Woman Arrested With Ecstasy and Mushrooms

Traffic Stop For Speeding Leads to Drug Arrest

BY ERIC KOPP
Special to the Democrat

A 22-year-old tennis coach has been released on bond following her arrest on felony drug charges -- including her alleged possession of Psilocybin mushrooms -- in Glades County.

Adrienne Brizuela, S.W. 108th Terrace, Miami, was arrested on felony charges of possession of MDMA (ecstasy), possession of marijuana over 20 grams and possession of Psilocybin. She was also arrested on a misdemeanor charge of possession of drug paraphernalia.

She was booked into the Glades County Detention Facility under a $15,000 bond. Jail records indicate that she has been released on bond.

An arrest report by a Glades County Sheriff's Office (GCSO) narcotics detective indicated that the Chrysler PT Cruiser in which Brizuela was a passenger was stopped for speeding on U.S. 27 just north of Moore Haven.

It should be noted that the car was being operated by Alyssa Jay Carroll, 20, S.W. 112th Place, Miami. While she was issued a citation for speeding, she was not charged with drug possession. The arrest report stated that Carroll was traveling 68 mph in a 60 mph zone.

According to the report, after the car was stopped GCSO K-9 Sandy sniffed the exterior of the vehicle and alerted to the passenger-side rear door. When another GCSO detective searched the area a small safe was found. Inside the safe was 39.2 grams of a green leafy substance, 49 caplets and about 14.1 grams of mushrooms, the detective indicated.

The green leafy substance and the caplets were field tested and indicated a positive result for the presence of marijuana and MDMA, stated the report. There is no known field test for the mushrooms, pointed out the report.

The GCSO detective went on to state that two glass smoking pipes with a residue and a set of digital scales were also found. The residue was also field tested and reportedly indicated a positive result for the presence of marijuana.

Glades County Welcomes New Health Department Building

Several Services Up and Running, More to Be Added

BY CHARLES MURPHY AND JUAN LOPEZ
Glades County Democrat

A grand opening celebration and dedication was held Friday to welcome the brand new Health Department building to Moore Haven.

Glades County Commissioners, State Health Department Officials, and State lawmakers Denise Grimsley and Lizabeth Benacquisto were among those on hand for the ceremony, tours of the building, and a luncheon.

CRA Architects, and Wright Construction Group officials joined County Commission Chairman Russell Echols, Glades County Manager Wendell Taylor and Health Department Director Patricia Dobbins for the ribbon cutting ceremony.

The full-service facility includes exam rooms, offices, a health clinic, a dental clinic, an environmental health unit, and contains several pieces of art that depict people and life in Glades County.

The county donated the land for the facility off State Road 78 west. Representative Grimsley (R) District 79, worked hard in Tallahassee to bring in more than $4 million in grants to help build the facility.

"There is such a need in Glades County. That is the only form of health care they have. During my first tour of the building I couldn't believe how primitive the building was and I promised that I would work to get them the money for this facility," Grimsley said.

"It will be a great facility for the community. Lets get the word out that we do take insurance, and we need a good payer mix to support the building," she added.

Patricia Dobbins said she was really excited for the potential of services of health care to Glades County.

"We've been behind the times. We have had a lot of advocates, lot of legislators pushed for this," she said. "Everything was aligned for this to happen. Everyone saw what was happening in Glades County and everything has worked out."

She praised the team approach to the project, and said the builder and architect did a wonderful job on the facility.

Commission Chairman Echols called it a great day for Glades County. He said the county deserved a top notch, first-class facility.

"We shouldn't receive fewer services than any other county," said Mr. Echols. "There was a lot of tenacity to get this money. They (state officials) acted like we couldn't get the building done in time and on budget. Glades County is a little different

Lake Okeechobee Weekly Fishing Report

BY MARK KING

What a great week it has been here on Lake Okeechobee with warm temperatures and lots of bass to catch almost anywhere on the lake. My clients enjoyed catching over fifty bass a day on two different days this week and plenty of bass on the other days this week.

Even when the cold front pushed through our area of South Florida over the weekend we were still able to catch a fair number of bass including a couple nice bass over six pounds.

We caught bass on wild shiners, top water, and soft plastic worms in quite a few different areas this week, including bass that we caught off the beds. The full brought a lot of bass in to spawning areas but this was not a really big push like it should be next full moon.

As the water temperature moved into the upper 60s and lower 70s, the bass seemed to be everywhere and they were ready to eat almost anything that you threw at them.

I had two great days catching bass on Gambler Flapp'n Shads from daybreak until sunset, everything was just right and it was just one of those days when everything was right.

I also caught a good number of bass on Gambler Ace's rigged with a 1/16 ounce screw in weight fished in the scattered eel grass on the shoal.

Other areas that were good this week include the East and West Walls, Ritta Island, the Monkey Box, North Shore, and the outside of Cochran's Pass. As you can see there were bass to be caught in a lot of different areas this past week.

The bass were out on the outside grass line and also back in the shallow water so far that it almost seemed like they would have to swim sideways to get into some of the place I caught fish this week.

With this water level down from last year the bass seem to be really spooky around their beds and won't stay on them when you run the trolling motor near them, a push pole will get you a lot closer. There were not a lot of big fish caught this week so this is why that I think that the next full moon will really push a lot of bigger bass in to spawn. Not to say that there wasn't some big bass caught this week just not a lot of them.

Some of the other lures that worked well this week included lipless crank baits like the Spro Aruku Shad in green shiner color, Gambler Big EZ swim bait in copperfield color, and shakey head jigs with Gambler Sweebo worms when the water got cold after the cold front.

The crappie bite has also been pretty good for some with some bigger crappies being brought in to the cleaning table.

Some areas to try is Uncle Joe's cut, the rim canal, dynamite holes, and around Bird Island. Try both jigs and minnows for the best results.

The FLW Open will be out of Clewiston on the 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th of February so that means that there will be a lot of boats out during this time and I just ask everyone to show lots of courtesy to these anglers who are out on our lake only a few days a year trying to make a living and helping to support our town and it's businesses.

Until next week good luck, tight lines and I hope to see each of you out on the water.

The 2011 Tour season consists of 11 bass fishing events, including four Open tournaments, six Majors and the Forrest Wood Cup, and the Walleye Tour Championship.

Among those competing will be professional angler Chad Grigsby of Maple Grove, Minn., who will be sporting the Goodwill® jersey and Smiling G logo and representing Goodwill on the Tour.

Grigsby has participated on the Tour for nine years, with career earnings nearing $500,000 and nine top-10 finishes, including one at the Forrest Wood Cup, which is considered one of the most competitive events in pro bass fishing.

Goodwill, which operates more than 2,500 retail stores and donation centers throughout the United States and Canada, will utilize the resources of FLW Outdoors to drive traffic and awareness to its locations.

Goodwill will receive exposure and have a presence across multiple platforms of FLW Outdoors, including all bass and walleye events, FLW Outdoors' multiple web sites, FLW Outdoors Magazine and "FLW Outdoors" television show on VERSUS.

Locally, Goodwill (<http://www.goodwillswfl.org>) will participate at the FLW Outdoors Expo on February 5 to 6, with fun family activities and giveaways.

The Expo will be located adjacent to the Clewiston Walmart (1005 W. Sugarland Hwy.). Goodwill will also use the opportunity to collect donations of gently-used items, and to promote its mission of providing programs and services for people with disabilities and other barriers to independence.

"The relationship formed between FLW Outdoors and Goodwill has demonstrated how a unique partnership can benefit both organizations and our communities," said Trisha Blake, president of FLW Outdoors Marketing Division.

"Goodwill provides skills training and support services to hundreds of people every day through its multiple programs, and we are honored to be a part of that and continue that relationship."

The partnership between Goodwill and FLW Outdoors came about through the work of Irwin L. Jacobs, who is the chairman and chief executive officer of FLW Outdoors, as well as the creator of FLW Fantasy Fishing.

"Goodwill's mission of helping people find jobs resonates with Jacobs," said Carolyn Johnson, Goodwill's Vice President of Communications.

"Goodwill will collect donations from FLW Outdoors fans and partners, and the revenue generated from the sale of these items will fund career training, not just for people in Clewiston, but across Southwest Florida."

Things Outside of Our Experience

BY JACKIE MILLER, EVANGELIST
First Christian Church

What are the many things that happens to an individual when he surrenders to Christ, through Faith in the Gospel, Repentance of sins, Confession of Faith of Christ and Baptism (immersion) into Christ?

Several of the things that happen to him when he accepts Christ are a matter of how God sees things and are completely outside of his experience. Only by faith can he know that they have taken place.

The first of these is forgiveness. This occurs as a result of God imputing the individual's sins to Jesus. He, therefore, becomes sinless in the way that God, the righteous judge, looks upon him.

Second is justification. The righteousness of Jesus Christ is imputed to his account. In this way he becomes not just forgiven but positively righteous. In classical reformed theology these two things are seen as one.

The third thing is adoption. Because of the foregoing, God treats the individual as His child who will not likely have a strong conviction of adoption unless he understands the first two points.

Our access to God is not by God's mercy or by our own worthiness but by God's having forgiven our sin and having imputed Christ's righteousness to us. Any holiness, any change, or any communion with God that the Holy Spirit works in us is because we are forgiven, justified and treated (adopted) as a child of God.

It seems to me that our modern American evangelicalism increasingly gets the cart before the horse and is preoccupied almost exclusively with our experience of God's work in our lives.

Can We Do Something To End Violence?

BY REV. SAM S. THOMAS, PH. D.+
Saint Martin's Church

Some of discourse following from the recent shooting of a congresswoman is about the tone of dialogue in the nation. It's believed to be related to our level of violence and lack of civility to each other. I recently received an e-mail where someone told me of missing something; how she "hated" it. I replied, suggesting that maybe she was really "disappointed," but "hated it?"

Hatred is a much stronger emotion than disappointment; and it was nothing lost that couldn't be made up. Sometimes, the poor choice of words suggests some emotion that is not called for or may not really be accurate.

If the thought is the parent of the action; thinking clearly, choosing the right words to express our thoughts is doubly important in society today where violence is rampant and short tempers abound.

Thinking and then speaking clearly makes a difference. During His final discourse with His disciples, Jesus tells them "...a time is coming when I will no longer use (figurative) language but will tell you plainly about my Father (John 17:25)." The disciples respond "Now you are speaking clearly ... Now we can see ... you do not even need to have anyone ask questions (v. 29)" and Jesus replies "You believe at last! (v.31)." In other words; the admonition is "Speak clearly, speak plainly, know what you are saying!" We are told "Simply, let your 'Yes' be 'Yes' and your 'No' 'No.' (John 5:37)" I might add, "Speak kindly" as well.

In my residence in another country, I got a parking ticket one day when I was delayed. I picked it off of the windshield and read "We're very sorry, but it seems you've overstayed your time at this meter. We would appreciate your forwarding the amount of money ... to address this situation and clear the records. Thank you." - I was pleasantly taken aback: I had overstayed the allotted time; but the tone was one of politeness and not as adversarial as I first expected. The result was the same; I paid the required amount, but the realization that the matter could be handled kindly made a lot of difference.

I have listened to my share of language on the street and often wonder if persons using all of the expletives know what they mean.

Frankly, I doubt it. I remember a person calling me a string of words one day; but I interrupted to assure him that my parents were married in the midst of his tirade. He stopped for a second and looked. "Aha" I thought "he doesn't know what the words he is using really mean."

When he slowed down I asked him if he was using another word as a noun or adjective. Anger communicated in words that were not even known; no wonder people get violent and we lose our ability to talk civilly with one another. Speak simply, plainly, kindly.

There's Biblical reasons to do so; and the rewards for it can be great. It's better for the blood pressure, too!

Trash-Filled Ships Find Few Friends

BY PASTOR JOHN HICKS
First United Methodist Church

The Khain Sea was for a while the world's most unwanted ship. No one wanted her. She was the Hobo of the High Seas. She traveled for 27 months on a journey that took it to four continents where country after country declined to accept the ship.

The problem was not the boat. Though rusty and covered with barnacles, the 466-foot freighter was seaworthy. The problem was not ownership. The owners kept the license up and the taxes paid. The problem was not the crew. They may have felt unwanted, but they weren't inefficient.

The problem was what she was carrying. It was trash - garbage, 13,000 tons of it. It was the trash of Philadelphia's summer of 1986. Municipal workers went on strike. Trash piled higher and higher. Georgia refused it. New Jersey said no way. No one wanted Philadelphia's trash.

That's when the Khain Sea entered into the picture. The owners thought that they would turn a quick buck by transporting the rubbish. The trash was burned and the ashes were dumped into the belly of the ship. It set off for the Bahamas, but they didn't want it. Neither did Haiti, Sri Lanka, Africa, or a host of other nations. No one would take it.

Trash-filled ships find few friends. Trash-filled hearts don't fare much better.

Life has a way of unloading garbage on our decks. Unexpected delays, traffic, lines, rude people, whining kids, tough times. The result - trash overflowing. Load after load of anger. Guilt. Bitterness. Anxiety. Impatience. Frustration. It all piles up.

Trash affects us. It contaminates our relationships. If you have trash on board, people are going to smell it. The troubles for the Khain Sea began with the first shovel full. The crew should have turned it away at the gate. Life would have been easier for everyone on board if they had never allowed the trash to pile up. Life will be better for us if we do the same.

Our challenge is to protect the boat and refuse entrance to anything that would garbage up our lives.

Panther-Death Numbers Little Changed in 2010

BY GABRIELLA FERRARO
FWC

The Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission (FWC) documented 23 panther deaths in 2010. Of those mortalities, 16 panthers died after being struck by vehicles. Six of the panther deaths are attributed to "intraspecific aggression," or panthers killing other panthers. One panther died of unknown causes.

This is very similar to 2009, when the FWC documented 25 deaths, with 17 of those killed by vehicles. The five-year average is approximately 23 panthers per year, with an average of almost 14 killed each year by vehicles.

"Motorists should be aware that panthers are not always struck in posted panther speed zones," said Darrell Land, FWC biologist and panther team leader. "We caution motorists to be on the lookout for the large cats in wild areas near panther zones, especially around sundown and sunrise."

Panther speed zones are well-marked, with speed limits reduced at night to 45 mph. Motorists should be aware that violators often receive fines exceeding $200 for their first offense, and any violation of more than 29 mph over the posted limit will result in a mandatory court appearance.

"The FWC continues to work closely with the Florida Department of Transportation to develop measures that will increase motorist and panther safety along Florida's roads," Land said.

Land also said the panther population has been slowly increasing in Florida, which results in the documentation of more dead panthers. Land also noted the female panthers that were radio-tagged during 2010 produced 29 kittens. The total number of kittens born for the entire population is unknown.

Florida panthers have been listed federally as an endangered species since 1967 because of the small, isolated population and habitat loss. Recently the FWC completed a "Statement on Estimating Panther Population Size," which notes there are likely between 100 and 160 adult panthers in South Florida.

"This number comes from combining several science-based methods to provide a lower and upper bound of the population," said Kipp Frohlich, the FWC's Imperiled Species Section leader. "This should be thought of as a theoretical range that provides some insight into the possible magnitude of the total population size. We are continually seeking improved methods for determining the most accurate estimates."

Panther research and management funding comes directly from the additional fees collected when individuals purchase the "Protect the Florida panther" specialty license plate. Money also goes to law enforcement to increase patrols in the areas where panthers reside in South Florida.

Panther specialty license plates are available at local tax collectors' offices across the state. For more information, go to FloridaPantherNet.org and click on "Panther Pulse." To report dead or injured panthers, call the FWC's Wildlife Alert Hotline at 888-404-FWCC (3922).

Fog complicates morning commutes

Daily Operations Affected, Plans Enacted

BY JUAN LOPEZ
Glades County Democrat

Much to everyone's consternation, the fog that has slowed down commerce, traffic and daily operations all over South Florida has been persistently bothersome for the past few weeks. The causes of fog are quite simple but the fact of its denseness and refusal to evaporate quickly is the result of the off-kilter weather patterns of 2010.

Joel Rothfuss, with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's Miami office, was glad to comment on the unusual amount of fog that has been hitting South Florida as of late.

"Simply put, fog is a cloud on the ground. Air can hold water in the form of vapor. When the air temperature cools to the dew point, the air can no longer hold the water as vapor and water droplets form. Since clouds are condensed water droplets, you have your fog," he explained. "There are several ways fog can form. Lately, with the fog that has been prevalent, there is a lot of moisture on the ground and we've had low temperatures."

According to Rothfuss, all you need is a warm front to move in over the cold, damp surface for fog to form.

"There is also the fact that last year we had roller coaster weather conditions with a record setting hot summer and then we had three major freezes during the winter," he said. "Now, with the recent warm air and cool, damp ground, you have a perfect blend for thick fog."

Thick fog has even been forming over the ocean with reports out of Naples of little to no visibility during the morning hours. Even major urban centers on the east coast of Florida have had thick fog that has slowed down daily operations. U.S. 27 from South Bay to Alligator Alley has been shut down four times so far due to the lack of visibility created by the dense fog.

Locally, the fog has affected traffic and commerce minimally.

However, local districts have taken action to keep students safe on the bus routes. District rules exist that prohibit buses from running when visibility is obscured for 200 ft. or less and unsafe conditions exist. Buses must pull off a safe distance from the roadway until conditions improve. If the condition exist before morning routes begin, bus drivers cannot begin their routes until conditions improve.

Larry Worth, Transportation Director for nearby Hendry County Schools, said last Friday that a plan has been enacted for such a problem. The plan is an emergency call out procedure.

"This procedure will be used when fog is so dense that school buses cannot safely transport students. The system will automatically call the phone number on file for all bus students to advise parents that the buses will be delayed," said Worth. "The system will hopefully be fully operation by next week. There are technical issues that need to be worked out and they will be."

An announcement, prepared by Director Worth, was sent home with all school students this last week stating the procedure's implementation and tips for safe school commute. Such tips, when the bus delay is too great, include parents transporting their child(ren) to school, waiting at the bus stop with them, keeping them indoors until bus arrives, and monitoring the phones for district messages. Thankfully, if a student is late or absent due to the fog, they will be excused.

There may be more delays on the horizon as NOAA and weather services are predicting more instances of fog as cold and warm fronts battle it out over Florida for the next few weeks.

Glades County Tobacco-Free Schools Policy

The Glades County Tobacco-Free Partnership Tobacco-Free Schools Committee met with Janice Foster, Director of Exceptional Student Education and Student Services, to discuss making additions to the current Glades County Tobacco-Free Policy.

This initiative is part of a statewide county by county movement to improve tobacco-free school policies, increase awareness of tobacco use by students and staff at schools, and to better enforce tobacco-free policies.

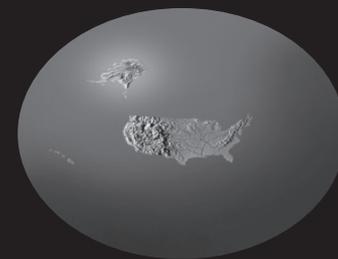

Many people do not know that there is not a statewide law about tobacco in schools. The Tobacco-Free Partnership has done some investigating into Glades County policies and their effectiveness.

It was found that there was not a comprehensive policy at the county level. It was also found that violations of the current policy have occurred.

The goal of improving the policy is to focus on creating a norm of tobacco-free schools by students, staff, and visitors. Also, by making changes to the consequences of violating the policy, the focus will be on corrective rather than punitive measures.

Different options are being investigated for an alternative to suspension program with a cessation component instead of out of school suspension. If you have any ideas, concerns, or would like to join the Tobacco-Free Schools Committee please contact Sarah Litchy the Tobacco Prevention Coordinator for Glades County. 863-946-0707 Ext 220 or sarah_litchy@doh.state.fl.us.

Moore Haven Wrestling Team Wins First Dual Meet Matches

Home Crowd Encouragement was a Factor

BY MARTIN ESPINOZA
Moore Haven Terriers

The Moore Haven Wrestling won its first ever dual meet matches on Friday, Jan. 21, wrestling in front of the student body. Encouragement by the home crowd was a factor in the victories over The Oasis School and Gateway Charter.

Aaron Lopez started the action for the Terriers pinning his Oasis opponent at heavyweight in 1:37. Jesse Elrod was the next Terrier to dominate an opponent, winning by pin in 58 seconds at 135 pounds. Donald Wilson won by pin at 140 pounds in a match that went back and forth for almost six minutes. Ty Johnson won by pin in the first period at 171 pounds.

Winning by forfeit against Oasis were Kyle Hubbard, Kathleen Barfield, Preston Haynes, and Matthew Baker.

Moore Haven defeated Gateway Charter 42-30. Jesse Elrod and Kathleen Barfield won matches by pin and Kyle Hubbard won by major decision.

Winning by forfeit for the Terriers were Aaron Lopez, Matthew Walburn, Jo Platt, Brenie Freyermuth, Preston Haynes, and Matthew Baker.

Results From Girls' State Tournament

Cypress Creek HS in Orlando was the host for the Girls' State Wrestling Championships on Saturday, Jan. 22. Nearly 200 girls from across the state competed.

Brendie Freyermuth placed fourth in the 171 pound division. After losing her first match, Brendie pinned her next two opponents to reach the medal round. Her accomplishment was amazing because prior to the event Brendie, an eleventh grader, had only had three actual matches and two months of training.

Kathleen Barfield was one of sixteen female wrestlers at 103 pounds and the only eighth-grader in the toughest weight class of the tournament. She tied for seventh place. After losing her first match, Kathleen pinned a girl from Lake Mary but then lost to Jackie Montilla from Golden Gate, the sixth place winner. Arelys Valles, from Clewiston, placed fifth at 103 pounds. The tenth-grader has an 18-6 record this year against male competition.

Senior Jo Platt wrestled at 130 pounds and lost to the eventual third and fifth place winners. Experience was the only thing that Jo lacked.

Join the Ortona Community in Celebrating Cane Grinding

BY BARBARA OEHLBECK

It's an honest-to-goodness Florida native ... that is a Glades County native, now celebrating it's 32nd birthday, Saturday, Feb. 5.

The Ortona Cane Grinding Festival is held every winter on the first Saturday in February at the Indian Mound Park on Route 27 beginning at 10 a.m. for the benefit of the Ortona Fire Department. Tickets in advance are only $7 for the greatest barbecue in the Sunshine State! Pick up your tickets at the Glades County Court House, Whisper Creek RV Park on Route 29 or at the Ortona Fire Department, free parking for everyone. There will be a fee for the tickets

The Ortona Cane Grinding barbecue is second to none. After all, practice makes perfect and that makes the difference! The Ortona firemen are "professionals" when it comes to Cane Grinding barbecue, both pork and chicken. And the portions are more than generous: baked potato, cole slaw, rolls, tea or coffee. And of course, you'll want to go by the dessert hut for your favorite dessert (and don't forget to remember to get "extras" to take home). The ladies of Ortona are "Florida's very best" dessert-makers, cakes and pies and other surprises.

This year's entertainment will be by the Blue Grass Telegraph Creek Band and you'll delight in seeing the performance of the Country Rhythm Cloggers and seeing the actual cane grinding to make real cane syrup which will be available for sale. Fresh cane syrup has been a favorite "forever" in this part of the world; the Deep South, that is. There are those who say there's none like it anywhere else.

There will be the "favorite" drinks booth, along with the Country Keepsakes booth, plus all sorts of fine arts and crafts by some of Florida's finest crafters. Festival booths are available for a fee. To make a reservation please call 863-673-0530.

The 50-50 man will be here, there, and everywhere, which simply means that for all the contributions made some lucky person will go home with 50 percent, half that is, of all that's collected!

Make your plans right now to enjoy all the good things at the Larry Luckey Indian Mound Park Festival, Saturday, Feb. 5, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., all for the benefit of the Ortona Fire Department.

As Larry Luckey, Glades County Property Appraiser says, "Remember, bring a friend and a chair!" and it's Larry Luckey himself who will be the Master of Ceremonies.

By the way, Florida's "weather man has promised a beautiful blue bird day."

There will be plenty to see and do at the Ortona Cane Grinding Festival. Larry Luckey demonstrates the art of cane grinding.

A Hat Reveals Who You Are

When you were a kid, you ate breakfast, dinner and supper. Well, the Glades County Woman's Club and their guests enjoyed a "dinner," even though it was at noon, at the home of club member Donna Storter Long recently. Donna served ribs, perfectly barbecued by husband, John, and all the trimmings to approximately 30 members and their guests. Prior to the meal, each lady introduced herself, and told at least five things about herself.

Woman's Club President Ann Coffey informed the group of the projects that the club funds. Their main project is to provide scholarships (usually two) for graduating seniors from Moore Haven High School. Two food baskets were delivered to deserving families at Thanksgiving, and Ann noted that all local food banks are running low, and urged members to consider donating food as one of their projects.

It was announced that two main fund raisers for these projects are a luncheon and fashion show and participation in Christmas on the Caloosahatchee. The Club will participate in the Cane Grinding Festival in Ortona again this year.

The Fashion Show and Luncheon will be held on Saturday, Feb. 19, at M. Mobile Home Resort, beginning at noon. Tickets are $10 and include a wonderful meal and door prizes. The lovely fashions modeled may be purchased, plus there will be a 50/50 drawing.

Following dinner, the ladies were divided into teams for a hilarious "Pony Express" -- you'd have to have been in the cheering section to fully appreciate this horse race! All participants in the Pony Express were awarded prizes.

Our hostess conducted a "Door Prize Yankee Swap" and each lady could choose a present. The really fun time was when she decided whether to keep it or take another lady's present. This writer won and lost a can of PAM several times.

Each guest had been asked to wear a hat of some sort, and believe me there were all sorts, from Donna's wedge of cheese to Bobbi Brown's pink cabbage rose—literally a cabbage sized rose. No Kentucky Derby Day ever sported more unusual hats! Bobbi gave a brief history of hats, and then conducted a "Hat Contest." Winners of the hat contests were as follows, Prettiest: Diana Winiecke who wore a crocheted picture style hat trimmed in crocheted roses, and Darlene Tompkins who had decorated a garden hat with flowers and greenery.

Most Outrageous: Ann Baker whose hat was a Seminole Indian doll with her skirt covering a straw hat, and Diane Cianfrani who sported a black hat topped with a cap crowned with black and grey fur. Most indicative of their personality: Margaret Brown wearing an ivory creation trimmed in gold ribbon and a large gold rose, and Bette Davis whose sky blue hat featured flowers all around the rim.

As Donna and Bobbi did not participate in the contest, as part of her presentation, Bobbi said a hat indicates something about the wearer. She asked the ladies "If you met us on the street wearing these hats, what would they indicate to you about Donna and me?" Their answers were as much fun as the rest of the day had been!

Glades County Woman's Club has diverted from the annual Membership Tea by hostesses choosing to have a luncheon, a brunch and now a barbecue - and all agree a "fun time was had by all!"

Why is there smoke in the sky?

The Florida Division of Forestry was approached by Glades County Emergency Management to conduct a prescribed burn on Curry Island. Curry Island has an extensive wildfire history. In the past wildfires on Curry Island would shut down S.R. 78 and threaten the residents of Lakeport. This year fire officials took a proactive approach by coordinating an interagency prescribed fire.

On January 24 and 25 both structural and wildland firefighters use the Northern Wind component to burned 1,000 acres. The passing cold front allows firefighters the opportunity to use a steady north wind and lower humidity following the front to their favor. By using the lower humidity's following the front, burning can be done effectively. Firefighters are also using the predicted rainfall to assist in extinguishment of the smoldering vegetation that is causing the smoke.

Glades County residents experienced smoke Tuesday night and well into Wednesday afternoon. They were asked to use caution when driving in this area. In the future, what you should do if you encounter smoke on Florida's Highways:

- Slow down!
- Use windshield wipers in heavy fog.
- Turn on your low-beam headlights.
- If the fog or smoke becomes so thick that you cannot see well enough to keep driving, pull all the way off the pavement and stop. Turn on your emergency flashers.

• The space between a vehicle and the roadway should be sufficient so that occupants can safely exit the vehicle without obstructing traffic.

• Report the hazard to the nearest Florida Highway Patrol office so that steps can be taken to warn other motorists.

Residents that have sensitivity to smoke, please stay inside. If you experience inhalation problems, talk to your doctor or call 911. The Division of Forestry apologizes for any inconvenience. The group is hoping to prevent home and property loss. Anyone needing additional information may contact the local Division of Forestry at 772-260-0053 (St. Lucie, Indian River, Martin, Okeechobee Counties) 863-655-6407 (Highlands and Glades Counties). ## Accident Leaves One Critically Injured

Two-Car Accident Involved Four Occupants

BY JOSE JESUS ZARAGOZA
Glades County Democrat

An accident in Moore Haven left at least one person critically injured when a vehicle t-boned into another on Sunday evening, reported the Florida Highway Patrol.

According to information released by the agency, a 2007 Chevy Tahoe carrying driver Yenny Sifuentes, 32, and Christopher Sifuentes, 16, both from Moore Haven, had been traveling south on U.S. 27, attempting to make a left turn on C.R. 720, when the accident happened.

The second vehicle involved, a 2011 Toyota Sienna carrying driver Martha Sofia-Leyva, 50 and Rafael Leyva, 78, both from Kissimmee, was northbound on the same road, just south of the first vehicle.

Crash Investigator Trooper M.T. Steele wrote that the first vehicle failed to observe the second, pulling out across the northbound lanes. The oversight triggered the wreck, with the front of the second vehicle plowing into the side of the first.

Both cars came to rest on the east shoulder of U.S. 27.

All of the occupants involved were transported to Hendry Regional Medical Center in Clewiston for treatment of their injuries. Injuries reported by FHP included for the occupants of the Chevy Tahoe, with Yenny suffering injuries listed as serious.

Martha, the driver of the Toyota Sienna, suffered no injuries, while her passenger, Rafael, sustained critical injuries.

According to the information, all of the occupants of the vehicles were wearing their seat belts at the time of the accident.

Charges are pending.

Christmas in Lakeport

Lakeport Community Association held their annual Christmas Dinner on Dec. 11. It was evident that Santa's Helpers had been hard at work. Both the inside and outside of the Center was aglow with Christmas decorations.

The children were greeted at the door with door prize tickets, jingle bells and the opportunity to have a Christmas tattoo. Entertainment was provided by the Lakeport Gators Kid's Club, directed by Patty Gavin from Maple Grove Baptist Church. A buffet-style dinner was provided by local merchants and we would like to thank everyone who donated to this event. The sounds of sirens announced the arrival of our special guests! The children excitedly rushed to greet Mr. & Mrs. Santa Claus. Each child had the opportunity to tell Santa what they would like to have for Christmas and received a gift bag filled with apples, oranges, toys and candy. As the evening came to a close, we gave thanks for the opportunity to share another holiday with our community. With the commitment of people in the community of Lakeport, we were able to make this a special time for all of our residents.

We would like to thank everyone who donated food, baked cookies, helped with decorations, and took the beautiful photos for us to share. We appreciate each and every one of you! We have a lot of things planned for the upcoming year and hope you will plan on joining us. Sour Orange Festival is Saturday, Feb. 12, 8 a.m. - 3 p.m. with free admission. Lots of activities are planned!

Arrested

Bruzuela's arrest came about as a joint operation between the GCSO and detectives from the Okeechobee Narcotics Task Force.

When ingested orally Psilocybin mushrooms, which are also known as magic mushrooms, produce hallucinations and an inability to tell fantasy from reality. Using these mushrooms in conjunction with MDMA is known as flower flipping or Hippieflip, according to the National Drug Intelligence Center.

Psilocybin is a schedule I substance under the Controlled Substances Act. Schedule I drugs -- which also include LSD and heroin -- have a large potential for abuse.

Another risk to the use of Psilocybin mushrooms is the chance of poisoning from picking the wrong type of mushroom.

place that they perceived it to be."

Echols welcomed the community to see the building, assuring them that they will be impressed. He said residents should give the department a chance for their business.

"We don't have a pharmacy or private doctor. It's a nice facility. We want to find more doctors that want to work out of a facility of this caliber," he added.

Health Department officials said the facility is open to everyone including those with private health insurance.

In the days leading up to the completion of the building, Wendell Taylor commented that the building would be a great addition to the county and Moore Haven. Aside from offering a wider range of services, the new building will be American Disabilities Act (ADA) and Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) compliant. The old building was not. He further commented to the overall purpose of the building.

"We have a moral responsibility to ensure that these people -- regardless of their ability to speak, write or ask -- we have an obligation to help them meet their critical needs," Mr. Taylor said. "What it's about is knowing you made a difference in their health."

Pat Dobbins, Glades County Health Department Director, discussed the necessity for the new building, her eagerness for its completion and the difficulties that were faced before the building opened. There had been no concerns over not finding adequate staffing but being able to pay for them. Since the department reported 50 to 60 percent uncompensated clients -- patients who are unable to pay for treatment -- the center was not earning enough to help pay for staffing. The problem has been addressed with various forms of funding, including county and state funds.

In the weeks before the grand opening, Pat Dobbins, along with staffers, were going through dry runs to test patient flow in order to maximize efficiency and time spent with patients. A board was created with Glades County residents manning it and the application was prepared to make the building a federally-qualified health center. The value of this is that it can bring in more funds for more staffers as well as have a co-pay of $15 to $20. Staff at the center are also working on having an electronic health records database that will allow detailed medical histories to be accessed in seconds. Access computers are going to be installed in the lobby to allow patients to apply for Medicaid.

Overall the $5 million was completed on time, under budget and is three times larger than the original building, at 18,000 total sq. ft. It also includes a community room in the rear for meetings. A dentistry staff will be fully on board in February.

County Manager Taylor said state officials saw the conditions that the citizens of this community had to live with for a long time and wanted to help out. He said most of the money came from hurricane disaster assistance.

"We got busy in March, 2010. We made the builders and architect a promise. We have $5.1 million to spend and we have to build it by the end of 2010," Mr. Taylor said. "Here's the door, if you can't live up to those standards, go out to U.S. 27, either way will take you out of town. We did it. Glades County, yes we can."
