Miss May Murphy, of Morganton, N. C., left yesterday for Tampa to join party of friends for a visit to Cuba and a trip up the East Coast of Florida. Miss Murphy has been spending the past few weeks with her brother, Mr. W. A. Murphy, at Fairfield.

THE LENTEN SEASON.

Official Regulations to be Observed by all Catholics in the Diocese.

Right Reverend Bishop J. Kenny, bishop of St. Augustine, Fla., has issued the following official regulations for Lent in the diocese of St. Augustine:

- All the faithful who have completed their twenty-first year, unless exempt by dispensation or some other legitimate cause, are bound to observe the fast of Lent.

- They are to make one meal only a day, except on Sundays.

- The meal permitted on fast days is not to be taken till about noon.

- A small refreshment, commonly called collation, is permitted in the evening.

- The following persons are exempt from the obligations of fasting. Persons under 21 years of age, the sick, nursing women, those who are obliged to do hard labor, and those who through weakness, cannot fast without great prejudice to their health.

- The faithful are reminded that, besides the obligation of fasting imposed by the church, this holy season of Lent should be, in an especial manner, a time of earnest prayer, of sorrow for sin, of seclusion from the world and its amusements, and of generous alms-giving.

By virtue of an indulgance to the United States, dated August 3, 1887, the following special dispensations are granted:

First—The use of flesh meat is permitted at all meals on Sundays, and once a day on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, with the exception of the second and last Saturday of Lent. But flesh meat and fish are not to be used at the same meal during Lent, even on Sundays.

Second—The use of butter, cheese, milk and eggs is also permitted every day in Lent.

Third—It is allowed to take in the morning some warm liquid, as tea, coffee or thin chocolate made with water, and with this liquid a small piece of bread.

Fourth—Those for whom the hour of noon may be an inconvenient time for dinner, may invert the order and take their collation in the morning and their dinner in the evening.

Fifth—The use of hog's lard or dripping, instead of butter, is authorized in preparing the permitted food.

Sixth—Persons exempt from the obligation of fasting are free to take meat more than once on those days when its use is granted by dispensation.

The Paschal time extends from the first Sunday of Lent till Trinity Sunday, during which time all Catholics who have attained the proper age are bound to receive worthily the holy communion. The holy season of Lent is a very proper time also for children to make their first confession, which they ought to do generally at about the age of 7 years. Parents should see to this.

Automobile Burned Up.

Mr. H. C. Jones became very generous Sunday and loaned one of his automobiles to a colored man in his employ, who wanted to go to Santos on a pleasure trip. Mr. Jones had as he thought carefully instructed the man in handling the machine. When the man got about half way to Santos the oil can sprung a leak and before he could shut off the valve the machine caught on fire and all the wood part was destroyed. The automobile was the one formerly owned by Dr. W. H. Powers and was the winner of the automobile race here several years ago. Mr. Jones will have the machine rebuilt.

Mrs. L. C. Bell and baby, formerly of Rock Springs, but now of Beaufort, S. C., were in Ocala Monday on their way to visit relatives at Rochelle. They had just completed a visit with friends and relatives at York. Rock Springs and Fellowship.

In Honor of Miss Taylor.

Misses Mabel and Edith Taylor, of Cincinnati, who are visiting Miss Esther Weathers, were the guests of honor Thursday afternoon at a very delightful tea given by Mrs. Richard McConathy at the Savoy hotel. Her guests were the members of the young ladies card club and a charmingly informal afternoon was spent by the young people.

Mrs. McConathy was assisted by the honorees and Misses Weathers, Dye, Whitfield, Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Barco.

During the afternoon Miss Whitfield, Miss Liddon and Mrs. Camp rendered several instrumental and vocal solos.

The small room back of the parlor was used as a dining room. The serving table was beautifully decorated in violets and with its pretty appointments of cut glass, silver and hand painted china was most attractive. A delicious menu was served after which the remainder of the afternoon was spent playing different games.

There was a pretty souvenir, including hat pins, shirt waist pins, opera bags, sachets, books, etc., for each guest.

One of the cakes was cut by the young ladies and with each slice was a numbered ribbon corresponding with the numbers of the souvenirs and in this way the prizes were drawn. There were special favors, beautiful spoons for the two guests-of-honor.

Mrs. McConathy's guests were Misses Mabel and Edith Taylor, Esther Weathers, Hattie Dye, Edith Piatt, Mona Hiller, Emily Ford, Sue Barco, Mary Anderson, Shirley Montgomery, Meta Jewett, Johnnie Liddon, Louella Gary, Valeta Potter, Gertrude Pereda, Sara Whitfield, Sara and Violet Harris and Mrs. Clifton Camp.

Wedded at Tampa.

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mr. Edwin P. Pittman of Ocala, and Miss Maude Wimbish of Macon, Ga., were united in marriage, Rev. B. K. Thrower performing the ceremony.

Mr. Pittman was attended by Mr. Maxie Moody as best man. There were no other attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Pittman spent Monday at St. Petersburg and arrived home Tuesday. They intended visiting Cuba, but on account of the illness of the groom's mother they returned at once, and for the present the young couple will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pittman.

Mr. Pittman is the junior member of the furniture company of Pittman & Son, and is one of our most progressive, enterprising and hustling young business men. His bride is a beautiful and charming young woman, and has been a visitor to Ocala on several occasions. She attended the East Florida Seminary at Gainesville for several years, and it was there that Mr. Pittman first made her acquaintance. They are the recipients of the warm congratulations of his friends, and in these best wishes the Ocala Banner heartily joins.

Mr. Pittman tendered eighteen of his friends a fine supper Saturday evening, at which time he announced to them his approaching marriage.

The Vehicle and Harness Co.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Vehicle and Harness Co., of Jacksonville, Fla. This is one of the largest concerns in the southern states and carries an immense and very varied stock. They solicit the highest class of business throughout the state and are prepared to make prompt shipments.

All correspondence is given immediate attention. The size of the business puts them in a position to make exceptionally low prices.

Mrs. L. B. Tydings, of Anthony, after spending a few days in Ocala has gone to Kendrick to visit her daughter, Mrs. Claude Nix.

A Delightful Dancing Party.

The last of the social events in Ocala before the lenten season was the dancing party given Tuesday evening by Miss Hattie Dye and Miss Esther Weathers complimentary to their guests, Misses Mabel and Edith Taylor, of Cincinnati, who have been spending the winter here and who have made many friends in our city.

The Weather's home seems built for just this kind of festivity. The floor was excellent and the dancing delightful.

The coming of the guests began about eight o'clock and the going was after midnight. The dance was exceedingly informal and the happy crowd of young people spent the jolliest sort of an evening.

Many dogwood blossoms and beautiful yellow jessamine gave a most effective touch of spring to the lovely rooms.

About eleven o'clock a buffet lunch was served in the dining room. Miss Dye at one end of the table and Miss Weathers at the other poured the coffee and chocolate and the young gentlemen acted as waiters and saw that the young ladies lacked for nothing and the hour spent in the dining room was an exceedingly pleasant one. After supper the dancing was continued for awhile longer, the young people being quite loth to leave.

The guests present on this pleasant occasion were the Misses Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Woodrow, Miss Shirley Montgomery, of Concord, N. C., Miss Helen Bush, of Boston, Misses Mary Anderson, Sue Barco, Valeta Potter, Meta Jewett, Sara and Violet Harris, Emily Ford, Mona Hiller, Messrs. B. S. Weathers, C. H. Lloyd, T. H. Harris, O. B. Howse, L. R. Chazal, E. J. Crook, Howard Clark, J. H. Taylor, C. G. Cantrell, W. H. Powers, J. H. Workman, G. H. Ford, H. A. Waterman and W. D. Taylor.

The Baptist Revival.

Rev. M. F. Ham, of Bowling Green, Kentucky, began a series of revival meetings at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

At both the morning and evening service the church was packed and great interest is being manifested in the meeting. Mr. Ham is a singer of no mean ability, and besides conducting the song service sang several solos, which greatly added to the service. Mrs. Ham, who is also a sweet singer, assists her husband in this work and also presides at the piano.

At the evening service Mr. Ham's text was the following: "Be not deceived. God is not mocked. Whosoever a man sows that shall he also reap," and for thirty minutes spoke most earnestly on the subject of sowing and reaping.

Monday there were three services—morning and evening and an afternoon service at 3:30 o'clock for the children.

Remember the services will be held daily at 10 o'clock a. m. at 7:30 p. m. and that everybody in Ocala is cordially invited to come out and hear Mr. Ham and help along the meeting.

Has Resigned His Office.

Mr. Hampton S. Chambers, of this city, has resigned as deputy United States marshal, which office he has filled so acceptably for several years.

Mr. Chambers has accepted a very lucrative position as traveling representative of the Ludden-Campbell-Smith Music Company and will begin his new duties at once. His many friends wish him great success in his new field of work.

Beans, Beans.

I have extra good velvet beans for sale. Any one wishing good seed for planting purposes will make no mistake in buying my seed. J. D. Bassett, Anthony, Fla. 3102

A PROGRESSIVE FIRM.

The Push, Pluck and Success of the Hanne Bros., in Jacksonville.

That merit wins every time in this busy world of push and progress there seems no doubt. One of the best illustrations of this truth is the enterprising firm of Hanne Bros., of this city. From a very small and humble beginning in what was then an obscure portion of the city, they have steadily, but surely, forged their way to the front rank; until to-day they own one of the largest wholesale and retail liquor houses in Jacksonville, besides their large retail grocery and a number of branch stores that cover every portion of the city. Among the branches of the firm of Hanne Bros., special mention is due to the handsome "Falstaff," a cafe, stocked with fine liquors, wines and foreign and domestic beers. From the "Falstaff" kitchen an elegant lunch is served daily, and this palatial retreat is elegant and superb in all its appointments, and is one of the most handsome in the South. This is under the efficient management of Mr. Chas. Wichman. Visitors to the city will miss a treat if they fail to see the large original paintings that adorn the interior of the "Falstaff."

Hanne Brothers have been established about sixteen years, and the foregoing will give you some idea of their growth, and what energy, integrity in business will accomplish. Besides, this progressive firm is doing very extensive mail order business that reaches every portion of the State, and are authorized bottlers and wholesale distributors for the famous Wm. J. Lemp Brewing Company's beer.

The growth of these two energetic young men has been phenomenal and they have earned their well-merited success by their genial manners, coupled with close attention to business and a strict regard for integrity in all their dealings, which never fails to bring success. What Hanne Bros. have done should be an inspiration to other young men launching out into the business world. —Jacksonville Metropolis.

The advertisement of the above named firm will be found in another column of today's Ocala Banner.

To Take the Ocklawaha Trip.

Mrs. Robert L. Anderson, Misses Mary Anderson, Shirley Montgomery, Violet Harris and Dr. W. H. Powers left last night for Palatka, and today they will be joined at that place by Mr. M. J. Roess of Cornell, Mrs. Roess and Miss Roess of Oil City, Pa., Mr. Fred Lewis and his sister, Mrs. Robinson, of Norfolk, Va., and together they will make the trip to Silver Springs on the beautiful Ocklawaha river via the Hart line.

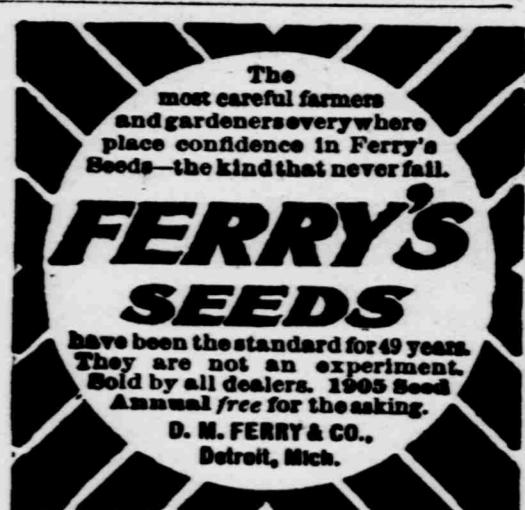

They are contemplating a most delightful trip.

Young People's Card Club Entertained.

Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Lee Miller entertained the members of the Young People's Evening Card club in a very delightful way, at their pleasant home on Fort King avenue. Their only other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clark and Miss Eloise Miller. Mr. Mallory Lidlon and Mrs. A. E. Gerig won the first prizes, and Mr. G. R. McKean received the booby. The evening was a charming one in every way.

Mr. D. S. Woodrow returned home Monday from a short visit to beautiful "Woodmar" on Lake Weir. He brought with him a beautiful string of fish, which he caught from the pier in front of his residence in less than an hour. The string consisted of perch, bream and trout. Mr. Woodrow is in love with the lake and says its beauty cannot be duplicated in Florida. With the orange trees unharmed by the cold, the air redolent with the fragrance of the blossoms and the beautiful waters of the lake all form a picture fit for the brush of an artist.

The Club House seems to be the popular place for Dunnellonites to stop while in the city. On the day of the democratic convention a number of prominent people from that city helped swell the list of diners to over fifty.

The Shriner are meeting in Jacksonville. Ocala is represented.

For fancy soaps and perfumeries call on Tydings & Co. x

We had a delightful and much need rain yesterday afternoon.

Joseph C. Mathews, of Flemington, was a visitor in Ocala Wednesday.

Mr. Ham Dobbins, a prominent merchant of Altoona, was in Ocala Wednesday.
