Two more great people, in our series, that were teachers or employees of Lafayette High School.

Mrs. Eloise Blackshear served Lafayette High School from 1969-1984, as a secretary. She was nominated for being a calming influence in a chaotic world. Her warmth and smile affected everyone who knew her. A support person who captured the heart of Lafayette High School. (I remember her as being a mighty special person.) Lera Davis was another lady who gave her all. She served Lafayette High School for 24 years, from 1943-1968.

She was a junior high and high school math teacher and also, librarian.

Lera was nominated because of her many years of service. She dedicated her entire life to showing Lafayette High School students the magic found in books. (I regret I never knew this great lady.) Photo elsewhere on this page.

Big catch for a little guy

This is Noah Hurst, Delores Walker's grandson. He is eight years old and was certainly named right (Brother Noah from the Bible) because all animal life practically falls in his lap.

He fishes, catches wild hogs, and did what any good hunter would do when a cottonmouth had the audacity to come in his yard the other day....he killed it with one shot!

He caught this black drum, estimated to weigh about 50 pounds on July 10, as he and his family were fishing at Horseshoe Beach. Noah was using a reel and rod with a size 6 brim hook.

The old drum is still swimming the Gulf. Noah released him back into the water, figuring if he'd escaped the fish cooker this long, he deserved to have another chance at outwitting the next fisherman who comes along.

According to LES Counselor Shawn Jackson, FCAT Wars greatly helped in motivating students to do their best, not only on the standardized test, but in working as a team with peers in the classroom.

"Students in grades third through fifth are already looking ahead to see who will win next years FCAT Wars reward," said Jackson. "When students are this excited about trying harder and doing well in school, everyone is a winner."

ed, "In July 2014, Community Health Systems Inc. confirmed that its computer network was the target of an external, criminal cyber attack that the company believes occurred in April and June, 2014."

"The attacker was able to bypass the company's security measures and successfully copy and transfer certain data outside the company," the release stated. "The company has confirmed this data did not include patient credit card, medical or clinical information; the data is, however, considered protected under the Health Insurance Portability Accountability Act (HIPAA) because it includes patient names, addresses, birth dates, telephone numbers and Social Security numbers."

The source further stated the company believes the attacker was an "Advanced Persistent Threat" group originating from China who used highly sophisticated malware and technology to attack the company's systems.

According to USSEC, when Community Health Systems first learned of the attack, they began working closely with federal law enforcement in connection with their investigation and possible prosecution of those found responsible for the cyber attack. The company has also engaged Mandiant, who has conducted a thorough investigation of this incident and is advising the company regarding remediation efforts.

"The company has been informed by federal authorities and Mandiant that this intruder has typically sought valuable intellectual property, such as medical device and equipment development data," USSEC stated.

The company is providing appropriate notification to affected patients and regulatory agencies as required by law, USSEC said.

Shands Live Oak Regional Medical Center released this statement, "We take very seriously the security and confidentiality of private patient information and we sincerely regret any concern or inconvenience to patients. Though we have no reason to believe that this data would ever be used, all affected patients are being notified by letter and offered free identity theft protection.

The intruder has been eradicated and applications have been deployed to protect against future attacks. Many American companies and organizations have been victimized by foreign-based cyber intrusions. It is up to the Federal Government to create a national cyber defense that can prevent this type of criminal invasion from happening in the future."

Electric utility ordinance approved for Duke Energy

ternal Relations for Duke Energy Inc. Robert Pickles was present for the reading. Mayor Ann Murphy read the ordinance by title only and allowed Pickles to address Council.

It stated, " ... The ordinance is granted to Duke Energy Florida, Inc. for non-exclusive electric utility rights of way utilization franchise; prescribing the terms and conditions related to the occupancy of municipal streets and rights of way in the town of Mayo, Florida for the purpose of providing electric service; providing for severability of provisions, and providing an effective date."

Pickles said the reason he was there was because an agreement that came about in 1984 would soon reach its expiration. He said the new ordinance was similar in terms.

"It is our desire to continue the relationship with the town of Mayo," said Pickles.

What the ordinance would do, according to Pickles, is by Duke Energy providing for the municipality of Mayo, they provide a franchise fee of six percent which is the same for all other municipalities they provide for in the state of Florida. Pickles entertained any questions or comments from council. Town attorney Angela Ball was unavailable, but had been previously sent a copy of the ordinance which she read and had no objections, according to the town clerk.

Mayo Operations Manager Sampson Edwards was asked if there were any comments or complaints he wished to discuss. He said he and his crew were able to find a source for street lights that were out, but they just wanted to be notified by residents when new lights were needed.

"When the power outages happen; that's my concern," said Edwards. "The (storm) fronts come from the west most of the time and they come through Mayo and knock out the 700 or so residents in the area."

He said by the time the storms get to Lake City, High Springs or Gainesville, the heavier populated areas would be serviced first.

"Those are the places they're going to send the most help to," said Edwards. "I feel like that's the way they always do it."

He said during major outages, Duke Energy has been sending one mobile service person (journeyman) that services two counties.

Pickles spoke up and said that Duke Energy used to operate under a different repair model than what they use today. Since 2008, they've re-organized the way they handle outages. Years ago, during the smaller and less severe outages, they used a "troubleman" model which meant sending out one man to take care of the job.

"What we found is that lots of times those troublemen ran into scenarios where they had to call out a second man to help them," said Pickles. "We made the decision instead of still using the troubleman model, to use the lineman model."

He said although Duke Energy doesn't have as many troublemen now, they have the same amount of line resources. The models have simply been reclassified which has improved the response time and service. He said they still do have a few troublemen spread throughout the state, but they work strictly on street light outages and other simple issues.

Council admitted that the service during outages has improved and Pickles said they have become a bit more aggressive in maintenance and more times than not, it involves keeping the vegetation from getting out of hand.

"Most outages are caused by trees getting in the lines, so we've put more of an emphasis on trying to trim the trees away from the lines," said Pickles.

Edwards said a huge improvement also came through DE putting in sub-stations with breakers that helps limit the outages temporarily to just a few residents homes rather than the entire town.

Pickles said within their model, they first assess where the outages are, then they try and isolate them. Once that is done, they quickly restore power to the most people possible.

"With the exception of a critical building like a nursing home, a hospital and even here in Mayo because you only have one grocery store, we try to treat you differently," said Pickles. "We want to make sure that you're happy."

The second reading and final adoption of Ordinance 14-05 Duke Energy will take place on Sept. 8.

After impact the Nissan rotated clockwise and began traveling in a southwesterly direction and then overturned on its left side. After one complete rollover, the Nissan left the roadway and entered the grassy median area where it came to final rest upright facing northeast. The pickup continued traveling north for several feet and entered the outside lane where it came to final rest facing north, reports show.

Two witnesses made contact with the driver of the pickup and then went to check on the driver of the Nissan, but there was nobody in or around the vehicle. When authorities arrived on scene, several deputies and firemen canvassed the median and wooded area around the crash, but could not locate the driver, according to FHP.

Later in the day, Andrew C. Konvalinka, 21, Live Oak, was identified by authorities as the driver of the Nissan. Konvalinka sustained minor injuries in the crash and reports show he was at Shands Live Oak Regional Medical Center.

Damage to the Nissan was estimated at $12,000 and the Chevy had $8,000 in damages. Konvalinka was charged with leaving the scene of an accident, driving on the wrong side of a divided highway, and not wearing a seatbelt, FHP said.

AAA: Avoid back-to-school tragedy with these tips

Over 55 million children across the United States are heading back to school. With 13 percent of those school children typically walking or biking to school, AAA warns drivers to be especially vigilant for pedestrians and bicyclists during, before, and after school hours. The afternoon hours are particularly dangerous for walking children. According to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA), the highest percentage of fatalities among pedestrians under 15 occurred between 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. (42 percent).

Additionally, pedestrians made up 14 percent of fatalities related to traffic crashes in 2012. This percentage has risen every year for the past six years including a 6 percent increase over 2011. More than one-fifth (22 percent) of all children under age 15 killed in traffic crashes were pedestrians.

AAA's School's Open – Drive Carefully awareness campaign was launched in 1946 in an effort to prevent school-related child pedestrian traffic crashes. AAA stresses the importance of safety and responsibility while traveling, encouraging not only drivers, but also pedestrians and bicyclists to stay alert and be safe while en route to their destination.

AAA recommends the following life-saving tips to keep you safe on the road:

DRIVERS

Follow the Speed Limit:

• Watch your speed, especially in and around school zones

• Slow down! Speed limits in school zones are reduced for a reason

Know and follow all Traffic Rules, Signs and Signals:

• Obey all school zone signs, signals and markings

• Don't break the law! More than one-third of drivers roll through stop signs in school zones

• Always come to a complete stop, checking carefully for children on sidewalks and in crosswalks before proceeding

Eliminate Distractions:

• Prior to departure, take care of anything that may potentially distract you on the way to your destination

• Eat meals or snacks before or after your trip, finish dressing and personal grooming at home, and avoid cell phone use by storing it some place that is inaccessible while driving

Be Alert:

• Keep your eyes on the road at all times. Very often children cross the road unexpectedly and pedestrians are found walking in areas other than crosswalks or intersections

PEDESTRIANS/ BICYCLISTS

Cross the Street Safely:

• Look left, right and left again. Be sure the street is clear before you cross

• Use traffic signals and crosswalks when available to cross the street carefully

• Walk, don't run

• Don't enter the roadway between cars, bushes or shrubs

• Signal your intentions when turning or passing while riding a bike

Wear a Properly-Fitted Bicycle Helmet

• Helmets should be positioned on the head and low on the forehead, no more than two finger widths above the eyebrow

• A helmet is the single most effective way to prevent a head injury resulting from a bicycle crash

Walk/Ride in Safe Places:

• Use crosswalks when crossing the street and always walk on sidewalks when they are provided

• If there is no sidewalk and you must walk on the street, only do so facing traffic, as this will help increase your visibility to drivers

• When cycling in the street, always ride in the same direction as traffic

Be Seen and Be Safe:

• Make it easy for drivers to see you

• Dress in light colors, wear reflective material or use a flashlight – especially in bad weather conditions where you must be extra careful

Stay Alert and Avoid Distractions:

• Texting and walking on the side of the road can be just as dangerous as texting while driving. As a pedestrian you have a responsibility to stay alert at all times

• Use your eyes and ears as tools to keep you safe by putting away your cell phone and unplugging your ear buds while en route

In addition to the School's Open – Drive Carefully campaign, AAA has teamed up with Richard Scarry's Busytown Mysteries to help keep children safe. Download coloring pages, play games and watch car seat safety videos at SafeSeats4Kids.AAA.com

"For the first time in our 77 year history, SVEC is proud to have a student receive this honor." said Baynard Ward, community relations manager at SVEC.

As the Florida delegate, Luis had the opportunity to carry the state flag during the opening ceremony of the 2014 NRECA Annual Meeting, which was held in Nashville, TN.

"We would like to congratulate Arreguin for his participation in the 2013 Tallahassee and Washington Youth Tour Programs, and for his service in the 2014 Youth Leadership Council," Ward added.

Law enforcement to crack down on drunk and unsafe driving

~ 23rd Annual Hands Across the Border Campaign Promotes Safe Labor Day Driving~

Lake Park, GA.- Drunk driving is one of America's deadliest crimes - in 2013, there were nearly 1,000 alcohol related fatalities across Florida.

This week - leading up to the Labor Day weekend - law enforcement agencies in Florida and Georgia are once again joining forces for "Hands Across the Border," an annual traffic safety campaign. Law enforcement officers will crack down on unsafe driving through saturation patrols and checkpoints throughout the week.

On Thursday, Aug. 28, 2014, officers from the two states will meet and pledge to work together this holiday weekend to ensure drivers are maintaining safe speeds, not drinking and driving and always using their safety belts.

"Every year, and every holiday weekend, we continue to see far too many people suffer debilitating injuries and loss of life as a result of impaired driving," said Tim Roberts, Florida Law Enforcement Liaison representative for the Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over campaign. "This careless disregard for human lives must stop, which is why Florida, and our bordering state law enforcement agencies will be arresting impaired drivers wherever and whenever they find them during the Labor Day holiday. Heightened alert about recent Clerk email scams

The Florida Court Clerks & Comptrollers wishes to make all Florida residents aware of the most recent spike in fraudulent emails by entities impersonating Clerk's offices across the state.

This newest round of scams comes in the form of an email referencing a missed court appearance.

Unlike past scams, these emails attempt to retrieve personal data, forcefully, by computer virus attached as a .zip file. These malicious attachments contain a "Trojan Horse" virus that becomes active as soon as the file is unzipped.

Recent examples of these scams have been signed by fictitious county clerks.

The Florida Court Clerks & Comptrollers would like to remind residents that court-related communications are sent through normal mail. Jury summons and failure to appear notices are never sent via phone or email.

Important tips to remember

* The Suwannee County Clerk of the Circuit Court's office does not call or email residents to request payment for missing jury duty. The office will also never request payment via any sort of prepaid debit card.

• The Suwannee County Clerk of the Circuit Court's office does not call or email residents to verify information related to jury duty or to notify them that they missed jury duty. Communications are only sent by mail.

• If a resident misses jury duty, the individual received a failure to appear notice in the mail from the judge representing their Circuit Court.

• Arrest warrants are not usually issued for failure to report for jury duty. Please contact the Suwannee County Clerk of the Circuit Court's office if you receive one.

• Do not open an email attachment from any unfamiliar source, and never provide personal information to an unfamiliar source, either by phone or email.

Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission

FWC tarpon researchers seek data from north Florida anglers

The strength, stamina and fighting ability of a "silver king" make tarpon one of Florida's most popular game fish. Experience the thrill! The Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission (FWC) wants people to reel one in to the side of their boat and help us with the Tarpon Genetic Recapture Study.

Tarpon DNA helps scientists learn more about the fish's rich life history, from its anatomy to its catch history. Each year, willing anglers supply the FWC's Fish and Wildlife Research Institute with DNA "fingerprint" data from tarpon and then release them to jump and challenge anglers another day. The FWRI especially needs DNA samples from fish larger than 30 inches hooked in northeast and northwest Florida.

"While we have a significant amount of information about tarpon in the southern portion of the state, we need more information about this fish in the north," said FWC researcher Kathy Guindon. "As a result, for the remainder of this year we are shifting the emphasis of the Florida Guides Association-FWC Spirit of Tarpon DNA Sampling Challenge to waters from Brevard County and Pasco County north."

Participants in the challenge have until mid-January 2015 to submit their samples. Winners will be announced later that month.

This study, ongoing since 2005, relies on data collected by anglers who submit samples and information about their catches using a free, easy-to-use tarpon DNA sampling kit. Volunteer anglers have submitted more than 19,600 samples to date. To obtain a DNA sampling kit, please call 800-367-4461 or email TarponGenetics@MyFWC.com. The FWRI collected 3,386 DNA samples from anglers last year, and staffers look forward to another productive year and hope to learn a lot more about this important marine fish.

"We owe the success of this project to the volunteer anglers who have contributed samples and to those who have supported us in their businesses and through outreach efforts. We look forward to receiving northern samples, as data from those areas will be critical in evaluating the full range of statewide movement patterns," said Guindon.

Students Return to LES

Submitted

As summer comes to an end, it marks the beginning of the 2014-15 school year. Lafayette Elementary School welcomed back students at their annual open house on Friday, Aug. 15. Students had the opportunity to meet their teacher, visit with friends and even get a photo with the LHS Hornet mascot.

"We are very excited to be starting a new school year here at LES," said LES Principal Danny Glover. "This community is fortunate to have some of the very best teachers. It's clearly evident as soon as you walk in their classrooms that they are enthusiastic about teaching children"

LES will hold it's first PTO "Pride Night" Tuesday, Sept. 9, at 6 p.m. Parents and the community are invited to attend.

Mrs. Prine and Mrs. Colson sign up students for the 2014-15 Little Miss LHS.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS TO BE VOTED ON NOVEMBER 4, 2014
NOTICE OF ELECTION

I, Ken Detzner, Secretary of State of the State of Florida, do hereby give notice that an election will be held in each county in Florida, on November 4, 2014, for the ratification or rejection of a proposed revision to the constitution of the State of Florida.

No. 1
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
ARTICLE X, SECTION 28
(Initiative)

Ballot Title:
Water and Land Conservation - Dedicates funds to acquire and restore Florida conservation and recreation lands

Ballot Summary:
Funds the Land Acquisition Trust Fund to acquire, restore, improve, and manage conservation lands including wetlands and forests; fish and wildlife habitat; lands protecting water resources and drinking water sources, including the Everglades, and the water quality of rivers, lakes, and streams; beaches and shores; outdoor recreational lands; working farms and ranches; and historic or geologic sites, by dedicating 33 percent of net revenues from the existing excise tax on documents for 20 years.

Financial Impact Statement:
This amendment does not increase or decrease state revenues. The state revenue restricted to the purposes specified in the amendment is estimated to be $648 million in Fiscal Year 2015-16 and grows to $1.268 billion by the twentieth year. Whether this results in any additional state expenditures depends upon future legislative actions and cannot be determined. Similarly, the impact on local government revenues, if any, cannot be determined. No additional local government costs are expected.

MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 28. Land Acquisition Trust Fund.—
a) Effective on July 1 of the year following passage of this amendment by the voters, and for a period of 20 years after that effective date, the Land Acquisition Trust Fund shall receive no less than 33 percent of net revenues derived from the existing excise tax on documents, as defined in the statutes in effect on January 1, 2012, as amended from time to time, or any successor or replacement tax, after the Department of Revenue first deducts a service charge to pay the costs of the collection and enforcement of the excise tax on documents.
b) Funds in the Land Acquisition Trust Fund shall be expended only for the following purposes:
1) As provided by law, to finance or refinance: the acquisition and improvement of land, water areas, and related property interests, including conservation easements, and resources for conservation lands including wetlands, forests, and fish and wildlife habitat; wildlife management areas; lands that protect water resources and drinking water sources, including lands protecting the water quality and quantity of rivers, lakes, streams, springsheds, and lands providing recharge for groundwater and aquifer systems; lands in the Everglades Agricultural Area and the Everglades Protection Area, as defined in Article II, Section 7(b); beaches and shores; outdoor recreation lands, including recreational trails, parks, and urban open space; rural landscapes; working farms and ranches; historic or geologic sites; together with management, restoration of natural systems, and the enhancement of public access or recreational enjoyment of conservation lands.
2) To pay the debt service on bonds issued pursuant to Article VII, Section 11(e).
c) The moneys deposited into the Land Acquisition Trust Fund, as defined by the statutes in effect on January 1, 2012, shall not be or become commingled with the General Revenue Fund of the state.

No. 2
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
(Initiative)

Ballot Title:
Use of Marijuana for Certain Medical Conditions

Ballot Summary:
Allows the medical use of marijuana for individuals with debilitating diseases as determined by a licensed Florida physician. Allows caregivers to assist patients' medical use of marijuana. The Department of Health shall register and regulate centers that produce and distribute marijuana for medical purposes and shall issue identification cards to patients and caregivers. Applies only to Florida law. Does not authorize violations of federal law or any non-medical use, possession or production of marijuana.

Financial Impact Statement:
Increased costs from this amendment to state and local governments cannot be determined. There will be additional regulatory and enforcement activities associated with the production and sale of medical marijuana. Fees will offset at least a portion of the regulatory costs. While sales tax may apply to purchases, changes in revenue cannot reasonably be determined since the extent to which medical marijuana will be exempt from taxation is unclear without legislative or state administrative action.

ARTICLE X
MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 29. Medical marijuana production, possession and use.—
(a) PUBLIC POLICY.
(1) The medical use of marijuana by a qualifying patient or personal caregiver is not subject to criminal or civil liability or sanctions under Florida law except as provided in this section.
(2) A physician licensed in Florida shall not be subject to criminal or civil liability or sanctions under Florida law for issuing a physician certification to a person diagnosed with a debilitating medical condition in a manner consistent with this section.
(3) Actions and conduct by a medical marijuana treatment center registered with the Department, or its employees, as permitted by this section and in compliance with Department regulations, shall not be subject to criminal or civil liability or sanctions under Florida law except as provided in this section.
(b) DEFINITIONS. For purposes of this section, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings:
(1) "Debilitating Medical Condition" means cancer, glaucoma, positive status for human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS), hepatitis C, amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), Crohn's disease, Parkinson's disease, multiple sclerosis or other conditions for which a physician believes that the medical use of marijuana would likely outweigh the potential health risks for a patient.
(2) "Department" means the Department of Health or its successor agency.
(3) "Identification card" means a document issued by the Department that identifies a person who has a physician certification or a personal caregiver who is at least twenty-one (21) years old and has agreed to assist with a qualifying patient's medical use of marijuana.
(4) "Marijuana" has the meaning given cannabis in Section 893.02(3), Florida Statutes (2013).
(5) "Medical Marijuana Treatment Center" means an entity that acquires, cultivates, possesses, processes (including development of related products such as food, tinctures, aerosols, oils, or ointments), transfers, transports, sells, distributes, dispenses, or administers marijuana, products containing marijuana, related supplies, or educational materials to qualifying patients or their personal caregivers and is registered by the Department.
(6) "Medical use" means the acquisition, possession, use, delivery, transfer, or administration of marijuana or related supplies by a qualifying patient or personal caregiver for use by a qualifying patient for the treatment of a debilitating medical condition.

Personal caregivers are prohibited from consuming marijuana obtained for the personal, medical use by the qualifying patient.
(8) "Physician" means a physician who is licensed in Florida.
(9) "Physician certification" means a written document signed by a physician, stating that in the physician's professional opinion, the patient suffers from a debilitating medical condition, that the potential benefits of the medical use of marijuana would likely outweigh the health risks for the patient, and for how long the physician recommends the medical use of marijuana for the patient. A physician certification may only be provided after the physician has conducted a physical examination of the patient and a full assessment of the patient's medical history.
(10) "Qualifying patient" means a person who has been diagnosed to have a debilitating medical condition, who has a physician certification and a valid qualifying patient identification card. If the Department does not begin issuing identification cards within nine (9) months after the effective date of this section, then a valid physician certification will serve as a patient identification card in order to allow a person to become a "qualifying patient" until the Department begins issuing identification cards.
(c) LIMITATIONS.
(1) Nothing in this section shall affect laws relating to non-medical use, possession, production or sale of marijuana.
(2) Nothing in this section authorizes the use of medical marijuana by anyone other than a qualifying patient.
(3) Nothing in this section allows the operation of a motor vehicle, boat, or aircraft while under the influence of marijuana.
(4) Nothing in this law section requires the violation of federal law or purports to give immunity under federal law.
(5) Nothing in this section shall require any accommodation of any on-site medical use of marijuana in any place of education or employment, or of smoking medical marijuana in any public place.
(6) Nothing in this section shall require any health insurance provider or any government agency or authority to reimburse any person for expenses related to the medical use of marijuana.
(d) DUTIES OF THE DEPARTMENT. The Department shall issue reasonable regulations necessary for the implementation and enforcement of this section. The purpose of the regulations is to ensure the availability and safe use of medical marijuana by qualifying patients. It is the duty of the Department to promulgate regulations in a timely fashion.
(1) Implementing Regulations. In order to allow the Department sufficient time after passage of this section, the following regulations shall be promulgated no later than six (6) months after the effective date of this section:
a. Procedures for the issuance of qualifying patient identification cards to people with physician certifications, and standards for the renewal of such identification cards.
b. Procedures for the issuance of personal caregiver identification cards to persons qualified to assist with a qualifying patient's medical use of marijuana, and standards for the renewal of such identification cards.
c. Procedures for the registration of Medical Marijuana Treatment Centers that include procedures for the issuance, renewal, suspension, and revocation of registration, and standards to ensure security, record keeping, testing, labeling, inspection, and safety.
d. A regulation that defines the amount of marijuana that could reasonably be presumed to be an adequate supply for qualifying patients' medical use, based on the best available evidence. This presumption as to quantity may be overcome with evidence of a particular qualifying patient's appropriate medical use.
(2) Issuance of identification cards and registrations. The Department shall begin issuing qualifying patient and personal caregiver identification cards, as well as begin registering Medical Marijuana Treatment Centers no later than nine months (9) after the effective date of this section.
(3) If the Department does not issue regulations, or if the Department does not begin issuing identification cards and registering Medical Marijuana Treatment Centers within the time limits set in this section, any Florida citizen shall have standing to seek judicial relief to compel compliance with the Department's constitutional duties.
(4) The Department shall protect the confidentiality of all qualifying patients. All records containing the identity of qualifying patients shall be confidential and kept from public disclosure other than for valid medical or law enforcement purposes.
(e) LEGISLATION. Nothing in this section shall limit the legislature from enacting laws consistent with this provision.
(f) SEVERABILITY. The provisions of this section are severable and if any clause, sentence, paragraph or section of this measure, or an application thereof, is adjudged invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction other provisions shall continue to be in effect to the fullest extent possible.

ENMIENDA CONSTITUCIONAL
ARTÍCULO X, SECCIÓN 28
(Iniciativa)

Título de la boleta:
Conservación de aguas y tierras: dedicar fondos para adquirir y restaurar tierras objeto de conservación y recreación en el Estado de Florida

Resumen de la boleta:
Provee fondos para el Fondo Fiduciario de Adquisición de Tierras con el fin de adquirir, restaurar, mejorar y administrar tierras objeto de conservación, entre ellas pantanos y bosques; el hábitat de peces y vida silvestre; tierras que protegen los recursos hídricos y las fuentes de agua potable, incluidos los Everglades, y la calidad del agua en ríos, lagos y arroyos; playas y costas; tierras de recreación al aire libre; establecimientos agrícolas y ganaderos en actividad, y emplazamientos históricos o geológicos. Para ello se dedicará el 33% de los ingresos netos obtenidos del impuesto especial existente sobre documentos durante 20 años.

Declaración sobre impacto financiero:
Esta enmienda no incrementa ni reduce los ingresos estatales. El ingreso estatal limitado para los propósitos especificados en la enmienda se estima en $648 millones para el año fiscal 2015-16 y aumenta a $1.268 mil millones hacia el vigésimo año. Si eso traerá como consecuencia gastos estatales adicionales depende de futuras acciones legislativas y no puede determinarse. De la misma manera, tampoco puede determinarse el impacto sobre los ingresos de gobiernos locales, si los hubiera. No se prevén costos de gobiernos locales.

ARTÍCULO X, SECCIÓN 29
(Iniciativa)

Título de la boleta:
Uso de marihuana para algunas enfermedades

Resumen de la boleta:
Permite el uso médico de la marihuana a las personas con enfermedades debilitantes, según lo determine un médico autorizado por el Estado de Florida. Permite a los cuidadores asistir a los pacientes en el uso médico de marihuana. El Departamento de Salud deberá inscribir y regular los centros que producen y distribuyen marihuana con fines médicos y deberán extender tarjetas de identificación a pacientes y cuidadores. Se aplica únicamente a las leyes del Estado de Florida. No autoriza infracciones de la ley federal ni ningún uso, posesión o producción de marihuana con fines que no sean médicos.

Declaración sobre impacto financiero:
El aumento de costos generado por esta enmienda para el gobierno estatal y los gobiernos locales no puede determinarse. Habrá actividades adicionales de regulación y aplicación asociadas a la producción y venta de marihuana con fines médicos. Las tarifas compensarán al menos en parte los costos de regulación. Si bien el impuesto sobre la venta se aplica a las compras, los cambios fiscales no pueden determinarse de manera razonable, dado que, si no existe una acción legislativa o administrativa estatal, no está claro en qué medida la marihuana con fines médicos estará exenta de impuestos.

(a) Cualquier juez o magistrado puede calificar para la retención, la cual se produce mediante el voto de los electores en la próxima elección general que sea anterior a la conclusión del mandato del juez o magistrado por las causas establecidas por ley. Cuando ~~Si~~ un juez o magistrado no esté habilitado para ser retenido o no cumple con los requisitos para la retención, se producirá una vacante eventual al finalizar el periodo de calificación de retención a fin de nombrar un juez o magistrado sucesor, y se producirá una vacante en ese cargo judicial a la finalización del mandato cumplido por el juez o magistrado. Cuando un juez o magistrado califique como tal para la retención, en la boleta se deberá leer claramente lo siguiente: "¿Deberá el Magistrado (o Juez) ...(nombre del juez o magistrado)... de la...(nombre de la corte)... ser retenido en el cargo judicial?" Si la mayoría de los electores calificados que votan dentro de la jurisdicción territorial de la corte eligen retenerlo, entonces, el juez o magistrado continuará ejerciendo sus funciones durante un periodo de seis años. Este mandato del juez o magistrado que ha sido retenido comenzará el primer martes luego del primer lunes de enero siguiente a la elección general. Si la mayoría de los electores calificados que votan dentro de la jurisdicción territorial de la corte eligen no retenerlo, una vacante eventual se producirá inmediatamente luego de la elección general con la finalidad de nombrar a un juez o magistrado sucesor, y se producirá una vacante en ese cargo judicial a la finalización del mandato cumplido por el juez o magistrado.
(b)(1) Se deberá mantener el método de elección de jueces de circuito sin perjuicio de las disposiciones de la sub-sección (a), excepto que la mayoría de los votantes en la jurisdicción de dicho circuito aprueben la opción local de elegir a los jueces de circuito mediante el sistema de selección por mérito y elecciones de retención en lugar de mediante una elección. La elección de los jueces de circuito deberá realizarse mediante el voto de electores calificados dentro de la jurisdicción territorial de la corte.
(2) Se deberá mantener el método de elección de los jueces de la corte del condado, sin perjuicio de las disposiciones de la sub-sección (a), excepto que la mayoría de los votantes en la jurisdicción de dicho condado aprueben la opción local de elegir a los jueces del condado mediante el sistema de selección por mérito y elecciones de retención en lugar de mediante una elección. La elección de los jueces del Condado deberá realizarse mediante el voto de electores calificados dentro de la jurisdicción territorial de la corte.
(3)a. En la elección general del año 2000 se deberá votar en cada jurisdicción territorial de circuito y de condado para decidir si el modo de elegir a los jueces de circuito y a los jueces del condado será mediante el sistema de selección por mérito y elecciones de retención en lugar de mediante una elección. Si los electores votan por no ejercer esta opción local, esta opción no podrá someterse a votación de los electores en esa jurisdicción hasta que hayan transcurrido al menos dos años.
b. A partir del año 2000, cada circuito puede presentar la opción local de elección por mérito y elecciones de retención o de la elección de jueces de circuito, según corresponda, al presentar una solicitud ante el encargado de los registros estatales. Dicha solicitud deberá estar firmada por un número de electores igual a por lo menos el diez por ciento de los votos emitidos en la jurisdicción de ese circuito en la última elección presidencial efectuada.
c. A partir del año 2000, cada condado puede presentar la opción local de elección por mérito y elecciones de retención o la elección de los jueces del condado, según corresponda, al presentar una solicitud ante el supervisor de las elecciones. Dicha solicitud deberá estar firmada por un número de electores igual a por lo menos el diez por ciento de los votos emitidos en el condado en la última elección presidencial efectuada. Los mandatos de los jueces de circuito y los jueces de condado serán de seis años.
SECCIÓN 11. Vacantes.—
(a)(1) Siempre que se produzca una vacante en un cargo judicial sujeto a la elección de retención, el gobernador deberá cubrir la vacante mediante el nombramiento de una persona entre al menos tres y no más de seis personas nominadas por la comisión judicial de nombramientos correspondiente, por un periodo que finalizará el primer martes luego del primer lunes de enero del año siguiente a las próximas elecciones generales que se efectúen al menos un año después de la fecha del nombramiento.
(2) Siempre que se produzca una vacante eventual en un cargo judicial sujeto a la elección de retención, el gobernador deberá cubrir esa vacante eventual mediante el nombramiento de un juez o un magistrado de entre al menos tres personas y no más de seis personas nominadas por la comisión judicial de nombramientos correspondiente. El plazo del nombramiento comienza cuando finaliza el plazo del cargo que quedó vacante y concluye el primer martes luego del primer lunes de enero del año siguiente a la próxima elección general.
(b) El gobernador deberá cubrir cada vacante de una corte de circuito o de una corte de condado, en donde los jueces sean elegidos por mayoría de votos de los electores, al nombrar a una persona entre no menos de tres y no más de seis personas nominadas por la comisión judicial de nombramientos correspondiente, por un periodo que concluye el primer martes luego del primer lunes de enero del año que sigue a elección primaria y general que se efectúe por lo menos un año después de la fecha del nombramiento. Se deberá realizar una elección para cubrir ese cargo judicial por el periodo del cargo que comienza al finalizar el periodo del cargo por nombramiento.
(c) Los nombramientos se deberán realizar dentro de los treinta días desde que se ha producido la vacante o vacante eventual, excepto que el gobernador extienda el período por un lapso que no podrá exceder los treinta días. El gobernador deberá realizar el nombramiento dentro de los sesenta días desde que los nombramientos hayan sido certificados ante el gobernador.
(d) Tal como lo establece la legislación general, deberán existir diferentes comisiones judiciales de nombramientos para el Tribunal Supremo, para cada tribunal de apelación de distrito, y para cada circuito judicial en todos los juzgados de primera instancia del circuito. Las comisiones judiciales de nombramientos deberán establecer reglamentos de procedimiento uniformes en cada nivel del sistema judicial. Tales reglamentos, o cualquier parte de ellos, podrán ser derogados por las leyes generales promulgadas con la mayoría de votos de cada cámara de la Asamblea Legislativa, o por el Tribunal Supremo de Justicia con el voto concurrente de cinco magistrados. A excepción de las deliberaciones realizadas por las comisiones judiciales de nombramientos, los procedimientos de las comisiones y sus registros deberán estar abiertos al público.

Meet Brewer Lake's new pastor

Brewer Lake Baptist to celebrate 126 years

We are so blessed to have on board Rev. Robert Bradow and his wife Danelle. If his name sounds familiar, you have probably seen or heard him preach somewhere in the Southeastern United States as he has been on the road with his traveling outdoors themed ministry CrossHeir Outfitters for the past eight years.

Robert, his wife and two children, Walker (7) and Raelea (4) joined our family in January of 2013 as youth pastor and family minister. Robert has been a big part of many new and exciting programs at Brewer Lake including an amazing youth program, men's ministry and many outdoor themed events such as bow and sporting clay tournaments. When Brewer Lake's previous pastor, Matt Swain, answered a call and moved his ministry to the Green Cove Springs area, Robert began to cover the areas of leadership at BLBC including filling the pulpit. The deacons felt a call on Robert's life to be the senior pastor at Brewer Lake and extended him a call and after several months of praying, He answered that call and was confirmed through a vote to be the new senior pastor at Brewer Lake.

Pastor Robert brings a lot of energy to our church as he loves to preach through sermon series. When asked his preaching goals, Robert replied he always seeks the direction of the Holy Spirit through God's word and then brings it in a way for personal application.

"I have seen the power of God's word and experienced its personal application in my life and I so yearn for our people to see that this Word that has been preserved for thousands of years is alive and its application is forever current," said Bradow. "I seek to be creative and relevant in every message. Though the means may change, my method is inspired by Jesus Christ Himself as He took the teachings of the Bible and visualized it! The message will never change!"

Robert's preaching ministry with CrossHeir Outfitters carried him to over 13 states preaching to thousands of men. His ministry saw over 2,000 men make public professions in Jesus Christ over the past eight years! Robert will continue to travel on a limited basis to preach now, but has felt the call of Jesus Christ on his life into a senior pastorate and realizes the shift in ministry.

CrossHeir Outfitters will continue on and looks forward to completing their retreat center and camp "The Refuge at the Lodge", that is just east of Branford on US 27. This 3,000 square foot, two story building, when complete, will be able to sleep over 30 people and has handicapped restrooms, a commons area and a large kitchen that will be made available to church groups and other civic organizations as well as available for rent for parties and reunions.

Brewer Lake is excited about what the days ahead hold under the leadership of Pastor Robert. His energy, enthusiasm and experience will ensure clarity of God's word preached in an exciting and creative way.

Brewer Lake has asked Robert to preach this year's Homecoming services. We invite you to join us for our 126th Anniversary as we will celebrate it on Aug. 31. The day will include the musical talent of Jacob and Mayanne Leporacci performing a concert from 10 a.m. to 10:40 then the services will begin at 11, followed by dinner on the grounds by the best cooks in Lafayette county!

Brewer Lake is located on Highway 53 in Day, Lafayette County.

If you have any questions about our church or our new Pastor, please feel free to contact us at (386)-294-1578.

HEART MATTERS

If you were asked what brings you the most joy in life, I bet your answer would involve someone rather than something. However, if you were asked what brings you the most frustration in life, chances are good your answer to that would be someone as well! Relationships tend to bring out the best and worst in all of us. Enjoying the best is easy, but what do you do about that relationship that often results in frustration, anger and/or confusion?

First, realize that these feelings are indicators of an unhealthy element in your relationship and function like an internal alarm system. This alarm serves to let us know that things are not as they should be; someone important to us is affecting our life in a very negative way.

In his book, Handling Difficult People, author Dr. John Townsend describes relationships as "the delivery system for so many of the good things we need in life-love, safety, grace, warmth, encouragement, truth, forgiveness, and more. These elements make life meaningful, purposeful, and enjoyable. But life with a difficult person is none of those things."

Relationships with difficult people can bring feelings of isolation instead of connection, and can actually work to destroy the affection that you once held. We can also begin to believe that nothing we try will fix the problem; this leaves us frustrated and we often resort to becoming someone we don't want to be when we are with our difficult person. So what should we do?

Take a look at 1 Corinthians 13:4-6, and read the Biblical definition of love from a different perspective:

"Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps not record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres."

Love's nature is to stay with the relationship as it develops, grows, and matures. The fact that love is patient and kind does not mean that you minimize or deny hurtful behavior, nor are we to become passive: doing nothing to solve the problem and simply praying and hoping that God will fix our difficult person. We are co-laborers with God, and He often shows us things to do in addition to prayer (we just often don't have the courage to follow through.) Love is not proud, rude or self-seeking, meaning that we aren't trying to change someone so that they become what we want, but that we long to see growth so they become who God created them to be. The "always" of love indicates that love must be protected to last and often the best way to accomplish this is to confront the harmful behavior of your difficult person and put consequences in place, not to punish, but to motivate change. If you continue to enable your difficult person, you are not helping them. On the contrary, you are encouraging them to continue down this destructive path.

Evaluate that difficult relationship in you life, and put real proactive love into practice. Ask God for wisdom and instruction, and a dose of courage to follow through. What you put into practice today could bring great results in your relationship tomorrow. God wants your relationships to bring good things into your life…because your heart matters!

Blessings,
Angie

It's time for the Church to crossover

Every student of the Word knows the story of Moses leading the children of Israel out of bondage. The goal was for Moses to lead the Israelites to the Promised Land. It was a short journey. Because of the Israelites lack of faith, not believing God, they would not go to possess the land. All those over the age of 20 (except 2) died, while they wandered 40 years in the wilderness. 1st Corinthians 10:5 tells us that "most of their bodies were scattered in the wilderness."

The travails of the Israelites is an example for the Church today. If you want to know how God acts toward sin, just look at the Israelites in the wilderness. 1st Corinthians 10:6 "Now these things (talking about the travails of the Israelites in the wilderness) became our example, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things as they also lusted." Again in verse 11 "Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come."

I believe that the Church Age is fastly coming to a close. It's time for us to cross over and possess the victory that God wants us to have. We have been wandering in the wilderness for many years waiting for God to do something great. Don't we know that the great thing God wants to do is through us? We, the born again believers, are the representatives of God on earth. He has in-dwelt us with the Sweet Holy Spirit; and John wrote in 1st John 4:4 "You are of God, little children and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world."

God has set over every local church a leader; A pastor to lead the flock, and it is time for them to start leading the people to the "promised land." When God established Joshua as the one to take the place of Moses, He told him that as He was with Moses, that He would be with him and would not leave him or forsake him (Joshua 1:5). God told Joshua four times to be strong and of good courage. The same is true for the pastors today. Too many are too weak kneed to stand up for the truth of God's Word, so they let the people in the church that are not right with God dictate how the church goes. It's high time for the pastors to take up their role. They need to warn the people that as God told Joshua "Who ever rebels against your command and does not heed your words, in all that you command him, shall be put to death. Only be strong and of good courage." (Joshua 1:18). A pastor that does not take the responsibility of leadership that God has given him will be in sad shape when he stand before God at the Judgment Seat of Christ. If he would just look at the example of the Israelites as God ask us to do, he would see the victory is ours. It is God that fights the battles for us. We just have to be willing to go, the Promised Land is ours.

Those who have a pastor that will not lead you need to seek God and ask Him to send you one that will lead your church. Remember church, the pastor leads but you have the responsibility to follow his lead as long as he is following Christ.

Recipes for a healthy new school year

Submitted by Eva Bolton,
UF/IFAS Family Nutrition Program Assistant

Bolton

With a new school year just starting, these tips can help your children's nutrition and health earn an A+.

For good health and healthy weight, eating the right foods and the right amount of physical activity are important. Be sure to pack healthy, fun and nutritious foods, and include physical activity into your family's daily routine.

Depending on their age, many children know healthy eating basics. Most children know that they need to eat smart and move their bodies to stay healthy. The challenge is turning that knowledge into smart eating practices.

Children learn their food habits by watching others-not just parents, but also friends. Your food choices and lifestyle habits help set your children's decisions and behavior.

Keep a regular meal schedule: When meals aren't regular or when meals are missed, children tend to snack more heavily throughout the day, so they're less hungry at mealtime.

Empower your kids: Involve kids in planning meals and snacks. Encourage your children to try new foods without forcing or bribing them. Keep fresh fruit on the counter where kids can see it. Wash and cut up veggies, so they're ready to eat.

Eat as a family: Aim for all family members to eat together at least once a day. Cook fast and eat slowly, allowing time for you to pay attention to feeling full. If your family is always "on the go", designate family dinner nights.

Snacks can be healthy: Healthy snacks can supply nutrients that may be missing from the rest of the day's meals. Children enjoy foods with sensory appeal: brightly colored fruits and vegetables; freshly cut watermelon; soft, creamy cheese with crisp, crunchy crackers. Offer snacks two hours or more before meals, that way kids will be hungry at mealtime.

Physical activity: Children need to move for good health. Encourage the whole family to exercise together. Go for a bike ride, play tennis or shoot hoops. Children need at least 60 minutes of physical activity a day.

Eating smart and moving more can lead your kids to a healthy and successful school year.

For more information on family and children's nutrition, call Eva Bolton, Family Nutrition Program, Lafayette County Extension Office, at 386-294-4236 or log on to www.eatright.org.

How To Help Kids Transition Back To The Classroom

The dawn of a new school year is an exciting time. Kids may not want to say goodbye to days spent lounging by the pool, but such disappointment is often tempered by the prospect of returning to school with friends.

For parents, getting kids ready for a new school year is about more than updating their wardrobe or organizing carpools with fellow parents. Reacclimating kids to the routine of school after a relaxing summer is a significant undertaking, and the following are a handful of ways for parents to get a head start as the school year draws closer.

As a new school year draws nearer, parents can employ several strategies to help their kids readjust to the rigors of the classroom.

* Establish a routine over the last few weeks of summer. Summer vacations typically lack the structure of the school year, and that lack of structure can help kids unwind and make the most of the freedom that summer vacation provides. But as summer starts to wind down, parents can begin to reintroduce some structure into their kids' lives to make the transition back to school go more smoothly. Plan morning activities so kids can readjust to waking up early each day. In addition, serve breakfast, lunch and dinner at the same time you typically serve it during the school year so kids' bodies can begin to readjust as well.

* Take kids along when shopping for school supplies. If you plan to buy your child a new computer or other supplies for the upcoming school year, take him or her along on your shopping trips. Kids who get to choose their supplies might be more excited about returning to school than those youngsters who are given what they need without offering their input.

* Monitor or assign summer reading. Many students are given summer reading lists to keep their minds sharp over the summer and prepare them for upcoming coursework. Parents should monitor kids' progress on such reading lists and even discuss the books with their kids when possible. Read the books along with them if you think it will help engage them. If kids were not assigned summer reading lists at the end of the school year, assign your own books, rewarding kids when they finish a new book. Kids who read throughout the summer may be more likely to start the school year off on the right foot than those who don't crack a book all summer.

* Encourage kids to sign up for extracurricular activities. Many school-aged athletes get a head start on the new school year by trying out for sports teams. Such tryouts often commence a week or two before a school year is scheduled to begin, and this can help kids ease their way back into the school year. But even nonathletes can begin pursuing extracurricular activities before the first school bell of the year rings. Theater programs may begin auditions or encourage interested youngsters to attend orientation meetings before the dawn of the school year, and such sessions can be a great and pressure-free way for kids to ready themselves for a new school year.

The arrival of a new school year can be both exciting and daunting. But parents can help their youngsters readjust to school in various ways after a relaxing summer.

Servings: 32 meatballs

- 2 pounds bulk spicy Italian sausage
- 1/2 cup Gallo Family Vineyards Red Moscato
- 1 cup plain Greek yogurt
- 1/4 cup extra virgin olive oil
- 1/2 cup diced cucumber
- 1 lemon
- 1/4 cup cilantro, chopped
- Parmesan cheese, optional

Preheat oven to 350°F.

In large bowl, stir together sausage and Moscato until combined. Using medium cookie scoop, form meatballs and place on baking sheet, evenly spaced. Bake for 25–30 minutes or until no longer pink.

Meanwhile, in small bowl stir together all other ingredients to create yogurt sauce.

Thread meatballs onto skewers and serve alongside yogurt sauce. Garnish with additional cilantro and grated Parmesan cheese, if desired.

Strawberry Pink Moscato Ice Pops

Prep time: 15 minutes (plus at least 10 hours to freeze)
Cook time: 1 minute
Servings: 16

Fruity layer:

- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup water
- 1 pound ripe strawberries, hulled
- 1 pinch of fine sea salt
- 8 fluid ounces Gallo Family Pink Moscato

Creamy layer:

- 1 can (14 ounce) sweetened condensed milk
- 1 1/2 cups half and half
- 1 cup heavy cream
- 1 tablespoon orange blossom water
- 1 pinch of fine sea salt

To make fruity layer, combine sugar and water in small saucepan. Heat over low, stirring until sugar dissolves. Remove from heat and let cool completely.

Add cooled syrup, strawberries and salt to jar of blender and puree until almost smooth, leaving bit of texture. Stir in pink moscato.

To make creamy layer, place everything into a 4-cup capacity measuring cup with a spout and whisk together until well combined.

To freeze, fill ice pop molds about one-fifth of way with either mixture (layers can be any size or amount you choose). Put in freezer until first layer is set enough to hold another layer, 60–90 minutes. Store mixtures in fridge between layers.

Remove and fill another one-fifth with opposite mixture. Return to freezer until layer is set. Repeat until molds are filled to top, adding ice pop sticks in once third layer is added (adjust to type of ice pop mold).

After final layer is added, freeze at least another 6–8 hours before serving. To serve, run bottom of molds under hot water for few seconds, or until able to pull ice pop free from mold. (If using paper cup, just peel cup away.)

Note: If you don't want layers, whisk mixtures together. You can also make each layer into its own ice pop, if you choose.

Blackberry Moscato Bellini

Servings: 1

- 1/4 cup blackberries
- 1 tablespoon water
- 5 ounces chilled Gallo Family Vineyards Moscato
- 1 whole blackberry for garnish

Combine blackberries and water in blender and puree until smooth. Strain through fine-mesh strainer, discarding seeds and solids. Fill bottom of chilled Champagne coupe with blackberry puree. Top with Moscato and garnish with fresh blackberry.

Moscato Moscow Mule

Servings: 1

- 4 ounces ginger beer
- 3 ounces Gallo Family Vineyards Moscato
- 1 ounce lime juice
- 1 lime wheel
- 1 mint sprig for garnish

Pour ginger beer, Moscato and lime juice into ice-filled copper mug. Garnish with lime wheel and mint sprig.

Moscato Mango Mojito

Servings: 1

- 1 lime, cut into eighths
- 5 leaves basil, plus more for garnish
- 1/2 teaspoon demerara sugar
- 1 1/4 ounces Gallo Family Vineyards Moscato
- 1 ounce white rum
- 1 1/4 ounces mango puree or mango nectar

Muddle lime, basil leaves, and sugar in bottom of cocktail shaker. Fill with ice; add Moscato, white rum and mango nectar. Shake and strain into ice-filled rocks glass. Garnish with basil sprig.

Level: Beginner

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
