Seriously injured Runner darts into path of oncoming SUV

A Shady Grove man was seriously injured Saturday morning, Nov. 9, when he darted into the path of an oncoming vehicle.

John Travis Aman, 25, was running east on County Road 14 in the westbound lane with headphones on his ears, affecting his hearing, Florida Highway Patrol (FHP) Trooper W. Brian Lundy reported.

Aman evidently did not hear the approach of a 2004 Dodge Durango (driven by Jaclyn Faith Noles, 21, and darted into the eastbound lane, in front of the vehicle.

"Noles was unable to avoid contact with the pedestrian and struck Aman with the left front of the SUV," Lundy said.

Aman was transported to Tallahassee Memorial Hospital for treatment; Noles and her 14-year-old passenger (Hanna Michelle Noles) were injured in the crash.

Units from the Taylor County Sheriff's Office, Doctors' Memorial Hospital Emergency Medical Services (EMS) and Taylor County Fire/Rescue assisted at the scene.

The accident occurred at 11:23 a.m. just short of U.S. Highway 19 and C.R. 14.

City locks in lower natural gas rate for Dec. to March

With temperatures expected to dip into the low 30s tonight (Wednesday), natural gas customers are just as likely to keep one on the thermostat and one eye on their upcoming utility bill.

However, the city announced that it recently inked an agreement with Florida Gas Utility (FGU) where it will be able to purchase a "significant" portion of the community's natural gas needs from December to March at a rate that is five cents per unit below the going market rate.

"The cost of natural gas is passed through to the customers, so this will be a savings to every gas customer the city has during this period," City Manager Bob Brown said.

"So those savings—coming during what is typically the coldest months here in Florida—will be passed directly to our natural gas customers."

The exact cost of savings will vary depending on customer usage.

Dist. appeals court reinstates net ban

Florida's net ban is, once again, being enforced after Florida's First District Court of Appeal agreed last week to reinstate an automatic stay on Leon County Circuit Judge Jackie Fulford's ruling invalidating the rule.

The Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission (FWC) is appealing Fulford's decision, and the stay will keep the net ban and FWC's associated rules in place while the case continues through the court system.

The stay of Fulford's Oct. 22 ruling went into effect immediately after FWC announced its intention to appeal her decision, but at a subsequent hearing on Wednesday.

County pursues funding for additional sidewalks

The Taylor County Commission is applying for a $328,000 grant from the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) to construct a sidewalk along Old Dixie Highway from Jefferson Street to Southside Park at Plantation Road.

1,000 to be served; volunteers needed

Dear Editor:
We are excited to announce that we are well on our way to serving 1,000 people during this year's Thanksgiving Outreach.

We are grateful for the support that we have received from our community the past three years. Through the combined efforts of dedicated servants from all over our county, the hungry and homeless in our area have received a traditional Thanksgiving plate the day before Thanksgiving each year.

This year we are preparing to serve up to 1,000 people throughout our community. We will have two locations this year, at the Grand Pavilion at Rosehead Park and at Loughridge Park. We will also be delivering meals into the community.

Several churches and businesses have joined us in this effort, but we still need more volunteers and donations.

First, we will need volunteers to help cook, serve and deliver. We will start packaging at 8:30 to help can contact me by calling 672-1372 or emailing me at browninQ1965@yahoo.com. You can also contact me by text or on Facebook. Whatever means is most convenient for you is fine.

We also need contributions of dressing, rolls and desserts, along with containers for deliveries such as coolers or totes.

Anyone who has a desire

We are looking forward to seeing many receive the love and concern of Jesus expressed through a Thanksgiving plate and the warm smiles of those serving. Thank you all in advance for your help.

National Hospice and Palliative Care Month

Covenant Hospice

Dear Editor:
November is National Hospice and Palliative Care Month and hospices across the country are reaching out to raise awareness about important care issues for people coping with life-limiting illness.

Covenant Hospice will use this annual healthcare observance to help people learn more about hospice and palliative care. Throughout the month of November, organizations across the nation are hosting activities that focus on celebrating this unique system of support and the benefits provided by the loving care of hospice. Covenant Hospice is committed to bringing important information throughout North Florida and South Alabama.

"Every year, more than 1.65 million people living with a life-limiting illness receive care from hospice and palliative care providers in this country," said Dale O. Kneel, president and CEO of Covenant Hospice. "These highly-trained professionals don't only provide quality medical care. They work to make sure patients and families find dignity, respect and love during life's most difficult journey."

Hospice is more than traditional healthcare. Hospice and palliative care programs provide pain management, symptom control, psychosocial support and spiritual care to patients and their families when a cure is not possible. Hospice and palliative care combines the highest level of quality medical care with the emotional and spiritual support that families need most when facing the end of life.

Celebrating its 30th anniversary, Covenant Hospice is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to providing comprehensive, compassionate services to patients and loved ones during times of life-limiting illnesses. For more information or to make a hospice inquiry, contact the local branch office at 575-4998 or visit www.covenanthospice.org.

Big Bend Hospice

Dear Editor:
No one likes to think about death and dying, but it's something everyone has to face eventually.

November is National Hospice Palliative Care Month, a time to reach out to our community to raise awareness about the compassionate care that hospice and palliative care provide to patients and their families.

One of the most important messages to help people understand is that hospice care and palliative care helps patients and families focus on living.

The Big Bend Hospice team of Taylor County provides expert medical care to keep patients comfortable and able to enjoy time with loved ones. The hospice team answers questions, offers advice on what to expect, and helps families with the duties of being a caregiver. The team also provides emotional and spiritual support for the entire family.

Hospice Medicare and Medicaid cover 100 percent of the cost of the approved treatments and services related to the terminal illness. Hospice is covered by most insurance plans and HMOs. Thanks to community support, no one is ever refused Big Bend Hospice services because of inability to pay. Hospice care is provided in the home, nursing homes, assisted living facilities and long term care centers.

Hospice care is available to people of all ages, with any illness. Hospice professionals and trained volunteers will ask you what's important and listen to what you say. They make your wishes a priority.

If you or a loved one is facing a serious or life-limiting illness, the time to find out more about hospice and palliative care is right now.

Midweek Muddle

Oxymorons

By SUSAN H. LINCOLN

I cannot speak intelligently about reality t.v. because I don't watch it.

But if I watched it, I would be unable to speak intelligently about it, too, because there's nothing intelligent to say about it.

Reality t.v., to me, is the new oxymoron.

Like an accurate rumor or an honest crook.

Find me a devout atheist or a clever fool. They are perfect for reality t.v.

Get it? An oxymoron is a figure of speech which produces an incongruent or seemingly self-contradictory effect.

So think about it: reality t.v. When did reality and t.v. ever truly coincide? Only to produce an oxymoron.

I love a good oxymoron and admit the emphasis may be on "moron." I'm not alone, however.

One of my friend's favorite oxymorons is jumbo shrimp. He laughs and wants to make sure everybody "gets it." I have others: large ant, calm storm, comfortable bra. Or there's my favorite, as seen in a recent wedding program: a cappella, with music.

On the other hand, I have a politically-inclined friend who embraces the concept of "postal service" as her favorite oxymoron. She thinks it's akin to congressional accountability or academic fraternity. I'll add Taliban intelligence.

I have always enjoyed overhearing conversations, so never sit close to me, if you can help it. The young girl sitting behind me at a popular barbecue restaurant said, "I'm just a little pregnant..."

Honey, there ain't no such thing. If you're pregnant, you're very pregnant.

You can't have a slight hernia or an easy labor, either. They're all oxymorons, waiting to get you, like "almost engaged" or "safe sex."

But there are more pitfalls. Watch out for cruel kindnesses, luxury buses and harmless lies.

Would you like some fresh cheese? Boneless ribs? A mild jalapeno? A whole half of sandwich? How about the larger half? Do you really want your steak medium-well? For dessert, how about a 12-ounce pound cake?

There is no such thing as an accurate estimate, but if there were, I'd estimate that we use oxymorons more often than we dangle our participles. In this small world (which isn't), wireless cable isn't really wireless either. Melted ice is just water. You can't have a single pair, and you can't even be clearly confused about it (because there's nothing clear about confusion). Only choice? That's not a choice. A paid volunteer? Really?

Think about it: modern history is as oxymoronic as reality t.v. New antiques are as impossible as new traditions. Straight hooks defy all logic, along with baby grands and sad clowns.

You can't have a loose knot, a long brief or baggy tights. There is no such thing as a calculated error or a zero deficit. Plastic glasses? Paper towels? How did we become so attached to our oxymorons?

You can't be a real phony, nor can you die suddenly and feel special. We all die suddenly even if the process leading to that millisecond separating life and death is difficult. Further, you can't be half-dead, any more than you can be a little pregnant. And nobody "woke up dead." It just doesn't happen.

Buzz Lightyear can comically charge "to infinity and beyond," but there is nothing beyond infinity. Flood control is a good idea, but it's also an oxymoron, along with virtual reality, humane slaughter and student teachers.

And I'm absolutely unaware (oxymoron, intended) of any others, but you've got to admit that these are awfully good.

Get it? Awfully good?

FWC told to enforce the ban

NET BAN

Oct. 30, she lifted the stay. FWC then issued a memo to its employees to stop enforcing the ban.

Shortly after the First District Court of Appeal's decision on Wednesday, Nov. 6, however, FWC issued a second memo to its personnel to once again enforce the ban.

In Judge Fulford's ruling, which she made after a year of "considering the issues," she called the current situation "a legal absurdity" and "it may well be that only further amendment to the constitution will correct the problem."

She continued, "It is abundantly unfair for the courts to continue to attempt enforcement of laws that contradict each other. It is understood that this decision, could, in the interim, cause some turmoil. Such a result is not the court's intent or desire. It would be much easier to simply deny the plaintiffs any relief and say 'you previously had your day in court.' But the application of these laws by FWC appears to be fundamentally unfair and this court, as a court of equity, feels compelled to at least attempt to abate the unfairness."

The net ban amendment prohibits the use of nets larger than 500 square feet, while FWC's subsequent regulations limited nets' mesh openings to two inches.

"Continued attempts to enforce these contradictory provisions that exist in our constitution and the rules adopted by FWC are grossly unfair to the parties to this case, to those being prosecuted for violating the provisions and to the citizens of the State of Florida," Fulford said in her order.

"These provisions simply cannot co-exist. We cannot have a provision in our constitution which outlaws the use of all nets in fishing, except use of a hand-thrown cast net; and at the same time have rules adopted by FWC that make exceptions to those constitutional provisions."

Sidewalks would connect Jefferson St., Old Dixie

the Oct. 22 hearing, the board unanimously voted to pursue the 1.53-mile Old Dixie Highway sidewalk project.

At their meeting Nov. 4, the board approved the application and passed a resolution supporting the project.

"If funded, this project will provide connection to an existing sidewalk on Jefferson Street and a safe route of transportation to South Side Park located at the corner of Old Dixie and Plantation Road," Cox said. "The FDOT Transportation Alternative Program applications are submitted five to six years in advance."

There is no local funding match required.

Earlier this year, the county was awarded funding in the 2019 cycle for the construction of a 0.79 mile sidewalk along Green Street from Arena Street to Howard Street for foot traffic arriving at and leaving Taylor County Elementary School.

Additionally, the county is set to receive funding for a trailhead at the Keaton Beach Coastal Park, as well as a multi-use trail/sidewalk from the park to Dark Island.

Elly Mae? Beverly Hillbillies star still loves a parade...

Chuck and Greta Edwards may have moved to Ellijay, Ga., but they still keep up with all events in Perry.

"I just finished reading the Nov. 6 issue of the Perry News-Herald and couldn't help but respond about the picture of Miss Destin Brown, dressed as Elly Mae Clampett. In Ellijay, 'apples' is the industry that is celebrated very much like the forest festival in Florida.

"It just so happens that this year's grand marshal for the Apple Festival parade was Donna Douglas, a.k.a. Elly Mae Clampett of Beverly Hillbillies fame.

"According to our local paper, Elly Mae is 81 years young. We think she could still probably catch a possum for possum pie if the need ever did arise," Greta said.

"We hope our friends in Florida will enjoy seeing her and I think we can see a resemblance of Miss Brown in the real Elly Mae."

Donna Douglas, a.k.a. Elly Mae, was grand marshal for the Apple Festival parade in Ellijay, Ga.

POW/MIA table erected at library for Veterans Day

As part of its observance of Veterans Day, the Taylor County Public Library has erected a POW/MIA "white table" in recognition of those missing in action and/or prisoners of war.

The table will remain in place through this week, officials said. Each item on or around the table has special significance.

The table's features include:

- The table, set for one, is small, symbolizing the frailty of one prisoner, alone. It is set for one, symbolizing the fact that some are missing from our ranks.

- The tablecloth is white, symbolic of the purity of their intentions to respond to their country's call to arms.

- The black napkin represents the sorrow of captivity.

- The single red rose in the vase, signifies the blood that many have shed to ensure the freedom of the United States of America. The rose reminds us of the family and friends of our missing comrades who keep the faith, awaiting their return.

- The red ribbons on the vase represent the red ribbons worn on lapels of the thousands who demand a proper accounting of our comrades who are not among us.

- A slice of lemon on the plate reminds us of their bitter fate.

- The salt sprinkled on the plate reminds us of the countless fallen tears of the families as they wait.

- The glass is inverted because they cannot toast with us.

- The chair is empty because they are not here.

- The candle is reminiscent of the light of hope that lives in our hearts to illustrate their way home, away from their captors, to the open arms of a grateful nation.

U.S. Marine Sergeant Joshua D. Duis stood watch near the POW/MIA table at the Taylor County Public Library after it was erected Thursday.

Begin state playoffs Friday night

'Dogs dominate Hamilton 54-12

By AARON PORTWOOD

The Taylor County Bulldogs will roll into the Class 4A playoffs with some momentum after torching the Hamilton County Trojans, 54-12, in a homecoming blow-out win Friday night at Dorsett Stadium.

Taylor County will try to ride that momentum to a first round playoff win over Florida High in Tallahassee this week, as the Bulldogs are one of only 16 teams remaining with a shot at a state title in Class 4A.

The Bulldogs started off slow this past Friday night, as Hamilton grabbed an possession, despite playing back-ups and competing with a running clock, to finish the game with eight straight touchdown drives and a season-high 515 total yards of offense.

Taylor only got one possession in the fourth quarter because the game was shortened significantly due to the 35-point "mercy rule" that prompted a continuously running clock midway through the third quarter.

The offensive explosion included season-best marks for touchdowns (8), first downs (25) and points (54), as well as a season-low 0 turnovers and no punts. We talked all week about being able to shut out the distractions surrounding homecoming, but also emphasized how no team wants to be remembered for losing their homecoming game," Head Coach Ryan Smith said.

"Our guys stepped up and really played well, which helps erase the bad taste in our mouths left from losing the district title last week. Now we are one of just 16 teams left playing in the entire state in Class 4A and we can be one of only eight if we win this Friday night against Florida High," Smith said.

After throwing three straight incomplete passes to start the game, senior QB Daniel Wentworth completed his final 10 straight passes to finish 10 of 13 for 151 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions.

Senior receiver Moral Stephens caught 3 passes for 49 yards and turned two of his three catches into touchdowns.

Senior receiver Jermaine Watkins also scored twice on runs of 10 and 58 yards and finished with 4 carries for 94 yards and 2 Tds.

Senior receiver Chance Rodgers (2 catches for 33 yards) caught a 21-yard touchdown pass and ran for a 28-yard touchdown.

Darrell Cook (6 carries, 76 yards) scored on a 27-yard TD run in the third quarter and back-up QB Mitch Stephens capped the scoring with a 4-yard TD run in the fourth quarter.

Nine different Bulldogs carried the ball and

The Bulldog offense stayed hot in the second half, scoring on all three turnovers and no punts. The Bulldog defense held Hamilton to only 205 total yards, as the Trojans completed only 2 of 10 passes for 11 yards and rushed 40 times for 194 yards and two touchdowns.

"This was a very good night for the Bulldogs on both offense and defense.

New England Patriot runningback and former Taylor County High standout LeGarrette Blount was on hand last week during homecoming events and on the sideline Friday night during the football game. The AFC east leading Patriots (7-2) were off this past weekend but will return to action on Monday, Nov. 18. Shown with Blount is Jamar McNeal (10).

Senior wideout Chance Rodgers (21) breaks loose on a touchdown run during the first half of the Bulldogs' 54-12 victory over Hamilton County. Rodgers scored twice on the night--once on a 21-yard pass and another on a 28-yard run.

Giddens finishes 17th at state cross country meet

Taylor County High's Meagan Giddens finished 17th out of 180 qualifiers in the state class 2A cross country meet held Saturday at the Tallahassee Appalachian Regional Cross Country Course.

Giddens completed the hilly course with a time of 19:38. The opening pace was very fast thanks to the quick start of second place finisher Desha Rogers. Giddens ran throughout the race with a group not far behind the eventual winner Julia Montgomery from Pine Crest and fought hard over the hills and rugged terrain to finish 43 spots higher than her 60th place finish of 2012.

"We expected Rogers to jump out fast, but when Montgomery followed, it meant maintaining a top 10-15 spot through the opening 600 meters which meant burning more fuel than we expected," TCHS Coach Dan Anderson said.

Passes available for TCHS boys, girls soccer seasons

Season passes for the Taylor County High boys and girls soccer games may be purchased at the gate.

Adult passes are $30 and student passes are $10. They are good for all boys and girls home games.

"I was impressed with Meagan's spirited performance. She ran against some of the best in the state and proved she belonged."

Giddens will complete her cross country season in North Carolina at the Foot Locker regional to be contested on Nov. 30.

Boys soccer team opens season with 5-2 road win

The Taylor County High boys soccer team won their season opener last week in Tallahassee as they defeated district foe Rickards 5-2.

Senior Garrett Johnson opened up the scoring for the Bulldogs with a header off a throw by Noah Blanco.

Rickards then notched two goals to go up on the 'Dogs 2-1 before Justin Welch tied the game 2-2 just before the half on a throw by Blanco.

Coach Rodney King said his squad took control in the second half. Welch scored again on an assist from Johnson and Blanco scored two straight unassisted goals to seal the victory.

King said this year's team is extremely young as the Bulldogs are starting nine sophomores and freshmen.

He said the Rickards win was a "total team victory."

The defense was led by Nathan Kallschmidt, Douglas Bethea, Mikey Hammock and Jackson Cruce. Nathan Guenther had an outstanding game at goalkeeper, recording more than 10 saves on the night, the coach said.

In junior varsity action last week, the TCHS jayvee fell to Lincoln 6-1. The lone goal came in the second half by Welch from a throw-in by Blanco.

The Taylor County varsity was scheduled to travel to Godby on Tuesday night in another district game before entertaining East Gadsden this Thursday beginning at 7 p.m.

Bulldogs rush for season-high 364 yards, five touchdowns in homecoming victory combined to rush 28 times for a season-high 364 yards and 5 touchdowns on the ground.

Art Nelson had 7 carries for 71 yards, Jordan White rushed 5 times for 40 yards, Wentworth had a 16-yard run, Jalen Oliver carried once for 14 yards and caught three passes for 31 yards and Cam Collins had a 10-yard run to go with 2 catches for 38 yards.

After forcing a Hamilton punt on the first possession of the game, the Bulldogs drove down to the Trojan 37 thanks to two nice runs by Nelson before stalling and turning the ball over on downs after two deep passes to Moral Stephens were well defended.

Hamilton put together a nice 12-play, 63-yard scoring drive that featured three 3rd down conversions, but missed the extra point to lead 6-0 late in the first quarter.

Taylor responded with an 8-play, 73-yard scoring drive that featured seven different players touching the ball, as Watkins scored on a 10-yard quick pitch on the first play of the second quarter. Grant Parker's PAT gave the Bulldogs a 7-6 lead they would never relinquish.

The Bulldog defense took over from there and did not allow another first down the rest of the first half, forcing four straight Hamilton punts.

Taylor County's offense scored quickly on four straight possessions, with the longest drive lasting just five plays.

A 19-yard catch by Oliver was followed by an 18-yard run by White and a 26-yard run by Watkins to set up Moral Stephens' 11-yard TD catch from Wentworth with 10:17 to play in the half, as the Bulldogs covered 80 yards in just four plays. Parker's PAT put the Bulldogs up 14-6.

After a Hamilton punt, Nelson keyed a 4-play, 52-yard scoring drive by carrying the ball three straight times for gains of 18, 3 and 10 yards to set up Rodgers' 21-yard touchdown catch from Wentworth with 7:24 left in the second quarter. Parker's kick gave the Bulldogs a 21-6 lead.

After Hamilton went three and out, the Bulldogs marched 71 yards in just 5 plays to score on Rodgers' 28-yard end around run. Oliver started the drive with a 6-yard catch, followed by a 20-yard reception by Collins, an 8-yard run by White and an 8-yard run by Nelson.

A bad snap led to Parker's kick sailing wide left as the Bulldogs led 27-6.

Evan Ward boomed the kickoff into the endzone twice and pinned Hamilton inside their own 20 twice.

Big defensive plays by Mitch Stephens, Watkins and Davonta Fudge sent Hamilton backwards on three straight plays and forced a punt, leading to the Bulldogs' second-fastest scoring drive of the night.

With just over one minute remaining in the half, Wentworth ran for 17 yards on 1st down and threw a perfect post pass 30 yards into the endzone to Moral Stephens, who made a diving catch behind a defender to give the Bulldogs a 34-6 lead after Parker's PAT with 1:32 left before halftime.

The fastest scoring drive of the night came on the first possession of the second half, as Watkins ripped off a 25-yard kickoff return and then took a pitch play 58 yards to the endzone on the very next play for a lightning-quick 40-6 lead just 20 seconds into the third quarter.

Both teams cleared the benches to protect their starters from injury and Hamilton managed to put together a long drive that ended at the Bulldogs' 40-yard line before Mitch Stephens came on to lead Taylor's offense to a four-play, 68-yard scoring drive.

Oliver picked up 14 on an end-around play, Nelson ran for 16, Cook busted up the middle for 11 yard and then scored on a 27-yard run to make the score 47-6 and trigger a running clock after Parker's kick was good.

Hamilton finally managed to find the endzone after a long 11-play, 66-yard drive that cut the lead to 47-12, but the Bulldogs blocked the PAT.

Mitch Stephens

engineered one final scoring drive to cap off a fantastic night, as Cook had carries of 15, 10, 5 and 8 yards sandwiched around a 10-yard QB keeper by Mitch Stephens and a 19-yard end-around run by Collins before Mitch Stephens put the icing on the cake with a 4-yard TD plunge.

Parker's PAT made the final 54-12.

The Bulldogs' defensive effort—which held Hamilton to a season-low in passing yards and helped prompt the fourth "running clock" mercy-rule shortened game this season—was led by Luke Kallschmidt with 7 tackles (5 solo, 2 assists, 1 tackle for loss) and Shawn Burney with 7 tackles (4 solo, 3 assists, 1 tackle for loss).

Freshman DeShawn Knight had 6 tackles (3 solo, 3 assists, 1 tackle for loss, .5 sack), followed by sophomore Tanner Hammock with 4 (3 solo, 1 tackle for loss, 1 sack), Marc Hamilton (2 solo, 2 assists, 1 sack), Brynice Bailey (2 solo, 1 assist, 1 QB hurry), Johnny Anderson (2 solo, 1 pass break-up), Justin Cruse (2 solo), Bradley Miller (1 solo, 1 assist, .5 sack, 1 QB hurry), and Watkins, Jamar McNeal, Cole Folsom, Jermarcus Robertson and Darrell Cook with one solo tackle each.

The Taylor County High football team takes the field just prior to kick-off Friday night at Dorsett Stadium.

Hundreds gather at park for Veterans Day Luncheon

McDaniel said. He said that serving in the military instills a sense of commitment that lasts a lifetime.

"Veterans are our nation's unsung heroes. Their stories are the stories of our history. Our great country rose to become a world leader on their service. It was Ronald Ragan who said that a veteran who dies in service to his or her country gives two lives—the one they were living and the one they would have lived."

A highlight of the program was the presentation of the three top speeches in this year's Voices of Democracy essay contest sponsored by local veteran organizations.

Winners JROTC Cadet First Lt. Zachary Geyer, first place; Cole Folsom, second place; and Cadet Second Lt. Mitchell Davis focused on the topic "Why I'm Optimistic for Our Nation's Future."

Each gave a thoughtful defense of their hope for America.

"The people of America are not lost and our country is not broken beyond repair," Geyer said in his essay.

Following the JROTC ceremony, cadets and veterans adjourned to Veterans Memorial Park for a flag-raising ceremony. Family members were there to witness as the one flag, honoring the late Charles Gandy, was lowered and a new flag, honoring the late Bryant Russell, was raised.

Then it was off to Forest Capital Park where hundreds gathered for the annual Veterans Day Appreciation luncheon hosted by the Taylor County Board of Commissioners.

Featured speaker (Ret.) Capt. Nicklous J. Ross, a 30-year Navy veteran, spoke of his work in bringing a new Rural Health Outreach Clinic for veterans to Taylor County.

"Considering how the first effort to bring a veterans clinic here ended (it closed after only a short time in operation), I wasn't sure if I was going to be speaking or be lynched," Ross said.

"However I can assure you we have learned from our mistakes and are applying what we learned to this new venture."

Ross is currently assistant director of North Florida/South Georgia Veterans Health System in Gainesville where his primary responsibility is the development and support of the group's 11 community based outpatient clinics and rural health outreach clinics. The future Rural Health Outreach Clinic in Perry will be the 12th under his direction.

State Representative Halsey Beshears was also on hand for the ceremony and delivered the invocation prior to lunch being served.

"If there is one thing I've learned in Tallahassee, it is the value of a short speech. Thank you veterans, and let us pray," Beshears said.

Hundreds then waited their chance to file through the line for a BBQ dinner served by volunteers, sponsors and county commissioners.

Judging by the smiles on the faces of those dining, it was a good day and a "thank you" many sincerely appreciated receiving from their community.
