Victim home after pizza delivery shooting

BOB REICHMAN
Editor

"I was going to give them the money but I was afraid to move too quickly," said Jack Sickman. "I was really afraid to do anything. I was afraid I was going to get shot."

Jack Sickman, 46, of Lake Panasoffkee, returned home last Thursday night with a bullet hole in his cheek and damaged teeth and dental work after being shot in the face earlier that same day while he was making a pizza delivery in Royal.

The Lake Panasoffkee man will be undergoing surgery at a later date because of the shooting but for the time being, Sickman says he feels lucky to be alive.

While the injury makes talking difficult, "it could have been a lot worse," Sickman told the Times last week. The bullet entered his left cheek and is believed to have exited through his mouth.

Sickman, a former Lake Panasoffkee, firefighter, is still dismayed by the experience.

"I've never been held at gunpoint before and it was frightening," he said.

Sickman was making a pizza delivery shortly after midnight from Domino's Pizza in Wildwood to what turned out to be a bogus house address near County Road 462 and County Road 235, according to a sheriff's office report.

Sickman said after realizing the address was incorrect he was approached by two men.

"Give me the money is what they said pointing a rifle at me," according to Sickman.

While the police report says he refused to give them money, Sickman said he was in shock from the incident and was moving very slowly.

"I was going to give them the money but I was afraid to move too quickly," he said. "I was really afraid to do anything. I was afraid I was going to get shot."

He said the suspects fired a warning shot and then fired the shot that struck him in the face.

Sumter schools rank high in state

BOB REICHMAN
Editor

Sumter County elementary and middle schools achieved high academic ratings according to state rankings recently released by the Florida Department of Education (DOE).

In Sumter, 80 percent of the schools involved in the ranking received a grade of either "A" or "B," according to the state report. Both Bushnell Elementary and Lake Panasoffkee Elementary schools maintained their "A" ratings from the last DOE ranking report conducted last year. Webster Elementary School joined the group this year by climbing from a "B" rating to an "A" rating.

The staff of Webster Elementary can be credited with hard work and dedication that raised the school's ranking, according to Debbie Moffitt, school district senior curriculum developer. That dedication is then reflected in the classroom, she said.

The rankings are an indication that "we are on the right track in preparing our students to compete in a global economy,"

Outdoor fun for youths

Hot dogs, bounce houses, mounted police officers and a bloodhound were all part of the summer camp fun for children of the Center Hill Children's Mission, last week.

When the sheriff's office took over law enforcement in Bushnell, the annual Kids N' Cops event came with it. That meant an outdoor day of fun with officers. Since then, other summer camps have been benefiting from the sheriff's office. That's a chance for the youth to meet and greet officers, learn about their gear and techniques, and see their working canines up close and personal.

The Sumter County Youth Center will host a Kids N' Cops day, later this month and Bushnell held its event last week.

The Center Hill event was requested by the mission director,

Trails receive funding

Gov. Rick Scott earlier this week announced 11 new projects that will be funded this year to help advance the Coast to Coast Connector, which will provide a safe and continuous multi-use trail from the Gulf of Mexico to the Atlantic. The Department of Transportation will invest $15.9 million to complete 11 phases of separate trail segments in nine counties including Sumter County.

This new funding is in addition to the more than $26 million that has already been invested by the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) for the Connector project over the next five years.

Scott said, "This $15.9 million dollar investment will help to complete 11 sections of the Coast to Coast Connector which will help to bring more tourists to our state, and create jobs for families in our state. Our tourists increasingly desire new ways to explore this beautiful state and the Coast to Coast Con-said School Supt. Rick Shirley.

"Congratulations are in order for our students, staff and parents," he said. "While we always strive to get better, we have made significant progress over the years in the face of more challenging standards and continue to provide a quality education for all students."

But not all the news was good. One school slipped a grade - Wildwood Elementary. The school dropped from a "C" ranking last year to a "D" this year.

To contend with the lower grade, the school district will be implementing an additional hour of instruction for all students and additional support structures at the Wildwood school to improve student performance in the upcoming school year, according to a school district press release.

Moffitt said the school district is also reviewing the data from Wildwood Elementary School to try and pinpoint problem areas. Sumter may even challenge the "D" ranking if the district determines that a ranking mistake may have been made.

The school district has 30 days to challenge the results, she said.

Later this year, school officials will learn how the county high schools did when the DOE releases rankings for those schools.

High school grades, which include other factors such as: graduation rate, student participation in accelerated coursework, and post-secondary readiness will be released later in the year.

In addition, school grades are now being calculated using more rigorous scoring criteria, according to a Sumter school district press release. In the past 11 years, the State of Florida has raised expectations for school performance six times.

In the state of Florida, elementary schools, middle schools, and combination schools serving elementary and middle school grade levels are assigned a school grade based primarily upon student achievement data from the Florida Comprehensive Assessment Test (FCAT). School grades are calculated based on these factors: student achievement in reading, math, writing, and science, as well as annual learning gains for each student and the progress of the lowest quartile of students, according to the press release.

The grading scale for middle schools contains an additional component for measuring student participation and performance on high-school level end of course (EOC) assessments.

The stakes for school grades are high, affecting promotion of students, evaluation of teachers and administrators and school finances.

Schools that ranked as an "A," receive extra money from the state. Schools that have consistently failing grades can face severe consequences including staff removal and school closure.

Traditionally, each time the State of Florida has changed its standards, school grades have fallen. More information on school accountability and school grades can be found at: http://schoolgrades.fldoe.org/.

Winding up state/ world ball season

Wildwood All Stars

The Wildwood All Stars T-Ball team took on the state in early July, playing eight games for the tournament. The players won five of their eight games, coming home with the third place title, according to Coach Larry Dasher.

"We're satisfied," he said.

"They stepped up and really played hard," adding that they played so well, they beat teams they really shouldn't have beaten.

He play after play, they played well, "It was just team effort."

Bushnell T-Ball

Bushnell T-Ball Coach Cory McNeal said their team took fifth in the state.

They played five games, the only two losses were to Wesley Chapel and Sebring – the first and second place teams in the state.

wound, they then dragged Sickman from the white Dodge Ram pickup he was driving and began going through his pockets in search of money.

Taking what money Sickman had, the suspects then also took two pizzas and a two-liter bottle of Sprite and ran from the area.

"I was lying on the ground and trying to fix my cell phone" that had broken during the incident, he said.

Sickman managed to repair the phone under the dim light coming from the cab of the vehicle and call 911 for help.

Emergency workers arrived and Sickman was taken to Ocala Regional Medical Center for treatment.

This week, there are no suspects in the case.

"Detectives are working hard on it and we're putting a lot of time and effort into it," said sheriff's Lt. Bobby Caruthers.

"We are asking for help from citizens who may know something about the shooting," he said.

The suspects are described as two black males in their mid 20s, between 5-feet-6 and 5-feet-8 with slim builds, wearing white T-shirts, with bandannas covering their faces.

Anyone with information about the armed robbery should contact Sumter County Sheriff's Office Criminal Investigation Division at 352-569-1680. Ask for the lead Det. Brian Wilson. Information can also be given to CRIMELINE at 1800-423-TIPS. CRIMELINE information can be anonymous and the caller would be eligible for an award up to $1,000.

BALL

"We had the best hitting team there," McNeal said, noting that the balls with the farthest distance were hit by Bushnell players. It was a also a Bushnell player that won the homerun derby.

McNeal said they're already working on next year.

"We haven't even quit. We have a group of kids practicing two days a week."

Bushnell Majors second in state

"We played three games," said Bushnell Majors Coach Cinto Arredondo.

And of those three, they lost only one, but a change in this year's state tournament format put them out of play.

"Usually it's a double elimination," he said, but with a change, they were out with a single loss this year.

Their first tournament game was against Bartow and Bushnell took the win, 8-3.

Conner Morgan pitched a good game, with 13 strikeouts, Arredondo said.

Next up, Bushnell took on South Walton and won 17-5.

That loss came Monday night, against South Lake, 8-5.

He said South Lake was in top form and in the Monday night game, "we didn't' start hitting until the last inning. It was too late."

When complete, the Connector is expected to be over 250 miles and will link communities between St. Petersburg and Titusville into a major destination route that will allow residents and visitors to explore Central Florida by bicycle or foot. An estimated 75 percent of the trail corridor is already developed and open to the public or funded for construction.

FDOT Secretary Ananth Prasad said, "With the projects announced today, we will be moving forward this year on virtually every gap within the Coast to Coast Connector. FDOT is pleased to play such an instrumental role with our state and local partners to help advance this ambitious trail project. It will provide an exceptional experience and safe transportation route for our residents and visitors."

FDEP Secretary Herschel T. Vinyard Jr. said, "FDOT continues to be a great partner in the statewide trail effort. We are very excited that the Connector project will be the first of many efforts to complete the Florida Greenways and Trails Priority System."

Senator Andy Gardiner, Chair of the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee for Transportation, Tourism and Economic Development, has been a strong advocate for the Connector and was instrumental in setting aside the new funding.

Senator Gardiner said, "It is very rewarding to see the combined efforts of so many come together to help close the gaps in the Coast to Coast Connector. These projects represent a significant step forward for this exciting effort."

The Connector is a collaborative effort of many agencies and organizations, including the eleven Central Florida metropolitan planning organizations that signed a joint resolution last summer making the trail project a regional priority.

Along with more than nine other long distance corridors, the Connector is a state priority in the 2013-17 Florida Greenways and Trails System Plan (Plan), developed by the Florida Department of Environmental Protection's Office of Greenways and Trails, the lead entity for statewide trail planning. The plan outlines the vision for the Florida Greenways and Trails System, defining the role of the system in advancing Florida's economy, tourism, health, transportation, recreation, conservation and quality of life.

President and CEO of VISIT FLORIDA Will Seccombe said, "Florida is an incredibly diverse destination with so much more to see and do than our visitors often realize. Stretching from Tampa Bay to the Space Coast, the Coast to Coast Connector will offer a unique opportunity for them to discover some of the Sunshine State's most scenic greenways and trails."

FDOT will supervise development of the remaining Connector gaps, and local governments or other managing agencies will be responsible for operation and maintenance of the completed trail segments.

Opinion

Suspects must be found in pizza delivery shooting

There is always hope that crimes will be solved and that the perpetrators of wrong and evil deeds will be apprehended and brought to justice.

Hopefully, that will be the case for the armed robbers who reportedly shot a pizza delivery man in the face last week, dragged him from his vehicle to take money from his pants pockest and then ran off into darkness with two pizzas and a bottle of soda.

They left delivery man Jack Sickman shot and bleeding and lying beside his vehicle in darkness. Fortunately, Sickman was able to call for help with his cellular phone. And even better news, it appears that he will recover from the gunshot wound.

But what was this all about?

A man almost loses his life for two pizzas, a bottle of soda and a small amount of money?

A man is shot in the face for this?

What happened to Sickman is disturbing and senseless.

It's difficult to comprehend that such senseless acts can happen. But they do, just as large cities report news of taxicab drivers being shot and other delivery people being shot and victimized

Unfortunately, the sheriff's office hasn't made any arrests in this case but they are working on it.

Hopefully, those who were responsible for this crime will be captured and dealt with severely.

In the meantime, authorities are hopeful that members of the public may know something of the crime. Anyone with information should contact Sumter County Sheriff's Office Criminal Investigation Division at 352-569-1680. Ask for the lead Det. Brian Wilson. Information can also be given to CRIMELINE at 1800-423-TIPS. CRIMELINE information can be anonymous and the caller would be eligible for an award up to $1,000.

Grace notes

God's mercy: the original GPS

Nancy Kennedy

Special to the Times

It all started when I was a kid bothering my dad and he told me to get lost.

Ever the obedient child, I did, and I've been getting lost ever since.

Oh, I jest.

Seriously, I have no sense of direction, which for many years was a major source of contention between me and the newspaper's photographer. In giving him directions to a photo assignment I would often get something wrong and he'd end up in a swamp or empty field.

Now, thanks to GPS, he no longer gives me the stink eye. I still give bad directions; he just no longer has to depend on them.

I don't know why I'm so directionally disabled. I can't dance or do long division either, but being a bad dancer or bad at math won't get photographers mad at you.

One of my many getting lost stories took place in Tennessee. I had flown into Nashville and rented a car to drive to Clarksville. I left the lot and pointed my rented blue Neon in the direction I felt in my gut I should be heading and set off on my trip to Clarksville, continuing to follow my carefully printed out directions that said "Take I-24 for about an hour until you get to Exit 11."

Any idiot can do that, I reasoned. Oh, but I'm not just any idiot. After driving about an hour and a half, I noticed the exit numbers getting bigger, not smaller. By the time I passed Exit 84, I toyed with the idea that I was going the wrong way. Plus, I hadn't seen a Clarksville sign the entire time.

Not only that, but it was starting to get dark and not only am I directionally confused, I'm also nighttime befuddled as well. Still, I trudged onward, thinking maybe once the exit numbers got to 100 they started over again at one and that I was very close to Exit 11.

In the dark, 1,000 miles from home, I'll believe anything that sounds remotely logical.

By Exit 110, I realized I was lost and had no idea how to get to Clarksville. My only consolation was that I had a full tank of gas and that, in the middle of January, it wasn't snowing.

Since I'm a sucker for an obvious, cheesy metaphor, I've concluded that my entire life is like that excursion in trying to find my way to Clarksville. I remember as I got into the rental car I prayed, "Have mercy on me, Lord, and please get me there in one piece."

That's similar to the prayer I've prayed ever since I started this faith journey. Back then I think I asked God to give me direction and an easy road to travel, maybe a few adventures along the way (and no potholes, roadblocks, confusing forks in the road or detours) and please no traveling in the dark. Plus, I wanted a detailed itinerary so there would be no surprises.

Instead, God laughed and told me to get in the car and start driving, that he has the trip all planned and I would arrive at my destination eventually. Then he gave me a Bible and said, "Here's your map."

So, I've been on this road trip now for 30-some years, but it hasn't been smooth. I've gone the wrong way many times, hit speed bumps that have slowed me down, had an accident or two.

Sometimes I've driven in circles or veered so far in the wrong direction that I've wondered if I've gone too far. Often I've had to stop and admit that I was horribly lost and needed help to find my way back on the right road.

That's what I had to do to find my way to Clarksville. It was dark and late and I was tired and cranky. I stopped at a motel for the night, and in the morning a kind motel desk clerk pointed to a sign on the highway: Clarksville, 178 miles.

Later, I got there safe and sound.

I suppose if there's a lesson to be learned here it might be to trust your map and that you can't always trust your instincts or your own reasoning. Just because something "feels Northish" doesn't mean it is. You might think you're going the right way, headed to Clarksville, but you end up in Chattanooga.

Even so, if God has put you on the road, he will make sure you arrive at your destination, not only in one piece, but perfected in the image of Christ.

BEYOND SUMTER

Letters to the editor

Thanks for support

The Sumter County Sheriff's Office Benevolent Association has presented a check for $2,673.60 to the Early Learning Coalition of the Nature Coast in support of the School Readiness Program in Sumter County. The School Readiness Program helps prepare at-risk children for success in kindergarten, as well as assisting families in becoming self-sufficient by helping with their child care costs. The program requires that the Early Learning Coalition raise private donations to draw down the federal funding for each community. Every $1 donated enables the Early Learning Coalition to receive $15.67 in federal funds. This means the donation from the Sheriff's Office will equate to over $40,000 in federal funding for our local community. 100 percent of donations received are used for services to children.

The Early Learning Coalition of the Nature Coast is so very grateful for the support of the Sumter County Sheriff's Office.

"I want to get the children thinking that law enforcement is their friend," she said, of requesting the event.

Lt. Pat Breeden and Lt. Bobby Caruthers put the date into play, with school resource officers Matt Higgins and Beatrize Garrity and Center Hill Police Chief Roger Odom leading the Center Hill event.

The children chatted with firefighters, SWAT team members and other officers. They watched a demonstration of the canines from the two who pursued and held a "suspect" in position, to the bloodhound that actually followed the trail of one of the children.

Some of the children sat on a law enforcement motorcycle and gave Peppy a pat. Peppy is a 17-year-old quarter horse, used by Webster officer Mark Newby rides as a mounted police officer.

Klein operates the mission with her husband, Warren Smith. They open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the summer, on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Klein works with the children on crafts and summer fun events, offering breakfast and lunch.

They currently have between 15 and 20 children, aged three years to 16 years, she said.

Chamber of Commerce to honor local heroes at event

The Sumter County Chamber of Commerce has a lot to celebrate. Attendance at their monthly networking luncheons are at an all time high, membership continues to grow, and their annual signature events are creating a buzz in the community.

Most recently their Show Me the Money Business Expo held at the Savannah Center showcased 50 businesses and attracted hundreds of attendees, the largest crowd in the event's history.

Planning for their next signature event, The Annual Red, White and Blue BBQ, is already under way. This event, being held on Aug. 7 at George Nahas Chevrolet, celebrates Sumter County's local heroes, the Police, Fire, and EMS professionals.

These outstanding men and women spend weekends and holidays away from their families risking their safety to protect the safety of Sumter citizens. Their support makes strengthens the community and gives residents pride in their hometown. The Red, White, and Blue BBQ will feature the Valor Awards which celebrates one individual from each department within Sumter County that has exhibited outstanding valor and excellence over the past year.

This year, for the first time, a deserving citizen will also be honored with the PSL Community Builder Award. The PSL Community Builder Award was created by PSL Construction to enable the Sumter County chamber to recognize an outstanding community leader who has distinguished themselves through their service to the community.

The PSL Community Builder Award is not necessarily designed to be given only to the obvious leaders of the community, those in the limelight, although they certainly must be considered. The Community Builder is an active and involved citizen who is committed to building a stronger Sumter community. Often times the award is bestowed upon a man or woman who, year in and year out, quietly and without fanfare , show their devotion to their community and its people through volunteerism, sponsorship, acts of kindness and valor without the expectation of awards or honors.

Through their actions, these community builders make Sumter County a better place to live, work and raise a family.

PSL Construction, which began in 1999 as Bricks-N-Stix, was founded by Wildwood native, Sean Williams. Along with wife, Justine, PSL has built a reputation as one of the premiere home builders, remodelers and framers throughout Sumter County and The Villages. PSL prides itself on its commitment to community and has been a supporter and sponsor of numerous local organizations and events.

In 2014, PSL's Sean Williams was named the Sumter County Chamber "Businessman of The Year" and received recognition in the 2014 Home Builders Association of Lake and Sumter Counties "Parade of Homes.

Presenting sponsors of the 2014 Red, White, and Blue BBQ are Tri County Landscape, T&D Family of Companies, PSL Construction, T&D Family of Companies, Events by Miss Daisy's, and Heart of Florida Environmental. Supporting sponsors are Webster University, Center State Bank, Cemex, Dan Gibson Photography, and Blue Monster Promotions.

For ticket information or to nominate someone for the PSL Community Builder Award, contact Samantha Merritt at 352-793-3099 or samantha@sumterchamber.org

"Everybody was surprised," he said.

The players were on their way home from Freeport Tuesday morning, but already, most of them know they'll be ready to play again next year.

In the meantime, they'll be playing travel ball with teams like the Bushnell Bandits,

Mini Minors take third, World Series

The Bushnell team represented Florida, playing eight games in the Dixie Youth World Series tournament, with two losses.

They started the week with a 12-7 win against south Carolina and then a 12-3 win against Georgia and a 10-4 win against Arkansas, according to assistant coach, Terren Guess.

On Saturday, they played four games with wins against Alabama (11-0), Virginia (7-3) and Alabama (13-12) again, with a single loss to Texas, 16-5.

Guess said Bushnell was behind in their second game against Alabama, 12-6, but they came back, winning 13-12.

During that game, Isaac Craig was on first and Ty Kadur was up to bat. Kadur hit one over the leftfielder's head, bringing Craig in for that final score.

Their final game was against Tennessee on Monday morning. A loss, Bushnell took third in the World Series tournament.

This group of players played 36 games in a little over one month, with only four losses, Guess said.

Malachi Boone made five homeruns during the tournament week, with a grand slam against Alabama. Cameron Zapata and Landon Hogan also had homeruns this week.

Guess said the Texas played 180 games together, over the past year. They also play coach pitch, which was brand new to Bushnell players.

Wildwood Middle High School coaches and players were on hand to meet golfers in the tournament that helps support the athletic department at the school.

Cash prize for golfers, big win for Wildcats

Brenda Locklear
Staff Writer

A change in the venue didn't stop golfers from participating in the 7th Annual Athletic Memorial Golf Tournament for the Wildwood Athletic Club. The event, starting with a 1 p.m. shotgun start last Friday, was held at Shady Brook Golf and RV Resort in Sumterville, earning cash prizes for golfers and serving as a big win for the Wildcats.

While the tournament is usually held at Miona Lake Golf and Country Club, the club was under renovation during the 2014 tournament schedule.

Event coordinator Lester Lucas said a variety of circumstances (sponsor retirements, economics, etc.) left the crowd a little smaller than usual, but they're happy with the success of this year's tournament. Final numbers aren't in, but Lucas believes they raised at least $10,000 for the day and the tournament was "met with a lot of enthusiasm."

He said he talked to a few of the golfers about the change of venue (Miona Lake was undergoing renovations).

"They all seemed to enjoy the course," he said, specifically mentioning the sights at Shady Brook, from its early days. Back when U.S. 301 was the main thoroughfare for Florida travel, the park was a theme park.

"We had golfers that came from Orlando, Jacksonville, Ocala, Leesburg and, of course, Sumter County," said Lucas.

Elliot West, attending Mercer College on a football scholarship, came all the way from Atlanta, Ga. as a supporter of the athletic fundraiser.

Along with the round of golf, participants were treated to the Wildwood Athletic Club's famous pulled pork barbecue dinner. The club occasionally hosts and annual barbecue fundraiser in downtown Wildwood, but regularly sells the pork at the Wildcat football games.

The tournament first place $200 prize and plaque went to Tri-County Landscape with team members Robby Strickland, Stu Michaels, Chad Orbaker and John Acree. The second place, $100 prize, went to the team of Frank Slaughter Insurance with team members Rodney Wallace, Justin Wallace, Wayne Morris and Mark Arnold.

Dave Blasberg won the $50 putting contest, Larry Carter won the $50 W.H. Johnson Memorial Par 3, "closest to the pin." Other Par 3 "closest to the pin" prizes were won by Stu Michaels, Justin Wallace and Rodney Wallace.

"We had lots of raffles prizes that were spread out among many people," Lucas said.

"I think it was a total success," he said of the event.

Golfers also had a chance to meet Wildwood Middle High School's new coach, Beau Austin, as well as some of this year's players.

Justin Wallace is shown in play on the golf course, during the annual golf tournament. This year's event was held at Shady Brook in Sumterville.

Question:

It rained yesterday and I noticed small webs early in the morning and there are small round brown spots in my lawn. What could cause this?

Answer:

We've had consistent and sometimes heavy downpours this summer. What you may be seeing in the early morning is a fungal spore known as dollar spot or Sclerotinia homeocarpa. It is a common fungal disease that attacks most warm season turf species, but in our area most severe on zoysia. It occurs when temperatures are between 50 – 95 degrees with high relative humidity or extended periods of leaf wetness. The fungus generally appears as small, circular spots about the size of an old silver dollar, thus the name dollar spot, even though these spots can be as large as 2-8 inches in diameter. Early symptoms on individual leaves are chlorotic (yellow) areas that become water-soaked and later turn a bleached straw color. During early morning hours, when dew is present, you may observe the fungal growth on top of the turf leaf blades that resemble tiny spider webs.

Dollar spot

Cootnie

Upon close examination, the spider webs will have a hole in the center and the tiny threads will be spun in a circular pattern. The fungal mycelium growth will disappear as the dew dries and the turf leaf blades will begin to turn yellow. Prevention is the best control of this disease. Try these good cultural practices: Maintain adequate soil moisture; provide adequate nutrition, particularly nitrogen; mow regularly and maintain correct mowing height; prevent thatch buildup; water early enough in the day to reduce overnight leaf wetness; apply appropriate fungicides if disease becomes severe.

Question:

I've added a few Florida native coontie plants to my landscape. Does it need regular pruning?

Answer:

You've chosen a wonderful, low maintenance, native plant to add to your landscape. Coonties do not need regular pruning. Occasionally individual leaves will turn yellow or die back needing to be removed to keep the plant looking attractive. Cut off any of the bottom leaves that lay flat on the ground. Do not remove any green leaves that grow at an angle above ground level. Always buy coonties from a nursery. It is illegal to collect them from the wild and those transplants usually do not live.

Thinking of farming?

If you're thinking of starting a small farm or want to know about the latest in local foods, organic and hydroponic production, livestock production, farmers markets and more, you might consider attending the Florida Small Farms and Alternative Enterprises Conference.

Like last year, about 800 people are expected to attend the conference, Aug. 1-2, at Osceola Heritage Park, 1875 Silver Spur Lane in Kissimmee, said Jose Perez, small farms specialty crop statewide program coordinator and the event's publicity chairman.

Now in its sixth year, the conference is presented by the University of Florida's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences and Florida A&M University.

Typically, those who attend include small family, transitional, beginning and experienced farmers; allied-industry representatives; educators; researchers; policy makers; small farm commodity associations; foundations and others dedicated to strengthening Florida's small farm community.

Ed Skvarch, commercial horticulture extension agent in St. Lucie County, said those pondering farming can learn much of its business side at the conference.

"If you're starting a small farm, I believe it is crucial to have passion, the technical knowledge on how to grow vegetables or raise livestock and a working plan on how to grow the business," Skvarch said. "Most beginning farmers I work with have the passion and possess some knowledge of growing vegetables; however, what they lack is a plan on how to grow their business. All three are important."

In addition to teaching participants how to start a farm, the conference raises awareness about Florida's small farms industry, Perez said.

Participants must register to attend the conference.

This year, organizers are hosting three tours: urban farming (full), farm-to-chef (full) and livestock, Perez said. The urban farming and farm-to-chef tours are already full, but, the livestock tour remains open, he said.

The conference features vendor exhibits, a signature luncheon featuring local food and about 20 breakout sessions.

New sessions this year include:

Goat, poultry, beef and dairy production management and regulations.

Management, trends and opportunities in hydroponic production.

Transitioning to organic production and fertility management for organic farms.

Weed identification and management, and soil management.

Training for farmers' market managers and online farmers' markets.

Practical sessions on identifying diseases and pests.

An Extension Learning Zone, where farmers will work with urban and hydroponic production systems.

For information about the conference and registration instructions, visit http://www.conference.ifas.ufl.edu/smallfarms.

Using snap beans

Martha Maddox
UF/IFAS Extension

Lots of great family memories can be made sitting on the porch snapping beans with your family while preserving food.

Snap beans are a member of the legume family and are more commonly known as green beans or string beans, they can be green or yellow and round or flat. Did you know Florida ranks first nationally in the production, acreage and total value of fresh market snap beans. About one-fourth of all snap beans produced in the U.S. are for fresh use and the rest are processed by canning or freezing.

Snap beans are a good source of vitamin C. They also contain vitamin A, dietary fiber and important nutrients such as fiber, folate and potassium. Legumes-beans, peas and lentils- can help fight heart disease by improving cholesterol.

When shopping for snap beans look for beans that are crisp and snap or break easily and crisply. You want to avoid beans that are bendable and not crisp.

The pointy ends should be perky and undamaged, and there should be no wrinkling, bruises or shriveled spots. Be sure to trim the top of the bean where it was attached to the plant before cooking. To keep snap beans fresh for a longer period of time store beans in a ventilated plastic bag in the refrigerator.

To get the best flavor out of snap beans and a crisp texture, do not overcook them! Cook them in slightly salted water for four to seven minutes and then plunge them into ice water to stop the cooking process. Just prior to using the snap beans, wash them under running water. Remove both ends of the beans by either snapping them off or cutting them with a knife. Snap beans flavor well with bacon, olives, onion, tomatoes, basil, oregano, dill, rosemary and marjoram.

Roasted Snap Beans are delicious, very nutritious and make a great snack or side dish. Drizzle olive oil over snap beans and bake at 425 degrees for 10 minutes. Sprinkle with garlic and lemon zest. Bake for another 2-3 minutes and serve.

A favorite holiday recipe is Green Bean or Snap Bean Casserole:

Combine 4 cups cooked snap beans + 1 can cream of low-fat cream of mushroom soup + 1/2 cup fat free milk + pepper+ 1 cup fried onions. Bake at 325 for 25 minutes. Top with more onion, and bake an additional five minutes.

Another good recipes is Asian Style Snap Beans.

Ingredients: 1 pound fresh snap beans, ¼ cup your favorite Asian sauce (spicy or sweet), 1 teaspoon dried ginger, 1 tablespoon sesame seeds (black or white, toasted), and season to taste. Directions: Cook the snap beans in a large pot of lightly salted water for about 4 minutes or until tender. Drain beans and place in a mixing bowl. Toss hot beans with sauce, ginger and sesame seeds, stir well. Taste, adjust seasoning and serve warm. Serves 8.

For more information of buying and preparing fresh vegetables or nutrition contact your local UF/IFAS Extension Office or email mmaddox@ufl.edu for Martha Maddox, CEA IV, FCS Agent with UF/IFAS Extension in Sumter County.

National Farmers Market Week

Agriculture Secretary Tom Vilsack has declared August 3 through 9, "National Farmers Market Week". Throughout the week, USDA will celebrate our nation's thousands of farmers markets, farmers who make them possible and the communities that host them.

The declaration was made via an official proclamation signed by Secretary Vilsack. This year marks the 15th Annual National Farmers Market Week recognizing the important role that farmers markets play in the agricultural and food economy. The U.S. Department of Agriculture began declaring National Farmers Market Week in 2000.

"National Farmers Market Week is a great opportunity for farmers markets across the country to host special events to showcase all the tremendous services they provide," said Secretary Vilsack. "Farmers markets play a key role in developing local and regional food systems that support family farms, and help grow rural economies. They bring communities together, connecting cities with the farms that support them and provide Americans across the country with fresh, healthy food."

.Thousands of farmers markets across the country offer consumers fresh, affordable, convenient, and healthful products sold directly from the farm. They also offer additional market opportunities for local producers, especially smaller or newer operations. Farmers markets increasingly offer electronic benefits transfer technology that can be used by recipients of USDA's Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program - as well as low-income women, infants, and children and seniors participating in the WIC and Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Programs - to get fresh, seasonal ingredients.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Your honesty is, as always, admirable. But you might want to be more tactful in discussing a sensitive issue with a family member. Remember: You can give advice without giving offense.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) An unexpected workplace snag should be handled quickly and efficiently so that it leaves you time for family get-togethers. Also, you might soon get that long-sought apology.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Aspects favor family matters, especially where children might be involved. Spending time with loved ones helps restore some much-needed balance to your typically busy schedule.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) That seemingly clear-cut agreement might not be quite so straightforward after all. Recheck for language that could make you liable for hidden costs and other unpleasant surprises.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Careful, Kitty. Better to deal with someone with proven reliability than with a big talker who promises much but can't confirm that he or she will deliver. Your social life really zings this weekend.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Your matchmaking skills are at peak performance levels both in helping to staff workplace teams for upcoming projects and for bringing people together on a more personal basis.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You're finally seeing some progress with your new venture. But be prepared for it to continue at a slower pace than you're used to. Meanwhile, a loved one could be preparing a surprise.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A family member's success pulls you into the spotlight as well. Enjoy it, but don't let it overshadow or otherwise obstruct what you're doing with your own creative projects.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Using what you already know might not be quite enough to get a proposed project off the ground. Look for any new information that might help tilt the scales in your favor.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Good news: While a changing workplace environment can be daunting for some, it could be the challenge you've been hoping for. If so, confront it with confidence and move on.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) It's a good time to recheck travel arrangements for any changes that could work to your advantage. Aspects also favor strengthening and restoring old, fraying relationships.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Using your intuitive reasoning helps you cut right through the double-talk and go straight to what's really going on around you. Stay the course until all your questions are answered.

BORN THIS WEEK: You radiate light and warmth, and others love being close to you.

William Prevatt opened Will i ams SK8 Parts and Apparel in August of last year. If you're looking for sports, skateboard, Miss Me jeans and other apparel or parts and have never browsed the store, you might be surprised at what you find inside. Prevatt has two solid walls, filled with skateboard designs and colors.

Skateboards, 'Miss Me' jeans abound

Skateboards are dominant, but the store also offers clothing, including design T-shirts and other sporting gear.

Brenda Locklear
Staff Writer

If you've never been inside SK8 Parts and Apparel in Bushnell, you're in for a surprise.

From the outside, it's an attractive white building with trim, but once you step inside, it's neons, pastels and solids – from corner to corner.

There's dozens of skateboard decks in dozens of color schemes, bicycles and baseball gear for sport.

There's design T-shirts, Fox and Metal Mulisha, FATAL, Circa, Osiris, Spy+, Stance, Flud Watches, Skateboard apparel and decks.

Looking for designer jeans, SK8 has recently added "Miss Me" to their selection and Prevatt said they offer then $20 cheaper than other stores.

Owner William Prevatt, who was a sergeant at the Sumter County Detention Center, opened SK8 about a year ago. The store was originally on S.R. 48, but Prevatt moved to the north end of Main in recent months, renovating the interior building at 106 Jumper Drive.

Prevatt opened the business after Bushnell built their skateboard park at Kenny Dixon Sports Complex and said he decided to open the business because "there was just nothing here and there's a lot of sports the kids can get into."

Now's a great time to check the shop out too, while he said he can beat anyone's price on name brand, he's also got a "back to school" sale on right now, with discounts of between 25 and 50 percent on selected items.

The sale runs to Aug. 7, the first day of school in Sumter.

The store is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Friday and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays.

For more information, call SK8 at 352-568-3084,
