Emergency Services budget does not address staffing problems

livi.stanford@dailyccommercial.com

Lake Emergency Medical Services' budget for fiscal year 2015 includes $1 million for ambulances and equipment, a 3 percent increase in salaries, and funding for a new data analyst and an associate medical director.

However, the budget does not include money to staff all its ambulances around the clock, a decision that is drawing criticism from the local firefighters union.

Six of Lake EMS's 19 ambulances operate just 13 hours a day, including the one in the Four Corners area of south Lake. The Station 112 ambulance moves to Mascotte at night because that area has a larger volume of calls, EMS officials say.

When that occurs, ambulances from neighboring stations respond to any medical calls that come in to Station 112.

Lt. Jeremy Hendrix, spokesman for the Professional Firefighters of Lake County, said there should be an ambulance at night at Station 112.

"In my opinion, the more am-der patient care for as long as needed. We are trying to expedite the transport of the citizen to the hospital."

Jerry Smith, Lake EMS executive director, said it would cost $150,000 to have the ambulance there 24 hours.

Lake County commissioners voted 3 to 2, with commissioners Leslie Campione and Welton Cadwell dissenting, to reduce the 18 percent increase in property taxes next fiscal year to 11.4 percent.

The cuts come at a cost to south Lake residents. In an effort to reduce the budget and lessen the tax increase, the commission cut funding for a new county park outside Clermont.

Commissioner Sean Parks said after the meeting he was disappointed the commission voted down the park project.

"I hope the community will rise to show support to get it back on the list," he said. "I don't think what we are asking for is crazy."

Clermont residents will have the opportunity to catch a glimpse of the city's new logo in action on a new $287,916 Wayne Curb-tender Side Loader recently delivered to the Sanitation Department.

The new logo, decided by a unanimous council vote last month, is part of the city's ongoing branding process, which includes the new

"Choice of Champions" motto and logo and a master plan that will take Clermont into the next 10-20 years.

"The truck even beat us in business cards," City Spokeswoman Doris Bloodsworth said, referring to city stationery with the new logo that has not yet been delivered.

Travis and Murry move on to November election

ROXANNE BROWN | Staff Writer
roxanne.brown@dailyccommercial.com

Diane Travis and Tim Murry were the top vote-getters last week in a three-way race for Clermont City Council and will face each other in November to decide the winner of the District 5 seat.

Travis garnered 44.38 percent, or 1316 votes, while Murry received 33.32 percent or 988 votes. Thomas Spencer finished out of the running with 22.29 percent, or 661 votes.

According to Clermont's charter, a runoff election will be held in November between Travis and Murry.

Spencer, 43, who will not go on, said at a hob nob recently that he was thankful for the opportunity to meet so many people during his campaign.

Travis, 60, said she was glad to hear she was moving on. In the midst of her travels since 7 a.m., going from precinct to precinct all day to greet voters, Travis said she was surprised that no other candidates were there with her.

"I am so grateful for all the support I received being that this is the first time I've ever run

Travis, a longtime resident of Clermont and owner of Travis Realty Group, has said she wants to be an integral part of the city's master planning process.

Murry, at a Clermont workshop and council meeting Tuesday evening, got word that he'd be going on to the general election. Murry said he was excited about the venture.

"I thank the people for all their support and am grateful for the confidence in me voters showed in pushing me forward to the next round," Murry said, adding that he'd be continuing with his door-to-door and personal campaigning efforts for

November's final vote so that he can get to work on issues that are in the best interest of all the resident of Clermont and the city. "It's time to start a new round of campaigning and my goal now is to win so I can get to work on the issues that need to be addressed."

Murry, 60, a lifelong resident of Clermont, veteran of the United States Air Force and employee of the Postal Service, said he is running on a four-pronged platform: attracting jobs and offering attractive pay; implementing things brought up during a series of visioning workshops in 2013; revitalizing downtown Clermont; and continuing as an advocate for activities for local youth.

Currently sitting in Seat 5 is council member Rick Van Wagner, a local pastor who in not seeking re-election to that seat in order to run for mayor.

Longtime Mayor Hal Turville is stepping down, which means it will be Wagner against former council member and retired educator Gail Ash on the Nov. 4 ballot.

Seat 1 council member Timothy Bates will remain in his seat for another two years, since he ran unopposed for his spot.

ident of the Professional Firefighters of Lake County. From Jan. 1 to Dec. 31, 2013, there were 959 medical calls at that station.

When the ambulance was moved to the Mascotte station in April 2013, Station 112 handled 244 medical calls during the overnight hours through Dec. 31, 2013.

The next closest station to 112 is Lake EMS station 361, which is six miles away, according to data from the Professional Firefighters of Lake County.

In July, during the times when the ambulance was not staffed, ambulances covering for the unstaffed station 112 ran a total of 18 calls in which they arrived an average of eight minutes after Fire Rescue was already on the scene, according to the Professional Firefighters.

Smith said the decision to move the ambulance was based on the larger volume of calls in Mascotte at night.

"If we don't have a 24-hour unit in Mascotte at midnight, the ambulance comes from Minneola or Clermont," he said.

Lake County Fire Rescue staffs its trucks with paramedics who provide advanced life support, the same as EMS. The difference is that Fire Rescue does not transport patients to the hospital.

There are instances, Hendrix said, when a patient is waiting a few extra minutes for an ambulance.

Hendrix is also concerned about restrictions on calling for help from surrounding stations in Polk and Osceola counties during instances when a Lake EMS unit is further away from Station 112.

"If there was a life-threatening emergency and the other agency was closer" it would help, he said.

Hendrix said there have been three to five instances in the last two years when that request has been made and Lake EMS has denied it.

He could not state the severity of the incidents.

"The administration response is because Lake EMS holds the Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity in the county, they can dictate that particular protocol or rule who they allow to transport," he said.

Calls to Lake County Assistant Fire Chief Jack Fillman and Chief John Joliff were not returned.

Smith, however, concurred with Hendrix's explanation.

"It is inappropriate for us to use other services on a routine basis," Smith said.

Since Oct. 1, 2012, Lake EMS used mutual aid on 16 occasions, Smith said because it was appropriate for those particular incidents.

"We are in the business of transporting the citizens and visitors in Lake County," he said. "Those other agencies are not supported by Lake County tax dollars to support our citizens."

Commissioner Tim Sullivan said he had "no clue" about the issue in south Lake regarding the ambulance.

However, a public records request obtained by The Daily Commercial shows an email written to Sullivan this past March from a citizen concerned about the loss of an ambulance at night.

In an email to Sullivan, Rob Henzmann questioned how the cut in service occurred.

"Who decided that it is OK to put me and my family at risk by taking trucks out of service due to budget cuts? Henzmann wrote. "I am sure that the residents of Lake County would be willing to stomach an increase in property tax if we are actually getting the emergency services we deserve."

But while the EMS budget does not contain funding for new paramedics, it does contain requests for two administrative positions.

The data analyst position is expected to cost $40,000 annually, while associate medical director services are taken out

Incumbent Terry T. Neal retains county judge seat

Incumbent Lake County Judge Terry T. Neal, of Leesburg easily defeated Clermont attorney Daniel David Archer Aug. 26 to claim another six-year term.

"I am relieved," Neal, 59, said last week while she celebrated her win with friends and her husband, John.

Earlier in the day, the judge traveled to different polls and received well wishes from voters.

"The people that I ran into were all very supportive and have been so kind and gracious," she said. "It has been just a wonderful experience."

Appointed to the bench in December 2005 by then-Gov. Jeb Bush, Neal had no opposition in the last election. Tuesday's primary race was Neal's first time being challenged by an opponent.

Woman guilty of shooting man through door

After almost six hours of deliberations, a Lake County jury came back with a reduced manslaughter verdict Wednesday evening against a woman who shot her live-in boyfriend to death through a bathroom door.

Because she was armed at the time, Shelia Denise Brothers faces a maximum of 30 years in prison as opposed to the minimum 25 years she could have gotten on the second-degree murder charges that she stood trial for in the 2013 Labor Day death of 43-year-old Michael Hyland.

A judge will decide her sentence at a later date.

According to testimony, the couple had just arrived home after a night of drinking when Brothers started screaming, cursing and hitting Hyland after he refused to tell her why he had been acting rude toward her that night. Hyland retreated into their bathroom and sat behind the door to get away from her. Brothers retrieved a .38-caliber Smith & Wesson from her china closet and fired two bullets into the bathroom door.

The first bullet struck the top of the door and the second, fatal one near the bottom.

FRUITLAND PARK

No charges filed in septic tank drowning

No charges will be filed in the Fruitland Park drowning of Marissa Leigh Ann Daniel, the 2-year-old who fell into an uncovered septic tank in February, according to the State Attorney's Office.

Trying to determine if manslaughter charges would be filed in the Feb. 5 death, prosecutors said there have been no previous court decisions that could provide a precedent that Deborah and Christopher Garcia's failure to replace the septic tank's broken cover at their Jewell Street home went beyond mere negligence.

"While the failure to cover the septic tank is deplorable and tragic in its result, the case law fails to reveal any decision involving facts that are similar to this case," Assistant State Attorney Bass states in a memo explaining the decision.

The Garcias were moving out the home on Feb. 5 and the child's family had come to help. Marissa wandered off in the backyard and fell through a 12-inch by 18-inch opening and was found dead in the septic tank.

Review: Lake EMS not adopting national standards

LIVI STANFORD | Staff Writer
livi.stanford@dailycommercial.com

A followup review of Lake Emergency Medical Services' response times and user fees found national benchmarks and standards have not been adopted, even though a 2013 audit recommended the agency do so.

The National Fire Protection Association guidelines state that "responders with advance life support capabilities should arrive within 8 minutes to 90 percent of the incidents to which they are dispatched."

By comparison, Lake EMS response times from January through March 2014 show the agency arriving in rural areas within an average of 22 minutes; 12 minutes and 52 seconds in suburban areas; and 9 minutes and 45 seconds in urban areas.

Lake EMS made improvements in response times only in suburban areas.

Bob Melton, inspector general with the Lake County Clerk of Court's Office, who conducted the followup review, said this issue concerned him most.

"Response times are life and death situations," he said. "In many cases, response times are not meeting the established standards that are out in the marketplace. It is critical that EMS adopt some standards and then follow those standards to ensure the best possible

Paramedic Ashley Lawrence responds to a crash in Leesburg, on Dec. 30

Jerry Smith, Lake EMS executive director, said while the organization has not made recommendations to the board, it is planning to in the near future.

"We just recently were able to validate the data in a way we could present it and eliminate human calculations," Smith said.

Lake EMS is transitioning to an automated system to track their calls.

"I don't want to have any suspicion of intentional manipulation," he said, adding that it has never been done.

"I want to eliminate that position."

But Melton disagreed that Lake EMS should wait.

"We would recommend that EMS go ahead and adopt some type of standard response times and as the system becomes more efficient and more automated those standards could be adjusted as appropriate," he said.

Of the 12 recommendations in the original audit, the review found four were implemented, two were partially implemented and six were not implemented.

Another recommendation that was not implemented included hiring a consultant to review the entire system, including fire services, to achieve system efficiencies.

The consultant could help place the units in the "most efficient areas to achieve efficient and minimum response times," Melton said.

Smith said, however, that the County Commission determined there was no funding to pay for a consultant this year. Also the county is in the process of approving automatic aid agreements with neighboring cities.

Specific recommendations on how response times are measured were implemented.

Response times are now being generated at the 90th percentile compared to the average response time previously, Melton said.

The agency also corrected errors in response times.

According to an internal audit conducted in May 2013, the first error type involved situations when two ambulances responded to a call and the software only calculated the response time for the second ambulance.

The audit looked at 141 Priority 1 incidents and found that 57 percent of those incidents "reported an incorrect response time."

Melton said the issue has been corrected because Lake EMS is no longer using the same reporting system.

Further, Lake EMS has addressed substantial hospital bed delays, Melton said.

"The hospital bed delays have decreased substantially and EMS has taken effective action to reduce those delays to reasonable levels," Melton said.

While Smith said he and the auditor disagree on some conclusions on the audit with Smith contending more progress has been made then noted, Melton said there is a clear distinction.

"We audit the status as opposed to taking management's word for it," he said.

Cooper Library celebrates 5 years

ROXANNE BROWN | Staff Writer
roxanne.brown@dailycommercial.com

Clermont residents and employees celebrated Cooper Memorial Library's fifth anniversary Thursday, and a lot of credit for the facility's success was given to the Friends of the Library organization.

"They're fantastic," said Boyd Bruce, Cooper's regional brand manager. "I've been a branch manager for 25 years and this is the most active group of friends I've ever seen."

According to Priscilla Suffredini, the immediate past president of the friends, the non-profit organization has about 60 members, who are mostly seniors. They provide funding for things not covered by the county's library system, like most of the children, adult and musical programs offered throughout the year.

More recently, Suffredini said, the Friends purchased $1,500 worth of magazine subscriptions when that program dwindled. They also buy DVDs and books as needed, and recently stepped up to purchase a 3-D printer along with three charging stations for iPhones and other electronic devices.

"We try to keep as busy as possible raising as much money as we can because every time we earn a penny, the library's got something they need," Suffredini said.

Priscilla Suffredini

There are some things that money can't buy and the Friends take care of that, too.

"We have one volunteer who comes in every week just to glue pages that are falling off some of the older books so that they last longer," Suffredini said.

The original Cooper memorial library was a 720-square-foot facility built in 1914 on DeSoto Street. It moved to two other downtown locations before the new Cooper Memorial joint-use 50,000-square-foot library was built five years ago on the Lake-Sumter State College campus. ## Officials discuss possible locations for new police station

roxanne.brown@dailycommercial.com

Clermont city commissioners aren't too thrilled with two proposed locations for a new police station on the Clermont Community Center property.

Site A — about 4 acres facing north toward Hammock Ridge Road, next to a newly built independent living facility — will cost $2,474,719, said Kevin Ratigan, vice president of the company that designed the 30,000-square-foot police station to replace the current 7,000-square-foot facility in downtown Clermont.

Site B — about 3 acres adjacent to the Arts and Recreation building — will cost $1,315,002, or $1 million less than Site A.

These costs would be in addition to the station's projected price tag of $6,408,401.

With Site A, the city would have to remove a lot of trees and construct retaining walls, commissioners were told. The odd shape of the parcel would require a parking lot some distance away.

Problems with Site B include the fact it would face the community pool, require an extension of utilities and the proposed building would eat up a recreation field also used for overflow parking.

Mayor Hal Turville expressed concerns about Site A.

"With all the things we have, the rec center may need to be expanded one day and this (site) would take away the closest location to do that," he said.

Council members said they wanted to look at a couple of other locations on the property, including a piece of land facing U.S. Highway 27 at the bottom of the hill.

FINDERS KEEPERS

FINDERS KEEPERS was opened on November 1, 2010 on 8th and Montrose streets in Historic Downtown Clermont. Owner, Pat Matson, who retired after 30 years in the corporate business world, decided she could finally follow her dream of owning her own small business. Not exactly sure what Finders Keepers would be today it has evolved into a Unique Gift, Home Décor and gently used Furniture boutique.

Customers enjoy the unique items they can purchase at Finders Keepers and appreciate the ever turning inventory with new items being introduced daily. According to Pat "finding the treasures and merchandising them is what she loves to do." "Selling is just something I have to do to stay in business" she laughs.

Having expanded twice in the past 4 years, Pat contributes her success to her husband Bob's support and the assistance of her "baby girl", as she refers to her, Jennifer Silva. Jen is really the salesperson, she is a real go getter and is always here for me. We are all a great team that makes FINDERS KEEPERS the success that it is.

Whether you are looking for a birthday or wedding gift, something funny to give to someone or great furniture for your home FINDERS KEEPERS is where you will find it. Open Tuesday through Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Sunday 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. you will be greeted by the smiles of either Pat or Jen and usually on Sundays both will be in the boutique. Stop in and say Hi, you never know what you may find.

Pat and her husband Bob Matson have lived in Clermont for the past 11 years and have 4 children and 8 grandchildren. When not working they love to travel and are getting ready for a three week Norway trip in July. Not to worry FINDERS KEEPERS will be open in the capable hands of Jen. To be sure there will be a huge sale when momma is gone.

letters on the side door of the truck.

"Residents have already started commenting to the drivers on how they like the new, fresh look," Brian Camp, the Sanitation Department's environmental services manager, said in an email.

The next thing that will be branded with the new logo is the water tower on State Road 50 near Citrus Tower Boulevard.

Bloodsworth said the tower was recently painted, so only the logo needs to be redone. She said the old logo will be primed and painted over with the new one.

Eventually, signs around town, buildings and other things will incorporate the new logo, she said.

As for the new side loader, Camp said it was purchased to upgrade the city's fleet from its previous 2006 side loader.

"Sanitation vehicles work very hard and the amount of stops and refuse collected takes a toll on the vehicle," Camp said.

The new side loader also allows the driver to pick up and empty carts without leaving the truck. It can pick up 900 to a 1,000 carts a day. The truck can haul up to 26,000 pounds of trash, which is removed from the truck by the driver pushing a button in the cab. The truck dumps the load without the driver having to ever touch the trash, Camp said.

"At present, the truck will be used to pick up household solid waste. The truck will be used where ever it is needed across the city," Camp said.

Residents are being reminded to place their garbage dumpsters at least 4 feet away from any obstacles, i.e. cars, recycling bins, poles, mailboxes, signs.

BUDGET

Meanwhile, Campione said she voted against the reduction because she did not support any type of increase at all, while Cadwell did not support cutting a storm water project to reduce the tax increase as well as using non-recurring revenue to balance the budget.

The commission is grappling with a $15 million shortfall. Commissioners made $5.8 million in changes to the budget, including deciding to phase in improvements to the county judicial center over time at a cost of $2.4 million next year, compared to $5 million budgeted.

Commissioners also will use solid waste reserves of $500,000 to clean up a fuel spill in Astatula, cut $400,000 in economic incentives, cut $1.29 million slated for a new park in south Lake and save $1.1 million by deferring a storm water project.

County Manager David Heath previous-

"I am not ready to abandon the parks and recreation system. All fixes we are talking about is what got us here: using non-recurring revenue to shore it up. Next year there is no money fairy that is going to come and fix it. A property tax is not a fair tax. Some have to pay more than what they consider their fair share."

Lake County Commissioner Welton Cadwell

ly said in order to avoid closing libraries, laying off 30 to 50 employees, cutting grant programs and other services, the commission would have to raise taxes.

The 11.4 percent increase would mean a tax hike of $69 for a home with a taxable value of $100,000.

One pot of money commissioners used to offset the tax increase was the penny sales tax that the county shares with the Lake County School District and the area's municipalities.

The county commission's share was committed to a number of major projects, such as the regional park in south Lake and renovations to the courthouse.

Commissioners moved funding from the penny sales tax to the general fund to help offset the tax increase.

Further, by deferring a storm water project that would treat water in the pond before it goes into the the aquifer, commissioners were able to shift $1.1 million into the parks system, making up a shortfall.

The budget shortfall results from a $3.6 million increase for the sheriff to fund deputy raises and a slight increase in the budgets of all other constitutional officers; a $1 million shortfall in the parks budget; $2 million more in the Lake EMS budget to fund capital needs and salary increases; and $1.2 million more for the county fire department budget; $500,000 to mitigate a fuel spill in Astatula; $300,000 for security for a tunnel to the new courthouse to transfer prisoners to the new section for trials and other items.

Cadwell said he took issue with using non-recurring revenue year after year to make up for the shortfall in the budget.

"I am not ready to abandon the parks and recreation system," he said. "All fixes we are talking about is what got us here: using non-recurring revenue to shore it up. Next year there is no money fairy that is going to come and fix it. A property tax is not a fair tax. Some have to pay more than what they consider their fair share."

While voting with Cadwell for opposite reasons, Campione said a tax increase could harm the area's economy.

"We should talk less about quality of life and keep the focus on the economy and our taxpayers and give them some relief and then those other things will fall into place and they will happen," she said.

Later, Cadwell emphasized how important parks and libraries were to economic development.

"The value we get from libraries, parks and organized activities in parks is hard to quantify," he said. "I guarantee it has something to do with that crime rate" referring to the low crime rate in the county.

Meanwhile, Commission Chairman Jimmy Conner took responsibility for the budget shortfall the county finds itself in.

"Where we are is largely my fault because I have been so determined not to raise taxes that every year we just got by and by and reserves are down to 7 percent and we can't get by anymore," he said.

Eagles score early, often in blowout win over Knights

FRANK JOLLEY | Staff Writer

CLERMONT — For most of its first 12 years, The Dungeon — the football field for the East Ridge High School football team — was a house of pain for the opposition.

In Thursday's season-opening game against South Lake, it was a gridiron purgatory for the home team.

South Lake scored touchdowns on its first six possessions and on nine of 10 for the game, as the Eagles routed the Knights 62-3.

The Eagles (1-0) wasted little time getting on the scoreboard. After forcing a fumble to snuff out a promising opening drive for the Knights, South Lake scored on four plays, with Kevin Evans racing into the end zone from 18 yards out less than four minutes into the game.

After giving up a 23-yard field goal by Zach Block for East Ridge's only points of the game, South Lake scored on its next offensive play, a 65-yard scamper by Evans. Later in the quarter, Nick Guidetti connected with Brandon Walker on a 49-yard touchdown pass.

South Lake established superiority at the line of scrimmage on both sides of the ball. The Eagles' line-men had the Knights on their heels from the opening kickoff.

The Eagles' front wall often pushed East Ridge so far off the ball that Evans and Chuckie Hutchinson were 10 yards downfield before a defender was able to get a hand on them. When South Lake called for a pass, Guidetti had plenty of time to find a receiver.

At halftime, South Lake enjoyed a 41-3 lead and accumulated 348 yards of total offense, while limiting the Knights to 85.

The entire second half was played with a running clock.

South Lake finished with 536 yards of total offense — 399 yards on the ground and 137 through the air. Evans led the ground attack with 127 yards on seven carries and two touchdowns, while Hutchinson totaled 118 yards on 13 carries with two touchdowns.

Guidetti, like most of the Eagles' starters, played one series in the second half. The senior signal-caller completed 8-of-12 passes with two scoring strikes.

South Lake hosts Lake Minneola on Friday while East Ridge travels to Tavares. Both games are set to kick off at 7 p.m.

TAVARES

South Lake tops Tavares in 3 games

PAUL BARNEY | Staff Writer
 paul.barney@dailycommercial.com

South Lake coach Stephanie Tibbetts and her team worked on being aggressive on every ball during practice on Aug. 25.

That aggressiveness carried over into the season opener, where the Eagles swept Tavares in three sets, 25-15, 25-22 and 25-11.

"The thing I'm most excited about is they took what we worked on in practice yesterday and executed it perfectly," Tibbetts said.

Bre'tte Ison led South Lake (1-0) with five kills, while Samantha Tirri added four kills, including two in the first set. The first set included six lead changes, and it was the sixth lead change that gave the Eagles all the momentum they needed.

Tied at 11, a kill from Sara Langer gave South Lake the lead for good as it outscored Tavares, 14-4, to end the set. The only time the Eagles trailed in the set was when an ace from Marjorie Netwal gave the Bulldogs (0-1) an 8-7 lead.

"We have a tendency to start slow, That's the one thing we definitely need to work on," Tibbetts said. "Like I said, what we worked on in practice yesterday was being aggressive on every single ball. I kept pushing that and pushing that and they did it. That's what allowed us to go on that run. We just stayed on the offensive all night."

South Lake trailed just once more in the second set, 7-6, after a kill from Quanda Brown. That was the last time the Eagles trailed the rest of the night.

Jalyn Pace's kill tied the set a t 7 as South Lake went on an 8-0 run to take a 14-8 advantage. The run was highlighted by back-to-back blocks from Langer and Pace. The Bulldogs, however, rallied back and pulled to within 19-18 before tying the set at 22 after an ace from Rachel Morris.

A service error from Tavares and an ace from Tirri, though, halted the rally and helped the Eagles close out the set, 25-22.

The toughness to fight back is something Bulldogs coach April Smith wanted to see throughout the entire match.

"That's what I kind of expected out of all three matches, so I feel like they could've done a little bit better," Smith said.

The Eagles ended the second set on a 3-0 run and started the third set the same way.

Consecutive service aces from Bethany Pake gave South Lake a 3-0 advantage and an advantage in the set. The Eagles didn't let up on offense, extending their lead to 9-2 and 13-4 before the Bulldogs called a timeout.

The timeout didn't slow down South Lake's momentum as it outscored Tavares, 12-7, to win 25-11. Pake had four service aces in the set.

South Lake students named first athletes of the week

FRANK JOLLEY | Staff Writer
 frank.jolley@dailycommercial.com

Nick Guidetti and Amanda Hulsey are groundbreakers.

The South Lake High School seniors were recognized this week as the first recipients of the South Lake All-Sports Boosters athletes of the week.

Hulsey, the captain of the cheerleading team, and Guidetti, quarterback of the football team, were presented with certificates by South Lake Principal Rob McCue in a brief ceremony on Wednesday. Afterwards, McCue spoke about the significance of the awards.

"Nick and Amanda are shining examples of South Lake High School," McCue said. "I'm honored to recognize them as the first winners of this award. They are student-athletes in every sense and are respected members of our student body."

Hulsey said she was humbled to receive the award and Guidetti called it an honor to be the first to get the weekly honor.

"I'm so glad that cheerleading is being recognized as a sport," Hulsey said. "It's a physical activity and requires as much training and skill as any other sport. We practice hard and for many hours to make sure we are ready to represent South Lake every Friday night. Even when we hurt, we have to put on a smile for the fans.

Guidetti, who completed 14 of 16 passes for 249 yards and two touchdowns in last week's Kickoff Classic pre-season game against Tavares, carries a 3.75 grade point average and hopes to study sports business in college and possibly become a sports agent. He said the academic demands on him has been lessened because he "loaded up" on credits during his first three years in high school.

"That's given me more time to get my homework done," Guidetti said. "I can focus completely on football when I'm on the field and my classwork when I'm off the field. I think it helps me in both areas."

Put the kettle on

New restaurant and shop fits mother and daughter to a 'tea'

ROXANNE BROWN | Staff Writer
roxanne.brown@dailyccommercial.com

When Erika Shanoff was a little girl, her mother Leila would often play 'tea party' with her.
'We had tea parties at home and she loved it, so I decided to start taking her to real tea rooms for real tea,' Leila Shanoff said.

Over the years growing up, Leila said she and Erika visited tea rooms in places around the United States like Tennessee and Missouri. Overseas, the pair scouted out tea rooms in France and Italy, or on farms where high tea was served in England, Ireland and Spain.

Eventually, that passion turned into a desire to open a tea room of their own — a dream that became a reality when Erika's Tea Room, a traditional English style tea room, opened its doors in downtown Clermont.

'It's been a mommy and me thing since I was little, and now it still is,' Erika said. 'We want this to be a place where people come for special foods and special parties, and where they feel they are part of our family.'

At Erika's Tea Room, at 787 West Montrose St., people can enjoy a cup of tea plus all the homemade goodies that go along with it, such as scones, tea biscuits, tea bread, cakes and coconut macaroons.

In addition, people interested in lunch at Erika's can try individual quiches, soups and sandwiches made from scratch daily.

Reservations can also be made for a high tea of finger sandwiches, scones and mini desserts.

According to Erika, people may have to visit often to try all the teas since more than 40 varieties from around the world are available.

Leila even makes a mock Devonshire cream made with cream cheese to substitute for Devonshire milk that comes from Devonshire cows found in England. Her scones are made with cranberries or raisins instead of currants, more typically

'From the comments we get, the majority of people are very happy to have this. They love the food, the atmosphere and the concept,' Leila said. 'We had a little girl from England tell us that our scones are better than the ones she has in England. It made my day.'

Leila's former colleagues are familiar with the menu items however, since she's been working to perfect the recipes, using them as her taste-testers, for the last two years.

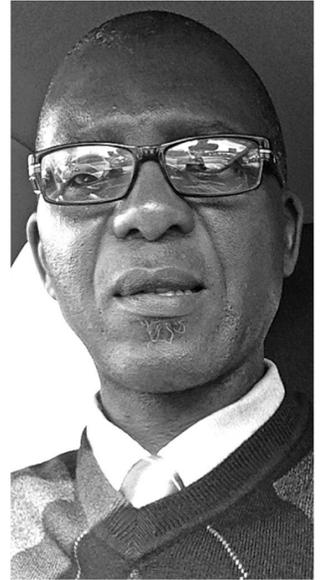

'We were looking around Florida for the perfect location and when we came to Clermont, we knew we'd found it. We fell in love with the city's homey feel,' Leila said.

Meet Your NEIGHBOR

HENRY MOYO

HOMETOWN: Groveland

OCCUPATION: Director of International Pro Soccer Academy

What do you enjoy most about South Lake County?

The laid back culture and atmosphere.

If you had to summarize your philosophy of life in one sentence, what would it be?

Live life to fullest, travel and have fun — you only live once.

Name a person or incident you've come across recently that's touched you in some way. Why did this person or incident impress you so much?

Good friends are rare but when you have one, appreciate them. My friends have been there for me and supported me in my business and personal life. The art of listening and encouraging is still the best form of friendship.

How does what you do contribute to the welfare of the area?

I am the director of International Pro Soccer Academy, which is a sports program for soccer specifically. We provide a large aspect of health and wellness, including fitness for the players. We also provide economic stability and bring awareness of the county to sports and tourism by advertising and networking internationally.

Name one of your greatest accomplishments so far.

My greatest accomplishment has been raising two sons, who in their own right, have been successful by attending college and being employed.

What's something you've always wanted to do but haven't yet?

Driving across America in an RV and going on a cruise.

What advice would you give to people who want to help out in the community?

Be bold and just step out of your comfort zone; you will be amazed at how many lives you will impact.

Special to the Daily Commercial

Big band swing, bebop, Latin, contemporary jazz, standards, popular tunes, Dixieland, vocals and patriotic selections will fill the air of the Wesley Center at First United Methodist Church of Clermont next month when the U.S. Army Jazz Ambassadors perform live in concert.

The Jazz Ambassadors, a 19-member ensemble, is the official touring big band of the United States Army. Formed in 1969, it has appeared in all 50 states, Canada, Mexico, Japan, India and throughout Europe, according to the band website.

"When we built the Wesley Center with its large venue, we really did want to open it to community and host events like this," said Lisa Busto, communications coordinator for the church.

The Wesley Center was built in 2009 on the former tiered parking lot of the Child Development Center, with a spacious new parking area on the former hospital property, according to the church website.

When the foundation of the Wesley Center was poured, church members, friends and well-wishers placed thousands of written prayers under what would become the main floor of the building dedicated to serving their immediate community.

The concert will be Sept. 10 at 7 p.m. Admission to the concert is free but tickets must be presented at the door for entry to the concert. Tickets are now available online at www.jazz910.eventbrite.com or by calling First United Methodist Church of Clermont at 352-394-2412. The church is located at 715 Juniata St. in Clermont.

The band has received great acclaim both at home and abroad performing America's original art form — jazz.

And its concerts are designed to entertain all types of audiences.

One of four performing components of The United States Army Field Band, the jazz ensemble was organized in 1969. The other groups are the Concert Band, the Soldiers' Chorus and The Volunteers. Each band tours more than a 100 days annually.

The Jazz Ambassadors began its 23-performance summer tour Aug. 27 in South Boston, Va. There will be 16 shows in Florida.

Erika's tea room can seat about 60 people. Reservations are not required but suggested to ensure a spot. A private event can be accommodated for 30 or more people.

Leila said she enjoys looking out into the parlor and seeing people from mothers and children, to husbands and wives to groups of friends, enjoying themselves.

Erika's also hosts all kinds of parties from bridal and baby showers, to rehearsal dinners, birthday and anniversary parties for people of all ages.

"Your personal tea hostess will customize you menu and make your special occasion unique," Erika said.

Adult-only tea tastings and special events will also be held periodically as will 'cooking with tea,' and etiquette classes.

A retail shop on site offers teapots, teas, jewelry, gift items, customized gift baskets, flower arrangements and other accessories to extend the tea experience for visitors.

For information, call Erika Shanoff at 908-670-2305, visit www.erikastea.com or email erikastea@gmail.com.

People can also follow the tea room or browse pictures on Pinterest or Facebook.

Tea Room hours are Tuesdays – Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. for the parlor and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. for the store. Sunday hours are 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. for the parlor and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. for the store.

THE DAILY COMMERCIAL IS LOOKING FOR WRITERS, PHOTOGRAPHERS AND PART-TIME COPY EDITORS WHO WANT TO CONTRIBUTE TO THIS AWARD-WINNING PUBLICATION. Writers and photographers will be paid by the assignment. Copy editors will work in the Daily Commercial office and will be paid per shift. We strongly prefer applicants with experience in the publishing field. The positions we are filling include:

ENTERTAINMENT/CULTURE WRITER: Should be someone who is brimming with ideas and is curious about culture, the arts and nightlife. Must be creative, passionate and adept at finding quirky features and writing the kind of trend stories that get attention.

SPORTS WRITER: We're looking for people who can cover high school sports in the fall and winter. Must have an expansive knowledge of sports, be strong writers and have the ability to turn around 300-400 word articles quickly. Ability to shoot photos is a plus.

OUTDOORS WRITER: Love fishing, biking, hiking and camping? Spend all your free time outdoors? We're looking for someone who lives for outdoor recreation, knows what Lake and Sumter counties have to offer and can write about it with style and substance. Ability to shoot photos is a plus PHOTOGRAPHER: When you look through a camera, do you see special moments where other people see average events? Whether it's the city council meeting, a photo feature on the person turning 100, a rodeo, fair or fire, we need a photographer who can document the events and draw people into the newspaper. Must shoot digital and be able to transmit photos to my email quickly and efficiently.

COPY EDITOR: Candidates must be able to demonstrate skill in editing, headline writing and page layout. The job will include evening and weekend work. Strong knowledge of InDesign is essential.

If you're interested in being part of our team, please send a brief cover letter, resume and samples of your work to Executive Editor Tom McNiff at tom.mcniiff@dailyccommercial.com

HYUNDAI ELANTRA HYUNDAI GENESIS HYUNDAI ACCENT

"Highest Ranked Small Car, Compact Car, and Midsize Premium Car in Initial Quality" - J.D. Power

The Hyundai Accent, Hyundai Elantra, and Hyundai Genesis received the lowest number of problems per 100 vehicles among small cars, compact cars, and midsize premium cars, respectively, in the proprietary J.D. Power 2014 Initial Quality Study. Study based on responses from 86,118 new-vehicle owners, measuring 239 models and measures opinions after 90 days of ownership. Proprietary study results are based on experiences and perceptions of owners surveyed in February-May 2014. Your experiences may vary. Visit jdpower.com.
