FLORIDA'S BUSY SEASON RAPIDLY APPROACHING

Dates Announced for the Opening of Her Big Hotels—Brilliant Season Anticipated.

Dates for opening the east coast hotels have been designated and the mere announcement tends to bring the winter season, with all its gaieties and pleasures, closer.

As in former years, the Alcazar will be the first to open, but the season at this popular hostelry will begin considerably later than in recent years. The Alcazar is scheduled to open on Saturday, December 9th. As usual, Mr. J. P. Greaves will be at the helm to steer the great house through another prosperous season. The closing date will be Saturday, April 21. This gives the Alcazar a season of over four months, and as it will open late, no doubt it will fill up rapidly. Some minor improvements and the usual renovation will be made.

Next on the list is the Breakers at Palm Beach. This management and popular house will begin the season in time to serve Christmas dinner, being scheduled to open on Saturday, December 23. It is to close on Saturday, April 6. The Breakers will again be under the management of Mr. Fred Sterry, which is a guarantee that the success of former years will be duplicated.

Miami's palatial hotel, the Royal Palm, will open on Monday, January 8, and will close on Tuesday, April 3. This hostelry will be under the management of Mr. H. W. Merrill, who has so successfully conducted it in past seasons.

The famous Ponce de Leon, the Hotel Ormond and the Hotel Colonial are all scheduled to open on Tuesday, January 9. The Ponce de Leon will, as usual, be under the same able management of Mr. Robert Murry. It will close on Saturday, April 8.

Messrs. Anderson & Price will again conduct the Hotel Ormond, which under their efficient management, has become one of the most popular of the great resort hotels.

The Colonial, at Nassau, N. P., will again be under the management of Mr. H. E. Bemis. It will be open on Tuesday, January 9, and will close Monday, April 2.

The Royal Poinciana, at Palm Beach, opens Thursday, January 11, and closes Monday, April 2. This colossal hostelry will be under its former management, Mr. Fred Sterry.

Atlantic Beach will enjoy an unusually long season next year, being scheduled to open March 15 and close during the month of August. Mr. H. E. Bemis will manage the Continental.

The date of the opening of the Royal Victoria at Nassau, N. P., will be announced later.

Great interest is always manifested in the opening dates of the great hostelries of the East Coast Hotel system by the people of the east coast. Attendant upon the opening are the festivities and the business of the year. These palatial hotels bring the east coast of Florida in touch with the outside world. Every resort is enlivened by wealth and fashion, representing every state in the union, and the more advanced foreign nations.

Of Cholera Morbus With One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates and experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Clebourne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souce meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrahoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us."
