New fiscal year, new director at TDC

By AMANDA MAYOR

For the first time since the month of March, Wakulla’s Tourist Development Council conducted a meeting with the presence of a director. The board of county commissioners approved the contract agreement between Sam Martin and the TDC at their Oct. 7 board meeting, thus beginning Martin’s campaign to bring Wakulla County into the tourism market.

The council, which has met over 50 times in the past year – which is well above the state-mandated quarterly requirements – has praised relief at the beginning of the return of tourism. With the acquisition of a director, board members were able to begin focusing on grant monies, natural resources, which will boost revenue for the regional population of 1.7 million, as well as in national tourism.

During his time with the Citizens for Fort Monroe National Monument, Martin was successful in getting 60 percent of the park’s 565 acres de-designated as a national monument. Martin said, “I’m very proud of that because it will open the way for the state and federal park to work together.”

In a new water-based focus, Martin’s lengthy resume, which includes successful grant writing and administrative experience. He also described himself as a history buff and lists himself as co-founder, he says, as the park was handed over to the U.S. Park Service. Martin says, “I’m very excited that we can begin focusing on what we’re able to do as a result of the board approval.”

“We want to keep focused on that 17-foot sea kayak made out of wood. We want to focus on the fact that we’re a wetland, a natural area that we can’t use it.”

Three men arrested for theft of lawn and tractor equipment. www.thewakullanews.com  THE WAKULLA NEWS, Thursday, October 17, 2013 – Page 3A

The Wakulla County Sheriff’s Office arrested three men in connection with the theft of lawn and tractor equipment with Franklin County and Wakulla County, according to Sheriff Charlie Crews.

Joshua Thomas Martin, 27, of Crawfordville was charged with grand theft of more than $20,000 and under $21,000. He was booked into the Wakulla County Jail.

Brandon Wayne Atkinson, 28, of Crawfordville was charged with two counts of grand theft over $20,000 and under $100,000. The men are accused of being involved in the grand theft of a mower and trailer valued at $20,000, the theft of a dolly and various equipment from a local residence, and the theft of lawn and tractor equipment. He was booked into the Wakulla County Jail.

The men are accused of being involved in the grand theft of a mower and trailer valued at $20,000. The men were released from the Wakulla County Jail on Oct. 25.

During the investigation, the men were found inside a wooded area of Carrabelle owned by Pigott and a local residence. The men were found in possession of the alleged stolen property.

The men were booked into the Wakulla County Jail on Oct. 25. A bond hearing will be held for the men on Oct. 28.

“They sent me a copy of the article and they did a really nice job,” she said. “They hit each of the points off. They did a really nice job,” she said. “I wish everyone would do it this way. I wish everyone would do it this way.”

Yvonne Thomas, “the website was already created.”

Thomas, “the website was already created. They had asked for that grant money before we went for that Simpleview offer. But that grant money became available and we had to grab it before the website was in place.”

According to the council, Simpleview will be contracted to do things such as enhance the website’s content for search engine optimization in an effort to bring more traffic to the TDC’s new website. The council unanimously voted to approve the RFP and tentatively approve the company called NXC will be the marketing company called NXC to help the TDC with tourism, marketing, and development.

In a perfect world, said Commissioner Ralph Thomas, “the website would be just as simple to create as it was to build.”

Later in the meeting, Martin, who had gone to Washington, D.C., then returned to Tallahassee. This is my home now,” he says. Moving forward, Martin says he is looking forward to his new role and that the members of the TDC have a lot to do. “I really feel off their energy,” he says of the council. “You can tell they’re passionate about what they do. The way they speak about things during the interview and meeting process made me really excited about doing this.”

Shadeville’s annual Fall Festival slated for Oct. 19

By BRANDON LARRABEE

w Special to The News

Be sure to attend this fall’s Fall Festival at Shadeville Elementary School. It will be held at the school grounds on Oct. 19 from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m. This year promises to be even better than previous years. We have games galore for the children to enjoy. Come and let them enjoy our giant slides, bumper cars, race cars, haunted house, laser tag, go ‘em ‘doggie’ and much more.

Don’t miss your chance to “win big” at our bingo in the library. There will be lots to eat and drink and don’t forget to visit The Sweet Shop.

Many more entertainments will be awaiting to entertain you and your family on the NMS annual occurrence of this event. This is the only fundraiser that is put on by the hardworking Shadeville PTO. Funds have been used to upgrade necessary equipment and enhance the students overall educational experience. Thanks to our many business partners and parents, we look forward to another successful festival. We hope to see you there!

One district has already declared its union negotiations at an impasse, according to the survey. Teachers who have not yet received their raises will protest effectively when their districts and unions agree. Champion said.

Meanwhile, at least four districts – Calhoun, Gulf Breeze and Pensacola – have implemented plans handed out across the board raises for teachers, against lawmakers’ wishes. “I’m really disappoint- ed that we did not have more school districts, at least in the first blush, to avoid these increases based on performance and performance plans,” said – 8-Brannan Beach. “...I marvel at the fact that we have school boards and legislators who ig- nored that from the Leg- islature.”

As bears build up, FWC asks public to share sightings, trash stash

FWC News

In fall, the world is an abundant buffet for Florida black bears. Fruits are ripe, insects are abundant, food caches are blooming and Publiclands are open. Programmed to pack on weight for hibernation, bears can swell a food bulb. Milk can mean weeks of energy. Most bears may decide to travel only a short distance, but some trash can be easily picked up that supports long treks and hibernations.

The Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission (FWC) reminds the public this is a critical time of year for bears. Publiclands, garages, pets and food are scarce but bears are out.

Surveys of Florida communities across the state indicate nearly 85% of bears on human contact. Bears that are hungry and lanes or human contact are more likely to be attracted to food sources. It is important to keep food, water and shelter away from bears to reduce human-bear conflict.

The FWC is asking the public to report their sightings of Florida black bear contacts or report sightings of bears that are feeding or lounging on human food or trash.

The four most common situations in which bears are attracted to food sources are:

1. Bears are attracted to human food sources, but they are not aggressive.
2. Bears are attracted to human food sources and are aggressive.
3. Bears are attracted to human food sources and are not aggressive, but they are in a confined area.
4. Bears are attracted to human food sources and are in a confined area, but they are not aggressive.

FWC officers – ready in an instant

FWC officers Lee Lanesh and Rich Wilson were the ones called upon to respond quickly and do what it takes to get those in danger to safety.

In the meantime, while people were working to assist the one in need, a helicopter was on its way to our shores. All this can translate into great outcomes.

FWC officers will do what it takes to get those in danger to safety.

Why is the water so dark?

Actual water temperatures were very high in the warmer months. In the beginning, while water diving season begins the day after Labor Day, we can see a "window" occurring in on to our shores. All this can translate into great outcomes.

Fishing Report

With the floodwaters, the water levels have been rising, creating a range of dark water, flushing our underwater conditions. That is now drawing Wakulla into the Gulf. Key monitoring sites are now shifting from a snorting torrent to something we can once again investigate.

This rainwater is delivered to the Gulf through coastal waters in the Gulf of Mexico. Have a higher concentration of these isotopes. Large, dense, and warm water can be seen in the water as it arrives on to our shores. All this can translate into great outcomes.

The direct discharge of groundwater into the marine environment has been overlooked on a pathway for fresh water, nutrients, and pollutants escaping the land.

Dr. Burnett studied the distribution of geochemical tracers like nitrogen isotopes and cadmium to trace groundwater discharge and mixing in the ocean.

Operation Santa Needs Your Help

Operation Santa is a community effort sponsored by the Wakulla County Coalition for Youth (WCCY) in partnership with over 35 agencies, WCCY, and its partners build support for the youth, individuals and families in Wakulla County.

Last year Operation Santa helped 276 families (over 1,400 individuals) in Wakulla experience the joy of the Christmas Season. To provide again this year, we need your help.

Operation Santa provides a hands up to individuals and families (all ages) in turmoil or crisis for reasons beyond their control. Janice Eakin, Systems Development & Communications Lead, shares “For far too many, having money for gifts is impossible if they struggle to meet basic needs.

Operation Santa aims to make sure Wakulla’s most vulnerable individuals are not forgotten.” Lt. Bruce Ashley, WCCY President, would like to thank all supporters and remind everyone that WCCY is a 501c3 Non Profit organization; all donations are tax deductible.

Operation Santa requires 3 to 4 months of volunteer activities. We are well into our second month.

The operation moves into the Community Center November 1; distribution day is December 14 with mountains of volunteer effort, donations and adoptions happening in between.

JOIN IN! The calendars below reflect our remaining activities. Take a look and let us know when you can help!

Wakulla News
Proudly supports Operation Santa
Natural Wakulla
By Les Harrison

Halloween is less than two weeks away and the preparations are ongoing for this annual event. Soon throngs of children dressed as a mob of super heroes, princesses, and night-time creatures will be ringing doorbells all over Wakulla County.

The date of these feasts originated in the year 835 when All Saints Day was moved to Nov. 1. The following day, All Souls Day, was held on Nov. 2. On these days people would call on their deceased loved ones and pray for their souls.

Unfortunately, this practice became a bit too personal with the rising of a counterbalance of the piety of these fallen souls. Given the superstitions and beliefs of Europe in the Dark Ages, this favored food. Unseasonable, the apparel of this group.

This beetle begins to raise its hideous mask. The harmless beetle now has the appearance of a large hornet’s head. Even the most aggressive predators stop to evaluate their gain versus the potential pain giving the beetle time to escape. To learn more about the delta flower scarab beetle in Wakulla County visit the UF/IFAS Wakulla County Extension Director Life can be reached by email at harrison@ufl.edu or at (850) 926-3931.

Poultry, egg class set at extension office
Special to the News

The UF/IFAS Wakulla County Extension Office is holding the Small Scale Poultry and Egg Production class this October. Oct. 22, at 6:30 p.m. This program will be open to the public and held at the Extension Center, 16 Cedar Avenue, Crawfordville, Florida.

Learn how to raise a flock of chickens efficiently and produce cost effective meat and eggs for the family. The requirements for space, feed, water and proper care will be covered in this class as well as disease prevention. The class is free to members of this group. Non-members during class or participants are prepared to get the best growth performance.

The class will be taught by Les Harrison. Wakulla County Extension Director, who has worked in and around poultry production as a farm supply cooperative manager.

He will share his experience with poultry and egg production, including the regulations relating to raise of poultry.

Attendees will receive printed reference materials as part of the program. The program begins at 6:30 p.m. and there is a $5 admission fee to cover the cost of materials.

Sign up by calling 850-926-3931 or visiting the website at http://wakulla.ifas.ufl.edu.

The requirements for space, feed, water and proper care will be covered in this class as well as disease prevention. The class is free to members of this group. Non-members during class or participants are prepared to get the best growth performance. The class will be taught by Les Harrison, Wakulla County Extension Director, who has worked in and around poultry production as a farm supply cooperative manager.

He will share his experience with poultry and egg production, including the regulations relating to raise of poultry. Attendees will receive printed reference materials as part of the program. The program begins at 6:30 p.m. and there is a $5 admission fee to cover the cost of materials.

Sign up by calling 850-926-3931 or visiting the website at http://wakulla.ifas.ufl.edu.

Vernon said. “This will be a great opportunity to get healthy, and defense. “He played exceptional Loggins for providing the road trip of the season. It was definitely a team that had just gotten off a three hour bus ride in the first half,” said Coach James Vernon. “We looked immediately, according to Assistant Head Franks, who kicked every kickoff of the game for a touchback.

It didn’t all come together immediately, according to Assistant Head Coach James Vernon. “We worked hard as a team these past few weeks, but it’s still early in the season, and we’re just getting into our rhythm,” he said. The Lady Eagles improve on Friday, Oct. 11 where they improved their record to 6-1 with a 28-7 win on the road against Rickards.

Both defenses showed up to play, inferior to Wakulla’s rushing game, with the War Eagles earning a first down, but was penalized twice. With only three games left in the season, Wakulla earned themselves a state rank of 48, holds an overall 6-1 record and is 0-1 in district play. Both defenses showed up to play, Wakulla’s ranked 32 and St. Johns’ ranked 33.

NEXT GAME: After a bye week this week, the War Eagles host North Florida Christian on Friday, Oct. 25, at 7:30 p.m.

Lady War Eagles improve to 10-9

The Wakulla War Eagles volleyball team split last week improving their record to 10-9. After losing to Chiles on Tuesday, 25-20, 25-19, and 21-15, the team went on to win their next four sets, 25-22, 22-25, 25-10 and 25-10. Wakulla pulled together with the help ofmiddle blocker Wesley who has been out due to a high ankle sprain. Players like junior Sarah Joyner and Malloy Kees stepped up to help Wakulla win. Florida had a season high with 15 aces. Senior Haley Brown had 14 aces, followed by senior Brooke York with 8 aces. Sophomore Taylor Lawson filled in for Joyner and contributed with 2 aces and 2 blocks.

Other highlights included Alexey Simon with 16 digs, James Fortier with 5 blocks and 9 kills, Caylee Cox with 7 aces and 45 assists. Randi Cason also had 3 kills.

The War Eagles will be back in action Tuesday, Oct. 15 vs. Mariner for a 7-2A FHSAA soccer match that will allow them to play for the first time.

MIDDLE SCHOOL FOOTBALL

Wildcats stay undefeated

BY EDGAR MECALEF

The Wakulla Middle School Wildcat football team improved their record to 2-0 after a win over the previously undefeated Jefferson County Middle School Team.

Cepheid Greene led all rushers on the night carrying the ball 12 times for 51 yards and a touchdown. The game opened with the previously unbeaten Jefferson County Middle School previous season record of 1-11.

The Wakulla High School cross country team won over 2000 high school runners at the FSU Intercollegiate Pre-State Meet in Satsuma on Oct. 12.

There were 10 individual medalists in the meet which was held at the new renovated Apalachee Regional Park cross country course, which was recognized as one of the top five cross country courses in the state and is also the site of this year’s FHSAA State Meet.

The highlight of the meet for the local squad was, once again, the performance of WHS senior William Harris, running in the Elite Girls Division against many of the very best runners from Florida, Georgia and Alabama. Harris completed the 5K course in 18:05 which is a new personal record (PR) for him.

Jimmy Fisher could only laugh at the question: "It was a topic of discussion, for a while after last Saturday's win over Arkansas, of a return of The Swamp to all its former, opponent-enhancing glory. It was certainly loud and proud but in my humble opinion, those were just too many empty seats, especially in the second half of a relatively close SEC game, for me to declare the "good ole days" are back."

But as we left the stadium the other night, I began thinking about the actual impact The Swamp will have on this season, and basically the same scenario this week at Memorial Stadium. What makes Sammy Watkins so special? He's a great receiver, can make life miserable for opposing defenses. It's versatile enough to receive passes or run the ball out of the back field. Physical enough to run tough routes against the middle of the field. Fast enough to run vertical routes down the field. And at times, offensive coordinator Chad Morris will simply use Watkins as a decoy, drawing and P.J. Williams, Jalen Ramsey, Nate An- drews and P.J. Williams, among others, away from him. He's very instinctual with Watkins as a decoy, Chad Morris will simply use Watkins as a decoy, Fisher then smiled and rattled off a bunch of "we're excited too!"

Hi, kids! This week's puzzles are a series of three fun activities that are perfect for a rainy day. Enjoy solving the word puzzle, the Junior Whirl, and the Kids' Maze!

Even Exchange
by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been invented. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MBSTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

1. Housepainter's steps  B  Pantry
2. Attached to, like glue  U  Twig or branch
3. Fabric  C  Pack of bees
4. Psychologically  T  Like a boring talk
5. Embellishment  P  Oak tree

Discover delicious food, divine scenery in Maui

By Lindy Carter
Special to The News

Some kama‘aina, or first-time visitors, never make it to Maui—an upscale version of the small islands.

Some of the finest food, lodging, and scenery can be found on this charming island.

Sample your way around the island. Try caviar platters prepared with locally sourced produce. Some amazing Zagat listed restaurants include Mama's Fish House, Vela, and Maui-susume General Store.

 Forget the fancy train. Maui is on your schedule from the moment you step off the plane. Plan to experience this island from one of several companies.
