Monday CONVERSATION

'Man in red'

MATTHEW BECK/Chronicle

Jolly Ol' St. Nick sings a song with the children at All About Kids Preschool in Lecanto.

Santa Claus answers children's questions

NANCY KENNEDY
Staff writer

LECANTO

Sometimes called Kris (as in Kris Kringle) and christened Nicholas, most everyone, at least in North America, calls the man in his signature red ensemble "Santa Claus" — or sometimes St. Nick.

Claus estimates his age to be 1,700. In a soft, New Orleans drawl, he says he was born somewhere around the year 280 in southern Turkey and was a bishop there during the 300's.

Today, he lives up North where he oversees the world's largest toy manufacturing and distribution operation.

Known for his broad face, cheeks like roses, a droll little mouth drawn up like a bow, snow-white hair and beard, not to mention a round belly that tends to shake when he laughs, which is often, he's beloved worldwide.

Despite his busy schedule — December is crunch time for Claus and Company — the jolly old elf recently took time out to visit Ms. Gail's and Ms. Tina's class of 4- and 5-year-olds at All About Kids daycare and preschool in Lecanto.

Although the Chronicle usually asks the questions in a Monday Conversation, today we've handed over the investigative reporting duties to the kids.

SANTA CLAUS: I like "Miracle on 34th Street."

City of Inverness: 2013 — 'It was a very good year'

NANCY KENNEDY
Staff writer

INVERNESS — During Inverness City Manager Frank DiGiovanni's 15th annual State of the City address, he announced that 2013 was "a very good year."

Among the year's highlights:

■ A $500,000 grant application was submitted to the Florida Cultural Facilities Program for funds to complete work on the Valerie Theatre, which city officials hope will be open December 2014.

■ The city achieved debt-free status.

■ Saw an increase in "investment and building activity."

Frank DiGiovanni
Inverness city manager.

■ Implemented a residential recycling, uniform Waste Management cart program at no direct cost to residents, and a commercial Dumpster sharing program that would reduce commercial rates.

■ New landfill agreement with Heart of Florida Environmental in Sumter County with a potential annual savings of $75,000 to $100,000.

■ Continued improvements to Whispering Pines Park facilities, including the addition of a "space net" piece of play equipment for kids; also planted eight cathedral oaks at Cooter Pond Park and put up new split-rail fencing.

■ North Apopka Avenue "Bicycle Boulevard" was completed and bike racks were installed around town and local parks. Also, 11 Big Belly solar semi-automated trash compactors were added in the city parks.

■ Phase 1 of the Wayfind sign program was completed.

■ The build-out upstairs of the Inverness Government Center was completed for office space for U.S. Rep. Rich Nugent; also build-out for the Department of Children and Families is nearing completion.

"Bicycle Boulevard" was completed and bike racks were installed around town and local parks.

"Not to mention the number of events, 'major' and 'more major' that were added and enhanced to 'kick up' a yearlong calendar of events that are all free to the public," DiGiovanni said. "We also saw, on a grand scale, the completion and opening of a Publix shopping center, a new O'Reilly's auto store came to town and demolition and complete rebuild of a Wendy's on the exact site took place."

Free dental clinic set to open in Homosassa

ERYN WORTHINGTON
Staff writer

HOMOSASSA — Chairs are in. Equipment installed. And training is ready to begin.

Directors say doors are ready to open and 2014 is sure to begin with a boom for the anticipated free Citrus County dental and medical clinic.

"The equipment is coming in today, which requires the plumbing and the electrical to be hooked up," said Joe Papp, director of the Samaritan Dental and Medical Clinic, on Thursday. "As soon as we do that we get to see it all together and that will be the grand wrap for 2013."

Nature Coast Ministries has been working to transition the old, donated Knights of Columbus building into offices, meeting rooms and a free dental and medical clinic.

The Catholic Charities Citrus Community Outreach Center, 9020 W. Atlas Drive, Homosassa, is a location that will provide part-time facilities for the We Care Food Pantry, Pregnancy and Family Life Center, Citrus Abuse Shelter Association and the Samaritan Dental and Medical Clinic.

Several of these organizations are already operating; however, the Samaritan Dental and Medical Clinic is scheduled to have its grand opening in January with "trial patients."

"We are going to stand off until after the new year," Papp said. "We can't ask the doctors to come in two days before Christmas. Plus, we need to get volunteers trained. Let's jump into it and get running right after the new year with trial patients."

Hearing and Hearing Aid Pricing and Technology Disclosed

For consumers about to make a hearing aid purchase, and anyone interested in learning about hearing

What are Hearing Aid Channels and Bands?

Two of the most important characteristics of hearing aids are "Channels" and "Bands"… which are also some of the most misunderstood by users.

To start off with, the number of channels or bands has nothing to do with the number of programs or volume settings. Sounds are processed and amplified by a hearing aid based on frequencies (or the pitch of a sound) and volumes. A peek at your audiogram will tell you how much amplification you need for any given frequency. In a nutshell, bands and channels thus determine how granular a hearing aid can process and amplify the sounds it perceives. To quote a great explanation from Philips:

"A band is what is used to control volume in different frequencies. This allows us to adjust more volume in a specific area of your hearing loss without effecting other areas where you might need less volume The more bands the hearing aid offers the more room we have to fit the aid to your hearing loss.

Channels break up the frequency range into individual channels. This allows the hearing aid to differentiate noise from speech. The more channels the hearing aid has the more fine tuned it can be. For instance the sound of keys falling on a table, or water running in the sink may be overwhelming. When your hearing aid offers many channels we can adjust each frequency that is too loud without sacrificing the things you want to hear, like your spouse or boss."

Thus, just the way a high-resolution picture gives you a sharper image, more bands and channels provide you with a more granular sound quality. More channels will provide better "resolution" on the frequencies and more bands will mean better "resolution" on the volume… thus allowing your hearing aid to match your audiogram more accurately.

Fire destroys garage, car Sunday morning

HOMOSASSA — Five units of firefighting equipment responded early Sunday to a blaze that destroyed a vehicle and a garage and is being investigated as suspicious.

Answering a call at 6:56 a.m., Citrus County Sheriff's Office Fire and Rescue Service arrived at 7:06 a.m. to a residential rental property at 6862 S. Greengate Point owned by Gary Taylor, according to an incident worksheet prepared by Battalion Chief Tom Bosley.

Dispatch was advised that the fire possibly was intentional and the subject still was on scene. Therefore, sheriff's deputies also responded.

Firefighters and deputies found a 20-foot by 30-foot freestanding garage containing a car both fully involved in flames that resulted in 100 percent structure loss to the garage and 100 percent damage to the car, according to the report.

Surrounding the garage, crews extinguished all fire. The Florida State Fire Marshal was contacted because of the suspicious nature of the fire. According to the report, deputies gathered information on scene and questioned a suspect.

No one was injured in the blaze.

SECO earns national honor

PAT FAHERTY
Staff writer

SECO is a not-for-profit, member-owned electric cooperative and serves approximately 15,000 member/customers in Citrus County and 185,000 overall.

Sumter Electric Cooperative (SECO) has been nationally recognized as a champion of customer satisfaction.

J.D. Power has named SECO as one of its elite 2014 Customer Champions.

Each year, J.D. Powers and Associates pick 50 brands as Customer Service Champions, based on customer feedback attesting to their service excellence.

Jim Duncan, SECO chief executive officer, has received a congratulatory letter from J.D. Power President Finbarr O'Neill.

"On behalf of J.D. Power, I congratulate you and your entire organization for being recognized as a J.D. Power 2014 Customer Champion," wrote O'Neill. "SECO Energy is among an elite group of 50 brands across nine industries that deliver excellence by focusing on key customer touch points.

"Now in its third year, the Customer Champion recognition is based on the voices of the most important critics — your customers." he added. "J.D. Power's in-depth expertise in understanding what drives customer satisfaction and how it links to company performance across a broad range of industries is the foundation for this analysis."

O'Neill went on to explain the company analyzes customer opinions, perceptions and feedback from its 2013 U.S. syndicated research across 600 brands. He stated the J.D. Power 2014 Customer Champions represent the highest performing companies.

O'Neill also informed SECO that J.D. Power's Customer Champions will be featured in Fortune Magazine's upcoming March 17 issue.

"This surprise recognition from a prestigious and well-respected organization like J.D. Power is most welcome," said Duncan. "This kind of independent analysis reaffirms our efforts to make sure our SECO members get the very best customer service possible.

"To be named as one of the elite 50 is an honor and I thank President O'Neill for his very kind words about our cooperative. SECO has always done very well in J.D. Power surveys, but this new designation is truly special."

Past winners include Publix Pharmacy, Bass Pro Shops and Jet Blue Airways.

SECO is a not-for-profit, member-owned electric cooperative and serves approximately 15,000 member/customers in Citrus County and 185,000 overall.

The Citrus County Sheriff's Office has reminders across the county warning drivers of the dangers of drinking and driving.

MIKE WRIGHT
Staff writer

Getting behind the wheel after having a few too many is never a good idea.

Yet motorists do during the holidays, risking themselves, loved ones and others with drunken driving.

The auto club and brewery are teaming up again this year to offer the Tow-to-go program, a free service regardless of whether someone has AAA membership or not.

CLIP AND SAVE

- Tow-to-go is available through Jan. 1. If you've had too much to drink, call 855-2-TOW-2GO (855-286-9246) for a free ride and tow home.

It's a simple program: Someone needing a ride home, and the ride is 10 miles or less, but doesn't want to leave his car stranded at a party or a bar can call 855-2-TOW-2-GO (855-286-9246) and a wrecker will come to scene, driving home both caller and vehicle.

Local participants include Ed's Auto and Towing in Inverness and Scally's Lube & Go in Dunnellon. Both have participated in the program for 15 years.

Lori Jacobson, a manager at Ed's Auto, said the goal is to get people home safely.

"We don't tow from bar to bar," she said.

Scally's owner Robert Scally said he had three Tow-to-Go calls last year.

"It's a very good service," he said. "You don't have to worry about getting a DUI. I don't know why people don't use it more."

The service is available now through Jan. 1.

Many immigration judges could retire

MIAMI — The nation's already backlogged immigration courts might soon be thrown into more havoc as roughly half of their 220 judges will be eligible for retirement next year.

The Executive Office for Immigration Review oversees the nation's 59 immigration courts. The office says the court already has 32 vacancies, contributing to the current backlog of nearly 350,000 cases.

The Executive Office said its average retirement rate is only 5 percent per year — which would mean 11 judges retiring in 2014.

Health officials warn against tattoo parties

Health officials said last week that these parties often take place in homes or hotel rooms and the tattoos are given by inexperienced and unlicensed tattoo artists.

Health officials in Orange, Osceola, Seminole, Lake and Volusia counties issued the warning.

They said allergic reactions and skin infections are among the risks of getting tattoos at these parties.

Health officials recommend only getting tattoos from a licensed artist in a permitted shop.

Orange County Sheriff's Office spokeswoman Jane Watrel said the evacuation Saturday night at Tomorrowland was precautionary.

The closure lasted about two hours. Officials said the areas reopened before the park closed for the night.

LUCAS CARLSON: How do the reindeer fly? What do they eat? Did you bring them with you?

SANTA CLAUS: They're all still up North getting ready for the big trip. They have to get their energy up, so I'm getting them full of oats and barley to get them all gassed up so they can fly.

Actually, reindeer don't really fly — they don't have feathers like a bird, do they? But they're great leapers with strong hind legs, and what they do is glide. Remember what I said about them being gassed up? That makes them real light and able to leap and glide for long distances.

SIERRA VERTREES: What is your favorite cookie?

SANTA CLAUS: I'm partial to chocolate chip, and I really like it if they have some pecans in them.

PHILLIP STEPHENS: How do you get down the chimney?

SANTA CLAUS: It takes a little effort. I take a big breath of air — actually, I don't have to go down too many chimneys anymore because hardly anyone has one. I have a teeny elf named Sparkles who can slip through key holes and skinny places and get inside houses, and he lets me in.

NATHAN SANTINI: How does Rudolph's nose glow?

SANTA CLAUS: Like a light bulb! Seriously, he was just blessed with that gift, which became his purpose in life. Maybe God wanted him to stand out.

LANE LOETSCHER: Do you like to fish?

SANTA CLAUS: Yes, I do. There's a place I like to go just north of the North Pole where I like to do a little ice fishing.

JACKSON BECK: How do the elves make toys?

SANTA CLAUS: They make them very well. They're busy all the time and work very hard. Plus, when they get too old we have a great retirement plan.

KAMERIN DAVIDSON: Do you make toys for Kmart?

SANTA CLAUS: No, I don't make toys for them, but when there's an exceptionally high demand, I do use other resources such as Kmart. I don't want to overwork my elves.

MATTHEW LOPEZ: How old are you?

SANTA CLAUS: I'm 1,700 years old, give or take a year or two.

ABBIGAIL AYERS: Do you get tired all night delivering toys?

SANTA CLAUS: Yes, I do, but I have lots of help from the elves. Then when I get back home I get a good night's rest. Plus, I have the next 364 days to build up my strength until the next Christmas Eve.

Before I leave to go back to the North Pole, I want you to know that Santa loves all the boys and girls and he hopes that everyone remembers the Golden Rule and that you'll treat others just as you want to be treated.

MATTHEW BECK/Chronicle

Wide eyes and smiles are normal around Santa, especially near Christmas. The students in the volunteer pre-kindergarten class at All About Kids Preschool are wide-eyed as they meet St. Nick.

Public lines up for new low-cost appliance that slashes heat bills

Amish craftsmen vow to keep up with rush for brand-new Hybrid-Thermic™ 'Miracle Heater' that uses about the same energy as a coffee maker per hour, so just plug it in and never be cold again

Everyone hates high heat bills. But we're all sick and tired of turning the thermostat down and freezing our buns off.

That's why Sears knew they had a home-run on their hands with the first-ever low-cost appliance with Hybrid-Thermic™ heat technology. And no other heater anywhere has it.

The brand-new portable L.E.D. Heat Surge HT sips so little energy, you can run it for a full 12-hour day or night for just about a buck.

This modern marvel, hailed as the zone heating 'Miracle Heater,' caused such a frenzy at Sears stores, one shopper refused to leave until she got one. Since there were none in stock, store managers were forced to hand over the store's only floor model, against store policy.

So today, immediate action is being taken to give more people, more ways to get them.

Beginning at 8:30 a.m., today's readers are allowed to phone in or snag one online. Heat Surge® even posted a 2-Day Double Coupon which has been reprinted for today's readers to use.

By using this coupon, everyone who calls is being rewarded with $227. That makes this remarkable home appliance a real steal at just $299. Since this is a Double Coupon Deal, it not only gives you an extraordinary discount, but also entitles you to free shipping and handling, totaling $227 off. So now everyone has a fair shot at getting one.

"Folks are saving money everywhere by zone heating with the Heat Surge HT," said Dave O'Neil, the company's analyst tracking the impact Heat Surge is having on consumer heat bills.

This all started when Sears wanted the world-famous 'Amish Miracle Heater' that everyone was asking for.

The shy but now famous Amish craftsman said Sears made the most sense. "I'd reckon they're the oldest and most trusted in the country," one of the Amish craftsmen known as Melvin said.

"We've been saving folks money, big money. And we know it because we're hearin' about it," he said.

"They know about our quality. No particle board, just real wood. Fully-assembled cabinets by our hands and we're making them right here in the good ole USA," Melvin said.

Director of Technology David Martin explained, "The Heat Surge HT is a revolutionary appliance that can easily roll from room to room. But we didn't want it to look like some metal box that just sits there. So we turned to our Amish craftsmen and now each one is made to look like a sleek, slim fireplace that has no real flames."

"The peaceful flicker of the 'Fireless Flame' is so beautiful, everyone thinks it's real, but it's totally safe to the touch. All you do is just plug it in," Martin said.

People from Maine to Mississippi and even Florida and Arizona are flocking to get them because they are finally able to give their central heat a rest during this long, frigid winter.

According to the avalanche of consumer reviews, people absolutely swear by them, repeatedly saying, "it saves money," "looks beautiful," and "keeps you warm head to toe, floor to ceiling." And the word is getting out. That's why people are clamoring to get them.

But Martin said right now the real problem is making sure the Amish craftsmen can keep up with the looming Christmas rush.

That's why the Double Coupon expires in two days.

So for readers hoping to get the Heat Surge for themselves and take care of Christmas gifts for others, there is good news.

You can use the 2-Day Double Coupon more than once. But there is a catch. You can only get away with it for the next two days from the date of today's publication by calling the National Appliance Center at 1-888-414-4734.

Then, when it arrives, you'll be rushing to turn down that thermostat. Just plug it in, watch your heat bills hit rock bottom, and never be cold again. ■

■ GOTTA HAVE ONE: People are flocking to Sears stores everywhere to get the brand-new Heat Surge HT. An eager crowd remained respectful as Jonas Miller stages a promotional delivery event. "I heard so much about the Amish Miracle Heater but couldn't find where to get one," an excited Mary Straughn said. That's why a National Appliance Hotline has been set up for today's readers who can't rush out to get one. Readers who call the Hotline at 1-888-414-4734 will get free delivery with an extraordinary 2-Day Double Coupon that has been reprinted below.

■ SAFE: The beautiful L.E.D. Fireless Flame on the new Heat Surge HT is so stunning, everyone thinks it's real, but it's actually safe to the touch. It's so safe, it's where the kids will play & the pets will sleep.

■ BLANKET FREE COMFORT: "We just couldn't take another winter of always being cold. And we also got one for the kids to help them with their heat bills," Julia White said.

How It Works: You get 74° of bone-soothing room heat even when the home thermostat is turned down to 59° with the first-ever Heat Surge HT

■ MODERN MARVEL: The revolutionary Heat Surge HT micro-furnace fits in any room because it's packed inside a small Amish-built cabinet that measures just 25" high, 18" wide, and 12" deep.

This is the revolutionary Heat Surge HT, the first-ever appliance with Hybrid-Thermic™ heat technology. Hybrid-Thermic heat technology is an engineering genius so advanced, it actually uses a micro-furnace from the coast of China and a thermal heat exchanger to perform its miracles. The thermal heat exchanger acts like the rays of the sun to heat you, the kids, the pets and everything else. The micro-furnace then heats all the surrounding air. Together, this Hybrid-Thermic heat technology warms both you and the air around you, taking care of all the cold spots. In fact, it actually produces bone-soothing heat to help you feel good.

This modern marvel uses L.E.D. technology and just a trickle of electricity and saves you money based on a U.S. average that says it uses only about 9¢ of electricity an hour on the standard setting, yet it produces up to an amazing 4,606 British Thermal Units (BTU's) on the high setting. But here's the big surprise. It's not just a metal box that belongs in a basement. The Heat Surge HT is a showpiece in any room. That's because it has the ambiance of a real fireplace, but it has no real flames. Its Fireless Flame® technology makes it safe to the touch.

The portable Heat Surge HT comes installed in a genuine Amish-built wood cabinet made in the heartland of Ohio. They are hand-rubbed, stained, and varnished. When it arrives, all you do is just plug it in.

A Consumer Best Buy

An avalanche of unsolicited consumer reviews gives the company the reason to boast an overwhelming Consumer 'Best Buy' on the HeatReport.com website. Consumers should be aware of the fakes out there. This Hybrid-Thermic 'Miracle Heater' can never be found at Wal-Mart®, not at Lowe's®, not at Home Depot®, and none of the Club Stores. "Accept no imitations. If it does not have the Heat Surge name on it, it is not real Amish and it is not Hybrid-Thermic™. I repeat, if it does not have the Heat Surge name on it, you are getting ripped off," said Heat Surge Chief Compliance Officer, David Allen. The Heat Surge has earned the coveted Underwriters Laboratories certification and is protected by a limited full year replacement or money back warranty and 30-day Satisfaction Guarantee.

How to get the Double Coupon Deal: Phone in to use coupon now

ENERGY INPUT

Duke moves forward with gas plant process

Duke Energy is moving forward with the process to build a new gas plant in Citrus County.

As reported last week in the Chronicle, Duke received six outside bids from vendors interested in building a natural gas plant in northwest Citrus County. The company will use the proposals to compare to a self-build option and then make a selection in early 2014.

THE ISSUE:
Duke natural gas plant.

OUR OPINION:
A good sign for the economy.

While no final decision has been made, all indicators point toward a new natural gas plant to provide 1,640 megawatts of electricity being constructed in the county. Duke could still decide to accept a "creative response" that would employ innovative or inventive technologies, but that does not seem likely.

The new gas pipeline proposed to run through the county is yet another indicator that Duke is serious about the Citrus option.

A new natural gas plant for Citrus County would be good news for the local economy. The plant would employ hundreds during the construction stage and then include a permanent workforce of about 60 workers.

The facility would add in excess of $1.2 billion to the tax rolls and that infusion of tax dollars would help the county's fragile property tax situation.

The shutdown of the nuclear plant in Crystal River in early 2013 was a blow to the economy. Duke is scheduled to shut down the two older coal plants at the Crystal River power site over the next few years.

The decision to move ahead with the natural gas plant shows Duke is still committed to being a partner with Citrus County. The lingering tax dispute between the power company and the Citrus Property Appraiser's office has created some hard feelings, but Duke's moving ahead with the gas plant shows they are looking long term.

In a year where good economic news has been hard to find in Citrus County, the gas plant progress stands out as a positive sign that things will get better.

Executive discretion to the extreme

"To contend that the obligation imposed on the president to see the laws faithfully executed implies a power to forbid their execution is a novel construction of the Constitution, and is entirely inadmissible." — U.S. Supreme Court, 1838

WASHINGTON

Congressional Republicans' long-simmering dismay about Barack Obama's offenses against the separation of powers became acute when events compelled him to agree with them that the Affordable Care Act could not be implemented as written. But even before he decreed alterations of key ACA provisions — delaying enforcement of certain requirements for health insurance and enforcement of employers' coverage obligations — he had effectively altered congressionally mandated policy by altering work requirements of the 1996 welfare reform; and compliance requirements of the No Child Left Behind education law; and some enforcement concerning marijuana possession; and the prosecution of drug crimes entailing mandatory minimum sentences; and the enforcement of immigration laws pertaining to some young people.

George Will
OTHER VOICES

Republicans tend to regard Obama's aggressive assertion of enforcement discretion as idiosyncratic — an anti-constitutional impatience arising from his vanity. This interpretation is encouraged by his many assertions that he "can't wait" for our system of separated powers to ratify his policy preferences. Still, to understand not only the extravagance of Obama's exercises of executive discretion, but also how such discretion necessarily grows as government does, read Zachary S. Price's "Enforcement Discretion and Executive Duty" forthcoming in the Vanderbilt Law Review. Price, a visiting professor at the University of California's Hastings College of the Law, demonstrates that the Constitution's "text, history, and normative underpinnings" do not justify the permissive reading Obama gives to the Take Care Clause, which says the president "shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed."

It is, says Price, part of America's "deeply rooted constitutional tradition" that "presidents, unlike English kings, lack authority to suspend statutes" or make them inapplicable to certain individuals or groups. Indeed, the Take Care Clause may have been intended to codify the Framers' repudiation of royal suspending prerogatives. Hence the absence of an anti-suspension provision in the Bill of Rights.

Congress' excessive expansion of the number of federal crimes, however, has required husbanding of scarce prosecutorial and judicial resources, which has made enforcement discretion central to the operation of today's federal criminal justice system. But Obama's uses of executive discretion pertain to the growth of the administrative state.

The danger, Price says, is that the inevitable non-enforcement of many federal criminal laws will establish "a new constitutional norm of unbounded executive discretion" beyond the criminal justice system. Price says the enforcement discretion exercised in the context of the resource-constrained criminal justice system provides "no support for presidential authority to decline enforcement with respect to any other given civil regulatory regime, such as the Affordable Care Act."

The difference is between priority-setting and policy-setting, the latter being a congressional prerogative because of Congress' primacy in lawmaking. Absent "a clear statutory basis, an executive waiver of statutory requirements" is "presumptively impermissible."

It has, however, become "a nearly irresistible temptation" for presidents to infer permission from the courts' abandonment of judicial review that limits Congress' power to delegate essentially legislative powers to the executive branch. So, Price asks: "If President Obama may postpone enforcement of the ACA's insurance requirements and employer mandate, could a subsequent president ignore the Affordable Care Act altogether?"

In 1998, the Supreme Court held that "there is no provision in the Constitution that authorizes the president to enact, to amend, or to repeal statutes." But by claiming a power to revise laws through suspension of portions of them, Obama is exercising what Price calls a "second veto." Actually, he is wielding what the Constitution forbids and no statute can grant — a line-item veto, which violates the Presentment Clause. The Constitution says "every bill" passed by Congress shall be "presented" to the president, who shall sign "it" or return "it" with his objections. The antecedent of the pronoun is the bill — all of it, not bits of it.

The sprawl of the modern administrative state requires vast delegations of powers, often indistinguishable from legislative powers, to an executive branch whose scale defies even adequate congressional oversight. Fortunately, in the Newtonian physics of our constitutional system, wherein rivalries among the three branches are supposed to trend toward equilibrium, actions often produce equal and opposite reactions. Obama's aggressive assertions of executive discretion are provoking countervailing attention to constitutional proprieties. His departures from the norms proper to the Take Care Clause may yet cause Congress to take better care of its prerogatives.

LETTERS to the Editor

Give of yourself

This is about the article that was in Sound Off on Friday (Dec. 13) about the man that was watching people throw litter out in the roads. You need to get a life. Why don't you do some driving for the elderly that can't go to the doctors instead of wasting your time doing such a ridiculous thing? Or either go to some charity and work for free.

Thanks for response

I would like to say thank you to the three different police that responded to an accident I had on (County Road) 491 (Nov. 12): one a lady detective, one a police from Citrus County and one a highway patrol. But my biggest thanks goes to the couple that stayed with me through the whole ordeal, Francis and her friend from Beverly Hills, and Francie from Dunnellon. God bless the three of you. Too bad the guy that hit my car took off and left the scene. What goes around comes around. Take care. God bless all of you and a merry Christmas.

Garbage is disgusting

I notice in Friday's paper (Dec. 13) about "Litterbugs." Can you tell me why the county or the county commissioners won't do something about this? ... I live in Apache Shores. It's disgusting to drive by this place every day and see this garbage piled up out there. ...

Down on their luck

SOUND OFF
CALL 563-0579

I'd like to say merry Christmas to all the people who helped all the homeless, all the agencies and the people, the volunteers that's helped these homeless, some sleeping in the woods.

A lot of them lost their homes. Most of the foreclosures are people who saw a chance to own their own home. Many never had a home before, but was working and could make the monthly payments. Everyone needs a home.

How did they know there'd be this financial crisis? Some people want to blame these folks. Their dream is gone. So get off their backs. You could be next.

Happy holidays to all.

Thank you, Citrus County

The Citrus County Fallen Heroes Monument Foundation would like to thank all the volunteers who gave their valuable time and effort to work at the Food Truck Wars on Saturday, Dec. 7, at the Crystal River Mall. We had a great turn out for an event of this size considering this busy time of the year with many other activities throughout the county.

We would like to especially thank the Crystal River Mall management and staff, the mall merchants and Disabled American Veterans Chapter 158 in the Crystal River Mall; Fallen Heroes Board, Vietnam Veterans Gathering and American Legion Post 155; the Rev Ken Blythe, pastor of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church; Crystal River Mayor Jim Farley; Suzanne Smith Band; Sophie Robitaille; Dueling Banjo; Citrus 95.3 and 96.7; Belk; First Baptist Church of Crystal River; Food Truck Wars; Citrus County Sheriff's Office; F.D.S. Special thanks to my sister Irene and her fellow Publix employees, Christy and Annmarie; my girlfriend Suzanne and Kim from Sarasota. Thanks to all for contributing to a successful event.

CLINIC

Homosassa dentist Dr. Frank Vascimini and 20 other dental and medical professionals are volunteering their time and have received sovereign immunity — through the Florida Volunteer Health Services Department — to provide dental and medical services free to adults who qualify; that includes Citrus County elderly, veterans, homeless and low-income adults.

Dental supplies are still needed and can be donated by mail to 999 N.E. Fifth St., Crystal River, FL 34429 or at myncm.com.

"It is such a blessing because these people couldn't afford to have this care," said Bonnie McMullin, public relations. "Some people in this community have never been to a dentist — adults. This will be such a boon for people's self-esteem."

Board members say the clinic has been a dream that is evolving into reality.

"We are excited to start helping people and we are right on the cusp of it," Papp said.

Dental supplies are still needed and can be donated online at myncm.com, or by mail to Nature Coast Ministries, 999 N.E. Fifth St., Crystal River, FL 34429. Call 352-563-1860 or 352-613-2630 for more information.

Apple deal to bring iPhone to China Mobile

NEW YORK — Apple said it reached a deal to bring the iPhone to China Mobile, the world's biggest phone carrier.

The deal ends a lengthy courtship and could boost sales of the iPhone in China. The iPhone, once hugely popular in China, has been eclipsed by the rise of lower-priced rival smartphones from Samsung and Chinese companies entered the market.

The iPhone 5S and 5C will go on sale in Apple stores and China Mobil stores beginning Friday, Jan. 17. China Mobil customers can register for phones starting Wednesday, Dec. 25.

The companies didn't announce pricing or the terms of the agreement.

Many buyers picking cheapest health plans

CHICAGO — As a key enrollment deadline hits today, many people without health insurance have been sizing up policies on the new government health care marketplace and making what seems like a logical choice: They're picking the cheapest one.

Increasingly, experts in health insurance are becoming concerned that many of these first-time buyers will be in for a shock when they get medical care next year and discover they're on the hook for most of the initial cost.

The prospect of sticker shock after Jan. 1, when those who sign up for policies now can begin getting coverage, is seen as a looming problem for a new national system that has been plagued by trouble since the new marketplaces went online in the states in October.

Counselors who have been helping people choose policies say many are focused only on the upfront cost, not what the insurance companies agree to pay.

US credit and debit cards easy to replicate

NEW YORK — The U.S. is the juiciest target for hackers hunting credit card information. And experts say incidents like the recent data theft at Target's stores will get worse before they get better.

That's in part because U.S. credit and debit cards rely on an easy-to-copy magnetic strip on the back of the card, which stores account information using the same technology as cassette tapes.

In most countries outside the U.S., people carry cards that use digital chips to hold account information. The chip generates a unique code every time it's used.

"The U.S. is the top victim location for card counterfeit attacks like this," said Jason Oxman, chief executive of the Electronic Transactions Association.

Season brings snow, ice and warm weather

Associated Press

CONCORD, N.H. — The first full day of winter brought a wild mix of weather across the U.S. on Sunday: ice and high wind in the Great Lakes and New England areas, flooding in the South, snow in the Midwest and record-shattering temperatures in the 60s and 70s along the mid-Atlantic.

Snow and ice knocked out power to 440,000 homes and businesses in Michigan, upstate New York and northern New England, and also left more than 475,000 people without electricity in eastern Canada. It could be days before the lights are back on everywhere.

At least nine deaths in the U.S. were blamed on the storm, including five people killed in flooding in Kentucky and a woman who died after a tornado with winds of 130 mph struck in Arkansas. Five people were killed in Canada in highway accidents related to the storm.

The icy weather was expected to make roads hazardous through at least Monday from the upper Midwest to northern New England during one of the busiest travel times of the year.

As of midafternoon, more than 700 airline flights had been canceled and more than 11,000 delayed, according to aviation tracking website FlightAware.com.

High-temperature records for the date fell for the second straight day in the mid-Atlantic states because of a mass of hot, muggy air from the South.

In New York's Central Park, the mercury reached 70 degrees, easily eclipsing the previous high of 63 from 1998. Records were also set in Wilmington, Del., (67), Atlantic City, N.J., (68), and Philadelphia (67). Washington tied its 1889 mark at 72.

Temperatures were expected to return to normal by Monday night and Tuesday, dropping back into the 30s.

Despite a glaze of freezing rain in Maine, plenty of shoppers ventured to the outlet malls in Kittery, Maine, on the last weekend before Christmas.

In Canada, crews struggled to restore service to those without power in Ontario, Quebec and New Brunswick. Toronto Mayor Rob Ford called the storm one of the worst in the city's history.

Two girls have to walk around downed trees Sunday in Lansing, Mich. Winter arrived in Michigan with an icy blast, sending freezing rain across a wide section of the Lower Peninsula and knocking out electrical service to at last 294,000 homes and businesses. The state's largest utilities say it will be days before most of those blacked out get their power back because of the difficulty of working around ice-broken lines.

World BRIEFS

Khodorkovsky will work to free political inmates

BERLIN — Mikhail Khodorkovsky, the Russian oligarch who crossed President Vladimir Putin and ended up in jail for a decade, said he plans to devote his life to securing the freedom of the country's political prisoners.

At a packed news conference just two days after his surprise release from a Russian jail, Khodorkovsky said Sunday that he wants to pay back all those who had worked so hard for his own release.

"The time that is left for me is time I would like to devote to the activity of paying back my debts to the people ... and by that I mean the people who are still in prison," the 50-year-old former oil tycoon said, naming several business associates who remain behind bars in Russia.

Rebels hold key oil capital in South Sudan

KAMPALA, Uganda — South Sudan's central government lost control of the capital of a key oil-producing state Sunday, the military said, as renegade forces loyal to a former deputy president seized more territory in fighting that has raised fears of full-blown civil war in the world's newest country.

Bentiu, the capital of oil-rich Unity state, is now controlled by a military commander loyal to former Vice President Riek Machar, said Col. Philip Aguer, the South Sudanese military spokesman.

"Bentiu is in the hands of a commander who has declared support for Machar," he said. "Bentiu is not in our hands."

The armed rebels were said to be in control days earlier of some of South Sudan's oil fields, which have historically been a target for rebel movements, endangering the country's economic lifeblood.

South Sudan gets nearly 99 percent of its government budget from oil revenues, and the country reportedly earned $1.3 billion in oil sales in just five months this year.

Government airstrikes kill at least 32 in Syria

BEIRUT — Syrian aircraft pummeled an opposition neighborhood in the northern city of Aleppo on Sunday, killing at least 32 people and extending the government's furious aerial bombardment of the rebel-held half of the divided city to an eighth consecutive day.

Since it began on Dec. 15, the government's unusually heavy air campaign in Aleppo has killed more than 200 people, smashed residential buildings and overwhelmed the city's hospitals with casualties.

AP poll: Top 2013 stories

Associated Press

NEW YORK — The glitch-plagued rollout of President Barack Obama's health care overhaul was the top news story of 2013, followed by the Boston Marathon bombing and the dramatic papal changeover at the Vatican, according to The Associated Press' annual poll of U.S. editors and news directors.

The saga of "Obamacare" — as the Affordable Care Act is widely known — received 45 first-place votes out of the 144 ballots cast for the top 10 stories. The marathon bombing received 29 first-place votes and the papal transition 21.

HEALTH CARE OVERHAUL: The White House had hoped the Oct. 1 launch of open enrollment would be a showcase for the upside of Obama's much-debated overhaul. Instead, the website became a symbol of dysfunction, providing Republicans and late-night comics with ammunition, and worrying the president's Democratic allies. The site gradually improved, but a wave of cancellation notices from insurers undercut Obama's oft-repeated promise that people who liked their existing coverage could keep it.

BOSTON MARATHON BOMBING: In seconds, a scene of celebration transformed into one of carnage, as two bombs exploded near the finish line of the Boston Marathon in April. Three people were killed and more than 260 injured, including at least 16 who lost limbs. Authorities soon identified two suspects — 26-year-old Tamerlan Tsarnaev, who died in a shootout with police, and his brother, Dzhokhar, 20, who faces multiple charges, including 17 that carry a possible death penalty.

VATICAN CHANGEOVER: Pope Benedict XVI stunned Catholics around the world with his announcement in February that he would resign. The cardinal elected to succeed him, soon known as Pope Francis, proceeded to captivate many Catholics and non-Catholics alike with a new tone of openness, modesty and tolerance. Without challenging core church doctrine, he suggested it was time to rethink policy on divorce, focus more on serving the poor, and devote less rhetoric to condemnations of gay marriage and abortion.

DIVIDED CONGRESS: Opinion polls showed Congress with historically low approval ratings, and the key reason was seemingly intractable partisan conflict. Among the consequences were the harsh automatic spending curbs known as sequestration, the partial shutdown of the government in October, and bitterness in Senate after the Democrats used their majority to reduce the Republicans' ability to stall presidential nominations via filibusters.

NSA SPYING: The ripple effect continues, seven months after the world learned of Edward Snowden. The former NSA analyst leaked vast troves of secret documents detailing NSA surveillance operations, including programs that collected Americans' phone records and eavesdropped on allied leaders. The leaks have roiled diplomacy, triggered lawsuits and calls for reform, and prompted warnings that terrorists could benefit from the disclosures.

GAY MARRIAGE: Capping decades of activism, the gay-rights movement won a monumental victory in June in the form of two Supreme Court decisions. One cleared the way for ending a ban on same-sex marriages in California, the most populous state. The other struck down a 1996 law passed by Congress that banned federal recognition of same-sex marriages. In subsequent months, Hawaii, Illinois and New Mexico boosted the number of states allowing gay marriage to 17.

NELSON MANDELA: A freedom fighter, a political prisoner, a statesman revered for preaching reconciliation in a nation torn by racial strife. Nelson Mandela was all that and more — the icon of the anti-apartheid movement and South Africa's first black president. With his death at the age of 95, his compatriots, world leaders and countless other admirers mourned the loss of a one-of-a-kind hero.

PHILIPPINES TYPHOON: There were dire warnings beforehand, but the toll wreaked by Typhoon Haiyan was still stunning in its scope after it struck on Nov. 8. More than 6,000 people died; hundreds more remain missing. The typhoon damaged or destroyed the homes of more than 16 million people, with rebuilding expected to take years.

SYRIA: The death toll mounted inexorably, past 120,000, as Syria's nearly 3-year-old civil warfare raged on with no signs of resolution. The government of Bashar Assad did agree to eliminate its chemical weapons, but prospects for peace talks were complicated by infighting among anti-government rebels.

MISSING WOMEN FOUND: The call for help came on May 6, and the revelations that followed were gripping and grim. A former bus driver, Ariel Castro, had abducted three women from the streets of Cleveland from 2002 to 2004 when they were 14, 16 and 20. He periodically kept them chained, restricted access to food and toilets, and repeatedly raped and assaulted them until their escape. Castro pleaded guilty to multiple charges, and in September, faced with life in prison, hanged himself in his cell.

Dolphin playoff hopes dealt a blow in Buffalo

Miami needs a win over Jets and help to get in

Associated Press

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y. — Left tackle Bryant McKinnie and the Miami Dolphins had trouble handling the Buffalo Bills' blitz during the game.

And McKinnie and company had difficulty coming up with answers afterward, too, following a 19-0 loss on Sunday that put a dent in the Dolphins' playoff chances.

"Um," McKinnie said, beginning to laugh uncomfortably when asked what went wrong, "I don't know. I couldn't tell you."

The patchwork offensive line — the Dolphins' season-long weakness — gave up a season-worst seven sacks and was part of a unit that managed just 103 yards and six first downs against an AFC East rival that had little to play for after being eliminated from playoff contention a week earlier.

"I don't know," added right tackle Tyson Clabo of a line that's surrendered a franchise season-worst 58 sacks. "Obviously that wasn't our goal to have that stat..."

The Dolphins (8-7) had a three-game winning streak snapped and find themselves in a convoluted mix of four teams — Baltimore (8-7), San Diego (8-7) and Pittsburgh (7-8) — competing for the AFC's final playoff spot. Miami needs help while closing at home against the New York Jets next weekend.

The Dolphins' loss clinched the AFC East for New England.

Buffalo's blitz got to starter Ryan Tannehill on the third play from scrimmage. And the pass rush didn't stop until he was sacked a final time on his second-to-last snap of the game.

In closing their home schedule, the Bills (6-9) won consecutive games for the first time since Weeks 2 and 3 of last season.

"That was a pretty good beating," Bills defensive coordinator Mike Pettine said. "They were flying around. They were getting off the ball and they just looked a step faster than Miami did all day."

Veteran defensive tackle Kyle Williams and rookie cornerback Nickell Robey had two sacks apiece. Mario Williams, Jerry Hughes and Da'Norris Searcy added one each in helping Buffalo to its first shutout in over two years — and first at Ralph Wilson Stadium since a 21-0 win over Miami on

Bucs get sacked

Tampa Bay quarterback Mike Glennon, left, is sacked Sunday for a 9-yard loss by St. Louis safety T.J. McDonald during the second quarter in St. Louis. The Rams had seven sacks in a 23-13 win over the Buccaneers.

Glennon roughed up as Rams dominate Tampa Bay 23-13

Associated Press

ST. LOUIS — With his NFL-worst offense already scuffling, Tampa Bay Buccaneers coach Greg Schiano had to make adjustments to prepare to face the St. Louis Rams and menacing pass rusher Robert Quinn.

The result was a punishing day for quarterback Mike Glennon and another brutal offensive performance in a 23-13 loss to the Rams on Sunday.

Quinn got three of St. Louis' seven sacks and broke Kevin Carter's franchise season record of 17 sacks set in the 1999 Super Bowl title season. Quinn now has 18 to lead the league.

Schiano was left feeling sorry for Glennon, who had to scrape himself off the Edward Jones Dome turf a few too many times. Glennon got the wind knocked out of him on one sack — luckily it came with the two-minute warning, giving him enough time to recover.

Glennon threw for 158 yards and no touchdowns, losing a fumble that set up Greg Zuerlein's 48-yard field goal that put it away for St. Louis with 3:15 left.

So what kind of day was it for Glennon?

"I don't even know how you judge," Schiano said. "I'm not being sarcastic. ... It's awfully hard with that situation today. It's tough at quarterback."

Zac Stacy rushed for 104 yards and a touchdown on 33 carries, and two other rookies also had big games for the Rams (7-8), who matched their victory total from last year. Stedman Bailey scored on a 27-yard reverse, and Alec Ogletree forced two fumbles.

Ogletree stripped Bobby Rainey early in the second quarter. Bailey scored his first career touchdown on the next snap on the reverse to put the Rams up for good at 14-7.

"I've got to do a better job of protecting the ball. I put our defense in a bad situation, and they went down and scored on that fumble. I did a terrible job of securing the ball, what I'm supposed to do, and I put the game on me," said Rainey, who had 37 yards on 20 carries. "We played behind because of me and that fumble."

The Buccaneers (4-11) managed just 170 total yards, setting a season low for the second straight week. Vincent Jackson had five catches for 98 yards, with 52 coming on a pair of catches on the only Tampa Bay drive that resulted in a touchdown.

The Bucs haven't cleared 200 yards in either of their last two games and are averaging a miserable 206.8 yards over the last five weeks. In this game, Schiano's staff left extra blockers in to account for Quinn and the rest of the Rams' formidable defensive line.

It didn't work and only made matters worse for a unit averaging a league-low 283.7 yards on the season entering the game.

"I'm anxious to watch the tape because I want to see, with some of the things we had in place, how the heck they didn't slow them down more than they did," Schiano said. "I didn't expect to stand back there for 3 1/2 seconds. That's not going to happen with those guys. But I didn't expect to be back there for (only) 2 seconds either."

Glennon said he thought Quinn and Chris Long might be the best duo of defensive ends in the league, and the Rams' front four is among the best in the NFL.

"Tough afternoon. Offensively we struggled to run the football, which in turn I think made it harder to throw the football. We had seven sacks and Mike was under a lot of pressure throughout the day," Schiano said. "So, that was

Business trip to St. Pete

East Carolina, Ohio aim to end on high note today

Associated Press

ST. PETERSBURG — While a weekend of sun and 80-degree temperatures at the beach in Florida is nice, East Carolina and Ohio haven't lost sight of their mission in the Beef 'O'Brady's Bowl.

The Pirates (9-3) and Bobcats (7-5) not only are representing their respective conferences, but are hoping to end the season on a high note when they meet today in the annual pre-Christmas game at Tropicana Field, home of major league baseball's Tampa Bay Rays.

The teams feature pass-oriented, high-scoring offenses led by quarterbacks Shane Carden of East Carolina and Ohio's Tyler Tettleton, which could make for an entertaining matchup.

BEEF 'O' BRADY'S BOWL

- WHO: East Carolina Pirates (9-3) vs. Ohio Bobcats (7-5).
- WHERE: Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg.
- WHEN: Today at 2 p.m. (ESPN).

"It's good to have fun, but this is a business trip," East Carolina kicker Warren Harvey said. "We're here to win."

A victory would get the Pirates of Conference USA to 10 victories, the second highest total in school history. Ohio, the second straight Mid-American Conference team to close its season in St. Petersburg, is trying to finish with at least eight wins for the fourth consecutive season.

The Bobcats, in their ninth season under former Nebraska coach Frank Solich, were invited after the American Athletic Conference was unable to fulfill its bowl commitments. Ball State made the trip a year ago, losing to Central Florida after the Big East couldn't fill a slot in the Beef 'O' Brady's.

East Carolina's offense begins with Carden, who completed 71 percent of his passes for 3,866 yards, 32 touchdowns and 10 interceptions, while also rushing for 10 TDs. Wide receiver Justin Hardy has 105 receptions for 1,218 yards and eight TDs, while running back Vintavious Cooper is five yards shy of rushing for 1,000 for the second straight season.

"Frustrating the quarterback is going to be the key. We want to make sure he doesn't feel comfortable, we do not want to allow him to sit back in the pocket," Ohio cornerback Travis Carrie said. "If you allow him to sit back in the pocket, he will pick you apart."

Ohio will counter with Tettleton, the Bobcats' career passing leader with 8,897. He's thrown for 2,623 yards, 20 TDs and nine interceptions this year.

Five reasons the Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl could be an entertaining game, even though oddsmakers

Dallas survives

Associated Press

Dallas running back DeMarco Murray carries the ball into the end zone Sunday for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter under pressure from Washington cornerback DeAngelo Hall in Landover, Md. The Cowboys defeated the Redskins 24-23.

Romo throws late TD; Cowboys beat Redskins 24-23

Associated Press

LANDOVER, Md. — Tony Romo threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to DeMarco Murray on fourth down with 1:08 remaining Sunday, giving the Dallas Cowboys a 24-23 win over the Washington Redskins and setting up a winner-take-all regular season finale against the Philadelphia Eagles next week for the NFC East title.

After a one-point, meltdown loss to the Green Bay Packers the previous week, the Cowboys nearly pulled a repeat — blowing a second-half lead after committing turnovers on back-to-back drives.

But Romo recovered and rallied the Cowboys from a nine-point, fourth-quarter deficit. He hit Murray after a long scramble as Dallas snapped a two-game skid — as well as a four-game losing streak in the month of December.

The Cowboys (8-7) host the Eagles next week for the division crown. The Redskins (3-12) have lost seven straight.

Bengals 42, Vikings 14

CINCINNATI — Linebacker Vincent Rey returned an interception 25 yards for a touchdown as Cincinnati's defense set up another fast start, and Andy Dalton threw four touchdown passes as the Bengals pulled away to a 42-14 victory over the Minnesota Vikings.

The Bengals (10-5) remained perfect at home and clinched an unprecedented third straight playoff appearance with Miami's loss to Buffalo.

Something about Paul Brown Stadium brings out the best in Dalton. In his past four home games, Dalton has thrown for five, three, three and four touchdowns. The Bengals have topped 40 points in each of their past four home games, a club record.

The Vikings (4-10-1) had knocked off playoff contenders Chicago and Philadelphia in the past three weeks. Even with Adrian Peterson back from a foot injury, they couldn't keep up.

Titans 20, Jaguars 16

JACKSONVILLE — Nate Washington scored on a 30-yard reception in the fourth quarter, Tennessee got a much-needed defensive stop late and the Titans ended a three-game losing streak with a 20-16 victory over the Jacksonville Jaguars.

The Titans (6-9) overcame a 10-point deficit and won for just the third time since September.

Washington made several key plays, none bigger than when he slipped behind Alan Ball for the go-ahead score. He finished with six catches for 117 yards.

The Jaguars (4-11) were in position to take the lead after that, but Ropati Pitoitua stuffed Maurice Jones-Drew on a fourth-and-1 play at the Tennessee 20 with 5:21 remaining.

It was the seventh fourth-down attempt in a fairly entertaining game, one of three on this weekend's NFL schedule with no playoff implications. The highlight of the game came when Jacksonville got retiring center Brad Meester his first career reception.

Colts 23, Chiefs 7

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Andrew Luck threw for 241 yards and a touchdown, Donald Brown ran 51 yards for another score and the Indianapolis Colts beat the Kansas City Chiefs 23-7 in a potential preview of an AFC wild-card playoff game.

The Colts (10-5) took advantage of four turnovers by the Chiefs (11-4) to win for the fifth time in their last six tries against Kansas City. If Indianapolis ends up as the No. 4 seed and the Chiefs the No. 5 for the playoffs, they'll meet again at Lucas Oil Stadium in two weeks.

Alex Smith threw for 153 yards for Kansas City, but he also lost a fumble and was picked off twice. He had thrown just six interceptions in the first 14 games.

Jamaal Charles ran for 106 yards and the game's opening touchdown, but Kansas City failed to keep him involved as the Colts scored the final 23 points.

Cardinals 17, Seahawks 10

SEATTLE — Carson Palmer overcame four interceptions to throw a 31-yard touchdown to Michael Floyd with 2:13 left, and the Arizona Cardinals kept their playoff hopes alive with a 17-10 win over Seattle, snapping the Seahawks 14-game home win streak.

Arizona (10-5) had to win after Carolina beat New Orleans. And the Cardinals did thanks to a stingy defense that flustered Russell Wilson into one of his worst days as a pro, delaying any celebration of an NFC West championship. The Seahawks can still clinch the NFC West with a win over St. Louis next Sunday.

Palmer twice was intercepted in the end zone, including Richard Sherman's second pick of the game early in the fourth quarter. After Seattle (12-3) took a 10-9 lead with 7:26 left, Palmer led the Cardinals 75 yards and found Floyd for a juggling TD catch with 2:13 left.

Chargers 26, Raiders 13

SAN DIEGO — Philip Rivers threw a go-ahead, 4-yard touchdown pass to rookie Keenan Allen in the third quarter and the San Diego Chargers remained alive in the playoff race by overcoming three turnovers to beat Oakland 26-13.

The Chargers also got help from Buffalo, which beat Miami 19-0, and from New England, which beat Baltimore 41-7.

The Chargers (8-7), who have won three straight games for the first time this season, need more help to end a three-year playoff drought. They have to beat Kansas City at home next Sunday and have Miami and Baltimore both lose.

Oakland (4-11) helped San Diego, too, by committing 12 penalties for 73 yards. Mike Jenkins was penalized 15 yards for taunting Ryan Mathews after he pushed the running back out of bounds. Allen scored six plays later.

Eagles 54, Bears 11

PHILADELPHIA — Nick Foles threw two touchdown passes, LeSean McCoy ran for two scores and the Philadelphia Eagles routed the Chicago Bears 54-11 in a matchup of first-place teams with opposite stakes.

Chicago's loss sets up two winner-take-all games for NFC division crowns next week.

Now, the Bears must tie or beat the Packers (7-7-1) at home next week to win the North.

The Eagles (9-6) have to tie or beat the Cowboys (8-7) in Dallas next Sunday night to win the NFC East.

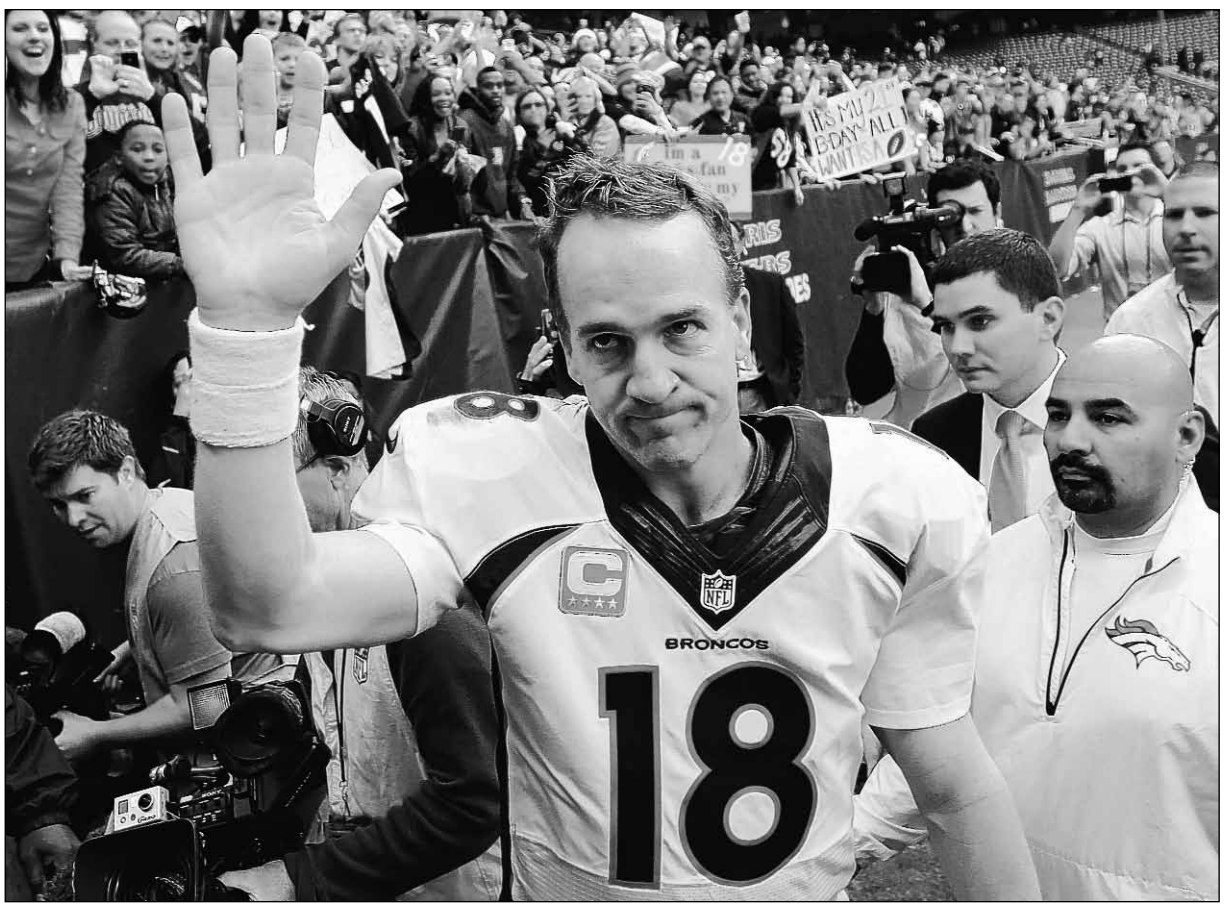
Manning tops Brady's mark



Associated Press

Denver quarterback Peyton Manning waves to fans Sunday following a 37-13 victory over the Houston Texans in Houston. Manning threw his 51st touchdown pass of the season to set a new NFL record.

Reaches 51 TD passes in 37-13 rout of Texans

Associated Press

HOUSTON — Peyton Manning has regained his NFL record for touchdown passes with 51 and the Denver Broncos have clinched the AFC West.

Manning threw for 400 yards and four touchdowns, including three in the fourth quarter, to surpass the 50 TD passes Tom Brady threw in 2007. Manning led the Broncos (12-3) to a 37-13 win over the Texans (2-13) on Sunday that extended Houston's franchise-record skid to 13 games.

Manning did it on a 25-yard pass to Julius Thomas with 4:28 remaining. Just 2 1/2 minutes earlier, he tied the mark with a 20-yard pass to Eric Decker.

He entered the game with 47 and his first touchdown came on a 36-yard pass to Demaryius Thomas in the second quarter, and the second one was a 10-yard throw to Decker earlier in the fourth period.

Patriots 41, Ravens 7

BALTIMORE — Logan Ryan had two interceptions, LeGarrette Blount scored twice and the playoff-bound New England Patriots breezed past Baltimore 41-7, ending the Ravens' four-game winning streak and diminishing the postseason hopes of the defending Super Bowl champions.

This rematch of the AFC championship game was a mismatch from the outset. New England took a 17-0 lead early in the second quarter and never let up behind a defense that forced four turnovers and had four sacks.

The Patriots (11-4) were assured their fifth straight AFC East title before the game started when Miami lost at Buffalo. It's the 11th division crown for New England coach Bill Belichick, tied with Don Shula for most since the 1970 merger.

The loss eliminated the Ravens (8-7) from contention in the AFC North and dropped them into a tie with Miami and San Diego for the final AFC wild-card slot. Baltimore closes the regular season at Cincinnati, which displaced the Ravens as division champs.

Steelers 38, Packers 31

GREEN BAY, Wis. — Le'Veon Bell scored a 1-yard touchdown with 1:28 left and the Pittsburgh Steelers withstood Green Bay's last throw into the end zone, dealing the Packers' playoff hopes a blow with a wild, 38-31 win.

Bell scored five plays after scrambling Packers quarterback Matt Flynn fumbled while being tackled by safety Troy Polamalu. The Steelers recovered at the Green Bay 17.

Micah Hyde returned the ensuing kickoff 70 yards and the Packers (7-7-1) moved through the snow to the Pittsburgh 1. After a penalty, Flynn's pass was incomplete on the final play.

The Steelers (7-8) can still make the playoffs. They won after overcoming a rarely seen illegal batting penalty that negated a blocked field goal.

Newton's late TD pass lifts Panthers

Carolina clinches first playoff berth since 2008 season; Lions eliminated

Associated Press

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Cam Newton threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Domenik Hixon with 23 seconds left to lift the Carolina Panthers to a 17-13 win over the New Orleans Saints and clinch the team's first playoff berth since 2008.

Carolina (11-4) can wrap up the NFC South and a first-round bye in the playoffs with a win next Sunday at Atlanta.

The Panthers intercepted Drew Brees twice and sacked him six times to avenge a 31-13 loss two weeks ago.

Still, the Panthers needed some last-minute big plays from Newton to seal the win. After being held to 116 yards passing for the game's first 59 minutes, Newton led the Panthers 65 yards in 32 seconds for the go-ahead score.

The Saints (10-5) can still clinch a playoff berth Sunday with a win at home against Tampa Bay.

New Orleans' road woes persist. The Saints have dropped five of their last six games away from the Superdome.

Jets 24, Browns 13

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Geno Smith threw two touchdown passes to David Nelson and ran for another score as the New York Jets topped the Cleveland Browns 24-13 in their home finale.

With Rex Ryan's job status uncertain, it could have been the coach's last game in front of the home fans, and Smith helped make it a good one with a solid performance. The rookie quarterback had his first game with at least two TD passes since October and committed no turnovers.

Smith finished 20 of 36 for 214 yards and ran for 48 more. Chris Ivory had 109 yards on 20 carries for the Jets (7-8), who were eliminated from playoff contention last week.

Jason Campbell was intercepted twice as the Browns (4-11) lost their sixth straight. The offense was sluggish with star tight end Jordan Cameron sidelined with a concussion.

Carolina's Cam Newton hurdles New Orleans' David Hawthorne in the second half Sunday in Charlotte, N.C. The Panthers won 17-13.

Giants 23, Lions 20, OT

DETROIT — Josh Brown's 45-yard field goal on the third drive of overtime lifted the New York Giants to a 23-20 win over Detroit and eliminated the Lions from postseason contention.

Detroit (7-8) lost for the fifth time in six games.

Embattled Lions coach Jim Schwartz chose to play for overtime by running out the clock with 23 seconds and two timeouts left from the Detroit 25. When the crowd reacted with a chorus of boos, Schwartz turned his head toward the stands and appeared to angrily shout back at the fans.

The Giants (6-9) overcame Eli Manning's interception late in regulation and Andre Brown's fumble on the opening possession in overtime to win for just the second time in five games.

Stewart helps No. 1 UConn rout Cal 80-47

Associated Press

NEW YORK — Breanna Stewart matched her career high with 29 points to lift No. 1 Connecticut to an 80-47 rout of No. 21 California on Sunday in the Maggie Dixon Classic at Madison Square Garden.

Stewart had 10 rebounds for the Huskies (12-0), who were coming off a rout of No. 2 Duke on Tuesday night.

UConn led by 20 at halftime and Cal (7-3) could get no closer in the second half thanks to Stewart and a stingy Huskies defense.

Cal was coming off the most successful season in school history with a trip to the Final Four last April.

No. 2 Duke 69, No. 5 Kentucky 61

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Tricia Liston scored a season-high 28 points to help No. 2 Duke beat No. 5 Kentucky 69-61 victory before 23,706 fans at Rupp Arena.

Five days after defending champion and No. 1 Connecticut soundly dealt the Blue Devils (12-1) their first loss, they used their size and length to hand the Wildcats (11-1) their first defeat before the largest crowd to see a women's game in Kentucky.

Duke's 6-3 center, Elizabeth Williams, was 6 of 10 to chip in 17 points and had eight rebounds.

No. 4 Notre Dame 106, Central Michigan 72

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — Jewell Loyd had a career-high 30 points and 11 rebounds for No. 4 Notre Dame, which never trailed in a 106-72 blowout of Central Michigan.

Kayla McBride added 18 points for the Irish, and reserve Michaela Mabrey tied a career high with four 3-pointers to finish with 17.

The Irish (10-0) recorded their 800th win in school history, the 27th program to do so.

Crystal Bradford led Central Michigan with 30 points and 13 rebounds as the Chippewas (4-6) lost to their third top-10 opponent this season.

No. 10 South Carolina 70, South Carolina St. 26

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Freshman Alaina Coates scored a career-high 23 points on perfect shooting to lead No. 10 South Carolina to its 21st straight win over South Carolina State, 70-26.

The 6-foot-4 Coates made all seven of her field goal attempts and was 9 of 9 at the free throw line for the Gamecocks (11-1), who had any easy time putting away the overmatched Lady Bulldogs (1-8) of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference.

No. 17 Penn St. 85, Alcorn St. 62

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. — Dara Taylor scored 20 points and collected seven steals to lead No. 17 Penn State to an 85-62 win over Alcorn State.

The Lady Lions (8-3) flexed their muscle early, building a 24-8 lead midway through the first half and extending it to a 21-point advantage by intermission.

Alcorn State (1-9) could not overcome the early deficit, despite a 28-point effort by Tierro Frost.

No. 18 Purdue 57, Bowling Green 48

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. — KK Hauser pulled down a defensive rebound and followed it up with two clutch free throws with 21 seconds left in the game to allow No. 18 Purdue to escape with a 57-48 win over Bowling Green.

April Wilson scored 18 points to lead Purdue (9-2). Hauser finished with 13 points and nine rebounds.

tough for our offense to be effective that way."

Rainey opened the scoring with a 1-yard run in the first quarter and Stacy scored on a 1-yard run early in the second quarter.

There were thousands of empty seats for an unattractive matchup with attendance announced at 54,423 — about 12,000 shy of capacity.

James Laurinaitis added two sacks and Zuerlein kicked three field goals, including a season-best 54-yarder in the third quarter after Tampa Bay had cut the deficit to a point.

The Buccaneers are 1-6 on the road, the lone win at Detroit that gave them a three-game winning streak overall after an 0-8 start to the season. Tampa Bay finishes at New Orleans next week.

"Plain and simple, we're just not getting it done," guard Davin Joseph said. "We're going to have to find the answer to that really soon."

Tampa Bay stayed in it by forcing fumbles on consecutive Rams offensive snaps in the second quarter.

Quarterback Kellen Clemens fumbled on a scramble at the Tampa Bay 4 to burn a scoring opportunity, with Gerald McCoy knocking it loose and Keith Tandy recovering. On the Rams' next snap, Dekoda Watson stripped Stacy and Lavonte David recovered at the Bucs 47.

Tampa Bay had first and goal at the Rams 9 near the end of the half before sacks by Laurinaitis and Quinn on consecutive plays pushed the Buccaneers back 16 yards. Rian Lindell's 35-yard field goal brought Tampa Bay within 14-10 at halftime, and he connected from 32 yards on the Bucs' first drive of the second half to make it a 1-point game.

"We just need to be better as an offense from start to finish and not just have a drive here and there," Glennon said. "We have to be hitting on all cylinders more often."

DOLPHINS

Dec. 17, 2006.

The seven sacks upped Buffalo's total to 56 this season, breaking its previous high of 50 during a 14-game season in 1964.

"It's a nice consolation for where we are," Kyle Williams said. "I think you've seen today potentially what we can do."

The defense took the burden off a depleted offense led by backup Thad Lewis starting in place of rookie EJ Manuel, out because of a swollen left knee.

And the Bills' offense finished without its top three receivers. Rookie Marquise Goodwin had a right knee injury late in the first quarter. Fellow rookie Robert Woods was ejected for punching safety Reshad Jones in the facemask in the third quarter. Veteran starter Stevie Johnson was excused to be with his family following the death of his mother.

Dan Carpenter essentially sealed the win by hitting a 45-yard field goal to cap the Bills' second possession. Carpenter finished hitting all four attempts against his former team, and Fred Jackson had 111 yards of offense, including a 9-yard touchdown.

"I'm very proud of this team," rookie head coach Doug Marrone said. "It was an honor to be on that sideline and watch those guys perform."

Lewis, who grew up in Miami, finished 15 of 25 for 193 yards and an interception. He improved to 2-2 this season, with both wins coming against the Dolphins.

Miami crossed midfield only three times, converted just two of 14 third-down chances, and managed just six first downs, including two in the second half.

Tannehill finished 10 of 27 for 82 yards and was briefly knocked out of the game with a left knee injury after Williams' second sack early in the fourth quarter. Matt Moore took over and provided Miami a short-lived spark by completing a 50-yard pass to Brian Hartline. He followed by throwing an interception to Jim Leonhard.

Though Tannehill said his knee's fine, he wasn't pleased with the offense's outing.

"It wasn't one thing, it wasn't one area," Tannehill said. "Every aspect of the game, we failed to step up to the plate."

favor East Carolina by two touchdowns:

HOLDING THEIR OWN: Ohio owns a pair of victories over Conference USA teams, beating North Texas and eventual C-USA East Division winner Marshall at home in September. East Carolina lost its regular season finale 59-28 at Marshall, the only common opponent the Pirates shared with the Bobcats.

SACK CITY: One of the key to the game figures to be getting defensive pressure on the quarterback. East Carolina led Conference USA in rushing defense has 35 sacks. Ohio has 34 sacks, four shy of the school record.

PLAYMAKERS: Like Carden, Tettleton is surrounded by some impressive playmakers. Wide receiver Donte' Foster has 63 receptions for 858 yards and six touchdowns, while running back Beau Blankenship has rushed for 844 yards and five TDs while closing in on the 3,000-yard career rushing mark.

SUCCESSFUL COACHES: East Carolina's Ruffin McNeill has his alma mater in a bowl game for the third time in his four seasons. Solich took over at Ohio in 2005, and the Bobcats have made six of their eight overall bowl appearances under him. They've won the past two.

FLORIDA FUN: East Carolina is playing in a bowl in Florida for the first time since 1965, when the Pirates beat Maine in the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando. On Ohio's last trip to the Sunshine State for a bowl game, the unbeaten Bobcats lost to Richmond in the 1968 Tangerine Bowl.

Thomas Fuller, a prolific English writer who died in 1661, said, "Learning makes a man fit company for himself."

Bridge learning makes a man or woman fit company for partner.

Bridge bidding also revolves around fit — fit is fantastic; misfit is miserable. For example, look only at the North hand. West opens one spade, North passes, East raises to two spades, South makes a takeout double, and West jumps to four spades. What should North do?

The North hand is good news and bad news. It has 10 high-card points when it might have had none. And all of those points are in the suits where partner has promised length. But the balanced nature of the hand and doubleton spade suggest that there might be three or four losers (although West's jump to game with relatively few points suggests a lot of trumps).

However, bidding has two potential pluses: Five of a minor might make; and even if it would not, perhaps the opponents will misjudge and bid five spades, which surely will be too high.

So North ought to bid — but what?

He should advance with four no-trump, showing at least two places to play and asking partner to select the trump suit. (It cannot be Blackwood; how could North be thinking about a slam?)

Here, South would bid five clubs. If left there, South will probably ruff the spade-king lead, draw trumps ending in his hand, play a diamond to dummy's queen, and return a diamond to his 10. If so, he will make the contract.

And if West bids five spades, North can double and collect 500 for down two.

ANNIE'S MAILBOX

Dear Annie: For the past several years, my husband has taken out a new credit card each January and maxed it out over the next 12 months. This has resulted in major debt, which I fear will devastate our family and possibly affect our children and grandchildren.

My husband is a good and caring person who often picks up the restaurant tabs for our friends and family and buys them gifts they could buy for themselves. As a result, he is extremely popular. If I try to limit these unnecessary expenses, everyone thinks I'm a spoilsport.

We are approaching the time where he will apply for another new credit card. Should I prohibit this until we reach some agreement on budget cuts? Should I let him go ahead and get the new card and then try to negotiate budget cuts? Or do I keep on trucking as usual and hope for the best? — Concerned Spouse

Dear Spouse: If you are going into debt, please don't shove this under the carpet until you are living on the street.

Your husband seems to be a compulsive buyer, and it can be similar to other addictions that require effort to overcome. Is he willing to recognize and address the problem? (Therapy can help.)

Would he be willing to let you handle the family finances while he is put on a cash allowance? You also can contact Debtors Anonymous (debtorsanonymous.org) and the International OCD Foundation (ocfoundation.org) for information and referrals.

Dear Annie: Fifteen years ago, our daughter married a truly nice guy, and they made it clear right away that they didn't want "drop-in" visitors. I understood this, as they both work full time.

Three years ago, they bought a large home close to us, but in all the years they've been married, we can count on one hand the number of times we've been invited over for anything, including the kids' birthdays, cookouts, etc. Yet I know my daughter's in-laws are often invited.

Our grandchildren ask why we never come to their house, and I simply say it's because we're never invited. What should I say? — Confused in Indiana

Dear Indiana: Please stop manipulating the children to get to the parents, which is exactly what you are doing when you tell them you're "never invited."

Instead, talk to your daughter. Ask whether there is a problem and what you can do about it. She may have reasons for keeping you at a distance, so please make her understand that you cannot fix things if you don't know what the issues are.

If she still doesn't invite you to her place, ask whether the children can visit at your house. As long as you can see your family, it really doesn't matter where.

Dear Annie: "Too Late To Try Again" said she was cut off by a relative with no explanation. This happened in my family. Tell her it might help if she can laugh about the situation.

I am from an Italian family and married into another Italian family. My new mother-in-law was angry with her cousin "Angela." They had been close for a long time, but then they didn't speak for years.

When Angela died, my mother-in-law cried buckets but refused to go to the funeral.

She said, "We didn't talk when she was alive, and I'm not going to talk to her now that she's dead."

So I asked my mother-in-law what the argument was about, because it was obviously so terrible that good friends stopped speaking.

She replied, with tears in her eyes, "I don't remember!" But true to her word, she did not go to the funeral. — New York

Brown leads Miami past La Salle

No. 17 ISU stays undefeated

Associated Press

CORAL GABLES — Rion Brown scored 17 points to lead Miami to a 71-58 victory over La Salle on Sunday.

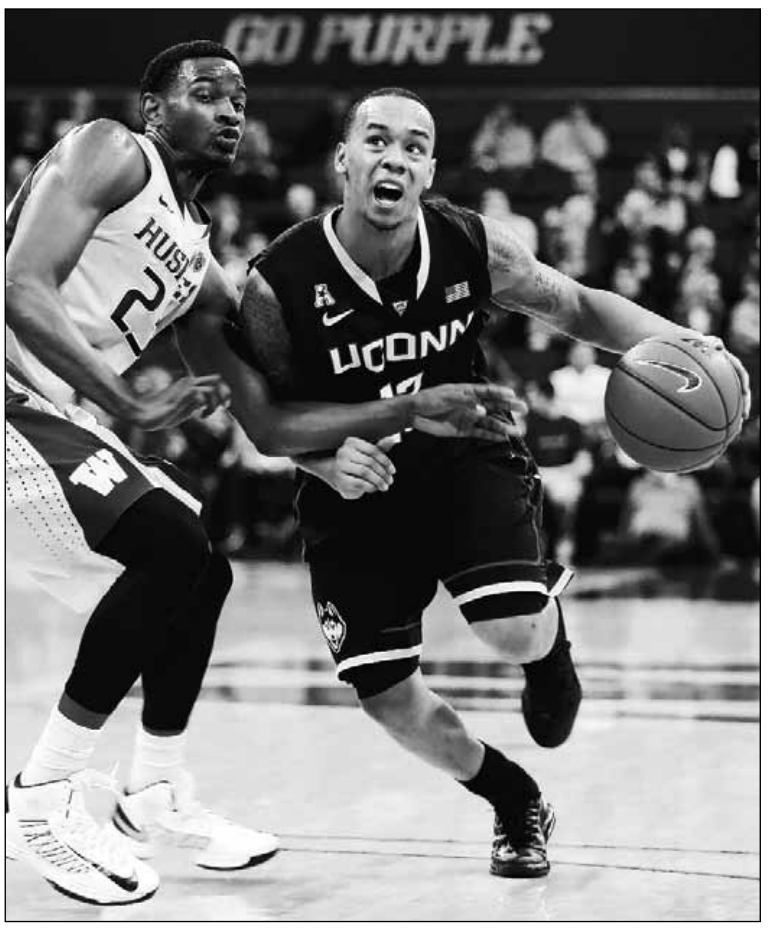
Garrius Adams finished with 13 points, while Brown and Donnavan Kirk had nine rebounds each for the Hurricanes (7-5).

The Explorers built an early 12-7 lead keyed by Tyreek Duren's two 3-pointers. But after its early advantage, LaSalle shot 4-of-18 from the field the remainder of the first half and trailed Miami 34-24 at the break.

Duren's 3-pointer with 2:11 got the Explorers to within 61-54 in the second, but Brown's 1-of-2 free throws with 2:02 left and Manu Lecomte's layup with 1:39 gave Miami another double-digit advantage at 64-54.

Dureen scored 18 points for the Explorers (6-6). Sam Mills finished with 15 points and Steve Zack had his seventh double-double of the season with 11 points and 11 rebounds.

Duren moved into 22nd on La Salle's all-time scoring list with 1,414 points.



Associated Press

No. 10 Connecticut 82, Washington 70

SEATTLE — Shabazz Napier scored 15 of his 20 points in the second half and grabbed six rebounds to lead No. 10 Connecticut to an 82-70 victory over Washington.

Fellow guard Ryan Boatwright had 16 points and five rebounds and Lasan Kromah scored 14 points for Connecticut (10-1), which fell into a double-digit hole early in its first true road game of the season but controlled the game in the second half.

C.J. Wilcox led Washington (6-5) with 19 points on 6-of-15 shooting and had four assists and four fouls. Darin Johnson had 13 points for Washington and Mike Anderson, who is from Hartford, Conn., added 10 points.

No. 11 Wichita State 77, NC Central 66

WICHITA, Kan. — Darius Carter scored 19 points to help No. 11 Wichita State survive Jeremy Ingram's 37-point night in a 77-66 win over North Carolina Central.

Cleanthony Early had 16 points and 10 rebounds as the Shockers (12-0) extended the best start in school history. Ron Baker scored 15 for Wichita State and Fred VanVleet added 14.

North Carolina Central (7-3) was outrebounded 37-22, including a 15-3 disparity on the offensive glass. Ingram was 12 of 21 from the floor and 7 of 13 from the 3-point line. He scored 27 points in the second half.

No. 12 Baylor 81, Southern 56

WACO, Texas — Isaiah Austin had 14 points and 10 rebounds as No. 12 Baylor won its 10th straight home game, beating Southern University 81-56.

Austin had his first double-double of the season while leading five players in double-figure scoring for the Bears (10-1).

Brady Heslip had 13 points for Baylor, while Cory Jefferson and Rico Gathers both had 12. Kenny Chery had 10 points.

Tre Lynch had 27 points, including five 3-pointers, to lead Southern (3-9).

The Jaguars, who made it to the NCAA tournament last season as the SWAC tournament champions, are 0-4 against Top 25 teams this season. They were coming off a 69-43 loss at top-ranked Arizona on Thursday night.

Jefferson had 11 points by halftime, when Baylor led 36-26.

No. 17 Iowa St. 79, George Mason 67

HONOLULU — Georges Niang scored 22 points and No. 17 Iowa State beat George Mason 79-67 in the first round of the Diamond Head Classic.

The Cyclones (9-0) had their second-lowest scoring game of the season but still managed to extend their winning streak. Iowa State was one of 10 undefeated teams in Division I at the start of Sunday.

Three minutes into the second half, Niang stole the ball from Marko Gujanicic and his layup gave Iowa State its first 10-point lead at 40-30. After that, George Mason (5-5) pulled no closer than five points with 6:18 left.

Iowa State made just three of 14 3-point attempts in the first half (21 percent) but the Cyclones used a 10-2 run to avoid their worst half in any game this season.

No. 25 Iowa 85, Ark.-Pine Bluff 61

IOWA CITY, Iowa — Josh Oglesby scored 13 points in his season debut and No. 25 Iowa rolled to an 85-61 victory over Arkansas-Pine Bluff.

The Hawkeyes (11-2) opened their final non-conference game with a 39-5 run. Jarrod Uthoff scored 16 points and Adam Woodbury added 10.

Oglesby missed Iowa's first 12 games with a broken foot. He made his first four 3-pointers during a 6-minute stretch in the first half.

Tevin Hammond scored 19 points for Pine Bluff (2-9), which lost its ninth straight.

The Hawkeyes shot 75 percent from the field in taking a 52-15 halftime lead. Iowa committed a season-worst 27 turnovers.

The Golden Eagles shot 33 percent from the field overall.

Iowa opens Big Ten play on Dec. 31 against Nebraska.

UCF 90, Valparaiso 62

ORLANDO — Tristan Spurlock scored 22 points and Brandon Goodwin added 12 as the University of Central Florida routed Valparaiso 90-62 in the finals of the Jackson Hewitt Holiday Classic.

Eugene McCrory contributed 11 and Kasey Wilson and Isaiah Sykes had 10 points apiece for UCF (8-3), which won its fifth straight game and avenged an 85-70 loss to Valparaiso earlier this season.

The Crusaders (8-6) got 14 points from LaVonte Dority and 11 from Jubril Adekoya, but couldn't make it a game after shooting just 20 percent (4 of 20) in the first half and falling behind by 23 points.

The last two seconds before intermission were representative of the way things went for most of the game. UCF backup guard Brandon Goodwin nailed a 3-pointer, but Spurlock stole the inbounds pass and was fouled. He made both free throws and the Knights went to halftime with a 43-20 advantage.

Mississippi State 71, South Florida 66

LAS VEGAS — Fred Thomas scored 14 points and Gavin Ware had 10 points and 15 rebounds to lead Mississippi State past South Florida 71-66 in the third round of the Las Vegas Classic.

Also for the Bulldogs (9-2), which hit three free throws in the final 24 seconds to seal it, Colin Borchert had 11 points. Roquez Johnson and Craig Sword each had 10 for Mississippi State.

Victor Rudd led South Florida (8-3) with 17 points and 11 rebounds. Corey Allen Jr. had 16 points, converting all eight free throws, while Chris Perry had 14 points and nine rebounds.

NBA BRIEFS

Pacers 106, Celtics 79

INDIANAPOLIS — Paul George scored 24 points and Lance Stephenson recorded his third triple-double of the season, leading the Indiana Pacers to a 106-79 victory over the Boston Celtics on Sunday.

Stephenson had 12 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists as Indiana (22-5) won its second straight and maintained its grip on the Eastern Conference's best record.

Avery Bradley scored 13 points for Boston.

Raptors 104, Thunder 98

OKLAHOMA CITY — Kyle Lowry scored 22 points, making a pair of clinching free throws with 9.8 seconds left, and the Toronto Raptors handed the Oklahoma City Thunder their first home loss with a 104-98 victory.

Oklahoma City had been 13-0 at home, the NBA's longest unbeaten stretch to open a season since the Cleveland Cavaliers won their first 23 home games during the 2007-08 season.

Russell Westbrook scored 27 points and Kevin Durant added 24 for Oklahoma City.

NHL BRIEFS

Rangers 4, Wild 1

NEW YORK — Carl Hagelin and Mats Zuccarello scored second-period goals, and backup Cam Talbot made 24 saves in the New York Rangers' 4-1 victory over the Minnesota Wild on Sunday night.

Benoit Pouliot tied it in the first period, Chris Kreider added a goal in the third, and Derick Brassard had two assists. Kreider made it 4-1 with 7:14 remaining.

Canucks 2, Jets 1

VANCOUVER, British Columbia — Defenseman Chris Tanev broke a tie in the third period and Vancouver beat the Winnipeg Jets 2-1 after Canucks goalie Roberto Luongo left early because of an injury.

Tanev scored at 10:23 of the third period. He took a pass in the high slot from Zack Kassian and ripped a shot past goalie Ondrej Pavelec.

Attention Consumers!

Please make sure you are using a licensed and insured service professional. Many service advertisers are required by state law to include their state license number in all advertisements. If you don't see a license number in the ad, you should inquire about it and be suspicious that you may be contacting an unlicensed business. The Citrus County Chronicle wants to ensure that our ads meet the requirements of the law. Beware of any service advertiser that can not provide proof that they are licensed to do business. For questions about business licensing, please call your city or county government offices.
