SOME RECENT WEDDINGS.

Covington—Freeland.

Wednesday night, September the sixth, at 7 o'clock at St. John's chapel, Miss Kate Hughes Freeland was united in marriage to Mr. A. D. Covington, of this city. The wedding was a quiet one and was witnessed by only relatives and a few friends of the contracting parties. Miss Freeland is one of the most popular young ladies of Jacksonville, and Mr. Covington is a prominent and progressive business man of this city. Their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Covington left last night for New York and other points. — Jacksonville Times-Union.

Miss Freeland will be very pleasantly remembered in Ocala, having been one of the sponsors from Jacksonville to the Confederate reunion, which was held here in November. While in Ocala Miss Freeland was the guest of Misses Sara and Violet Harris and was greatly feted during her visit. She made many pleasant friends and acquaintances who will learn with interest of her marriage to one of Jacksonville's wealthy and prominent citizens.

Mr. Roy S. Hanna, postmaster at St. Petersburg, was married Tuesday evening to Mrs. Ridgley, of that city. The wedding was a church affair and was largely attended by the friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

Tuesday afternoon the Baptist church at Thomasville, Ga., was the scene of a beautiful wedding when Dr. James M. Grantham, of Tampa, was married to Miss Mary Elizabeth Carroll. The ceremony was performed at half after one o'clock by Rev. Alex W. Bealer and Dr. and Mrs. Grantham left on the two-thirty o'clock train for their future home in Tampa.

Wednesday afternoon in St. Augustine Miss Bertha Leonard was married to Mr. George W. Leonard, formerly of Flushing, Long Island, but now a resident of the "Ancient City." The young couple left immediately after the wedding for New York and other eastern points.

Sunday Miss Ethel McKillip, of Key West, and Mr. Peter W. Curry, of Tampa, were wedded at Miami. The wedding was a runaway match, the parents of the bride objecting on account of her youth. However they are now perfectly reconciled and Mr. and Mrs. Curry are at Tampa receiving congratulations and best wishes.

Mr. Calvin Stertzbach, of Tampa, was recently married to Miss Louise Armstrong, of Shenandoah, Iowa. Mr. Stertzbach is a prominent photographer and musician of Tampa, and will introduce his bride to a large number of friends.

Beautiful Women.

Plump cheeks, flushed with the soft glow of health and a pure complexion, make all women beautiful. Take a small dose of Herbine after each meal; it will prevent constipation and help digest what you have eaten. Mrs. Wm. M. Strod, Midlothian, Tex. writes May 31, 1901: "We have used Herbine in our family eight years, and found it the best medicine we used for constipation, bilious fever and malaria. For sale by all druggists."

Master George Reddick, formerly of Reddick but for the past few months residing in Madison, was in the city yesterday en route to McIntosh and his old home, where he will visit relatives. Master George was a page in the house at the last session of the legislature and proved an exceptionally bright lad. — Gainesville Sun.

Mr. D. W. Davis, accompanied by his son, Norton David, left Sunday for Atlanta and Decatur, Ga. Mr. Davis will spend several days and will leave his son at Decatur where he will enter the Donald Fraser School for Boys.

HAS-BEENS LOST AGAIN.

The Never-Wases Again Proved Their Superiority in The Game.

What is supposed to have been the last ball game of the season between the Has-Beens and the Never-Wases was played on the South Third street diamond Friday afternoon. The contest was a little onesided, but nevertheless, was thoroughly enjoyed by the small crowd in attendance.

Fred Vogt has regained his batting eye. Yesterday out of three times at the bat he drove out a single, a three-bagger and a home run. Cliff Raysor played the third bag for the Has-Beens in splendid style. His catches, stops and throws were great.

The Never-Wases went first to bat. Ford was given a free pass to first. Torck third on two wild throws, and scored on Harrie's out. The Has-Beens failed to tally in the first session. In each the second and the third, however, they sent one across the plate. During the second inning, after two were out, Etheridge hit to center field for a base, stole second, took third on the third baseman's error, and came home on a passed ball. In the third inning Duval popped up a fly back of the pitcher and reached first safely. He made second on an out, was sacrificed to third and scored when, after a hard run, "Ikey" dropped J. Camp's long fly to right field.

For the Never-Wases, Cole and Pelot circled the bases in the second scene. In the fifth Vogt hit his long home run to right field after which Harris added another tally. In the sixth Pelot hit to center for two bases, and scored on Moore's hit to right. Harris and Clark scored in the seventh on four hits and an error. Ford and Harris went around in the eighth, and Cole again in the ninth. Total 11.

During the third inning Ford and Harris hit safely and were left on the second and third stations while the next three men popped up flies to the in-field. This was pretty work.

When the Has-Been's last half of the ninth inning arrived they were determined to do something. Hough hit to left for two sacks. Duval was out on a long fly to Dame. Schneider hit to Ford who threw to third to catch Hough, but Hough was safe, Schneider going to second. Hough and Schneider scored when Crom braced himself and drove the ball to center for two bases. Total 4.

Mr. Clark certainly pitched an excellent game.

The score:—

Never-Wases—1 2 0 0 2 1 2 2 1—11

Has-Beens—0 1 1 0 0 0 0 2—4

Battery, Never-Wases, Clark and Bullock; Has-Beens, Duval and Schneider. Two-base hits, Crom, Hough and Pelot. Three-base hit, Vogt. Home run, Vogt. Double play, Vogt and Pelot. Umpire, Mr. Goode.

Miss Adah Bennett, in company with Mrs. Edwards, of Ocala, has gone for an extended trip out west. She will visit Colorado, Utah, Nevada, Idaho, and will take in the great Lewis and Clark Centennial at Portland, Oregon, before she returns. — Crystal River News.

Mrs. C. E. Abson and children arrived in America some days ago from England, where they have been for the past year and a half. They will remain in the north until cold weather and will then return to Ocala. Mrs. Abson's sister, Miss Rebecca Boswell, who has been with her for the last eight months, has returned to her home at Lake-land, where she will teach school this year.

A BEAUTIFUL LUNCHEON.

Mrs. William Hocker Being Beautifully Entertained in Kentucky.

Miss Lillie Goldnamer entertained delightfully at luncheon, last Thursday, complimentary to her guest, Mrs. William Hocker, of Ocala, Fla.

The color scheme was pink and green and the table was exquisite in all its appointments. In the center was a tall silver pitcher filled with pink roses and ferns, twined about with smilax, and garlands of smilax draped from the chandelier. The place cards were dainty hand painted heads, each a work of art. A most delicious menu of five courses was served, the color scheme carefully adhered to throughout. In the afternoon the guests were provided with needles and thread and pieces of blue and white cloth and requested to outline their autographs. When done these formed a most attractive pillow cover, which was presented to the guest of honor as a souvenir of a most happy occasion. Miss Goldnamer and her mother are charming hostesses and their home is famous for its cordial hospitality. Mrs. Hocker formerly lived in Hardin county and has a great many friends in Elizabethtown who have planned a number of delightful affairs during her visit. Besides the hostesses and honored host who enjoyed this pleasant party were: Mesdames Montgomery, Agnew, Brengle, Wells and Misses Hansbrough, Robertson, Helm and Hall.

Mrs. Hattie Agnew entertained from five to seven Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. William Hocker, a beautiful young matron of Ocala, Fla., who is remembered with so much pleasure here, where she made scores of friends, as Miss Elizabeth Hansbrough. Mrs. Agnew has given many delightful entertainments at her beautiful country home, and her friends are delighted to have it again opened to the social world.

The artistic decorations were all in green and yellow, the golden rod used being especially effective. Those asked to receive with Mrs. Agnew were: Mesdames William Hocker, Ben Hardin Helm, S. R. Robertson, S. Goldnamer, Charles Terry and Roy Bond and Misses Lucy Robertson and Lillie Goldnamer. Misses Sammie Robertson, Rena English, Mildred Sprigg and Hattie English served the Frappe

Mrs. W. H. Brengle, Misses Lou Showers and Belle English furnished the program, which was highly appreciated.

Ninety guests called during the afternoon. — Elizabethtown (Ky.) News.

An Aged and Prominent Lady Seriously Sick.

Mrs. Ellen Call Long, the first white child born in the city of Tallahassee, now eighty years of age, lies seriously sick at her home near that city and her life is despaired of. She came into the world as a little queen, and her advent was hailed with the ringing of bells and the booming of cannon.

Mrs. Long is the daughter of the late Richard K. Call, who occupied a conspicuous place in the history of Florida. He bore an important part in the early Indian wars, and afterwards became governor of the state. His daughter inherited his splendid abilities, and is one of Florida's most intellectual celebrities. She is the author of a book and a frequent contributor to the press of the state. She recently contributed an article to the Ocala Banner, which appeared as one of the "Florida Incidents." The article gave an account of some historic duels which were fought at Tallahassee during its early history.

WE EAT MEAT

To grow strong. Unless we get good meat we may as well let it alone. There is no strength in tough meat—instead of giving it takes strength to digest it. It pays to be careful in buying meat—be sure to get the best—tender and choice. Pay a little more if need be and put something in your stomach which will put flesh on your bones and strong blood in your veins.
