

A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING.

The Most Brilliant Event in Ocala Society Circles—Mr. Mallory Liddon Leads to the Marriage Altar Miss Nellie May Potter.

"As unto the low the chard is, so unto the man is woman. Though she bends him, she obeys him; Though she draws him, still she follows— Unless one without the other."

Notably brilliant and beautiful was the wedding of Miss Nellie May Potter and Mr. Mallory Liddon at the Methodist church on Wednesday evening the ceremony being performed in the presence of hundreds of interested friends of both parties.

It was a beautiful wedding, beautiful in every detail and arrangement.

Sately palms, ferns and potted plants formed a deep, rich background for the beautiful picture the bridal party made.

At nine o'clock the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march, played by Miss M. Byrd Wartmann, announced the arrival of the bridal party.

The six groomsmen, Messrs. W. T. Gary, C. H. Lloyd, J. H. Mathews, J. H. Taylor, E. Van Hood, and John Daly, of Apalachicola, entered the church in couples, separating at the back of the church, one going down the right aisle and one down the left, crossing in the front and marching to the opposite side; next came the ring bearer, little Caro Liddon, sister of the groom, who was very sweet in a dainty dress of white accordeon pleated silk; then came the six bridesmaids, Misses Johnnie Liddon, Sara Harris, Lena Bullock, Hat-tye Porter, Iola Liddon and Clarice Barksdale, of Augusta, Ga., attired in white organdie and carrying bouquets of pink carnations, next the maid-of-honor, Miss Valeta Potter, sister of the bride, in pink silk and carrying pink carnations. She was followed by the bride leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. B. J. Potter. Her gown was a lovely creation of Olga Crepe. Her veil of tulle was adjusted with narcissi and a beautiful pearl star, the gift of the groom. She carried a beautiful shower bouquet of bride's roses with long chiffon ends.

At the altar she was met by Mr. Liddon and his best man, Mr. Jackson B. Hiers, of Ferdinandina, and Rev. Howard Dutil, who performed the ceremony, standing under a magnificent marriage bell of white chrysanthemums.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party and the relatives were entertained at a beautiful reception at the home of the bride.

At the house the color scheme of pink and white was carried out in all the decorations.

The bride and groom stood in the parlor and received the congratulations showered on them.

In the dining room was the table for the bridal party, very beautifully decorated. The places were marked with ribbon bows corresponding to the ones given the bridal party. An elegant supper was served. Much merriment was caused by the cutting of the bride's cake. The ring was received by Miss Iola Liddon, the thimble by Miss Johnnie Liddon, and the dime by Miss Hat-tye Porter.

The bride presented each of her maids with a lovely stick pin, and the groom also gave each of his groomsmen a pin.

The presents received by this popular couple were displayed in an upstairs room. They were many and elegant and attested in a measure to their popularity.

Mr. and Mrs. Liddon were escorted to the Plant System train by the bridal party, and amid the showers of rice, old shoes and good wishes left for Jacksonville and points on the east coast.

Mr. Liddon is one of Ocala's popular and sterling young business men, being in the livery business, while his bride is a most lovable young woman. She has only lived in Ocala a little over two years but by her charming and attractive ways has won hosts of friends and admirers who wish for her a life of unalloyed happiness.

The out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. R. G. Perrin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson, of Osceola, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall, formerly of Kansas City, but now of Tampa, Mrs. Abe Liddon, of Birmingham, Ala.; Miss Clarice Barksdale, Mr. J. B. Hiers and Mr. John Daly.

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenia, Dutchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

The Opening German.

The Montezuma hotel last night presented a lovely scene; the dining room and parlors being beautifully decorated with palms and evergreens. The occasion was the opening German of the Nine O'clock German Club, the most popular social organization of the city. The young people had been looking forward to this event with eager anticipation, and in spite of extremely bad weather none stayed away and the young ladies were all looking their loveliest and the young men were a handsome picture to look upon.

Shortly after nine o'clock the German opened with the grand march, led by Mr. E. T. Helvenston and Miss Luella Gary. The music was furnished by Messrs. Frank Matthews, Ray Alworth, Charles Van Dusen and Karl Weihe.

The German was led by Mr. E. T. Helvenston and Mr. C. V. Miller. It was one of the prettiest Germans ever danced in Ocala. All the figures were new and the favors numerous and appropriate.

Miss Gary was handsome in green silk with pink rose applique.

Miss Clarice Barksdale was very stately and beautiful in white lisse-over old rosesatin. She was constantly the center of a group of admirers. Mrs. E. L. McIntosh was looking extremely pretty in black organdie.

Miss Emily Ford was there looking unusually pretty after several months spent in Canada and Ohio. Her gown of white mousseline was very chic.

Miss Esther Weathers, one of Ocala's most charming young women, looked unusually well in white organdie and blue ribbons.

Misses Lena and Marie Bullock were similarly gowned in white organdie with lace trimmings. They were looking very pretty and were extremely popular.

Miss Mary Reardon's blonde beauty was enhanced last night by a lovely gown of white silk, hand embroidered in blue forget-me-nots.

Miss Baum was very lovely in white organdie.

Miss Sue Barco, in pink and black, and Miss Iva Standley, in yellow and black, were two of the popular young ladies present.

Miss Meta Jewett, in white organdie, was looking very pretty.

Miss Sara Harris was dressed in black organdie.

The young men present were: Messrs. Helvenston, Miller, John Daly, C. H. Lloyd, J. H. Mathews, J. H. Taylor, T. W. Lutz, S. E. Hiller, Lee Miller, T. K. Slaughter, E. J. Crook, E. L. McIntosh, L. R. Chazal, Stephen Jewett, G. H. Ford, and Ralph Birdsey.

On account of the weather there were not as many visitors present as was expected, but a number of the ladies stopping at the hotel were interested spectators.

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic. I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicines of different kinds, giving each a fair trial; but gradually grew worse until I could hardly hear, taste or smell. I then concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since." EUGENE FORBES, Lebanon, Kan.
