

SOCIETY

During the moonlight nights this week launch parties to the beach and other points have been in order, and the young people have enjoyed themselves immensely.

A recital to the public will be given at the town hall during Xmas week by the students of the School of Music, conducted by Mrs. Howell Atwater. Special instruction is being given in technique and expression of selections from Mozart, Mendelssohn, Orff, Gurlitt Schuman, Lisner and other famous composers, by Mrs. Atwater, who is a teacher of ability. At the beginning of the new year there will be opened to students a course in musical history, taking up the study of the lives and works of the composers of fame.

Mesdames W. E. VanLandingham and W. L. Keefer entertained the Baptist Workers Wednesday afternoon at the home of the former. Over thirty ladies were present and the afternoon was pleasantly spent with music and conversation. The hostesses served refreshments, consisting of fruit salad and several kinds of cake, which were thoroughly enjoyed by those present, who were: Mesdames Lennard, Lamont, R. E. Mims, Tubbs, Edwards, Atwater, C. M. Mims, Beville, Lowry, Kimball, A. A. Hendry, Durkee, Hugh Beville, Moore, Paxton, Tyler and mother, Hogg, Sample, Lardner Horton, Whyte, Brown, Dutton, Chapman, Bailey, Gould, Tomkies; Misses Kimball, Geiger, Harris, Tyler, Turner, Nelson, and Rev. Mr. Tomkies and Herbert VanLandingham.

Personal

Pickled Beef at Goldsmith's.
C. A. Robinson, one of the pineapple kings of Eden was in Fort Pierce Saturday.
Cut glass at the very lowest prices at Fort Pierce Drug Co.
F. R. Trice, of Jensen was in town Tuesday on business before the county commissioners.
Buy your Christmas candies from Goldsmith.
The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Meredith died Sunday and was buried Monday morning.
Joe Dawson, a popular knight of the grip was in town Tuesday visiting our hardware merchants.

County Surveyor J. O. Fries, of Titusville, stopped in Fort Pierce yesterday. See our line of fancy Candies in boxes, something new at W. E. Goldsmith.
Arthur Jennings left yesterday on a trip to Miami, as pilot of a pleasure yacht.
R. D. Holmes, of Fort Drum, was in town this week attending the commissioners' meeting.
The new building for the A. E. Trowell Drug Co. is nearing completion and they will soon be opening goods.
John Traynor, E. G. Gustafsen, Shade Keen and Will Johnson left the first of the week to work on the new church at Stuart.

Contractor Brewer returned yesterday morning from Stuart and reports that work is progressing nicely on the new Methodist church.
F. C. Poppell, of the Narrows, tax assessor elect, spent a couple days in Fort Pierce this week, having his bond examined by the county commissioners.
J. M. Orrel, of White City, and B. F. Hardesty of Sebastian, members of the school board were attending the meeting of that body here on Monday.

In our last issue we stated that Mr. Stanley Kitching of Sturat, had passed away. This was entirely an error, and should have read Mrs. Sylvanus Kitching.

Fort Pierce has been full of commercial travelers during the week and it reminds one of the pineapple season, when this is the mecca of buyers, transportation men, etc.

Capt. A. W. Buie, the general freight agent of the Short Line to the West, passed through on the north-bound train Tuesday and shook hands with a number of his friends at the depot.

D. E. Austin, the real estate man, was at his office in Fort Pierce this week. During the past few weeks Mr. Austin has been in St. Augustine, where his wife was very ill at the hospital.

Mr. Tedder and family, of Madison, arrived in town Wednesday night. Mr. Tedder, who is an experienced druggist, will have charge of the prescription department of the A. E. Trowell Drug Co.

Jas. A. Newsome arrived here Tuesday night from Fort Meade to look after his furniture business. He is well satisfied with the business here, and will place a manager in charge and return home as soon as possible.

Church Notices,

Monday evening last was the initial of a series of prayer meetings at the Baptist church and was attended by over twenty persons and great interest was manifested. The lamps have been thoroughly cleaned and good light, which has been scarce for some time, now makes everybody smile for joy. The prayer meetings will be continued every Monday evening following the first and third Sunday at 7:30 p. m., at which times Rev. E. E. Woodson is here.

The Sunday school of the Baptist church has announced their Christmas tree and entertainment to occur on Monday evening, December 24, to which everybody is invited.

The Sunday school is growing and good music and singing is appreciated by all, and everybody who does not regularly attend some other Sunday school is invited to come at 10 a. m. every Sunday.

Services Sunday by the Rev. George Moore, D. D., at St. Paul's church, Eden-Tibbals, at 10.30 a. m. The second Sunday in the month is the day for morning service at All Saints church, Waveland. Jensen service at 2.30 p. m. Seats are free and all are welcome.

St. Andrews, Fort Pierce, Sunday school at 10 a. m.; lay service at 11 a. m., by Mr. W. T. Harbin.

Wednesday evening service, 7:30. The children of the Sunday school will please turn out in full force to learn their Christmas carols for Christmas Eve.

Services in the Methodist church next Sunday will be as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m. Rev. Burke Culpepper will address the children. Preaching at 11 a. m. by Rev. J. B. Culpepper. At 3 p. m. service for men only and preaching service at 7 p. m. by Rev. Culpepper, the noted evangelist.

The Rev. Father Curley, of DeLand, will arrive in Fort Pierce Monday evening, December 10, and celebrate mass in the town hall, Tuesday morning at 7 a. m. Father Curley will be pleased to meet all the Catholics in the town.

CHRISTMAS GOODS OPENING

Santa Claus' Arrival

Santa Claus is coming to the Big Store on the Corner. Part of his large shipment of Toys and beautiful gifts have arrived and now

ON EXHIBITION

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

We have also en route a large shipment of Bamboo Furniture, comprising Tables, Bookstands, Screens, Frames, Tabarets and other articles to complete the furnishings of your homes.

Our Staple Lines include specials for the Christmas time in

Collars, Belts, Handbags, Coin Purses

Our line of Christmas Cards is selected with care, and we carry the largest line of Souvenir Cards in town, including ten Fort Pierce subjects.

Our Shoe Department is kept up to date by weekly arrivals. Red Seal Shoes are the Standard and we guarantee satisfaction. We cannot mention all our lines, so come in and look us over: you will be pleased and interested.

W. J. NESBITT

Masonic Building,

Fort Pierce, Florida

IN MEMORY OF J. H. JEAKINS

Resolutions Passed by Masons and Odd Fellows.

Whereas, our Heavenly Father, in His infinite love and wisdom, has removed from our midst, our esteemed and beloved Brother, J. Harvey Jeakins, therefore be it Resolved by the members of Atlantic Lodge No. 30, I. O. O. F., That in the death of Brother Jeakins this lodge has lost a true and worthy brother, the community a good and useful citizen and his family a kind and loving husband and father.

Resolved, That in respect to his memory and in appreciation of his honorable and upright life, this lodge extends to his family their deepest sympathy; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing resolutions be spread upon the records of the lodge and published in the St. Lucie County Tribune and the FORT PIERCE NEWS, and a copy of the same be forwarded to the wife of our deceased brother, and the charter of this lodge draped in mourning for a period of thirty days.

E. G. GUSTAFSEN,
AL. SNELGROVE,
A. E. TROWELL,
Committee.

Whereas, In the mysterious providence of that Divine Power that rules the destiny of mankind, our brother and Senior Deacon, Harvey Jeakins, has been called from labor in our earthly lodge here below to that celestial lodge in the great beyond; while we bow in humble submission to the full sway of the Unseen, we mourn his early departure in the full prime of vigorous manhood, a worthy and honorable citizen of our community, a faithful, efficient and punctual officer, a true and unswerving friend, and companion, and a loving and affectionate husband and father.

Therefore be it resolved, That we tender the heartfelt sympathy of this lodge to the family of our deceased brother and commend them to the mercy and protecting care of Him who tempers the winds to the shorn lamb.

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of our deceased brother under the seal of the lodge.

That a copy be sent to THE FORT PIERCE NEWS and to the St. Lucie Tribune with a request for publication.

That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the lodge.

G. E. DUTTON,
F. L. HEMMINGS,
A. M. SAMPLE,
Committee.

Dentistry

in all its branches on board Dentos. Dr. J. Edward Ulrich, now at Tibbals, will be at Jensen first of next week.

Later on stopping at Stuart.

EXECUTION SALE.

By virtue of an execution out of the Circuit Court of the Seventh Judicial Circuit of Florida in and for St. Lucie County, on the sixth day of December, A. D. 1906, in a cause where John Hendry was plaintiff and Frank Tuppen, defendant, I have levied upon and will sell for cash, on Monday, the seventh day of January, A. D. 1907, and within the legal hours of sale, at the courthouse door, in Fort Pierce, St. Lucie County, the following described property: The S½ of the NW¼ of the SW¼ of Sec. 17 and SE¼ of the NE¼ of the SE¼ of Sec. 18, all in Township 35 S, Range 40 E, containing thirty acres, more or less. R. W. LENNARD, Sheriff

THE FOUR PICKERTS COMPANY

Good Plays by Good Players Will Open the Holidays.

The Pickerts are coming for a three nights' engagement, December 20, 21 and 22, at the Improvement Club hall. The Pickerts have been here before and have delighted Fort Pierce audiences. They will open with a rattling good comedy entitled "The Westerner and His Wife," with a cast of sixteen characters, among which, in the leading roles, will be the well-known Pickerts. Announcement will be made next week of the other plays, all of which are the best on the road. Tickets will be on sale at the drug store on the morning of the 17th, and the public will do well to secure reserved seats early. Prices will be as formerly 50 cents for reserved seats, 35 cents for general admission and 25 cents for children under 10 years age. The rule as to the protection of the reserved section from noise or annoyance will be carried out, and the public need not fear buying front seats in the reserved section.

Pine Apple Crates.

We have to offer for the season of 1907 Two Hundred Thousand Pine Apple crates. Price 13c delivered in car load lots to all stations between Eau Gallie and Stuart inclusive, and 13½c to all stations between Hobe Sound and Delray inclusive. This price is for 9-32 inch slats. Can furnish slats 5-16 inch at ½c per crate extra.

East Coast Lumber & Supply Co.
Eau Gallie, Fla.

J. S. Cureton of Eden, spent Tuesday in town in the interest of the Knights of Honor. He is working toward the organization of a lodge at this place.

CLOSING OUT

Commencing TUESDAY, DECEMBER 11, and continuing until sold, I will dispose of my entire stock of

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

At Cost

Deciding to retire from the business, I offer at cost my large stock, consisting of the following articles:

CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS, CAPS, DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, GROCERIES

T. B. HILLIARD, Orange Ave.

This Ad. Will Only Appear One Time

Alfred Newlander, civil engineer and dredge contractor for the East Coast railway arrived in town Tuesday to look after the dredging work being done by the company west of Fort Pierce.
French's Rose Talcum Powder, Spiro Powder, Hidd's Honey and Almond Cream, Crown Cream, Rogers' and Gallet's French Rice Powder, Kosmeo, Woodbury's Face Powder, Pompadour, Oriental Cream, Malvina Cream. These are some of the high-class toilet articles that can be found at the Fort Pierce Drug Co.