got there and never rescued a single soul. No fire, no power, no one rescued!

Could that be said about us that we have the form of religion, but not its power? "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." (Acts1:8)

Sunday is Pentecost, the celebration of the gift of God's outpouring of the Spirit to the church and to us. Is this a gift we have received? Are we filled with the Spirit?

The word "filled" was a word used of the wind filling up a sail and carrying a ship along in the water. To be filled with the spirit is to allow the ship of your life to be guided by the wind of the Holy spirit of God.

When we are filled with the Holy spirit, we set the sail of our heart toward God and let the wind of God, which is the Holy Spirit, take our ship wherever He wants it to go. This is how we get the fire and power in our lives that God promises us – the fire and power to fulfill our calling as witnesses and rescue the perishing.

Those gathered at Pentecost experienced the power of God's spirit in their midst. Might I suggest that we wait like those faithful Jews in Jerusalem and that we gather expecting the Spirit to come to us? Might I suggest that we daily invite the Spirit of God to help us embody the Fruits of the Spirit (love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control)?

The Spirit comes if we invite Him. If we want to be Spirit filled, we must learn to pray and we must learn to gather expectantly and we must learn to invite.

Someone left you a fortune!

By Jackie Miller, Evangelist
First Christian Church

Yes, it's true! There was One who died for your sake that you might inherit all the riches of heaven for eternity. Galatians 1:4 says "Who gave Himself for our sins that he might deliver us out of this present evil world." I Peter 1:3-4 says "who according to His great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, unto an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you."

The death of Jesus Christ, almost 2,000 years ago, gives you today the right of inheritance, provided you fulfill the terms of the will He left. This Fortune is free, and freely given. Romans 8:32 says "He that spared not his own Son but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not also with Him freely give us all things."

Because of God's grace and God's love this Fortune is freely given but you must meet the terms of His will. The terms are: 1.Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:31). 2.Repentance from all your sins (Acts 17:30). 3.Confess Jesus Christ as your Savior (Acts 8:37). 4.Baptism by immersion in water, into Christ for the remission of your sins and the gift of the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:38; 8:35-39 & Romans 6:3-4). 5.Continuing steadfastly to live for Christ (Acts 2:42).

If you fail to accept this gift of eternal life you have no one to blame but yourself for "God is not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance." If you fail to accept God's Gift you must pay the penalty of your own sin which is eternity in hell with the devil and his angels.

This coming Sunday is one of the great days on the Christian calendar. It is the Day of Pentecost, the birthday of the church! Read Acts 2 about the events of this day. It was a day that the Gospel was first preached as a fact, when people where first told what to do to be saved, when the Great Commission began to be carried out, plus many other firsts! Remember when Christ returns, He is coming back for His Church (I Thessalonians 4:13-18.)

To Graduates: A wish for "The road to Damascus"

By The Reverend Samuel S. Thomas, Ph. D.
Saint Martin's Church, Clewiston

We don't hear much in the scriptures about "going to school" but it is evident that lots of learning took place in Biblical times. Ways of preparing for life's call were different in those times, but everyone had to do some learning in order to live and take their place in the world.

Disciples and apostles had to learn their trades and crafts, the Lord appeared in the temple "sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions (Luke 2:49)."

They were amazed at His understanding – he was a good student! Tradition would have had Jesus go through the formal ceremony of reading the Law and being counted as an adult member of the religious body "…with full rights and privileges thereunto appertaining."

Religions still hold to similar traditions; for some it is "confirmation," for others a time of baptism, for others some rite of initiation, for all it is a recognition of a rite of passage from "discipleship" to going out and taking a new place in the world. Our graduates are now sharing in that rite of passage as society has mandated. They will no doubt find out many new and exciting things about the world they are about to enter; challenges, frustrations, opportunities, disappointments, going to new places and learning new things.

While teaching, one student told me that he was now considering a career in one of my subject areas – psychology. Apparently, the course I gave opened doors and showed him a new way of looking at life, of serving others, of growing, a discipline he had only heard of in the past but now is a potential for fulfillment and career.

He had a "Road to Damascus" experience; with all of the reorientation and wonderful possibilities in new ways not considered before. Saint Paul reoriented his life after finding his true vocation; nothing at all like his formation as a Pharisee; but more wonderful and fulfilling, useful to God and useful to all he met.

My wish is that you may have your "Road to Damascus" experience; building on the foundations you've been given and that are represented in your graduation, but also having new and exciting experiences to expand, grow, fulfill, and most of all – to see God's hand at work in it all. In my own life, I envisioned being an engineer when I graduated from high school.

Perhaps God saw my place in a form of "human engineering" and combined it with curiosity – always asking questions. My experience is that "if you ask questions, you'll wind up getting back to God." Looking at God's creation and God's people will lead to seeing His image – and finding His hand at work in our lives and the lives of others.

Graduates, may you never cease to ask questions, search, seek, explore, and grow on the foundations now laid down in your lives. You will find God in one form or another as you do! Amen.

Andria Daniels Dolan retires from Air Force

By Nena Bolan
Glades County Democrat

GLADES -- Master Sergeant Andria J. Dolan has retired from the United States Air Force after 23 years of military service. She grew up in Glades County as Andria Daniels, and graduated from Moore Haven High School in 1984. Her family is very proud of her accomplishments. They are Gordan Bryant, uncle; Annie Espinosa, aunt; Roy Daniels, Langley Bryant, Kevin Bryant, brothers; and Laura Daniels, mother. Her father was the late O.J. Daniels.

Andria Dolan attended college and then enlisted in the United States Air Force in 1986. The young airman trained as a law enforcement specialist at Lackland Air Force Base and Camp Bullis in Texas. She was a member of the Elite Gate Guard Team at Aviano Air Base, Italy. In 1988, she was cross trained in logistics with material management.

Her new career field in Logistics led her to Homestead Air Force Base, Florida in 1989. Sergeant Dolan realized her assignment as Storage and Issue Specialist was important in the initial stages of Operation Desert Shield. After Hurricane Andrew in 1992, she was transferred to Langley Air Force Base, Virginia and worked with several squadrons through 2006. While stationed in Virginia, Andria married James Dolan and was blessed with three children. They are Raven Kyle, Cheyanne Laura and Hunter James.

She also served as an equipment manager in Ryhiad, Saudi Arabia in 1995. In 2006-2007, Master Sergeant Dolan went on tour to Al Udeid Air Base, Qatar where she served as superintendent of force protection supply for the 9th Aerospace Expeditionary Task Force.

From 2007-2010 she was the non commissioned officer in charge of Bombers Special Mission A-10 Aircraft Flight and Supply Chain Management Group at Langley Air Force Base. Andria Dolan led a 34 person team tasked with providing supply support to over 640 fighter, bomber and special mission aircraft within 12 different weapon systems located at 38 main operating bases and 10 worldwide contingency locations.

Master Sergeant Andria Dolan was given many decorations and some are the Meritorious Service Medal, National Defense Service Medal bronze star, Southwest Asia Service Medal bronze star, Air Force Commendation Medal, Air Force Outstanding Unit Award, and Air Force Organizational Excellence Award. In 2009 she received an Air Force Global Logistics Support Center Team Excellence of the Year Award.

A ceremony honoring Andria J. Dolan was held April 15 at Langley Air Force Base, and she thanked her friends and family.

"I would not be the person I am today without you molding my life when I was a child and teenager," she said.

MHHS looks for football coach

By Charles M. Murphy
INI Florida

The Moore Haven Terriers posted the job of varsity football coach on April 16.

Athletic Director Janice Brown said Jason Bond will not be the coach in the fall. Bond will remain a teacher at Glades County Schools until the end of the year. Coach Vincent Lewis was named interim coach and he will lead the team in an inter-squad scrimmage on Saturday night, May 22, at Terrier Field.

Moore Haven (4-6) hasn't reached the post season in several seasons.

"We are looking for someone who will continue to build the program. We have been an improving team and we'd like to continue that," Brown told the Okeechobee News.

Applications for the job were accepted thru May 14. The new coach could have a teaching opportunity as there are positions open to teach Business, Social Sciences, Language Arts and Reading at the school.

Brown said she would begin interviews soon and would like to have the new coach hired in early June and on the job by the middle of June.

Eagles donate to Project Graduation

By Nena Bolan
Glades County Democrat

GLADES -- The Lakeport-Moore Haven Fraternal Order of Eagles (FOE) has donated a $400 check to Project Graduation which benefits seniors who graduate from Moore Haven High School on June 4.

The FOE is known for its charity work in the United States and Canada. It has over one million members and people from all walks of life can join. Locally, the Eagles raise money for college scholarships and disaster funds; and for those in need such as people who have had a house fire. They support and appreciate veterans, fire departments and law enforcement. When local Eagles heard about Project Graduation, they knew they could do fund raisers to help.

Project Graduation is an all-night celebration for seniors who graduate from Moore Haven High School on June 4. It is funded and organized by parents, family friends and other volunteers who offer a drug free, and alcohol free event for graduates. According to Felinda Langdale, teacher/volunteer, the chaperoned party begins soon after the graduation ceremony, and continues throughout the night until the next day's breakfast. Annually, fund raising events and local businesses have contributed to funds; and families of students plan the location and activities. This year MHHS seniors will be treated to an all-night expedition to Boomers, which is a family game park.

Project Graduation is the community's alternative to a night that can be filled with harmful and hazardous activities often associated with high school graduation parties and pranks. Young people can be given the choice to have safe entertainment and reliable transportation on this important night.

According to Virginia Ratliff, Eagles Auxiliary, the local FOE raised funds through 50/50 raffles, dinners and donation jar. They recently had a bake sale at the U-Save parking lot in Moore Haven. Steven Ratliff, Eagle Riders president, mentioned the motorcycle riders topped off donations to a even $400.

Ed Bryan is the president of the Eagles Aerie #4523. He and members are getting the FOE facility prepared for steak dinner fund raisers and other events. The organization is part of District 7, and they invite membership from the communities of LaBelle, Clewiston, Moore Haven, Ortona, Lakeport, Palmdale, Washington Park, Buckhead Ridge, Brighton, Port LaBelle, Montura, Indian Hills, South Bay, Belle Glade and RV resorts. The Lakeport-Moore Haven Fraternal Order of Eagles Aerie 4523, Auxiliary and Eagle Riders are located at 101 Avenue J in Moore Haven.

To donate or lend a hand to Project Graduation, call Felinda Langdale at 863-227-0311.

NOTICE

Independent Newspapers will never accept any advertisement that is illegal or considered fraudulent. In all cases of questionable value, such as promises of guaranteed income from work-at-home programs - if it sounds too good to be true, chances are that it is. If you have questions or doubts about any ad on these pages, we advise that before responding or sending money ahead of time, you check with the Better Business Bureau at 772-878-2010 for previous complaints.

Some 800 and 900 telephone numbers may require an extra charge, as well as long distance toll costs. We will do our best to alert our reader of these charges in the ads, but occasionally we may not be aware of the charges. Therefore, if you call a number out of your area, use caution.

volunteers. Members are needed from the faith based community, educators, attorneys, mental health counselors, the former homeless, service providers, retired people, advocates for the homeless, local leaders, grant writers, fund raising coordinators and legislators. Volunteers are needed who want to improve the conditions of individuals or families living without shelter.

The mission of the Hendry Glades Homeless Coalition (HGHC) is a collaborative mission with governmental and community organizations to prevent and minimize homelessness within Hendry and Glades Counties; to redirect individuals and families towards independent living through the use of life-changing resources.

The volunteer board consists of Erica Villafuerte, president (Glades County Housing Administrator); Aida Barnhart, vice president (Hendry County Housing Director); Anna Ripperdan, treasurer (Hendry County Social Services); and Arlene Bettencourt, secretary (Hendry Glades United Way 211). Contact Ms. Villafuerte at 863-946-6004 and ericav@myglades.com

Bronson Bass, Lacy Green and Brooks Bass.

4-H is a practical, educational, community program for all youth. It is the youth development program for the Florida Cooperative Extension of the University of Florida and its Institute of Food and Animal Sciences. 4-H offers a variety of curriculum for boys and girls in cities, suburbs and rural communities.

Categories include large animal sciences such as cattle, goats, horses and swine; or small animal sciences such as poultry and pet care. Plant sciences include gardening, farming, botany, lawns and landscape. Environmental sciences are varied, too, such as forestry, beekeeping, aquariums, fisheries and wildlife ecology. Clothing, construction, finances, child development, and consumer education are part of family sciences.

Health science, food preparation, food preservation, and food safety are part of 4-H; as well as communication, visual arts, media arts, cultural arts, leadership, citizenship, aerospace, electronics, robotics and mechanics. The subjects a member may choose to study are quite extensive.

Volunteers are the backbone of 4-H youth programs. Adults are always needed to be leaders, trainers, donors, mentors and assistants. A club can be large or small. Local or county clubs are the foundation for the program and as few as five youngsters with an adult leader can get started with a little guidance from the local county agriculture extension agent.

The newly appointed agent was present at the May 10 banquet. Tycee Prevatt was introduced to members and leaders.Later, her appointment was approved by the Glades County Board of County Commissioners. Ms. Prevatt is from the south DeSoto County area. 4-H is one of her specialties.
