MARION COUNTY AT THE STATE FAIR

Marion will show up immensely larger at the state fair than any of us ever dreamed.

There were thirteen cars that left Monday night, loaded with exhibits. Ten of these cars were from Ocala and three from McIntosh. Three of the Ocala cars contained general exhibits and seven live stock.

Two cars containing horses and mules were in charge of Mr. J. R. Blackiston. One car contained a very fine selection of Red Duroc Jersey hogs and pigs, owned by Mr. H. H. Whitworth. One car of cattle was from the Marion Farms; one from the Edwards Brothers' farm, and one from the Palmto Stock Farms, owned by Messrs. Z. C. Chambliss & Co., and there was one car of farm product containing almost every variety of stuff grown on a farm—such as sugar cane, cotton, hay in bales, and all varieties of grain.

There were three cars from McIntosh, two containing live stock and one of fowls, belonging to Messrs. Gist, Gaitskill and Guerrant. Besides the Marion county cars, there were also seven from Alachua county containing principally live stock.

Messrs. Chambliss and Gist say that the A. C. L. has done everything in its power to facilitate the shipping and placed as many cars at the disposal of the committee as they requested. Besides the cars for the exhibits, the roads placed a passenger car at the disposal of the exhibitors.

Marion county has a unique and beautiful sign, made entirely of corn, sixteen feet long and the letters of which are twenty-seven inches high, the whole of which is painted in blue.

Mr. Chambliss, who has attended many fairs and is a keen observer, is well pleased with the Marion exhibit and says it is as fine as any he has ever seen and feels confident that it will be a prize winner.

No Poison in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

From Napier New Zealand Herald: Two years ago the Pharmacy Board of Oew South Wales, Australia, had an analysis made of all the cough medicines sold in that market. Out of the entire list they found only one that they declared was entirely free from all poisons. This exception was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, made by the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa, U. S. The absence of all narcotics makes this remedy the safest and best that can be had and it is with a feeling of security that any mother can give it to her little ones. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is especially recommended by its makers for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

A High Fall.

Frank Broome, colored, who is employed at the Ocala Foundry and Machine Works, had a high fall and a miraculous escape from death Saturday afternoon about 2 o'clock. He was on the scaffold, which is forty feet high and used for breaking scrap iron, when it gave away and he fell to the ground. He was knocked insensible and it was at first thought he was killed. Dr. Powers was hastily summoned, and when he reached the unfortunate man it was found that he was not only not killed but had sustained only slight injuries. It was certainly a narrow and miraculous escape.

AN OLD LANDMARK TO GO.

Making Way for Ocala in her March Toward Commercial Improvement.

The building now known as the Club House and so successfully run as a hotel is about to be torn down to give place to business houses.

It seems strange that a brick building comparatively new should be torn away to make room for other buildings, but this marks an epoch in the history of Ocala and tells a new story in her commercial life.

The lot on which this building stands was recently sold by the Zebutt heirs to the Kibbler Brothers and by them in turn sold to Mr. Edward Holder. As soon as he got in possession of the property he turned it over to Mr. David S. Woodrow and that gentleman, with his customary energy, platted the block into business lots, put them on the market, advertised the same in the local newspapers, and as a result seven of the lots have been already sold and only three are now left on the market. The conditions of the sale are such that as soon as any of the purchasers give sixty days' notice the Club House property which stands almost in the center of the block is to be torn down and Mr. Woodrow is expecting a notice of this sort at any time.

Dinner to Mr. and Mrs. Helvenston.

The dinner Friday evening at which Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Helvenston were the honor guests, and Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Sistrunk the host and hostess, was one of the most elaborate and perfect in every detail ever given in Ocala.

Dinner was served in the large dining room, which was handsomely decorated with ferns and tall vases of chrysanthemums. The center piece of the long table was a large reflector upon which was a candelabra tipped with pink candles glowing under pink covers. Cut glass vases filled with ferns were at each end of the table, and large chrysanthemums were gracefully arranged on the table and were given to the guests at the conclusion of the dinner. Attached to three of the flowers were the ring, penny and thimble.

Miss Mattie Williams secured the ring, Mrs. Powers the penny, and Miss Carrie Williams the thimble.

The place cards were painted in delicate shades pink roses. The menu was most attractive and tempting and beautifully carried out.

Mrs. Helvenston looked quite handsome in her wedding gown of white crepe de chene. The bridesmaids all wore blue tissue dresses with pink rosebuds in their coiffeurs which gave a very Frenchy air to this delightful occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Sistrunk's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Helvenston, Mr. and Mrs. Will Gary, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Pasteur, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. McKean, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Davis, Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Newsom, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Powers, Misses Mattie and Carrie Williams, Esther Weathers, Hattie Dye, Edith Piatt, Byrd Wartmann, and Gertrude Pereda; Messrs. L. N. Green, Ardis Waterman and O. B. Howse.

A Card of Acceptance.

To the Editor of the Ocala Banner. I beg of you a few lines of space to announce that I have at the solicitation of many friends accepted the nomination for mayor of Ocala subject to the voice of the people at the polls in the December election.

I want to state right here for the benefit of those who may not know that I shall make a clean race, and that I am not backed by any party, sect, ring or clique. I am independent. I have no friends to reward nor enemies to punish, and shall if elected have only the best interests of the city at heart and will faithfully perform every duty that may devolve upon me, always doing what I believe to be right.

E. P. PITTMAN.

Twenty pounds of sugar for $1.00 at the Fair.

KNIFE FATALLY WEILDED.

Ransom Miller Killed Saturday by Petit Davis—Murderer Still at Large.

Shortly after dark Saturday Ransom Miller and Petit Davis, both colored, met in the rear of the Montezuma hotel and engaged in a scrap, a result of which is the former now lies dead at the undertaking establishment of McIver & MacKay and the murderer is in hiding from the officers, who are on his trail.

Eye witnesses to the affair say that the two men had not had any quarrel, but were talking to each other in a quiet way, and the first they knew of the trouble was when Miller turned and started to run but fell to the ground and died before the aid of a physician could be obtained.

A coroner's jury was empaneled by Justice S. A. Bullock, consisting of P. W. Whitesides, P. R. Lester, B. E. Raysor, H. E. Haley, W. W. Carman and H. D. Stokes. After examining the dead man's wounds and securing the names of several eye witnesses to the affair the jury adjourned until 9 o'clock Monday morning.

Miller was cut four times about the body, and it is thought that either of the wounds would have caused death.

Davis is well known around the county, having worked for the various mill and turpentine men, and it is not thought that he can long avoid capture.
