Mr. S. W. Teague has returned from Jacksonville where he was a witness in the Oram vs. Bradley case.

Mrs. Feaster returned to her home at Micanopy Tuesday after a visit in Ocala with her sister, Mrs. T. M. Moore.

Mr. J. D. Williams, formerly of this city, is up from Arcadia spending a few days with Ocala friends and relatives.

Mr. Charles T. Gibson, of Grahamville, was a visitor to Ocala on Tuesday. His friends here are always glad to see him.

Mr. Charles W. Seabold, of the Hagerstown Spoke & Bending Company, is in the city and is stopping at the Montezuma.

Mr. Z. C. Chambliss has returned from a visit to the southern portion of the state, where he has been in the interest of his big cattle industry.

Mrs. David Carn, who has been the guest of her son Mr. W. D. Carn, has gone to Fort Meade to visit relatives.

Mrs. D. G. Edwards, of the Ocala House, returned home Monday afternoon after a short business visit to Atlanta.

Mr. W. L. Dudley, city salesman for the Teapot Grocery is quite sick at his room at the residence of Dr. W. H. Marean.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Capreol, of Toronto, Canada, who have spent the past two months very pleasantly in Ocala, left Sunday for their home.

Among our visitors to Ocala on Tuesday we noted Mr. E. A. Polly of Bellevue, Mr. Vance Weathers of York, and Mr. Robert Munroe of Daisy.

Mr. Gordon Keller, of Tampa, Mr. N. G. Wade, of Montbrook, and Mr. William Lazaron, of Seattle, Wash., were prominent arrivals at the Ocala House on Sunday.

Mr. Thomas W. Gray, of Tampa, formerly a citizen of Ocala, arrived in the city Sunday and will remain for a week or ten days. He is stopping at the Ocala House.

Mrs. Nathan Mayo and Master Nathan Mayo, jr., of Summerfield, spent Sunday and Monday in Ocala with the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Newsom.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Sattler, of Cincinnati, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Straus over Sunday, and left for Tampa Monday. They are on their bridal tour and are charmed with their trip through Florida.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of Morriston, Fla., will give an entertainment and serve ice cream, cake and other refreshments, for the benefit of the church at the home of Mrs. Barnett George, on Taylor street, Saturday night, April 22nd. There will be an egg hunt after the entertainment.

The colored base ball teams of Ocala and Gainesville played a good game of ball Monday afternoon at the Driving Park. Ocala won, the score being 5 to 3. The colored band was out and it was quite a gala occasion for our colored citizens.

Frank Sowden, who was badly hurt by the explosion of a dynamite stick last week at Dunnellon, is in the city. His right hand was blown entirely off, and he was otherwise badly injured. His brother, Mr. Charles Sowden, of Louisville, is with him and as soon as Frank is able to travel he will accompany his brother to Kentucky, where he will attend school and will study for some profession.

THE BASKIN-BROWN CASE. MR. STALBERG'S

FORMAL OPENING

Referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections—Senate Adjourns Till Monday.

Special to the Ocala Banner:

Tallahassee, April 6.—The senate held a very short session this morning and adjourned until Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Shortly after the morning adjournment the committee on privileges and elections held a meeting, presided over by the chairman, Judge Raney. All members were present and also Messrs. Brown and Baskin. The papers, consisting of protest by Hon. J. G. Baskin, certificate of secretary of state and certificate of state board of canvassers had previously been filed in open senate and referred to the committee.

Dr. Baskin's protest set forth the fact that he had been elected senator from the twentieth senatorial district for the year 1905, under the laws and constitution of the state. He asks that he be allowed to show that he is senator from said district and that Hon. C. M. Brown is not entitled to his seat in the present state senate.

A certificate of election was filed by Hon. H. Clay Crawford, secretary of state, showing the result of the election held in the twentieth senatorial district on March 28, which was as follows: James G. Baskin 551 votes, C. M. Brown 2 votes, E. P. Thagard 2 votes, H. G. Dunn 1 vote, W. K. Zewadski 1 vote.

The report of the state board of canvassers of the above election was also filed, which in part says: "And we, H. Clay Crawford, secretary of state, William H. Ellis, attorney-general and Alonzo C. Croom, comptroller, constituting said board of canvassers, do determine and do hereby declare as our determination the result of the said election to be that, James G. Baskin was elected senator from the twentieth senatorial district of the state of Florida, composed of the counties of Marion and Sumter."

LATER.

Tallahassee, April 6.—The session of the committee on privileges and elections today was a very short one but the passage of the one resolution adopted indicated that the matter at issue will be most promptly considered. The resolution provides that the contestant (Baskin) prepare a statement of his case including all allegations, list of witnesses and what is expected to be proven by each one and to furnish the contestee (Brown) with same by Saturday morning, and that the contestee shall then in turn prepare his statement admitting or denying each allegation and also give list of witnesses and matters to be proven by them or disproving allegations of contestant, all to be furnished committee by Tuesday morning. The committee will then meet at some hour on Tuesday, such hour to be designated by the chairman.

A large number of the senators left today for their homes where they will spend the short recess of the senate. L. J. B.

Pirating Foleys Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co. Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey & Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Fok for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. Postoffice drug store.

Peabody Scholarship and Examination.

Mr. J. H. Workman, principal of the Ocala high school, has consented to hold a Peabody examination in this city May 11, 12 and 13. Those passing this examination will be given free tuition in the Peabody college at Nashville, Tenn., for a term of four years. Here is a golden opportunity for bright boys and girls to secure free education.

Ocala was treated to quite an innovation Tuesday night. Mr. Harry Stalberg formally opened his handsome new ice cream parlors on Magnolia street. He had issued a large number of invitations to the opening, and from eight to eleven the parlors were crowded with visitors.

Mr. Stalberg has just finished renovating and refurbishing the stand formerly belonging to Mr. C. H. Dame. The entire walls have been lined with plate glass mirrors and many other beautiful and modern improvements have been made to the store, and it is now one of the prettiest ice cream parlors and restaurants in the state.

For the opening last night the store was very elaborately decorated in palms, vines, roses, moss, etc., and was the artistic work of Miss Mamie Eliason and Miss Della Fosnot.

Delightful music was rendered by the Marion Concert band, and very delicious ice cream was served by prettily dressed young ladies, with the compliments of the management.

Mr. Stalberg is certainly to be commended and congratulated on his enterprise, and if last night be an indication the "New Idea" ice cream parlors will certainly be a very popular rendezvous for Ocala people this summer.

Death of Adelbert Mead.

News has reached this city of the death of Mr. Adelbert Mead which occurred at his home in West Acton, Massachusetts, on April 6. He was eighty-three years old.

Mr. Mead was interested in Ocala real estate and owned a beautiful place near the city and for many years was an annual visitor to Ocala. He was a member of the firm of A. & O. W. Mead, of Boston and did a large commission business, handling fruits and vegetables.

Mr. Mead began business peddling produce on the streets of Boston with a one horse wagon but by industry and frugality became quite wealthy. He was regarded very highly in business circles and his word was as good as his bond. He was a member of the Universalist church and was in every way an excellent citizen.

Mr. Little's Lecture.

A large audience heard Mr. Little's lecture on the life of Gen. Charles George Gordon, commonly known as "Chinese Gordon," Monday night at the Baptist church.

For two hours he vividly pictured the character of this wonderful man—beginning with his birth and ending with his tragic death at Khartoum.

The life of this great Englishman is a wonderful inspiration for the young, and under Mr. Little's gifted tongue the salient points in his life were grandly pictured.

The lecture was left as a legacy by Mr. Little to the young men of Ocala hoping that it would inspire them to higher aspirations and ideals.

After the conclusion of his lecture Mr. Little, on behalf of Mr. Warren's congregation and as an entire surprise to that gentleman presented him with a bag of gold and did it in a most pleasing way.

The gift, the way in which it was given and the manner of its reception presented a scene as beautiful as it was affecting.

Mrs. Byrne and Mrs. McKean rendered a beautiful solo, a collection was taken up for Mr. Little and the occasion was altogether a pleasant and profitable one.

Mr. Anthony C. Finzel has gone to New York, where he will again go on the stage. Mr. Finzel has spent the past two years at Lake Weir with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Allan and he is well known in this city. He was on the stage for several years in London and is an actor of ability.

The Evangelist and the Revival.

Evangelist E. L. Frazier, who will begin revival services with the Christian church on April 15th, is a Kentuckian who is well and favorably known to many Floridians who come from the Blue Grass country.

He has preached and baptized in Kentucky, Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, North Dakota, Oklahoma Territory, Ohio, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, West Virginia and New York. He comes now from St. Petersburg, where he has just concluded a series of meetings.

Everywhere his exemplary Christian character and able and earnest presentation of the Word of Truth has won for him multitudes of friends and admirers.

During the last twelve months hundreds of souls have been added to the churches in his meetings, and we trust that here also his labors may be richly rewarded by many more being brought into the fold of Christ.

While his home is in Indianapolis, Ind., he is an evangelist at large, going wherever called, and he prefers to work for the free-will offerings of the people.

When asked his age he answers: "Common politeness should forbid asking an unmarried lady who may be suspected of being twenty-five, or a preacher who is fifty, how old they are; but I am old enough to know how to behave properly, and young enough to ride a bicycle. I am in touch with both old and young."

The people of Ocala who are religiously inclined, or otherwise, can not afford to lose his services. Besides being thoroughly instructed in the Bible himself, he has an aptness and perspicacity in presenting what he knows logically, understandingly and convincingly, without tiring anybody. But he will easily interest everybody, the bad to their betterment, and good to their satisfaction and everlasting peace.

He especially requests the prayers of the entire Christian people of the city, that souls may be saved, and everything that is said and done may be good and please Him who is head over all things to the church.

Subjects will be announced ahead from day to day as the meetings progress. Everybody watch the papers, but don't forget to come and hear the preacher. Come Saturday night; come every night.

Mrs. Rachael Roess and her daughter, Miss Lillian Roess, of Oil City, Pa., who have spent the winter and spring in Ocala, left Monday for their home. While in Ocala they were guests at the Savoy hotel. They made many friends here who hope they will continue to spend their winters with us.
