Trained Vocalist Here

All those interested in music will be glad to know that Titusville may have the benefit of securing the services of superior singer and vocal instructor.

Miss M. Klebs, a cultivated and refined vocalist, a native of Germany, who for the past six years had her vocal studio at the Rembrant, New York, is spending the winter at Merritt.

She is desirous of organizing a class in vocal music and as she comes highly recommended our people have an opportunity of securing the services of one well trained and accomplished as a vocalist.

Miss Klebs, who studied the elder Lamperti method several years in Italy, is also endorsed by Madame L. Cappiani to teach her excellent system for voice placing.

Madame L. Cappiani's book "Practical Hints and Helps for Perfection in Singing" has just been published in New York—meeting with great success.

Miss Klebs, who is also an accomplished linguist, is willing to arrange for classes in German, French or Italian.

Anyone desiring further information please address THE STAR office.

Special Methodist Revival

Preaching Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and in the evening, 7 o'clock. Revival services all through the week at 2:30 and 7 p. m., Evangelist W. H. McLeod, of Fort Myers, will do the preaching, he is expected Monday or Tuesday.

Mr. McLeod has had quite an experience catching alligators, killing deer, turkey and other wild game, and also driving oxen. You cannot well afford to miss hearing him preach. He is now in a meeting with Dr. Hudson in Charlotte Harbor. Ask God's blessing upon these services.

For Sale

A pen of eight fine thorough bred White Wyandotte chickens, all except two full grown. Further particulars address M., care STAR office.

Shot Deer From Steamboat Deck

While coming up the river last Friday on his return from Bassinger, Capt. L. E. Minx, of the steamer Juanita, shot and killed a fine buck from the deck of his boat. On the trip down Captain Minx reports that he saw quite a number of deer, and he failed to get them, the presumption being they were only wounded and managed to scramble away in the weeds. He says he saw at least a dozen deer along the river banks on his trip down and back.

Wood For Sale

Pine or oak, any length. Also plowing and harrowing. See or address J. W. Jamison, Titusville, Fla.

"The Devil" Played in Titusville

"The Devil" was played to a packed hall in the Titusville opera house last Saturday night and everyone was well pleased with both the play and the actors.

Mr. Whiteman, in his splendid portrayal of "Dr. Milo," the leading character, was everything and even more than could be expected in that exacting part.

Myrtle Hulbert, as Olga, has one of the most difficult roles to play, and the success of the drama at times rests upon her fine handling of the emotional parts and quick changes.

Miss Emerson, who takes the part of Nina, was formerly a resident of Fort Pierce, and is a daughter of Mr. Chas. S. Emerson, formerly publisher of the News of that place. Miss Emerson has only recently gone on the stage, but has talent and is bound to succeed.

The company was well pleased with their reception in Titusville and spent Sunday here.
