HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Mr. McKinnon Dixon, of Gainesville, was a visitor to Ocala Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Morton of Eve, were visitors to Ocala Monday.

Mr. Vance Weathers, of York, was doing business in Ocala Tuesday.

Mrs. J. B. Hiers will be with her sister, Mrs. W. V. Newsom until after Christmas when she will go to Fort Myers to reside.

Favorite Fertilizers for all crops and all fertilizer material for sale by Lang, Swartz & Co.

Mrs. George Hendron, of Washington, D. C., is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. G. M. Hubbard and will spend the winter in the city.

Mrs. Harry Cline came home Tuesday morning from Jacksonville, where she spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Otto Mente.

We are the sole agent for the celebrated Genuine Karpen Leather Goods. Ocala Furniture Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Holder, of Dunnellon, spent Tuesday in Ocala, making some Christmas purchases. While here they were guests at the Ocala house.

Mrs. Newcomb Barco, of Fellowship, spent Monday in Ocala shopping. She was the guest of her father-in-law, Mr. J. M. Barco at the Savoy Hotel for dinner.

Mr. Frank Mathews after an absence of over a year, is in Ocala to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mathews.

Are you cold? Masters has nice warm sweaters for both men and boys.

Mr. Ebb Irvine, of Lake City, a prominent shoe drummer, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Irvine said that Lake City is making steady progress and that it is one of the most prosperous cities in the state.

Mrs. Howard Dutil and children, who spent the past ten days in Ocala, the guests of Mr. W. H. Clark and family, left Monday for Live Oak, where Mr. Dutil will preach the coming year having been moved from Jacksonville to that city.

Mrs. Sage, of Lakeland, is visiting her son, Mr. Charles K. Sage, and family and will remain until after the holidays.

The reading club met Tuesday afternoon with Miss Sarah McCreery. On account of the closeness of Christmas the meeting was not a very large one but was quite pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Chestnut and Dr. A. McIntosh, of North Carolina, will spend Christmas in Ocala, the guests of the latter's daughter, Mrs. D. E. Melver.

At the auction Monday night at Weihe's, Mrs. C. V. Miller secured the ladies' prize, a lovely little cutglass bouillon dish and Mr. Heintz, the gentlemen's, a pretty little gold stick pin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Foster and their pretty little daughter, Dorothy, of Covington, Ga., will spend the Christmas holidays in Ocala with Mrs. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bull.

Mr. H. T. Spooner, owner of one of the largest and best paying orange properties on Lake Weir, is a guest at the Ocala House for a few days. His orange crop this year is still on the trees and his grove is a vision of beauty.

Among the prominent visitors to this city Monday was Hon. Geo. K. Robinson of Ocala, who was a guest of his brother, Hon. Walter G. Robinson. He left in the afternoon for Alachua and other points in the interest of the cotton department of H. F. Dutton & Co.—Gainesville Sun.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Yonge came home Sunday from Jacksonville, where they were called on account of the illness of their daughter, Mrs. Mente. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Mente's children, who will remain until their mother is recovered.

Mr. Leon Fishel is in from a trip over the state and will remain at home until after Christmas.

Mrs. M. A. Jackson and Miss Kate Jackson, of Gainesville, Ga., are visiting Mrs. Jackson's daughter, Miss Henry Livingston and will spend the winter here.

Rev. Louis B. Warren, of Beaumont, Texas, is in the city to spend a few days. Mr. Warren was formerly pastor of the First Baptist church in Ocala and was one of the most popular men in the city. His host of friends here are delighted to see him again.

Crystal Wedding.

A reception that surpassed in brilliancy and size any preceding one of the season, was that given Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Sumter De Leon Lowry in celebration of their crystal wedding. Their pretty Plant avenue home was luxuriantly adorned with magnificent ferns, tropical plants and an abundance of the wild bamboo vine, gracefully entwined with crystal rope. In the receiving line stood Mr. and Mrs. Lowry and their five children, Willie Louise, De Leon, Blackburn, Loper Bailey and Isabelle, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. DeHart and Mr. Joe Walker. In the punch room the guests refreshed themselves throughout the evening with a delicious fruit nectar; and in the same room was stationed Turner's orchestra, whose music was an added charm to the entertainment. An original feature was the songs rendered at intervals by some of Tampa's best singers, suggestive of the seven stages of life—infancy, childhood, maidenhood, marriage, young motherhood, middle age and old age. The program that the orchestra used, carried out the same idea with its lullabies, children's music, wedding marches, etc. In the dining room, where the decorations formed a triumph of artistic skill, bride's cake and white ices with their dainty accompaniments were served.—Tampa Tribune.

Dr. and Mrs. Lowry resided in Ocala a number of years ago. They are a very charming couple and their friends hope all their wedding anniversaries will be as pleasant as was their crystal wedding.

Father—"I don't want one of those old cheap suits. I want one of those good ones at Masters!"

Auction Sale at Weihe's.

The auction sale at the F. G. B. Weihe's jewelry store was continued Tuesday afternoon and evening and will keep up throughout the week. The articles are all good and are being sold at most reasonable prices. In the afternoon Mrs. Tuesday night and asked that an ordi-

T. E. Bridges and Mr. Clifford Livingston won the handsome presents that are given away at each sale. The report has been circulated that Mr. Weihe is selling out his stock preparatory to leaving Ocala. This statement he wishes us to emphatically deny. Mr. Weihe has been living in Ocala for twenty years and expects to make his home here as long as he lives. He is simply using this unique method of disposing of his exquisite line of holiday goods.

Everybody is cordially invited to the auction this afternoon and tonight and everyday until the sale closes.

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies because of the persistent cough that resulted from the grip. I tried to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which entirely cured my saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased conditions of throat and lungs. At Tydings & Co., druggists; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

You can not make your boy a better Christmas gift than one of those suits at Masters.

Auction at Weihe's.

The auction sale at F. G. B. Weihe's jewelry store was begun Monday afternoon. Mr. Kelly of Chicago acting as auctioneer having a splendid voice and a very clever way of praising the stock. Quite a large number of articles were sold at the opening afternoon and in the evening the sale was continued. This is an excellent opportunity to purchase your Christmas presents cheap and it will pay you to go to Mr. Weihe's auction.

In the afternoon a present was given away, Mrs. Thomas of Pine, being the holder of the lucky ticket. Her prize was a lovely cake plate.

The auction will be continued every afternoon at two o'clock and every evening at seven o'clock during the week.

Remarkable Cure.

"I was much afflicted with sciatica," writes Ed. C. Nud, Iowaville, Sedgwick Co., Kan., going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50c. bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons; all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, and am able to perform a great deal of light work on the farm." 25c. 50c. and $1, all druggists.

Masters is showing a dandy new line of Boy's Clothing all sizes and prices for Christmas.

Ordinance Regulating Saloons.

Mr. Maurice Strauss, representing the Marion County Protective Association, appeared before the city council Tuesday night and asked that an ordinance be passed regulating the bar-rooms of the city on the lines suggested by Mr. Harry Precht in the late "wet and dry" election.

One of the provisions of the ordinance is that the saloons shall open not earlier than 5 o'clock in the morning and remain open not later than 10 o'clock at night.

Another provision is that these saloons shall be visited by those in authority so it can be seen that these places are not frequented by minors; that whiskey is not sold to intoxicated persons, and that the law is not violated in any other manner.

Some such ordinance will be passed, and we are glad to note that these suggestions come from the whiskey men themselves.

Supreme Court Decision.

In the supreme court of Florida, division B, June term, A. D. 1905, Robert A. Ivey, Appellant, v. A. J. Dawley, Appellee. Marion county.

Hocker, J. Previous to June 13th, 1892, when the Revised Statutes of 1892 went into effect there was no law in this state requiring clerks of the circuit court to keep special books in which to record mortgages, and when a mortgage of real estate was filed in a clerk's office on the 10th of July, 1891, and recorded on that day or on the 13th day of said month in the Miscellaneous Record book, such record is constructive notice of the contents of said mortgage to subsequent mortgages of said real estate, and those holding under them.

Decree reversed. Otis T. Green, for Appellant; H. L. Anderson, for Appellee.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and cured my diseases by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommended them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold under guarantee to do the same for you by Tydings & Co., druggists, at 50c. a bottle. Try them today.

Masters says "Not how cheap, but how much value for your money?"

The Biggest Land Sale.

Messrs. J. J. Whispel, T. H. Irvin and R. P. Higgins, real estate brokers of this section, a few days ago made a sale of some 52,000 acres of West Florida timber lands in Washington and Calhoun counties to the Duluth Timber company, composed of large operators of Duluth and Eau Claire, the consideration being $400,000. This is the largest land deal made in this part of the state for a long time, and will result in wonderful activities in timber, lumber and naval stores in the counties.—Tallahassee True Democrat.

Funeral of Mr. Stone.

The funeral services of the late Captain Spencer C. Stone were held Sunday afternoon from his late residence on South Lime street. Rev. Sam White of the Christian church officiated at the funeral and paid a very glowing tribute to the departed. The Masons then took charge of the body and according to the beautiful ritual of that lodge laid it away to its last resting place in beautiful Greenwood cemetery. The funeral was largely attended by friends of the deceased, who had come to pay their last tribute to the deceased.

Requiescat in pacem.

"Low price goods are never cheap." You get full value for your money at Masters.

Miss Mary Wartmann and her brother, Mr. Allison Wartmann, of Citra, drove down to Ocala Tuesday morning and spent the day in the city making Christmas purchases. These young people are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wartmann and are very popular. From the first to the tenth of January Miss Wartmann will entertain a large house party at her lovely home in Citra. She will have as her guests eight young men and eight young ladies and she has planned a very jolly time for her visitors.

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of Masonville, Ia., "that for blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at Tydings & Co. druggists.

Our store will be open every night until nine o'clock.

Death and Funeral of Mrs. Martinot.

Early Sunday morning after an illness of several weeks the soul of Mrs. Louis Martinot went to meet its maker.

The deceased was sixty-three years of age and was born in France. She had been living in Ocala for almost twenty years and conducted the French bakery, just opposite this office. She was well known all over the city and during her residence among us has made a large number of friends who deeply regretted to hear of her death. She is survived by two sons, Messrs. Henry and Victor Martinot and one daughter, Miss Margaret Martinot. The former is now living in Nevada and the two latter made their home with their mother. She also leaves a brother living in Ocala.

The body of Mrs. Martinot was taken to the undertaking parlors of Messrs. Melver & Mackay where they were prepared for burial. The funeral was held at ten o'clock Monday morning from the Catholic church. Rev. Father Bottolacio conducted the last obsequies saying mass over the remains and preaching a brief sermon at the cemetery. The body was laid to rest in Greenwood cemetery.

This paper extends its sympathy to the bereaved relatives of the deceased.

The pall bearers were Messrs. L. R. Chazal, G. C. Maughis, Louis Toffaletti, L. Dozier, D. S. Woodrow and C. L. Bittinger.

Lecture on Martin Luther.

Rev. F. A. Holtzhausen, of Wittenburg, Germany, (Luther's City,) spent Sunday in Ocala and in the evening delivered his lecture on Martin Luther, the "Hero of Heroes."

Mr. Holtzhausen was christened and confirmed in Luther's church, drank of Luther's well, played under the Luther Oak, sang in the Luther choir and has visited all the places of interest in connection with the great reformer's life and work.

Quite a large number were present to hear Mr. Holtzhausen and with the exception of its great length it was very much enjoyed. The keynote of the lecture was liberty.

From the first to last he showed how the highest ideals of human life and progress have been reached by emancipation—the greatest word in the universal language of mankind.

He introduced his subject by referring to Moses as the greatest law-giver, leader, and liberator of the human race. In glowing terms he also spoke of Jesus as the mightiest among the mighty, the central source of human liberty, and as the only source of true and lasting greatness.

In speaking of Luther the lecturer showed how, unaided by any direct supernatural power he forced his way from a poor, begging singing boy in the streets until he stood the conqueror of the Pope, the spiritual—and the Emperor, the temporal ruler of the world; and thus ushered in the glorious era of our present civilization.
