Ticket-Fixing Charge Lands Commander in Jail

Morris, a long-time law enforcement officer, accused of wrongdoing

BY JOSE JESUS ZARAGOZA
The Sun

The man assigned to address lawlessness in Belle Glade has been accused of it.

Mike Morris was formally charged with fraud after an investigation revealed that he fixed a ticket for the daughter of a Belle Glade city official.

The accusation reached its head on Feb. 22 of this year. That's when Deputy Sheriff Samnang Ith spoke to an investigator with the office of the State Attorney about a traffic stop in November for which a ticket he wrote was stricken from the record.

Ith detailed a trail of deception leading back to Lt. Morris, related to an incident with 24-year-old Jamie Evans, daughter of Belle Glade Public Relations Coordinator Mary Evans.

According to him, Jamie had been issued five citations when he pulled her over. Moments after issuing the citations, Ith said he was asked by Lt. Morris via a sergeant to dismiss the citations, as Jamie had filed a complaint against him claiming the deputy used a racial slur toward her.

"Ith stated that due to the severity of the allegations made against him, he was not going to dismiss the citations," the report reads.

Reviewing the video of the traffic stop, investigators reported that Evans got on the phone with her brother, PBSO Detective James Evans. James told investigators that he had spoken to his sister and had encouraged her to file a formal complaint against Ith when she reported he had been rude to her.

A search of Lt. Morris' PBSO-issued phone revealed that Mary Evans had called him approximately 30 minutes after Jamie was stopped. Asked about the incident, Mary denied speaking to Lt. Morris about the tickets, but could not explain why phone records showed her calling him that night.

Three days after the citations were issued, a sheriff's office clerk was reportedly asked by Lt. Morris to pull the citations from the system. Believing that "something was up," the clerk made copies of the citations and gave the lieutenant the originals.

Moments later, the lieutenant said he had lost them and they needed to be voided, writing across the top of the photocopies "VOID UNABLE TO LOCATE THE ORIGINALS."

Following that incident, the lieutenant reportedly called Mary Evans and spoke for six minutes with her. Confronted with that information, Mary Evans said she probably did speak to Lt. Morris, but it was in reference to city business. She was again unable to state what the two were discussing.

Brothers Die in Muck City Road Wreck

Victims found by passerby

BY JOSE JESUS ZARAGOZA
The Sun

Two men died earlier this week when their vehicle fell into a canal in Pahokee. Ralph Jones Jr., 44, and Darryl Jones, 42, both of Pahokee, were found in the cabin of the vehicle, which investigators are estimating had been in the water a number of hours before the discovery was made.

Their vehicle was found early in the morning on Monday, June 20, by a passerby who thought he spotted a camper top in water. A vehicle had become submerged in a canal along Muck City Road.

When emergency workers arrived at the scene, they worked to extract the subjects, along with the vehicle, a 1987 Ford Ranger pickup. Investigators have pieced together what they believed led to the wreck.

According to a report released by the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office, the men's vehicle was travel-

Fireworks Safety

The Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office is urging Palm Beach County residents to think about safety as they make plans to celebrate the "Fourth of July."

Every year thousands of people and animals are killed or critically injured by fireworks. Fireworks can result in severe burns, scars and disfigurement that can last a lifetime, for that reason, "fireworks are illegal to use without a permit."

Some of the illegal fireworks prohibited for normal resale are as follows:

- Common Bottle Rockets
- Firecrackers (Rolls)
- Standard Fireworks
- M80's with Mortar
- M80's
- Projectile Fireworks
- Launchable Rockets with Stands

(The above listed items are only a few samples commonly purchased by people that are prohibited for sale.) You should not sign "waivers" in order to purchase fireworks. A "waiver" will not clear you of responsibility should you be caught using illegal fireworks. The Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office will be enforcing the use of illegal fireworks. Using fireworks illegally is a first degree misdemeanor punishable by up to one year in jail and a $1,000 fine. If you are using "legal" sparklers, novelties and trick noisemakers there is still a risk of injury. When lit, some sparklers can reach temperatures between 1,300 and 1,800 degrees, which are at least 200 degrees hotter than standard butane lighter.

Follow these precautions to celebrate safely:

- Use sparklers and other "legal" novelties on a flat, hard surface. Do not light them on grass.
- Use sparklers in an open area. Keep children and pets at least 30 feet away from all ignited fireworks. Also keep in mind that livestock such as horses, cows, etc. can also be frightened by fireworks.
- Light only one item at a time and never attempt to re-light a dud.
- Don't purchase or use any unwrapped items or items that may have been tampered with.
- Keep a fire extinguisher or water hose on hand for emergencies.

RELIGION COLUMNS

The Real Free Gift

BY REV. SAM S. THOMAS, PH. D.+
Saint Martin's Church

It happens regularly; those "free gifts" that come my way! The latest was an offer to send me a booklet on protection; if I'd fill out the card and give a phone number where a "follow-up call" could be made.

It was about insurance; I began to feel that I'd be asked questions and get a sales pitch.

I didn't accept the "free gift" putting the offer in the circular file. I was offered a free preview for some religious videos; they would send them and I had 90 days to return them. I told the folks that videos get passed around, and somebody loses track. The sender wants to be paid for them and maybe that was why he sent them in the first place.

My request was to send us a copy that they didn't need back. That couldn't be done. The free offer had strings; it wasn't really free after all. The next "free offer" of films will bring a promise that we'll send them back right away; but please give us permission to copy and review them at our leisure. I'm betting I already know the answer to my request. A notification came one day that I had won a "free" Pontiac. There was a telephone number for me to call.

It wasn't an "800" number, so I called collect; feeling that anybody who could give me a car could certainly afford paying for a collect call. The woman who answered on the other end wasn't sure; she had to ask her boss and he said to refuse the call. Imagine that! In reality, "free" things are far from free many times. The "free" things are really free when they come without conditions.

I like a Biblical account of a "free gift" best of all; it was really free. I didn't have to earn it, no conditions, no limitations, no hidden clauses, or sales pitches to follow. It is about a gift that wasn't like a trespass (Romans 5:15). We live in a world full of pitfalls, snares, hazards, evil; people fall and that is a part of our nature.

The gift was about overcoming the tragedy of it all, about recognition of our condition and being justified in spite of ourselves, and in spite of what goes on around us day by day. With our inheritance of all that is wrong; God has provided "abundant provision of grace and the gift of righteousness..." through the sacrifice of the Lord, "the many will be made righteous(5:17, 5:19)" We have it from God that in spite of it all; we are His and heirs of His salvation. Is the gift free? There is an addendum to the passage; "But where sin increased, grace increased all the more (v.20)."

The more we need the gift, the more it is made available to us; now that's a free gift! No strings, no limitations, no guilt trips for recipients, no conditions. That's the way God works. Merchants: take a lesson!

Questions Without Answers

BY PASTOR JOHN HICKS
First United Methodist Church

Which came first, the chicken or the egg? A little boy on the Art Linkletter show years ago answered the question, "The chicken had to come first, because God can't lay eggs." His answer is probably as good as any other.

What is it that we look for when the riddles and the puzzles and the problems and the questions line up on the path of life? Solutions? Answers? Explanations? Mysteries revealed? All the puzzles finally unraveled?

From the time in the Garden of Eden with the temptation of the fruit from the tree of knowledge of good and evil, there has been the conviction that we can and should have all the answers to life's every question. The reality is we don't have all of the answers. And what's more, we can't.

There are so many questions for which there are no satisfactory answers. To be sure, we can make some suggestions, but when all the questions have been asked and when what answers available have been given, we, in faith, move beyond questions related to "how" and set ourselves to the discovery of meaning. Beyond the questions we seek a presence – a presence that bestows upon us a peace that is beyond our understanding.

Someone once commented, "Birds do not sing because they have an answer. They sing because they have a song!" When we come to worship, it does not mean that we have all the answers. It simply means that we have a song.

We may not understand how the God of all creation could empty Himself and become the Babe of Bethlehem. We may not understand how a crude cross erected by Roman soldiers on the top of a hill outside Jerusalem over 2,000 years ago could save the world from its sin.

We may not understand how the God of the billions of galaxies could hear and answer the prayers of a small child kneeling beside his bed in a tiny home in the most remote part of the world. We are not Christians because we have all the answers. We are Christians because we have a song. Having a song, let's sing it!

Are you a Mega-Christian?

BY JACKIE MILLER, EVANGELIST
First Christian Church

I recently received an e-mail from Maxine Fream Gash from Joplin, Mo. with the above title. Maxine is from Lakeport, Fl., the daughter of the late Spurgeon and Pansy Click.

She has a monthly page in "The Restoration Herald." Joplin is where the terrible tornado struck, destroying over 8,000 homes, 500 businesses and, thus far, killing 165 people. In her e-mail, Maxine was bemoaning the fact that although we have mega-churches of up to 20,000 members, immorality has increased. This is quite the paradox.

She asked the question: "Why, when there are supposed to be so many more Christians than ever in this country, are the moral standards so much worse than they were when I was young? Shouldn't it be the other way around? Back then, divorce among church members was extremely rare. Abortion was something I never even heard about until my teen years, and then it was information from books: something surreptitious and shameful. Homosexual acts were illegal, and those caught involved were locked up. Who could have imagined marriage between same sex couples even being considered? Modesty in dress and behavior are concepts apparently forgotten in today's culture." Maxine goes on to say, "We can fault the preachers, and no doubt some are at fault; but I blame the culture and the pervasiveness of the public media which have the attention of the people hours every day of the week as opposed to an hour of teaching on Sunday." She also said: "Too many Christians simply don't devote the same time and energy to learning about God's Word and it's teaching as they do to secular matters. They know all the players of their favorite ball teams, but can't tell you the name of the twelve apostles. They know their way around the internet but not the way through the Bible. They can tell you the plot to the latest movie but not what the book of Romans is all about. The Lord has His own opinion of such a situation. Here is what He said to one of His Preachers: "They come to you as people do, they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but they do not do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their hearts pursue their own gain. Indeed you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they do not do them." (Ezekiel 33:32).

She then says: "The bottom line is: who makes your standard? God or the world?" She says that many of those who survived the tornado in Joplin, Mo., have changed their priorities and that life is a serious business and we need to be serious about it. She concluded by saying, "You don't have to belong to a Mega-Church to be a Mega-Christian."

The family of Quincy Westberry would like to offer a special thanks to the staff of Hendry Regional Medical Center. The personal touch of the staff in our time there was above and beyond and is what makes our community special. We don't feel that our hospital receives enough credit for what it does for the people who visit there.

We would like to especially thank Flossie Dixon and Grace Ewan for their care, concern, help and words of comfort. We also want to thank Andrew Levin for his emergency room help and extra attention during our time there.

Thank you to friends and family.

It is the special attention from each and everyone at our local hospital that has helped us through this difficult time.

Thank You!

A special thank you and may God bless each of you for your prayers, calls, food, and each act of kindness and thoughtful message of comfort you've shown during the "Homegoing" of Barbara Jean (BJ) Collier on June 9th, 2011.

LORI Meetings Showing Great Work

Local leaders around the lake gathered at the Clewiston Museum for Lake Okeechobee Regional Initiative meeting this past April.

The Lake Okeechobee Regional Initiative (LORI) hosted a crowded room of citizens eager to continue the great work that began almost two years ago at the Clewiston Museum.

"I recall LORI's first meeting taking place in this board room" said Phil Bacon, vice president of neighborhood and regional initiatives for the Collins Center for Public Policy, which oversees LORI. "There was a lot of hope in this room two years ago and we are here today with a continued vision of progression and development."

Bacon further reflected on LORI's significant accomplishments, or doable deeds. Some of LORI's goals included establishing a regional ecotourism brand, democratizing regional economic development data, increasing youth engagement and strengthening existing infrastructure.

Education and outreach were the resounding themes of April's meeting. Mike Maidenberg, a Collins Center consultant on youth engagement strategies, and Taranza McKelvin, a city of Belle Glade employee gave a tag team presentation on LORI's urban farm efforts—Soil of Prosperity.

Soil of Prosperity, a name coined by local youth, grew from a regional partnership involving the City of Belle Glade, Lake Okeechobee Regional Initiative, University of Florida's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences and Palm Beach County.

This regional partnership has designed a small-scale farming experience that educates Belle Glade youth about the history of the area in which they live and allows local youth to participate in the economy through a simulated entrepreneurial venture.

Maidenberg conveyed his excitement about

SOP, "Establishing an entrepreneurial component for Belle Glade's youth is a doable deed of LORI, I'm thrilled we have been able to accomplish this much."

Maidenberg and McKelvin also touched on a nine-week summer program called "The Water Experience," which has been constructed in cooperation with the SFWMD. It will involve both classroom sessions and field trips. It will also teach students more fully about the water management district's work and focus on jobs and job qualifications.

The Community Builders Certificate Program, a newly formed partnership between LORI, Florida International University and Palm Beach State College, was unveiled by Dr. Tom Zuniga, managing director of DSG Community Management Systems. Zuniga outlined a vision that would cultivate a new class of leaders to sustain LORI's regional framework for years to come.

Gina Reynolds, executive director of Florida's Heartland Regional Development Initiative, gave the final report during the meeting highlighting the Florida Rural Broadband Alliance. Reynolds shared positive news about the possibility of broadband access coming to the Glades.

Elected officials, local business owners and member's from the District closed the meeting by acknowledging the superb work accomplished through LORI.

The Lake Okeechobee Regional Initiative is a regional economic coalition sponsored by the Collins Center for Public Policy and the South Florida Water Management District. For more information, visit their website at <http://www.collinscenter.org/page/LORIHome/>

Wiewora, MD, MPH, Interim Chief Executive Officer and Chief Medical Officer, Health Care District of Palm Beach County.

At an awards presentation ceremony today, Lakeside Medical Center and Palm Beach County Fire Rescue officials recognized three hospital employees for their heroic off-duty actions in saving the life of a car crash victim.

In the early evening hours of April 23rd, Benjamin Smalls, Radiology Technician, Gerald Strohacker, RN, Emergency, and Anlyan Hernandez, RN, Telemetry, came upon an accident scene on SR 80 near Twenty Mile Bend as they headed to work at Lakeside Medical Center in Belle Glade. They witnessed the vehicle rolling over and bursting into flames with the driver trapped inside. Despite the smoke and fire, Mr. Smalls says he did not hesitate to stop and pull the driver from the vehicle.

"Being in the medical field, this was the right thing to do," said Mr. Smalls. "I'd hope someone would do the same thing for me."

Mr. Strohacker and Ms. Hernandez also stopped and helped Mr. Smalls move the driver further away from the car as it became fully engulfed in flames. Ms. Hernandez called 911. According to Palm Beach County Fire Rescue, the front bumper was the only part of the vehicle that was not burned. The driver was transported to a local hospital, where he was evaluated for non-life threatening injuries.

"The entire Lakeside Medical Center team is grateful to these three employees for their swift actions in ushering the victim to safety," said Brian P. Gibbons, Jr., Hospital Administrator. "I am deeply impressed by the humanitarian spirit of our staff at every level."

"Had these three not stopped, the victim most likely would not have survived," said Fire Chief Steve Jerauld, Palm Beach County Fire Rescue. "We commend these Lakeside Medical Center staff members for their selfless assistance to the victim, at their own personal risk."

The three employees were honored at a special awards presentation at Lakeside Medical Center attended by members of their families, hospital staff, Palm Beach County Fire Rescue personnel who responded to the accident, and members of the Glades Rural Area Support Board, including James T. Howell, MD, MPH, Chair; Effie C. Gear, EdD, Secretary/Treasurer, Gilbert Alvarez and Donia Roberts, Esq.

Recognizing the employees for their bravery and actions were: Ronald J. Wiewora, MD, MPH, Interim Chief Executive Officer and Chief Medical Officer of the Health Care District of Palm Beach County (which owns and operates the hospital); James T. Howell, MD, MPH; Effie C. Gear, EdD; Gilbert Alvarez; Brian P. Gibbons, Jr., Hospital Administrator; Jeffrey A. McRoberts, RN, BSN, MHA, CCRN, Director of Nursing; and Fire Chief Steve Jerauld and District Chief Curtis Rice with Palm Beach County Fire Rescue.

ing west on the road, from U.S. 98 when for unknown reasons it veered onto the north shoulder. When the driver attempted to gain control of the vehicle, he may have over-corrected, causing it to continue further onto the shoulder before diving into the canal.

Investigators say the passenger compartment became fully submerged in the water. Given the circumstances, the sheriff's office believes that the crash occurred sometime during the night, or early morning hours.

Early in the investigation, there are no indications of foul play or mechanical malfunction, although a toxicology report from the autopsies is pending.

principal at Belle Glade Elementary, Gove Elementary and Glades Central High School, was contacted for this article but refused to go on the record about the case.

On March 7, Deputy Ith resubmitted four of the citations, along with a memo explaining that an audit of the citations revealed that they had never been sent to the clerk of court.

According to the investigator, Lt. Morris phoned Mary Evans once more on that day, speaking to her at least twice. He also reportedly contacted the internal affairs office to check on the complaint made by Jamie Evans with regard to Deputy Ith.

The investigation finds that Lt. Morris reportedly lied when he sent an e-mail back to Ith claiming that the tickets were lost by the clerk's office.

Jamie meanwhile said she didn't pay her tickets because she too had lost them. Phone records indicate that she did not call the clerk's office to verify if the citations had been received, and the investigator claims, "She could have only been notified that the tickets had been resubmitted from someone employed by PBSO."

After Mary and Jamie Evans had been interviewed, call records show that Mary Evans once again called Lt. Morris and spoke for nearly 20 minutes with him.

Among other charges, Lt. Morris is said to have purposely disguised his handwriting so that the signed photocopies did not match his own signature and he told investigators that although he knows Mary Evans, the two do not like each other. He said that if he spoke with Mary Evans on the night Jamie was pulled over, but if he had it had been to tell her that he would look into the incident.

Lt. Mike Morris is one of the better known law enforcement officials in the Glades. Until a few days ago, the lieutenant was in charge of the sheriff's office District 13/Belle Glade unit, working closely with deputies and investigators on policing and law enforcement efforts in the area.

He is now on administrative leave at PBSO.

By his own account, Lt. Morris felt at home in Belle Glade and rejected the idea of working anywhere else. Initially making his mark as police chief for the city of South Bay, and ascending through the ranks at the sheriff's office, Lt. Morris reportedly saw himself as one official that locals could trust amid a sea of sheriff's office assignments from elsewhere in the county.

Lt. Morris could not be reached for comment. "It's simple," he said. "The difference with me is that I want to be here."

Glades Central Falls to Immokalee in Third Round of Dolphins Academy 7-on-7 Tournament

Pahokee gets blown out by South Palmetto (Miami) in first round

BY NAJI TOBIAS
The Sun

Coming into the Dolphins Academy 7-on-7 tournament, it was a somewhat forgone conclusion that the Glades Central Raiders would score a three-peat as South Florida's best.

Unfortunately for Glades Central, a third round draw pitted them against an equally athletic Immokalee Indians team that looked hungry to end their run of dominance in perhaps South Florida's best 7-on-7 competition.

Held at Central Park in Plantation on June 18, Glades Central, after enjoying a first-round bye, seemed well on its way to representing the Miami Dolphins once again at next month's NFL 7-on-7 national tournament after outlasting Monsignor Pace (Miami), 48-24, in the second round.

And after scoring a quick touchdown on Glades Central's first offensive series against Immokalee — courtesy of a Tanner Redish end-zone pass to Jaime Wilson — the Raiders, up 7-0 after just a couple of plays, were poised to continue making some serious noise in this tournament.

But Immokalee had other plans.

The Indians scored two touchdowns off Glades Central's vaunted secondary en route to a 14-7 halftime lead they would never relinquish.

Now down 27-17 with less than three minutes left in the game, Redish (9 TD, 3 INT overall) found David Bailey on an out route for a desperation score to pull Glades Central within three.

Not to be outdone by the Raiders, Immokalee quarterback Tshumbi Johnson (4 TD against Glades Central) put the dagger in the heart of Glades Central's defense just a few plays later, as he connected on a game-sealing touchdown pass to Jacky Marcellus for the 34-24 lead and win.

"We felt like we could come and compete with the best teams in South Florida all along," Immokalee head coach Jerrod Ackley said. "Glades Central is a very athletic team, but I think they overlooked us. They didn't realize we had the same kind of athleticism and it's something they don't really see often."

Glades Central linebacker Don'kevious Johnson touched on what he felt that went wrong for his team in the third round game against Immokalee.

"We just have to pick up and hustle more on defense," Johnson said. "Immokalee is a good team, but they beat us by a bunch of mistakes we made as a team. We thought we were going to win, but it just wasn't meant for us today."

The same could be said for the Pahokee Blue Devils, who were thoroughly manhandled on both sides of the ball by South Palmetto (Miami) in their first round match-up.

South Palmetto's 55-14 blowout was made possible by a slew of communication breakdowns between Pahokee's secondary and coaches, with some players clearly befuddled and flustered by the quickness and precision of Palmetto's offense in both halves of action.

But early in the game, it looked to be a shootout, as both teams traded touchdowns on their first two respective offensive drives. Though Pahokee never led, they did tie the game at 7-7 and 14-14, courtesy of Rashaun Crony's touchdowns passes to Shaquille White and Jontavious Worthen.

Unfortunately, Pahokee wouldn't score again on offense, as the unit looked completely out of sync, evidenced by three interceptions thrown by Crony, which contributed to South Palmetto's 37-14 halftime lead.

In the end, South Palmetto would score 41 unanswered points to finish the game's scoring.

"We weren't running the right routes on offense and we blew a lot of coverages on defense," Pahokee's Shaquille White said. "We need to be more disciplined and listen to our coaches moving forward."

Pahokee Blue Devils offensive coordinator Darren Hill said that the team's youth and inexperience played a role in how their first round game turned out.

"We're just not getting it done right now," Hill said. "We're just young as a team, so it's something we'll use as a positive. The players just need a little more training and time together; they'll get better in time."

Notes: In Glades Central's second round win over Monsignor Pace (Miami), Redish threw for four first half touchdown passes and six overall. Cornelius Jones caught two touchdowns in that game, while Zacarius Sheppard, William Likely, Dominique Gibson and Gems Richmond each caught one against Pace.

Wilson and Gibson each caught a defensive pick in the Pace game.

Wilson and Gibson, respectively, also caught the Raiders first two touchdown passes against Immokalee.

Speaking of Immokalee, they advanced to the quarterfinals against Jackson (Miami), who eventually won the Dolphins Academy 7-on-7 tournament.

Jackson (Miami), who blew out Cardinal Newman (West Palm Beach) in the title game, 52-28, will be representing the Miami Dolphins for next month's NFL 7-on-7 national tournament in Cleveland.

Palm Beach County's Unemployment Rate Lowest in Two Years

Palm Beach County's unemployment rate for May 2011 was 10.2 percent — the lowest in two years (the May 2009 unemployment rate also was 10.2 percent) — and down 0.8 percent from the May 2010 rate of 11.0 percent.

This also represents a decline in the county's unemployment rate for five consecutive months, falling 1.8 percent from January's unemployment rate of 12.0 percent, according to information provided today by the Workforce Alliance of Palm Beach County and the Florida Agency for Workforce Innovation.

The county's unemployment rate also was slightly lower — 0.3 percent — than the state unemployment rate of 10.5 percent.

"We think this is a positive commentary on a slow but steady recovery in the area's economy," said Kathryn Schmidt, President and Chief Executive Officer of Workforce Alliance, the non-profit organization chartered by the State of Florida to create and lead workforce development in Palm Beach County.

Palm Beach County led the state in the highest over-the-year employment growth in the financial activities category (+1400 jobs) — an over-the-year increase for the fifth consecutive month. Other industries that gained jobs in the West Palm-Boca Raton-Boynton Beach region over the year were leisure and hospitality (+3100 jobs), education and health services (+2000 jobs), and manufacturing (+100 jobs). Job losses in the region over the year were in government (-2800 jobs due primarily to the Federal government no longer employing temporary Census workers who were employed last year), trade/transportation/utilities (-2000 jobs), construction (-1200 jobs), and professional and business services (-500 jobs).

Workforce Alliance of Palm Beach County has been instrumental in placing thousands of job seekers from entry-level positions to the executive suite. Most recently, Workforce Alliance placed 9,826 area candidates in jobs since July 2010.

Besides helping record numbers of Palm Beach County job seekers enter or reenter the workforce, Workforce Alliance is also helping improve the economy by providing services to employers and funding training programs to ensure that current workers remain qualified for their jobs and avoid the prospect of layoffs.

These free services include recruitment, assessments and referrals of qualified job candidates; space for screening/interviewing candidates; grants for training new or existing employees; and outplacement assistance.

More than 11,000 people each month are being helped by specialized services provided at no cost in the three Workforce Alliance Career Centers located in West Palm Beach, Boca Raton and Belle Glade.

The Centers offer free workshops and other resources for job skills training and career counseling with the objective of getting people placed in jobs. A variety of programs are available for all levels of job seekers whether they are professionals, recent graduates just entering the workforce, or someone recently subjected to a layoff.

"We offer a wide range of professional programs to help businesses find qualified candidates for open positions and scholarship grants for job seekers who meet the eligibility criteria to attend training classes at regional educational and training institutions. As the economy steadily improves, we are continuing to enhance the quality and scope of our programs and services to ensure that the local workforce will be ready for the new jobs that are created," Ms. Schmidt said.

Workforce Alliance offers its services to all employers and job seekers in Palm Beach County in fulfilling its role as the leading human resource solution driving economic growth in the county.

Inland Birdwatching Fun: Swallow-tailed Kite

Swallow-tailed Kite in flight at STA5.

BY MARGARET ENGLAND
Hendry-Glades Audubon

Birdwatching is fun for youth and adults. It's easy to become excited when you see birds nesting or try to get a close-up photo of a bird with its young. With binoculars and powerful camera lenses, it is easier to avoid causing stress on birds that are protecting their nest or young. This is not only good for the birds but is also a more relaxing and enjoyable experience for the birdwatcher.

Margaret England

The Swallow-tailed kite is a graceful black and white raptor that the Calusa called "Ta-tina" or "spirit that soars." The Swallow-tailed Kite rarely flap its wings while flying but it almost continuously rotates its tail, often to nearly 90 degrees. It does this in order to hold a heading, make a sharp turn or trace tight circles while drifting across the sky. It has relatively small feet and beak for a raptor, which results in a diverse diet of small prey that includes insects, reptiles, amphibians, small birds and a small number of mammals. These graceful flyers frequently eat while flying and get water by skimming the surface and gathering water in their bills. Vocalization is a shrill "klee-klee-klee".

The Swallow-tailed kite migrates from South America to nest in Florida swamps, and may be seen from March to September flying above roadways and trees in the inland counties searching for food. Large numbers of birds gather at staging roosts in South Florida in late July and August before they migrate south for the winter.

A few Swallow-tailed kites are being observed on the west side of STA5 (Stormwater Treatment Area 5) where Hendry-Glades Audubon leads scheduled bird trips through a partnership with the SFWMD. You are invited to join the July 16 trip to STA5 as volunteers search for the Swallow-tailed kite and 50 other bird species found during the summer at STA5. Meet at the Clewiston McDonalds at 7:15 a.m. or STA5 gate at 8:30 a.m. Reservations are required. To sign up for the trip, send an e-mail to Margaret England, at sta5birding@embarqmail.com with your name and contact information including an emergency cell number for the trip day, the date you want to go, and the number in your party. You may also leave this information at 863-674-0695 or 863-517-0202. Bring water, snacks, and lunch. For a schedule of STA5 trips through December 2012 visit the HGAS website at: www.hendrygladesaudubon.org

You can help Swallow-tailed kite researchers determine the distribution, monitor population trends, and locate important nesting and foraging sites. Sightings of nests, roosts, kites carrying nest material or food, locations where kites are seen regularly, and sightings of more than one kite are of particular interest.

Information can be submitted to The Avian Conservation Center and the Center for the Birds of Prey through their website at www.thecenterforbirdsofprey.org/swallowtail-kite.

Share your birdwatching experiences and post suggestions for featured birdwatching sites on the Hendry-Glades Audubon or Clewiston News Facebook pages.

"After my dentist of 20 years quoted me a price on an implant, I looked for a second opinion. I had seen ads for Appearance Implants and sought out Dr. Harrouff. When I walked into the lobby of the office the first thing I saw was a photo of the late Republican strategist Lee Atwater, who I later learned was a childhood friend of Dr. Harrouff. As a South Carolina Democrat I didn't have a lot of love for Lee, he had gotten the best of me in my first campaign, I sure as hell wasn't too keen on letting any buddy of Lee work on me. After that first encounter, I felt very comfortable with Dr. Harrouff. The entire experience was purely first rate. From the people who greeted me in the lobby and to the dental staff, the Appearance Implant & Laser Dentistry team makes you feel right at home. When Dr. Harrouff got down to performing the procedure it was fast, relatively painless and the result was just perfect. The finished implant works better than I'd expected. He provided me with the most affordable treatment and I have been more than impressed and satisfied by the results. I have recommended Dr. Harrouff and his professional and friendly staff to many of my friends.

The Leadership Beyond Sports Awards

Leadership is "service to or serving the needs of the people." With this definition in mind a few of my colleagues and I have decided to show our appreciation for three Glades residents who we consider true Glades area leaders; residents who have used their involvement with sports as an opportunity to positively affect the lives of Glades area youth beyond the basketball courts, the track and the football fields.

We have decided to do so by organizing an awards ceremony to take place on June 23, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Dolly Hand Cultural Arts Center located on the Palm Beach State College - Belle Glade Campus.

The honorees are Mr. Daniel Bythwood, Mr. Louis Butts and Mr. Anquan Boldin. Collectively they represent three generations of Glades residents who have done or are doing what so many of us with influence and power have been neglecting to do for too long - going above and beyond for our Glades area youth.

Brief background description of the honorees

Mr. Daniel S. Bythwood (deceased) was a devoted member of our community who over the years generously gave his time and effort to individuals who were in need of support.

Education was his passion; therefore he felt it was a necessity to seek a leadership role with the Palm Beach County School Board. Throughout his 35-year career, he took on various positions including Teacher (Everglades Vocational High School), Dean (Glades Central High School) and a host of many other ventures.

It's also evident that his involvement also took place outside the classroom with his dedication to the athletic programs. He was also the founder and President emeriti of the Glades Youth Athletic Association. The passion for his community didn't stop there; he served as an officer with the Belle Glade Police Department, as well as an elected official.

For over 30 years Coach Louis Butts has dedicated himself, his time, energy and money to the youth of the Glades serving as coach to us all as well as surrogate father and mentor to many.

In his role as basketball, football, softball and track and field coach he provided year-round structured activities during afterschool hours- activities that were much needed and greatly appreciated by the youth who participated, their parents and the community at large.

Due to some health issues "Coach Louie" has scaled back his coaching obligations but not his desire to work with and help inspire our youth. Today he does so as the track and field coach for the Big Lake Track Club located in Belle Glade.

Anquan began the Anquan Boldin "Q81" Foundation during his sophomore season in the NFL with a mission to bring hope to underprivileged children. Well-known throughout the league for his work ethic, his character, and his professionalism, Anquan is also known for his generosity in giving back to his community as evidenced by his charitable activities in both Arizona and his home state of Florida.

In 2009, Pahokee Middle/High School was named the Anquan Boldin Stadium. He is also proud to have been awarded the "Distinguished Service" and "Key to the City" Awards for His Generosity and Positive Leadership in the Pahokee Community.

All profits to benefit the Big Lake Track Club

For over 30 years Coach Butts has dedicated himself, his time, energy and money to the youth of the Glades serving as coach to us all as well as surrogate father and mentor to many.

Due to some recent health issues "Coach Louie" has scaled back his coaching obligations but not his desire to work with and help inspire our youth. Today he does so as the track and field coach for the Big Lake Track Club located in Belle Glade.

Big Lake Track Club is a private track club that relies on public support for its success and for several years now Coach Butts has had difficulty securing adequate transportation for the youth participants when they needed it the most. As a result of having to rely on other organizations and parents to provide transportation, many of the youth miss out on opportunities to compete outside of the area, many of them after having qualified for races which would have garnered them some national exposure.

As a youth who was fortunate enough to make plenty of those trips abroad i can recall the anticipation and excitement associated with each. It was an opportunity to compete with peers outside of the city, county and, at times, even the state.

Just as important, it was also an opportunity to see other parts of the world - a relished opportunity for any youth living in a financially challenged environment. Unfortunately i also know of the disappointment i felt when i was unable to make those trips.

In light of the aforementioned challenges, it is our desire to secure a 12 to 15 passenger van for the Big Lake Track Club. Any and all support that you may be able to provide is greatly appreciated.

We are hoping that you will take into consideration coach Butts' commitment to our youth and his desire to continue to do so in spite of his own health issues and make plans to attend the 2011 Leadership Beyond Sports Awards. All profits from the awards event to benefit the Big Lake Track Club.

In case you have any questions feel free to call Jermaine Webb at 321-848-6269 or Kevin Brown at 561-261-2621. Thank you in advance for your time and consideration.
