Miss C. A. Babcock - - - Editor

Major Kingman, of St. Augustine is visiting friends in Orange City for a couple of weeks. Major has been coming to Orange City for winters for several years. The last two he has spent in St. Augustine with his daughter, Mrs. John Thorpe. We are all glad to see the Major. He has a host of friends here.

The whist club met Friday afternoon. They have a rule now that the four highest scores lead the game the next week by taking the first table, so Miss Adams, Miss Hoyt, Mr. Heebner and Mr. Morse will start the first table next week.

Mrs. L. F. Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hayward all of Boston, Mass, arrived at the Orange City Hotel Sunday evening.

Mrs. Elmer Dean, of Glasgow, Ky., is visiting friends in town. Mr. Dean and family lived in Orange City about eight years. They moved from here to Kentucky about ten years ago. They are now very successful farmers there. Mrs. Dean says all their success in Kentucky does not make her forget Orange City or the friends she has here. With it all she would like to come back to Florida to live. Come back and we will give you a warm welcome.

The people at Palmetto Cottage had a happy thought last week, when they made up a party of twenty-two persons to make Dr. and Mrs. Conway a surprise party. Doctor says they were so happily surprised and so thoroughly enjoyed the evening that he hopes they may come again.

Our school celebrated Arbor Day by planting trees, having a picnic dinner and a literary program was carried out. Professor Hood gave an address which was exceedingly interesting. Mrs. E. A. Hill gave the children an off-hand talk about the care of trees and birds, which we think they will take an interest in more than ever. Miss Ruth Cromer read an essay on "The trees of our country," which was well spoken of by those who heard it. Master Wilbur Thompson gave a recitation entitled "Graham's Grocery Store." It is given below.

Mr. Frank Taylor is the proud owner of a fine automobile. He received it Monday and was riding about town in it Tuesday.

The Euchre club met Tuesday evening. Mrs. Mary Butter won ladies' prize; Mr. L. E. St. John, gentlemen's prize.

Miss Jessie Willard, of Eau Claire Wis., has been spending a week in Orange City, went back to DeLand Wednesday morning. We are all delighted to see her. She spent the winter here fifteen years ago at the DeYarman House. Mr. DeYarman was her uncle.

Mrs. Parsons, of DeLand, is visiting for a few weeks with Mrs. Disbro on French avenue.

The Village Improvement Association, of this town, will give a Valentine social Saturday evening at their room in Library Hall, to which a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Miss Babcock is putting up a Pittsburg wire fence around her place this week.

A letter to Mrs. Wheldon brings tidings of the death of Marcus Lent. Mr. Lent will be readily called to mind by the people of Orange City, and by some of the people of DeLand. He was for a long time in charge of the grounds and grove of the late Mr. Hildreth. After the death of Mr. Hildreth he had charge of the groves and grounds belonging to the Dickinson family. He subsequently moved to Cincinnati. Mr. and Mrs. Lent were members of the Congregational church and were among the active workers. He was also for years superintendent of our Sabbath School. Of late his health had not been good. A week ago last Monday morning when Mrs. Lent went down stairs to prepare breakfast she left him feeling quite comfortable. He expected to eat breakfast with the family. When breakfast was ready Mrs. Lent sent her grandson to call her husband. He soon returned saying his grandfather was asleep and he could not wake him up. Mrs. Lent ran up stairs and saw at once that death had set his seal on the brow of her husband. In the brief interval of her absence Mr. Lent with silent and swift tread, had passed on to the unseen world, where sin and sorrow are unknown, and where death never comes. The large circle of friends in Orange City and vicinity, who remember Mr. and Mrs. Lent as neighbors and friends, extend to the bereaved and sorrowing family its deepest and most cordial sympathy.

GRAHAM'S GROCERY STORE.

(A poem by Wilbur Thompson, a pupil of the public school.)

A circle gathers every night,
Say twenty-odd or more,
Around the big inviting stove
In Graham's grocery store.
Nail kegs and cracker barrels take
In place of fine settees.
And here's where the circle spends its time in
Most luxurious ease.

Here's where the farming's carried on;
Here's where the hay is raised;
Here's where the cords of wood are cut;
Here's where the stock is grazed;
Here's where the monstruos clams are dug
Instead of 'long the shore.
Great deeds are done around the stove
In Graham's grocery store.

The women folks around the town
Low if these great affairs
Would happen close to home
They'd all be millionaires.
But while they are luggin' up the wood from out of doors,
But while they are luggin up
The wood from out of doors.
The warriors are fighting still—
In Graham's grocery store.

Nights they come and nights they go,
Spring, summer winter fall,
Still they meet there regular,
The seaters one and all.
I'd tell you more of what they do,
And rake them fellers o'er,
But now I've got to go, and take my seat
In Graham's grocery store

THEY INJURE CHILDREN.

ORDINARY CATHARTICS AND PILLS AND HARSH PHYSIC CAUSE DISTRESSING COMPLAINTS.

You cannot be over-careful in the selection of medicine for children. Only the very gentlest bowel medicine should ever be given. Ordinary pills, cathartics and purgatives are too apt to do more harm than good. They cause griping, nausea and other distressing after-effects that are frequently health destroying and a life-lasting annoyance.

We personally recommend and guarantee Rexall Orderlies as the safest and most dependable remedy for constipation and associate bowel disorders. We have such absolute faith in the supreme virtues of this remedy that we sell it on our guarantee of money back in every instance where it fails to give entire satisfaction, and we urge all in need of such medicine to try it at our risk.

Rexall Orderlies contain an entirely new ingredient which is odorless, tasteless and colorless. It embraces all the best qualities of the soothing, laxative, strengthening and healing remedial active principles of the best known intestinal regulator tonics.

Rexall Orderlies are extremely pleasant to take, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhœa, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very natural action upon the glands and organs with which they come in contact, act as a positive and regulative tonic upon the relax, dry muscular coat of the bowel, remove irritation, dryness and soreness, overcome weakness, and tone and strengthen the nerves and muscles, and restore the bowels and associate organs to more vigorous, and healthy activity.

Rexall Orderlies not only cure constipation, but they remove the cause of this ailment. They also overcome the necessity of constantly taking laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition.

There is really no similar medicine so good as Rexall Orderlies, especially for children, aged and delicate persons. They are prepared in tablet form and in two sizes of packages; 12 tablets, 10c., and 36 tablets, 25c. G. W. Fisher, Druggist, DeLand, Fla.
