'Little Orphan Annie Meets Richie Rich'

Cast members perform during a scene depicting the Hudson Street Home for Girls.

Opening night a smashing success

See part of the play on video at nflaonline.com. An estimated 100-150 proud parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles and friends filled the auditorium at South Hamilton Elementary Friday evening, June 15, for opening night of "Little Orphan Annie Meets Richie Rich", an original play written, produced and directed by actress and HBO producer Connor Snyder, who also travels the globe with her unique Kids 4 Broadway program.

Snyder starred as Nurse Able in one of the most popular episodes of the hit TV series M*A*S*H* in the 70s and also played a part in the soap opera "One Live to Live", along with many Broadway stage performances.

The cast of "Little Orphan Annie Meets Richie Rich" were students from the H.O.P.E after school

SRWMD to hold meeting on fee-based hunting opportunities

The Suwannee River Water Management District (District) will hold a public meeting on July 5 to discuss fee-based hunting opportunities. The meeting will take place from 6-8 p.m. at the District's headquarters, 9225 CR 49, Live Oak.

The District is exploring options to expand hunting through generating user fees, offering hunting leases – including a proposal to lease the District's Mud Swamp Tract – and other methods. The meeting will give stakeholder groups a chance to provide input and offer suggestions for that process.

The District will continue to offer hunting opportunities on nearly 105,000 acres of lands.

"The District is looking for ways to increase hunting opportunities while reducing the net cost of managing public lands," said District Senior Land Resources Manager Bob Heeke.

HamCo farmers get CARES award

Two Hamilton County farm producers will be recognized for their sustained efforts with a County Alliance for Responsible Stewardship (CARES) award during a dinner meeting on Thursday, June 28. The event will be held at the UF/IFAS North Florida Research and Education Center – Suwannee Valley in Live Oak.

Hugh and Jan Hunter, and Murphy Brothers Farm in Hamilton County will be rewarded along with 20 others. In the current period of record-setting drought, the conservation and wise management of water resources stand as important objectives for everyone living in the Suwannee River Basin. Farmers and ranchers in the area continue to take a leading role in outstanding natural resource management.

CARES – the County Alliance for Responsible Environmental Stewardship – was founded by Florida Farm Bureau in 2001 and the Suwannee program/Boys and Girls Club of White Springs, who learned their lines and perfected the extensive choreography in just five short days under Snyder's professional direction.

The entire production was a community effort and required the joint cooperation of three different groups of both kids and adults; the chorus, the cast of the play, and the arts group who made the backdrops and supplied the props.

"The sets were created by an art teacher that Louis Daniels, our H.O.P.E. theater camp coordinator, recruited, and he did a great job," said White Springs Mayor Helen Miller.

Daniels and Coretta Ford procured all the props and made certain all the kids were in the right place at the right time.

The show began with a 22-member chorus who sang "We Are the World", followed by Shauna Adams-Farries' introduction of Connor Snyder to the audience, expounding on her many talents and accomplishments, and thanking her for all she had done for the kids in White Springs.

Snyder told the audience, "That is the most incredible introduction I think I have ever received and it was from the heart."

Snyder said she fell in love with each and every one of the kids she had worked with all week long.

"I was a taskmaster, as your kids probably told you, but if they want to get into theatre they have to learn the discipline of the arts, and that's what I do," said Snyder.

The play consisted of four scenes, starting out on the lower east side of Manhattan, then on to the Hudson Street Home for Girls, which eased into a private room in the orphanage. The last scene was inside Richie Rich's mansion.

Elora McQuire played the part of Annie and Alex Fouraker was cast as Richie Rich. Taffany Brown executed a stellar performance as Miss Hannigan.

The grand finale performance included all cast members singing "Tomorrow" from the musical "Annie" and the evening ended with a standing ovation for the cast, the chorus, the backstage crew, and of course, Connor Snyder.

"Thank you very much for welcoming me to White Springs," Snyder told the audience. "I had a great time and I'm hopeful to come back next year."

It was truly a magical evening in White Springs and the sun will definitely come out tomorrow.

Tract came before the District's Governing Board in June, but the board decided to delay action to get public input to accommodate concerns of stakeholder groups.

Heeke said because hunting is not currently allowed at Mud Swamp, the project would expand hunting and fishing opportunities. The tract receives minimal recreational use from the public.

River Partnership to recognize superior natural resource conservation by agricultural producers. The program has now honored more than 450 agriculturists throughout the state.

The fundamental component of the program is the voluntary action by farmers and ranchers to implement state-of-the-art natural resource management systems on their properties. The effectiveness of these systems has been confirmed by outside experts.

According to the Suwannee River Water Management District, for example, the voluntary implementation of such systems by agriculturists in the basin saves at least one billion gallons of water each growing season.

In partnership with more than 60 public agencies, including the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Natural Resource and Conservation Service, the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, the University of Florida's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences, the Florida Department of Environmental Protection, Florida's water management districts, agricultural organizations, businesses and local government, CARES has become a model for the rest of the nation.

Florida farmers and ranchers depend upon the life-sustaining capacity of the natural resources they manage to maintain their livelihoods. More than 500 agriculturists statewide have received the CARES award in the past decade.

Florida Farm Bureau President John Hoblick will join Florida Agriculture Commissioner Adam Putnam to present CARES awards at the dinner. The awards event will begin with a dinner at 6 p.m. The site of the UF/IFAS facility is located approximately six miles east of Live Oak on Highway 136 in Suwannee County.

Florida Farm Bureau is the Sunshine State's largest general agricultural organization with more than 140,000 member-families representing Farm Bureaus in 60 counties. Membership provides a multitude of benefits and you don't have to be a farmer to be a member of Florida Farm Bureau.

recently added to the department, Reid graciously donated the spare vehicle to them.

"It has always been my policy to help out other municipalities in Jasper, Jennings and White Springs," said Reid. "Money is tight everywhere and White Springs had a need, so we donated it to them," he added.

White Springs P.D. received a grant last year that allowed them to hire a new officer, but the downside, Brookins said, was that the grant didn't pay for any equip-

"I was able to obtain a small block grant to pay for uniforms, etc., but I was still left with only two patrol cars that had to be shared by the lieutenant and both road officers," Brookins said. "Not to mention the reserve officers when they worked."

A lot of times the officers had to double up, which reduced coverage, Brookins continued, and it also meant extra wear and tear on the vehicles.

"While talking to Major Davis of the HCSCO one day, he asked if there was anything I needed, so I jokingly mentioned I need a car," said Brookins. "Major Davis contacted Sheriff Reid and the next thing I knew I was meeting with him and was handed the keys and title to a patrol car."

Brookins said he can't stress enough how much this type of assistance means to a small department like his.

"I would like to publicly thank Sheriff Reid and the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office for their continued support of the White Springs Police Department and the citizens of the town of White Springs," Brookins said.

Riverside's Women on Mission have a "Spare Closet" we would like to fill with school supplies(back packs, crayons, pens, pencils, paper, etc.), school clothes, and shoes (all sizes-infants through adults), furniture, appliances, tools, odds and ends that anyone would like to donate. Donation drop off is Saturday, July 14 from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. The day and time for persons to come and choose items will be Saturday, Aug. 4.

If you cannot make these dates you may leave items in the front of the church. Please call 386-935-2944 or 386-935-4708 if you will be leaving items so someone can come collect them. Remember, as you clean out your children's closet, get ready to toss that backpack from last year, and go school shopping for new clothes, some children will not have the opportunity to shop for anything this summer. There is someone who would love to have your items. Please reach out and help this cause by donating your gently used items and may God Bless you.

REGIONAL

Globetrotter bounces into Live Oak

Promotes charity event to be held at Suwannee County Coliseum in August

By Jeffry Boatright
jeffry.boatright@gafnews.com

It is not everyday that a Harlem Globetrotter bounces through our region, but Michael "Memphis" Douglas did recently.

Douglas stopped in Live Oak to visit Suwannee Intermediate, Suwannee Middle and Suwannee High schools to promote a celebrity basketball tournament that will be held here in August.

With all the finesse one might expect from a Harlem Globetrotter, Douglas, spun his red, white and blue basketball on each of his fingers, showboating his skills as onlookers watched in amazement at an assembly at Suwannee High. From out of nowhere, the timeless melody of Sweet Georgia Brown could be heard. Anyone who missed the chance to catch a glimpse of Douglas's skills will have an opportunity to do so when he returns on Aug. 4. Douglas, along with the Harlem Legends, will take on five Suwannee Valley All Star Teams at the Suwannee County Coliseum.

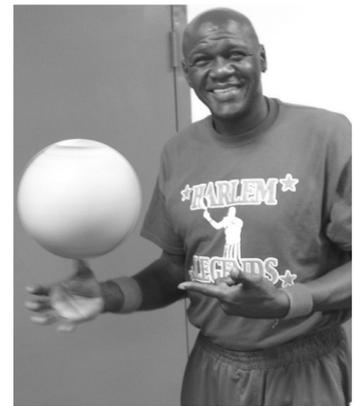

Even as a little boy Douglas desired to play basketball with the world famous Harlem Globetrotters, because of the inspiration they had given him.

The Memphis, Tenn. native remained focused while growing and developing skills, as he became a standout athlete at Booker T. Washington High School in Memphis. After graduation, Douglas carried those skills to Dyersburg State College in Tennessee, where he became a leading athlete.

The next chapter in the life of Michael Douglas was during basketball training camp for the Houston Rockets, where he had entered the NBA. Everything seemed set for the talented athlete until he was given the opportunity to try out for the Harlem Globetrotters.

Douglas was just one of three, out of 1,500, selected to wear the jersey of the historic Harlem Globetrotters. From that point on, he would be known as "Memphis."

From 1986 until 1993, Douglas showcased his talents with the Globetrotters, touring over 100 countries while appearing in over 300 shows each year. Today, the 51-year-old Douglas travels with the Harlem Legends, a group of professional athletes. The Harlem Legends consists of former players of the Harlem Globetrotters, NBA, NFL, past USA Olympians and other professionals. The Legends are part of the Michael Douglas Youth Foundation, which Douglas formed in 1991 to provide activities for America's youth that are fun, educational and offer a model of healthy living.

According to Douglas, the Harlem Legends visit schools and help children while striving to be positive role models.

"Children have to be encouraged from an early age and we must help build a foundation by showing them what they can do by doing the right thing," Douglas insists.

Douglas recognizes that there are many careers associated with sports and other wholesome things children love and he remains adamant about encouraging them to achieve their goals.

The Harlem Legends also offer fun, family entertainment for all ages, Douglas promises.

While the Harlem Legends perform in about 30 shows per year, Douglas makes over 100 annual appearances. In addition to celebrity basketball games, the Legends present youth basketball camps and clinics throughout the year. Douglas also stays busy fulfilling speaking engagements as a motivational speaker.

Life in WHITE SPRINGS

By Walter McKenzie

lifeinwhitesprings@gmail.com

Sometimes a trip out of White Springs gives me a fresh perspective on what it means to live here.

Trips to other places open my eyes to qualities that we have that are missing in other places and I find that I miss them when I am gone. On the other hand, I also discover things in the places that I visit that are fresh and wonderful adventures, some of which would be a good fit here and some that would not. Last weekend Merri and I traveled to Tuscaloosa, Alabama, then to Clarkesville, Georgia and finally we ended up in the big city of Atlanta. As we headed west from 175 into Alabama we traveled on some beautiful highways through the mountains and I had to adjust my driving from flatlander mode to mountain mode. I think the folks in the mountains may be better drivers because they have to play closer attention. Tuscaloosa is the home of the University of Alabama, football is its religion and Bear Bryant has been elevated to sainthood. We passed Bear Bryant streets and avenues and boulevards and saw more business named hounds tooth, such as the Hounds Tooth Car Wash and the Hounds Tooth Restaurant. We visited the campus and it was beautiful. I enjoyed the energy of the place and the people were welcoming, gracious and kind. We went to an artisan's community and when we asked them for a recommendation for a place to eat they said to go to a place called Dreamland, a barbecue joint located in an industrial section of Tuscaloosa. We were skeptical but we went and I am glad we did. Dreamland was founded in 1956 and the only main dish is ribs, which you can get with copious quantities of beans, coleslaw and white bread. On the walls were pictures of many famous people who had visited over the years. The place had atmosphere and style and service that made it a worthwhile culinary destination, even though it was a bit out of the way and off the beaten path. The next morning I got up to walk off some of Dreamlands excess and was shocked to see that there were no sidewalks anywhere near our motel, traffic was everywhere, and it was noisy and messy everywhere I walked. I missed White Springs.

The next day we headed east to Clarkesville, Georgia, located in the mountains northeast of Atlanta. Clarkesville is about the size of Jasper and is very vibrant and alive with a constant flow of tourists who crave an escape from the heat of summer in the city to the relatively fresh, cool mountain air of the region. We visited several antique stores, art and crafts shops, a farmers market and we had our choice of several restaurants. We visited the oldest Episcopal Church in the Atlanta diocese, where my sister Dena is the priest. All in all it was a nice little town with some desirable qualities and we enjoyed our stay.

Our trip to Atlanta was thrilling and terrifying too. Seeing the magnificent Atlanta Skyline was thrilling but the traffic was horrendous and I'm sure that it was terrifying to anyone who had not experienced the like of it before. We visited a spectacular mall, laid out like a town center, instead of a big air conditioned coliseum. We went to a fantastic Spanish style Tapas restaurant that, like Dreamland in Tuscaloosa, was located way off the beaten path but always had a capacity crowd of a combination of locals, tourists, and the occasional celebrity. All because it was unique, affordable, and offered the highest quality service, food and atmosphere.

I envy these other town's variety of shops and restaurants, but I don't want to live in a place with terrible traffic and no sidewalks so I was very happy to get back to White Springs, where progress is coming slowly and, hopefully, sensibly too.

I heard that our kids did a fantastic job in "Little Orphan Annie Meets Ritchie Rich" last Friday! Congratulations to all of them and all the folks who helped pull the amazing feat of rehearsing and presenting a Broadway play with only one week to prepare. Our kids can do anything they set their mind to!

I enjoyed my travels but I am really glad to say "There's no place like home", and I hope to see you out and about in White Springs, enjoying and contributing. I would love to hear from you!

Hamilton County High School rising junior Madihah Tomoney was selected to attend the 14th Annual Minority Summer Residency Program (MSRP) which was held June 10-14 at the University of South Florida in Tampa. It was hosted by the Florida Institute of Certified Public Accountants (FICPA). A total of 45 high school and state college students were chosen from 80 student nominations across Florida.

According to a recent press release, MSRP is a college residency program designed to increase minority high school students' awareness of and interest in the accounting profession. It includes seminars on college preparation, financial literacy, leadership, interpersonal and communications skills and accounting and finance.

"This program gives us an exceptional opportunity to cultivate interest in accounting and attract talented minorities to the CPA profession early on when they are making career decisions," said FICPA CEO-Executive Director, Deborah L. Curry, CGMA.

In addition to the on-campus seminars Tomoney visited the Tampa offices of accounting firms Ernst & Young LLP and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to view the business operations of the Caspers Company McDonald's, and the renowned 107-year-old Columbia Restaurant.

The weeklong program cost $75 and full scholarships were awarded to eligible students. Funding for the program is provided through corporate, individual and professional association sponsorships.

HCHS Guidance Counselor Paula Williams said, "Madihah is a rising junior at Hamilton High who will be the second of our students to apply for this competitive opportunity and be selected to attend."

Williams said it's rewarding to have one of their students representing them.

"We are very proud of Madihah and so glad she gets to experience the college she hopes to attend in a couple of years," said Williams.

Racial double standards

Back in 2009, U.S. Attorney General Eric Holder said we were "a nation of cowards" on matters of race. Permit me to be brave and run a few assertions by you just to see whether we're on the same page. There should be two standards for civilized conduct: one for whites, which is higher, and another for blacks, which is lower. In other words, in the name of justice and fair play, blacks should not be held accountable to the same standards that whites are and should not be criticized for conduct that we'd deem disgusting and racist if said or done by whites.

You say, "Williams, what in the world are you talking about?" Mitt Romney hasn't revealed all of his fall campaign strategy yet, but what if he launched a "White Americans for Romney" movement in an effort to get out the white vote? If the Romney campaign did that, there'd be a media-led outcry across the land, with charges ranging from racial insensitivity to outright racism. When President Barack Obama announced his 2012 launch of "African Americans for Obama" (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BdjoHA5ocwU>), the silence was deafening. Should the same standards be applied to Obama as would be applied to Romney? The answer turns out to be no, because Obama is not held to the same standards as Romney.

Liberals won't actually come out and say that criticism of Obama is in and of itself racist, but they come pretty close. Former President Jimmy Carter said that criticism of Obama shows that there is an "inherent feeling" in America that a black man should not be president. Chris Matthews, host of MSNBC's "Hardball," said that critics of Obama are crackers. Morgan Freeman said that the campaign to see that Obama serves one term is a "racist thing." Former Obama czar Van Jones said that Romney's campaign sign "Obama Isn't Working" implies Obama is a "lazy, incompetent affirmative action baby."

Racial double standards also apply to how crime is reported. I'm betting that if mobs of white youths were going about severely beating and robbing blacks at random and preying

A MINORITY VIEW
BY WALTER WILLIAMS

© 2012 Creators Syndicate

on black businesses, it would be major news. News anchors might open, "Tonight we report on the most recent wave of racist whites organizing unprovoked attacks on innocent black people and their businesses." If white thugs were actually doing that, politicians would be demanding answers. Such random attacks do happen, but it's blacks preying on whites.

On St. Patrick's Day in Baltimore, a 19-year-old white man was viciously attacked by a mob of black thugs. He broke loose, but a second mob of black thugs attacked him, taking all of his belongings. Baltimore County Delegate Pat McDonough demanded the governor send in the Maryland State Police to control "roving mobs of black youths" at Baltimore's Inner Harbor. Maryland Gov. Martin O'Malley and other activists demanded that McDonough apologize for talking about "black youth mobs."

Similar episodes of unprovoked violence by black thugs against white people chosen at random on beaches, in shopping malls and at other public places have occurred in Philadelphia, New York, Denver, Chicago, Cleveland, Washington, Los Angeles and other cities. Most of the time, the race of the attackers, euphemistically called flash mobs, is not reported, even though media leftists and their allies are experts in reporting racial disparities in prison sentencing and the alleged injustice of the criminal justice system.

Racial double standards are not restricted to the political arena and crime reporting; we see it on college campuses and in the workplace. Black people ought to be offended by the idea that we are held accountable to lower standards of conduct and achievement. White people ought to be ashamed for permitting and fostering racial double standards that have effects that are in some ways worse than the cruel racism of yesteryear.

Healthy Living
A healthy colon

~Beth Harris, CSCS, CHFS
bethharrisfitness@gmail.com

Isn't funny there are some topics most people avoid like the plague, religion, sex, politics, and bowel movements. Some of you are probably blushing right now as you read this, I allow you to get a hold of yourself while I get to my point. Our gastrointestinal tract is a processing unit responsible for metabolizing all of the nutrients we ingest, and then eliminates the body's waste. Our funny joke around my house after prolonged bathroom breaks, or voting as my Auntie Em calls it: "hope everything came out ok." While you may not appreciate my humor, everyone can appreciate what comes out really is a reflection of how well or ill your body is.

Thin excrement, for example, is a warning sign for colon cancer or polyps, floating stools can be a sign of too much fat or Celiac disease where the body suffers from malabsorption issues; hard stools which can mean a number of things from depression to dehydration, not enough fiber to too much dairy, or even bacterial or viral infections can be reflection in the state of your BM's.

The average time it should take for food to be eaten, digested, and excreted is around 40-45 hours, meaning most people should be having bowel movements 1-3 times per day.

Many of us neglect to stress the importance of attention to if we are or aren't regular. Being constipated is akin to a traffic backed up after a car accident, causes all kinds of problems. Your body's ability to metabolize food and nutrients is affected, energy, immunity. I strongly suggest paying more attention to your poop! These simple tricks can help keep things on track.

First, make sure to consume 20-25 grams of dietary fiber daily. Fiber acts like a sponge and soaks up the water we drink forming little gel beads. With enough fiber and water the fiber gel beads function properly and easily promoting healthy excretion. Fiber powerhouse foods include whole-grain cereals, breads, fresh veges, fruit, and nuts. Even a day or two of fiber focus can ease constipation troubles.

Hydrate, hydrate, hydrate. If you're not drinking enough water this will definitely be reflected in your stool. The right amount of fluid your small intestines can add water as needed to soften and move your stool along its 20-26 foot journey through the digestive track at a healthy pace.

I'm sure everyone knows what's coming next...EXERCISE (because exercise helps everything!!!!). By improving metabolic and digestive processes; and aiding in contraction and jarring movements to the intestine, exercise too can get you on the road to healthy BM's.

If I've kept your attention this far hopefully you've given some conscious thought to your last event. If you are not regular take the time to jot down each time you vote. If you notice you're not in a regular pattern try these simple methods first, remembering certain medications can also have an effect. In the word of our old friend Shrek: Better out than in I always say! Happy voting!

Wedding Announcement Cribbs and Norman

Amber Nicole Cribbs and Marvin Lee Norman

Elton and Terry Cribbs would like to announce the engagement and upcoming marriage of their daughter, Amber Nicole Cribbs, to Marvin Lee Norman, son of Marvin and Ann Norman.

The bride-elect is a recent graduate of Suwannee-Hamilton Technical Center in the study of early childhood development and a 2009 graduate of Hamilton County High School. She is the maternal granddaughter of Juanita Adams of Jasper, Fla. and the late Norman Adams. She is the paternal granddaughter of the late Marie Saffles and the late Elton Cribbs Sr.

The groom is employed at Hamilton Correctional Institution and a 2009 graduate of Hamilton County High School. He is the maternal grandson of Mary Lou Wyers of Jasper, and the late Felix Wyers. He is the paternal grandson of Barbra and John Singer of Lake Butler, Fla. and Albert Norman of Gainesville, Fla.

The wedding will be an event of July 7, 2012 at two in the afternoon. It will be held in the First Baptist Church of Jasper. Reception to follow in the fellowship hall. All family and friends of the couple are invited. No local invitations to be sent. The couple will make their home in Jasper, Fla.

stantly traveling, the Harlem Legend lives in Atlanta.

He has been married for 25 years and is the proud father of two children. In fact, the only time that Michael "Memphis" Douglas strayed from talking about basketball and helping children was when he proudly told about his son, Chis, who recently signed to play football with the Buffalo Bills.

Douglas looks forward to seeing everyone at the celebrity basketball show in August, which will benefit the Girls and Boys Club of Suwannee County. It promises to be a friendly game of hoop, Globetrotter style.

Eternal Hope Church of God gets new pastor

Bishop Fred R. Watson and his wife Karin

Bishop Fred R. Watson and his wife Karin became the interim pastor of the Eternal Hope Church of God at 408 Palmetto Ave., Jasper, Fla., Sunday, June 17, 2012.

The church honored retiring Pastor Glen and Edna Barrs on June 10 for a job well done. The Barrs retired to their new home in Branford, Fla.

Bishop Watson is the former pastor of the Live Oak Church of God where he served for 26 years. He also serves as a regional bishop for the Church of God overseeing 17 churches in six counties - Hamilton, Madison, Suwannee, Lafayette, Columbia and Union. Prior to serving in Live Oak, Bishop Watson served two other churches as pastor, Bristol, Fla., from 1974-1985 and Safety Harbor, Fla., from 1970-1974. He has served his denomination on leadership boards for 20 years.

Bishop Watson is known for his strong Pentecostal preaching of God's Word, his love and care for his people and his administrative skills. He has been involved in coaching, consulting, counseling as well as serving as a chaplain in Suwannee Correctional Institution and in the market place. His wife, Karin, will help lead the church's music program. She is a skilled pianist and vocalist as well as an author and a dynamic speaker. Concerning their assuming leadership at Eternal Hope, Bishop Watson's vision prayer is, "Big dreams in a small town."

Pastor Watson and the Eternal Hope congregation would like to extend a warm welcome to everyone in the county looking for a church home. Come and join us for dynamic worship and Christ centered preaching and enjoy the presence of God as He ministers to the needs of hungry people. Everyone is welcome. For more information, call 386-628-6634 or 386-792-HOPE (4673).

Heart Matters

Your actions are your own

By Angie Land

"The devil made me do it..." This phrase, made popular by comedian Flip Wilson in the 1970's, is most often used as a "tongue-in-cheek" admission of guilt, without really having to accept responsibility for our actions. This means, "Yes, I did what you are accusing me of...but no, it's not my fault!" The idea that the devil could "make" us do something would be a scary thought...if it were true. Nowhere in the Bible do we find that Satan has the power to make you and I do anything...but we can see that he is an accomplished fisherman:

"But each one is tempted when, by his own evil desire, he is dragged away and enticed. Then after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full grown, gives birth to death." James 1:4-5

The goal of any good fisherman is to catch the fish. In the original Greek translation, the word "enticed" means bait. Makes sense...bait is used to entice. What Satan knows is that what is true for fish is also true for people. Not all bait entices all fish...but sooner or later you can hit upon bait that your intended fish will bite. This is where our evil desires come in...determined by our environment, heritage, and our own sin nature, certain bait will be enticing to me, while other "fish" may be able to swim past without a second glance...and vice versa.

According to these verses, the formula for sin involves three ingredients...bait, our evil desires, and conception. Conception is the moment of decision to bite the bait...thinking you are about to get something really wonderful...and all along the hook is waiting. Understand that simply being attracted to the bait isn't sin. Biting the bait is what gives birth to sin, and unless there is an interruption of the process, the fish is going in the frying pan...because sin leads to death.

Our best option is to learn how to stay clear of the bait that has already enticed us in the past, and to make sure we are on the lookout for a hook under that "too-good-to-be-true" or the "no-one-will-know" bait dangling in front of us. Following after bait drags us far away from our marriage vows, our health, our obedience to our parents, and our devotion to God.

If you find yourself hooked by sin, I want to remind you that the path you are on leads to one destination...death. Perhaps the death will be of trust, respect, your reputation, your marriage and family, your health...perhaps your life. Removing the hook is a painful process, and not something that we can do alone...at times we all need encouragement, direction and accountability to keep us off the hook. Hmmm, maybe this is why Jesus calls his disciples to be fishers of men...

Happy 1st Birthday

June 15, 2011

Madelyn

Happy 1st Birthday Angel Baby Maddie

Love Always,
Daddy, Mommy, Travis, Tyler, Granny, Uncle Jeff and Aunt Gin

In Memory of Madelyn Lee Powell

It has been one year since you came into our lives. You brought us and countless family and friends so much happiness. You also taught us that with God, all things are possible.

We will be celebrating your 1st birthday here on earth, but I can't even begin to imagine the magnificent celebration that is planned for you in Heaven with our Father. What a Great Day that will be when we can celebrate your birthday and being together once again!

Our lives have been forever changed because God chose us to be your earthly family!

Memorial Day ceremony

A beautiful red, white and blue wreath in memory of America's heroes.

Residents of Hamilton County came out to pay their respects.

Memorial Day ceremonies at Hamilton County Courthouse.

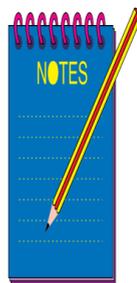

A Memorial Day ceremony was held at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, May 30 in front of the Hamilton County Courthouse, while the American flag flew at half-staff. The event was originally scheduled for Monday, May 28, but was postponed due to Tropical Storm Beryl.

About 20 folks turned out to pay their respects and honor our American heroes. VFW Post 8095 and American Legion Post 215 helped to organize the event.

Veteran Service Officer Bo Beauchemin and others spoke about the meaning of the day.

Norris Notes

By Lillian Norris

First, can you believe it is almost time for Fourth of July celebrations? Maybe it is because I am getting older that the time seems to be getting away from me. Celebrations for the Fourth are already starting. Hope we get to have the fireworks show this year.

You will be hearing and seeing signs of the planned 2012 Miss/Mr. Stars and Stripes Pageant to be held Saturday, June 30, 2012, the deadline for entry is June 25, 2012, that is next Tuesday, you will see other mention elsewhere in the Jasper News, so please note the deadline, notice is also on the Chamber Board downtown and other places. The Chamber office is open five days a week, Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. - 12:30 noon. Call and talk to Monica Amerson. Registration for all, $45. Deadline June 25. Optional $10 each or $40. for all. The pageant will be held at the Old High School Annex. For any further information, check at the Chamber office, 386-792-1300 between 8:30-12:30. Sounds like a great evening.

Last week we had fish at the annual fish fry sponsored by the VFW, at which time flags that no longer seemed respectful are disposed of in a sacred manner, this is taken care of outside the building, but the service was held inside the building because of the heat, and dinner was served inside, a very impressive service. Speakers were Lamar Royals, Commander; and Veterans

Service Officer Bo Beauchemin. The Post will be mailing packages in July to servicemen, you may contact the library for list of requested gifts and how you may help, if you do not want to take something for the box, you may contribute toward the cost of mailing, the Post receives many responses from those who receive the packages, a very worthwhile and satisfying action.

Bible School was held at First Presbyterian Church last week and was well attended, we were present for the closing exercise and as always it was very special to learn what the children (and adults) had been doing, they really had a big time and learned much about the Bible and shared their week with us, and of course we were treated to a feast afterwards and were able to see the fruits of their work during the week. Thanks to all who worked with our young people, they did a great job.

First Baptist, Jasper, is in full swing this week, we hear they are having a big crowd and are learning and studying much about the Bible, and also being well-fed.

We always hesitate to name names at such times, as would be sure to leave out someone who should not be left out, and we know that each one plays a very special part, thanks to all who give of themselves to work with our young people and children, at whatever they do. It is my understanding that Burnham Christian group is on a Mission Trip this week, we will hear more about that later.

The Bob Eatmon family, Jorrie Mathis Family, Jesse Mitchell, Hallie and Luke Davis, Parrish Family, and Conner Hall, enjoyed the family and friends, beaches, sun, sunsets, swimming, fishing, eating, reading, and the annual Treasure Island Sunset Festival, last week. We are glad you all are back, but so glad you had a much needed and earned time of relaxation.

Hope to hear from YOU before next week.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED WATER QUALITY STUDY

Pursuant to Rule 62-650.500(6), Florida Administrative Code, the Florida Department of Environmental Protection (FDEP) gives notice of the intent of White Springs Agricultural Chemicals, Inc. (d/b/a PCS Phosphate - White Springs) to conduct a study of water quality in the streams to which the company currently discharges under its FDEP Permit No. 0000655 (Swift Creek, Hunter Creek, Camp Branch, and Roaring Creek), plus certain downstream waters including portions of the Upper Suwannee River. The purpose of this study is to evaluate appropriate numeric interpretations of the narrative water quality standards for nutrients for these existing discharges. At the conclusion of the study, these numeric interpretations may be established in the form of Site Specific Alternative Criteria (SSAC), Total Maximum Daily Loads (TMDLs), Water Quality Based Effluent Limits (WQBELs), or other site specific order of the FDEP.

Any interested person may submit written comments on the plan of study (POS) to White Springs Agricultural Chemicals at P. O. Box 300, White Springs, FL 32096 ATTN: S. W. Posey, (386)397-8304 or email spouse@pcsposphate.com, and provide a copy to Ken Weaver, Department of Environmental Protection, Bureau of Assessment and Restoration Support, MS #6511, 2600 Blair Stone Road, Tallahassee, FL 32399-2400, (850)245-8414 or email: Kenneth.Weaver@dep.state.fl.us. Comments must be received within 14 days of publication of this notice.

In response to comments received pertaining to the POS prior to the proposed commencement date, the applicant may revise the POS if necessary. Upon approval of any revisions to the POS by FDEP, the applicant shall conduct the study for purposes of establishing numeric interpretations of the narrative nutrient standard for the affected discharger.

Although FDEP may allow for informal dispute resolution during the study period, the study is free from agency decision making and does not constitute proposed agency action until notice of such is given pursuant to subsection 62-650.500(8), Florida Administrative Code.

Upon request, the plan of study is available for public inspection during normal business hours, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, except legal holidays, at White Springs Agricultural Chemicals, Inc. (PCS Phosphate - White Springs), P. O. Box 300, White Springs, FL 32096 (386)397-8101, the Department of Environmental Protection, 2600 Blair Stone Road, Room 238, Tallahassee, FL 32399. LEGAL NOTICE

Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill

Medical Benefits Settlement

Providing Benefits to Clean-Up Workers and Certain Gulf Coast Residents

If you have a medical claim related to the Deepwater Horizon oil spill, you could get benefits from a class action settlement with BP Exploration & Production Inc. and BP America Production Company ("BP"). Go to DeepwaterHorizonSettlements.com for more information, including information on how to file a claim.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE MEDICAL BENEFITS SETTLEMENT?

The Medical Class includes (1) clean-up workers and (2) certain people who resided in specific geographic areas in coastal and wetlands areas along the Gulf Coast during specific periods in 2010. The website DeepwaterHorizonSettlements.com has detailed descriptions and maps to help you determine whether a geographic location may be included in one of these zones. Additionally, you can call 1-866-992-6174 or e-mail info@DeepwaterHorizonMedicalSettlement.com to find out if a geographic location is included.

WHAT DOES THE MEDICAL BENEFITS SETTLEMENT PROVIDE?

The benefits of the Medical Benefits Settlement include: (1) payments to qualifying people for certain acute (short-term) and chronic (ongoing) medical conditions occurring after exposure to oil or chemical dispersants; (2) provision of periodic medical examinations to qualifying people; and (3) creation of a Gulf Region Health Outreach Program, consisting of projects to strengthen the healthcare system. Benefits (1) and (2) will be provided only after the Court grants final approval and any appeals are resolved.

HOW TO GET BENEFITS FROM THE MEDICAL BENEFITS SETTLEMENT

You need to submit a Claim Form to request benefits. You can get a copy of the Claim Form by visiting the website or by calling 1-866-992-6174. Claims can be submitted by mail. If you have questions about how to file your claim, you should call the toll-free number for assistance.

The deadline for filing a Claim Form is one year after the Medical Benefits Settlement becomes effective (that is, after the Court grants "final approval" and any appeals are resolved). The exact date of the claim filing deadline will be posted on the website. It is highly recommended that Medical Class Members complete and submit their claim forms promptly. Please read the Economic and Property Damages Settlement notice because you may also be eligible for a payment from that settlement.

YOUR OTHER OPTIONS

If you do not want to be legally bound by the Medical Benefits Settlement, you must Opt Out or exclude yourself by October 1, 2012 or you won't be able to sue BP over certain medical claims. If you stay in the Medical Benefits Settlement, you may object to it by August 31, 2012. The Detailed Notice explains how to exclude yourself or object.

The Court will hold a hearing on November 8, 2012 to consider whether to approve the Medical Benefits Settlement. You or your own lawyer may ask to appear and speak at the hearing at your own cost. Class Counsel will ask the Court to consider an award of fees, costs, and expenses of 6% of the value of the benefits actually provided under the Medical Benefits Settlement Agreement. Class Counsel fees, costs, and expenses under the Medical Benefits Settlement Agreement and the Economic and Property Damages Settlement Agreement jointly cannot exceed $600 million. Class members' payments will not be reduced if the Court approves the payment of Class Counsel fees, costs, and expenses because BP will separately pay these attorney fees, costs, and expenses.

Economic and Property Damages Settlement

Providing Money to Individuals and Businesses

If you have economic loss or property damage because of the Deepwater Horizon oil spill, you could get money from a class action settlement with BP Exploration & Production Inc. and BP America Production Company ("BP"). Go to DeepwaterHorizonSettlements.com for more information, including information on how to file a claim.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE ECONOMIC & PROPERTY DAMAGES SETTLEMENT?

The Economic and Property Damages ("E&PD") Settlement Class includes people, businesses, and other entities in the states of Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi, and certain counties in Texas and Florida, that were harmed by the oil spill. The website DeepwaterHorizonSettlements.com has detailed descriptions and maps to help you determine whether a geographic location may be included in the E&PD Settlement. Additionally, you can call 1-866-992-6174 or e-mail questions@DeepwaterHorizonEconomicSettlement.com to find out if a geographic location is included.

WHAT DOES THE ECONOMIC & PROPERTY DAMAGES SETTLEMENT PROVIDE?

The E&PD Settlement makes payments for the following types of claims: (1) Seafood Compensation, (2) Economic Damage, (3) Loss of Subsistence, (4) Vessel Physical Damage, (5) Vessels of Opportunity Charter Payment, (6) Coastal Real Property Damage, (7) Wetlands Real Property Damage, and (8) Real Property Sales Damage. There is no limit on the total dollar amount of the E&PD Settlement; all qualified claims will be paid.

HOW TO GET BENEFITS FROM THE ECONOMIC & PROPERTY DAMAGES SETTLEMENT

You need to submit a Claim Form to request a payment. You can get a copy of the various Claim Forms by visiting the website or by calling 1-866-992-6174. Claims can be submitted online or by mail. If you have questions about how to file your claim, you should call the toll-free number for assistance.

The deadline to submit most E&PD claims will be April 22, 2014 or six months after the E&PD Settlement becomes effective (that is, after the Court grants "final approval" and any appeals are resolved), whichever is later. There will be an earlier deadline to submit E&PD Seafood Compensation claims. The earlier deadline to submit Seafood Compensation claims will be 30 days after final approval of the Settlement by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana (regardless of appeals). Actual claim filing deadlines will be posted on the website as they become available. Valid claims will be paid as they are approved, beginning shortly after the Court-Supervised Settlement Program commences. It is highly recommended that E&PD Settlement Class Members complete and submit their claim forms promptly. Please read the Medical Benefits Settlement notice because you may also be eligible for benefits from that settlement.

YOUR OTHER OPTIONS

If you do not want to be legally bound by the E&PD Settlement, you must Opt Out or exclude yourself by October 1, 2012 or you won't be able to sue BP over certain economic and property damage claims. If you stay in the E&PD Settlement, you may object to it by August 31, 2012. The Detailed Notice explains how to exclude yourself or object.

The Court will hold a hearing on November 8, 2012 to consider whether to approve the E&PD Settlement. You or your own lawyer may ask to appear and speak at the hearing at your own cost. The Court will also consider Class Counsel fees, costs, and expenses including an interim payment of $75 million and additional awards equal to 6% of class claims and benefits paid. Class Counsel fees, costs and expenses under the Economic and Property Damages Settlement Agreement and the Medical Benefits Settlement Agreement jointly cannot exceed $600 million. Class members' payments will not be reduced if the Court approves the payment of Class Counsel fees, costs, and expenses because BP will separately pay these attorney fees, costs, and expenses.
